PLEADINGS—VERIFICATION OF.

§8383. Signing and Verification of Pleadings. §91.—91. Every pleading shall be subscribed by the party or his attorney, and, except a demurrer, shall also be verified by the party, his agent or attorney, to the effect that he believes it to be true. The verification must be made by the affidavit of the party, or, if there be several parties united in interest and pleading together, by one at least of such parties, if such party be within the county and capable of making the affidavit; otherwise the affidavit may be made by the agent or attorney of the party. The affidavit may also be made by the agent or attorney if the action or defense be founded on a written instrument for the payment of money only, and such instrument be in the possession of the agent or attorney, or if all the material allegations of the pleading be within the personal knowledge of the agent or attorney. When the affidavit is made by the agent or attorney it must set forth the reason of his making it. When a corporation is a party, the verification may be made by any officer thereof, upon whom service of a notice might be made; and when the state, or any officer thereof in its behalf, is a party, the verification may be made by any person to whom all the material allegations of the pleading are known.

When the party is absent from or a non-resident of the county in which suit is brought the verification may be made by the agent or attorney of said party. L. '88 29.

Mortgagee may maintain replevin, Bancroft-Whitney Co. v. Gowan 24 W. 66.

Replevin cannot be maintained against one in adverse possession for logs severed from realty, Clarke v. Clyde 25 W. 661.

Replevin will not lie against corporate officer regularly in possession, Standard Gold Mining Co. v. Byers 31 W. 100.

§3423. Bond of Plaintiff and Levy by Sheriff—Service on Defendant.

§144.—144. Upon the receipt of the affidavit, and a bond to the defendant, executed by one or more sufficient sureties, approved by the sheriff, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action, for the return of property to the defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may, for any cause, be recovered against the plaintiff, the sheriff shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit and bond, by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or his agent, from whose possession the property is taken; or, if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either, with some person of suitable age and discretion; or, if neither have any known place of abode, by putting them in the postoffice, directed to the defendant, at the postoffice nearest his place of residence.

Under §§8425, 8430, an action for conversion may be maintained against an officer holding property in an action to which claimant had not been made party, Nasser v. Gaston, 70 W. 685.

Defendant though he has given counter-bond may have action for breach, Meigs v. Keach 1 W. T. 305.

Liability on bond is limited to action in which bond is given, Boyer v. Fowler 1 W. T. 102.

Judgment cannot be given on bond if §8424. Plaintiffs Sureties Must Justify if Defendant Does Not Give Counter-Bond. §145.—145. The defendant may, within three days after the service of a copy of the affidavit and bond, give notice to the sheriff that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties; if he fail to do so, he shall be deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties shall justify on notice, in like manner as bail on arrest, and the sheriff shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties until the objection to them is either waived as above provided, or until they shall justify, or new sureties shall be substituted and justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he cannot reclaim the property, as provided in the next section.

§8425. Counter-bond May Be Given Within Three Days. §146.—146. At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof, upon giving to the sheriff a bond executed by one or more sufficient sureties to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may, for any cause, be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required within three days after the taking and service of notice to the defendant, it shall be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in section one hundred and fifty-one.

Action maintained on redelivery bond because property deteriorated—partial return, Hallidie Mach. Co. v. Whidby Island Co. 73 W. 403.

Bond signed by attorney without authority binds principal and sureties—duty to redeliver though third party interferes, Arthur v. Sherman 11 W. 254.

§8426. Defendant's Sureties Must Justify or Property Delivered to Plaintiff. §147.—147. The defendant's sureties, upon a notice to the plaintiff or his attorney, of not less than two, or more than six days, shall justify in the same manner as bail upon arrest; upon such justification the sheriff shall deliver the property to the defendant. The sheriff shall be responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify, or until justification is completed, or expressly waived, and may retain the property until that time; but if they, or others in their place, fail to justify at the time and place appointed, he shall deliver the property to the plaintiff.

Action on redelivery bond will not preclude action against sheriff if bond not genuine—if sureties have not justified former suit, Magnus v. Woolery 14 W. 43.

§8427. Qualification of Sureties. §148.—148. The qualification of sureties and their justification shall be as prescribed in respect to bail upon an order of arrest.

Justification in arrest and bail, §7366.

§8428. Sheriff May Break Buildings to Make Levy. §149.—149. If the property or any part thereof be concealed in a building or enclosure, the sheriff shall publicly demand its delivery. If it be not delivered, he shall cause the building or enclosure to be broken open and take the property into his possession, and if necessary he may call to his aid the power of his county.

Breaking building for levy, justice's court, §9621.

§8429. Sheriff Shall Deliver Property. §150.—150. When the sheriff shall have taken the property as herein provided, he shall keep it in a secure place and deliver it to the party entitled thereto, upon receiving his lawful fees for taking, and his necessary expenses for keeping the same.

Claim in execution, etc., §7843; in justice's court, §9623.

RULES OF THE SUPERIOR COURTS.

§8431a. Pleadings, Copies, Etc. Rule 1. (a) All pleadings shall be plainly written or printed and paged. Each cause of action, defense, reply or counter-claim shall be plainly and separately stated and consecutively numbered, and shall be divided into paragraphs according to the subject matter, and each paragraph shall be numbered consecutively. Copies of any pleading shall conform in paragraphing and numbering to the original. Copies of all motions, demurrers and pleadings, except complaints, must be served on the opposite party, or his attorney, unless such service is expressly waived in writing. At the trial of any issue of law or fact, or upon the hearing of any motion, the files shall be for the use of the court, except as to affidavits and exhibits.

(b) Pleadings in all cases must be filed on or before the time fixed by the notice of the adverse party for the hearing of any motion or demurrer addressed thereto. The party whose pleading is not filed within such time may be adjudged in default.

tion therefor served, together with a copy of the proposed amended pleading, upon the adverse party. Upon the hearing of the application the court may, in its discretion, impose terms; but a party may at any time before the adverse party has answered or replied, and before the case is set for trial, amend his complaint, answer or reply once without leave and without costs by serving a copy of such amended pleading on the adverse party. No amendments shall be made to any pleading by erasing or adding words to the original on file, except by leave of court first had.

§8431c. Time of Pleading. Rule 3. (a) When a pleading is amended, the adverse party shall have three days in which to plead thereto, unless a different time is fixed by special rule or order.

(b) When a demurrer or motion has been determined, the party to whom the decision is adverse shall have three days in which to plead, unless a different time is fixed by special rule or order.

(c) Unless a different time is fixed by statute or special rule or order of court, a party against whom a pleading is filed must respond thereto within three days from the time the same is served upon him or service waived.

Default. Rule 4. A party may respond to any pleading at any time before a default is claimed. A default shall be deemed claimed whenever a motion therefor is filed, accompanied with the affidavit of the party or his attorney, claiming such default, that no appearance has been made in the action; but will not be granted against a party who has appeared in the action by attorney, until the motion has been served.

§8431d. Divorce Actions. Rule 5. No divorce cause shall be tried until after thirty days from the filing of the complaint and until after twenty days from the service upon the prosecuting attorney (in default cases) of the complaint, summons and motion for default and affidavit in support thereof. The court shall sign no decree in a divorce cause until the judgment fee has been paid by the successful party, and the clerk shall at once report such decree.

§8431e. Motions. Rule 6. (a) When a motion is supported by affidavits or other papers, it shall specify the papers to be used by the moving party and the grounds of the motion. Copies of affidavits and exhibits shall be served with the motion.

(b) A party moving to strike out any portion of a pleading shall, in the motion, specify the paragraphs or parts of paragraphs asked to be stricken out; and such motion must be served and filed within the time fixed by rule of court.

(c) The pendency of a demurrer or motion to strike out any part of a pleading, or to require a pleading to be made more definite and certain, shall enlarge the time to answer or reply until the decision upon such demurrer or motion.

(d) Not more than ten minutes shall be allowed counsel on each side for arguing a demurrer or motion unless further time be granted by special order of the court.

(e) All motions directed to any pleading must be made and presented to the court for hearing at one and the same time, the grounds therefor being separately stated, and

§8431f. Assignment of Causes. Rule 8. (a) When a cause is set and called for trial, it must be tried or dismissed, unless good cause is shown for a continuance. But the court may in a proper case, and upon terms, reset the same.

(b) In counties having but one judge, suits in chancery and actions at law to be tried by the court without the intervention of a jury will not be set down or called for trial shall be attached and properly indorsed under one cover; and no motion directed to the same pleading shall be thereafter heard or considered except by special permission of the court. A demurrer shall be deemed a waiver of all grounds for any motion directed to the same pleading.

while a jury is in attendance upon the court, except by mutual consent, and at a time when no jury case is ready for trial.

(c) In setting cases for trial, preference will be given to criminal over civil cases, and cases where the defendant or a witness is in confinement will have precedence over other cases.

(d) Except by consent or special order of the court, no civil action requiring a jury will be tried in any jury session unless the same be at issue on the first day of such session.

§8431g. Examinations, Exceptions, etc. Rule 9. When two or more attorneys are upon the same side trying a case, the attorney conducting the examination of a witness shall continue until the witness is excused from the stand; and all objections made or exceptions taken during the examination of such witness shall be made or announced by the attorney who is conducting the examination or cross-examination.

§8431h. Stipulations. Rule 10. No agreement or consent between parties or attorneys in respect to the proceedings in a case, the purport of which is disputed, will be regarded by the court (except upon a motion to disbar an attorney), unless same shall have been made and assented to in open court and entered in the minutes, or unless the evidence thereof shall be in writing and subscribed by the attorney denying the same.

ness on behalf of his client and give evidence on the merits, he shall not argue the case to the jury, unless by permission of the court.

§8431j. Proposed Instructions to Juries. Rule 12. (a) In every cause which is being tried to the court and a jury it shall be the duty of counsel for the respective parties, before or immediately after the first witness is sworn and before any evidence is introduced in the trial of the cause, to file with the clerk and hand to the judge presiding a clear and succinct statement of the issues to be tried as set forth in the pleadings in the cause.

(b) Before or immediately after the first witness is sworn for the side not having to sustain the burden of proof, and before any testimony of such witness is given, in every cause which is being tried to the court and a jury, it shall be the duty of counsel for the respective parties to file in triplicate with the clerk, one copy for the court, one for the clerk and one for opposing counsel, any and all proposed instructions to the jury covering the law as disclosed by the pleadings and as developed by the evidence offered and admitted by the court up to that time.

Counsel may thereafter, at any time before the court instructs the jury, file in triplicate with the clerk, one copy for the court, one for the clerk and one for opposing counsel, further and additional proposed instructions to the jury upon any or all questions of law which may be developed by any evidence admitted by the court after the first witness for the side not having the burden of proof has testified.

All proposed instructions must be typewritten; each proposed instruction must be written on a separate sheet of paper; all such proposed instructions shall be unnumbered.

Any proposed instruction which is handed to the court at a time later than is directed by this rule may be disregarded by the judge presiding. But in that event the judge shall write on the margin of the paper on which the said proposed instruction is printed the fact that he refuses to consider the same for the reason that the requirements of tion therefor served, together with a copy of the proposed amended pleading, upon the adverse party. Upon the hearing of the application the court may, in its discretion, impose terms; but a party may at any time before the adverse party has answered or replied, and before the case is set for trial, amend his complaint, answer or reply once without leave and without costs by serving a copy of such amended pleading on the adverse party. No amendments shall be made to any pleading by erasing or adding words to the original on file, except by leave of court first had.

(b) When a demurrer or motion has been determined, the party to whom the decision is adverse shall have three days in which to plead, unless a different time is fixed by special rule or order.

(c) Unless a different time is fixed by statute or special rule or order of court, a party against whom a pleading is filed must respond thereto within three days from the time the same is served upon him or service waived.

Default. Rule 4. A party may respond to any pleading at any time before a default is claimed. A default shall be deemed claimed whenever a motion therefor is filed, accompanied with the affidavit of the party or his attorney, claiming such default, that no appearance has been made in the action; but will not be granted against a party who has appeared in the action by attorney, until the motion has been served.

§8431d. Divorce Actions. Rule 5. No divorce cause shall be tried until after thirty days from the filing of the complaint and until after twenty days from the service upon the prosecuting attorney (in default cases) of the complaint, summons and motion for default and affidavit in support thereof. The court shall sign no decree in a divorce cause until the judgment fee has been paid by the successful party, and the clerk shall at once report such decree.

~~§8431e. Motions. Rule 6. (a) When a motion is supported by affidavits or other papers, it shall specify the papers to be used by the moving party and the grounds of the motion. Copies of affidavits and exhibits shall be served with the motion.~~

§8431e. Motions. Rule 6. (a) When a motion is supported by affidavits or other papers, it shall specify the papers to be used by the moving party and the grounds of the motion. Copies of affidavits and exhibits shall be served with the motion.

(b) A party moving to strike out any portion of a pleading shall, in the motion, specify the paragraphs or parts of paragraphs asked to be stricken out; and such motion must be served and filed within the time fixed by rule of court.

(c) The pendency of a demurrer or motion to strike out any part of a pleading, or to require a pleading to be made more definite and certain, shall enlarge the time to answer or reply until the decision upon such demurrer or motion.

(d) Not more than ten minutes shall be allowed counsel on each side for arguing a demurrer or motion unless further time be granted by special order of the court.

(e) All motions directed to any pleading must be made and presented to the court for hearing at one and the same time, the grounds therefor being separately stated, and shall be attached and properly indorsed under one cover; and no motion directed to the same pleading shall be thereafter heard or considered except by special permission of the court. A demurrer shall be deemed a waiver of all grounds for any motion directed to the same pleading.

Notice. Rule 7. The judges of the courts in the several counties may, respectively, at their option, by special rule, designate a day or days of each week during which the court is held in the county as "motion day."

regarded by the court (except upon a motion to disbar an attorney), unless same shall have been made and assented to in open court and entered in the minutes, or unless the evidence thereof shall be in writing and subscribed by the attorney denying the same.

ness on behalf of his client and give evidence on the merits, he shall not argue the case to the jury, unless by permission of the court.

§8431j. Proposed Instructions to Juries. Rule 12. (a) In every cause which is being tried to the court and a jury it shall be the duty of counsel for the respective parties, before or immediately after the first witness is sworn and before any evidence is introduced in the trial of the cause, to file with the clerk and hand to the judge presiding a clear and succinct statement of the issues to be tried as set forth in the pleadings in the cause.

(b) Before or immediately after the first witness is sworn for the side not having to sustain the burden of proof, and before any testimony of such witness is given, in every cause which is being tried to the court and a jury, it shall be the duty of counsel for the respective parties to file in triplicate with the clerk, one copy for the court, one for the clerk and one for opposing counsel, any and all proposed instructions to the jury covering the law as disclosed by the pleadings and as developed by the evidence offered and admitted by the court up to that time.

Counsel may thereafter, at any time before the court instructs the jury, file in triplicate with the clerk, one copy for the court, one for the clerk and one for opposing counsel, further and additional proposed instructions to the jury upon any or all questions of law which may be developed by any evidence admitted by the court after the first witness for the side not having the burden of proof has testified.

All proposed instructions must be typewritten; each proposed instruction must be written on a separate sheet of paper; all such proposed instructions shall be unnumbered.

Any proposed instruction which is handed to the court at a time later than is directed by this rule may be disregarded by the judge presiding. But in that event the judge shall write on the margin of the paper on which the said proposed instruction is printed the fact that he refuses to consider the same for the reason that the requirements of this rule have not been complied with.

§8431k. Signing of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Rule 13. Unless an emergency is shown to exist, the court will not sign findings of fact and conclusions of law until the defeated party or parties shall have had three days notice of the time and place of the submission thereof, and shall have been served with copies of the proposed findings and conclusions.

§8431m. New Trials. Rule 14. The time within which a motion for a new trial shall be served and filed in a cause tried by the court without a jury shall not begin to run until the findings of fact and conclusions of law therein shall have been signed by the court.

§8431n. Injunctions, Attachments and Receivers. Rule 15. On application for injunction or motion to dissolve an injunction or discharge an attachment, or to appoint or discharge a receiver, the notice thereof shall designate the kind of evidence to be introduced on the hearing. This rule shall not be construed as pertaining to applications for restraining orders or for appointment of temporary receivers. If the application is to be heard on affidavit, copies thereof must be served by the moving upon the adverse party at least three days before the hearing.

Oral testimony shall not be taken on such hearing unless permission of the court is first obtained and notice of such permission served upon the adverse party at least three days before the hearing.

§8431o. Receivers—Executors—Administrators. Rule 16. Administrators, executors, receivers or other persons having charge, or settlement of any estate applying to the court for an order allowing a claim to be compromised and settled for less than its face value, the court will appoint a day not less than five days after such application for hearing same, unless for good cause shown less time should intervene, and will direct such notice as may be deemed proper.

All reports of receivers which involve an accounting shall be filed at least ten days before the hearing. On filing and presentation of such report the court will appoint a time for hearing the same, and will direct such notice to be given as will most likely advise all interested parties of such hearing.

§8431p. Habeas Corpus. Rule 17. In all habeas corpus proceedings a copy of the petition shall be served with the writ upon the person to whom the writ is directed, and if the writ be directed to the sheriff or other public officer it shall be the duty of such officer to immediately notify the prosecuting attorney of the time and place the writ is made returnable, and deliver to him a copy of the petition.

§8431r. Return of Sale of Real Property. Rule 18. In all cases, upon the return of a sale of real property by an executor, administrator or guardian, the court shall fix a day for a hearing thereof, of which notice of at least ten days shall be given by the clerk, by notices posted in three public places in the county or by publication in a newspaper, or both, as the court shall direct.

§8431s. Counsel Fees. Rule 19. When it becomes necessary for the court to allow attorneys' fees in connection with any probate matter or proceeding, the attorney for whom such allowance is asked must file in writing with the application therefor an itemized statement, verified on oath, showing the services for which such fees are asked. Said statement must be a showing of the total amount of the assets of the estate, the total amount of sales of real estate, the amount of each claim allowed upon which the advice of the attorney as to the merits of the particular claim has been given, and the amount of money of the estate collected by the attorney without suit, giving separately the amount of each claim collected, also any other item for which additional compensation is asked.

Form of Entries. Rule 20. Counsel obtaining an order, judgment or decree will furnish a form of the same when so requested by the court.

Order. Rule 21. (a) Attorneys desiring to address the court shall arise and be recognized. They shall not approach the bench for the purpose of having the court sign any order, without having first addressed the court and obtained permission.

(b) Attorneys must not indulge in a general conversation among themselves during a session of the court. Any violation of this rule will subject the attorney to a fine.

§8431t. Duties of the Clerk—Depositions. Rule 22. (a) Upon the receipt of a deposition in any case, the clerk shall forthwith indorse the date of the reception upon the wrapper thereof, and shall enter the same upon the appearance docket. Such deposition shall remain unopened until the court shall order the same to be published, which will be at the request of either party. When publication is ordered, the clerk shall indorse upon the same: "This deposition filed (giving the date on the wrapper) and published this — day of —, 19—." The wrapper shall be preserved by the clerk without unnecessary mutilation.

Entry of Judgments—Costs—Retaxation. (b) He shall not enter judgment or decree until it is signed by the judge, and the same shall then be entered for the sum found due or the relief awarded, with costs and disbursements, if any, to be taxed. If no cost bill is filed by the party to whom costs are awarded within ten days after the entry of the judgment or decree, the clerk shall proceed to tax the following costs and disbursements, namely: 1. The statutory attorney's fee. 2. The clerk's fees. 3. The sheriff's fees. 4. Other disbursements, the amount whereof plainly appears on the papers in the case—

And shall enter the sum thereof in the judgment entry and execution docket. If a cost bill is filed, he shall enter as the amount to be recovered the amount claimed in such cost bill, unless a motion to retax costs be filed within ten days.

Bonds to Be Filed. (c) Every bond taken or filed in any proceeding (except for costs) the clerk shall at once, as of the date of filing it, copy and enter at large upon the journal. The clerk shall indorse upon every affidavit or undertaking filed to procure a writ of attachment, the day, hour and minute of filing thereof.

Transcripts on Appeal, Transmission. (d) In cases appealed to the Supreme Court, he shall not forward the statement of facts therein to the clerk of the Supreme Court until the time for filing respondent's brief has elapsed, except by consent in writing of respondent's counsel.

§8431u. Duties of the Sheriff. Rule 23. Immediately upon the receipt of a writ of attachment, the sheriff shall indorse thereon, in ink, the day, hour and minute when the same first came into his hands.

Summer Recess. Rule 24. Between the first day of July and the first day of September shall be vacation, and no cases will be set for trial, or tried, except by order of the judge or by consent of all parties and the court.

§8431v. Construction of Rules. Rule 25. Wherever used in these rules, the word "court" shall be construed to mean the judge thereof, and the word "judge" shall be construed to mean the court, when necessary for the proper application of the rule. Wherever used in these rules, the word "party" shall be construed to mean his attorney in the cause, and the word "attorney" to mean his client in the cause, when necessary for the proper application of the rule. And whenever used in these rules, the word "pleadings" shall be construed to comprise any or all other papers in a cause to which the rule shall be properly applicable.

Suspension of Rules. Rule 26. Any of the foregoing rules may be suspended by written stipulation of parties, approved by the court.

Special Rules. Rule 27. A Superior Court may adopt any special rule or rules necessary for its county not inconsistent with these general rules.

MANNER OF COMMENCEMENT OF CIVIL ACTIONS.

Substitute—AN ACT to provide for the manner of commencing civil actions in the superior courts, and bringing the same to trial. Approved March 15, 1893. General Repeal. Laws '93 p 407.

§8432. Commencement of Actions by Summons. §1. Civil actions in the several superior courts of this state shall be commenced by the service of a summons, as hereinafter provided, or by filing a complaint with the county clerk as clerk, of the court: Provided, That unless service has been had on the defendant prior to the filing of the complaint, the plaintiff shall cause one or more of the defendants to be served personally, or commence service by publication within ninety days from the date of filing the complaint. L. '95 170.

Attachment, §7379; forcible entry and detainer, §7968.

There is but one subject expressed in the title of the following act, which provides for "commencing" and "bringing to trial" civil actions, McMaster v. Thresher Co. 10 W. 147.

This act, with the following act, does not modify the forcible entry and detainer act requiring answer to summons in eight days, State ex rel. Smith v. Parker 12 W. 686.

Presumption from delay of want of diligence in prosecution overcome by showing excuse, Gibbens v. Nipp 80 W. 332.

Service in mechanics' lien foreclosure must be had within eight months—the life of the lien, City Sash & Door Co. v. Bunn 90 W. 669.

Action is pending when complaint served or filed and second action may be abated, Longmore v. Puget Sound Tr., L. & P. Co. 78 W. 468.

Complaint filed and default entered three years after complaint served—vacation of judgment refused, First National Bank v. Dudley 80 W. 376.

Second summons with amended complaint served is good as first service, Roznik v. Becker, 68 W. 63.

In mortgage foreclosure summons by publication must be begun within ninety days, Fuhrman v. Power 43 W. 533.

Publication must be commenced—new action after 90 days, McPhee v. Nida 60 W. 619.

Action held abandoned and dismissed after three years, First Nat. Bank v. Hunt 40 W. 190.

Resident defendant served, publication against nonresident in four months good, Johnston v. Gerry 34 W. 524.

§8433. Requisites of Summons. §2. The summons must be subscribed by the plaintiff or his attorney, and directed to the defendant requiring him to answer the complaint, and serve a copy of his answer on the person whose name is subscribed to the summons, at a place within the state therein specified, in which there is a postoffice, within twenty days after the service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service.

Summons by non-resident attorney entitled to practice in this State is valid— requisite and statutory form of summons, Wagnitz v. Ritter 31 W. 343. Act supersedes all former laws, and fixes time for answer at twenty days in all cases, McMaster v. Thresher Co. 10 W. 147; see, Merritt v. Corey 22 W. 444.

§8434. Contents of Summons. §3. The summons shall also contain:

(1) The title of the cause, specifying the name of the court in which the action is brought, the name of the county designated by the plaintiff as the place of trial, and the names of the parties to the action, plaintiff and defendant.

(2) A direction to the defendants, summoning them to appear within twenty days after service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service and defend the action.

(3) A notice that, in case of failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against them, according to the demand of the complaint. It shall be subscribed by the plaintiff, or his attorney, with the addition of his postoffice address, at which the papers in the action may be served on him by mail. There may, at the option of the plaintiff, be added at the foot, when the complaint is not served with the summons, and the only relief sought is the recovery of the money, whether upon tort or contract, a brief notice specifying the sum to be demanded by the complaint.

Section applies to insurance companies, State ex National Surety Co. v. Court 99 W. 573. This act is complete and supersedes all former laws and fixes the time for answer in all cases at twenty days. McMaster v. Thresher Co. 10 W. 147.

§8443. Order of Service. §2. Upon presenting an affidavit to the court or judge, showing to his satisfaction that the heirs of such deceased person are proper parties to the action, and that their names and residences cannot with use of reasonable diligence be ascertained, such court or judge may grant an order that service of the summons in such action be made on such "Unknown heirs" by publication thereof in the same manner as in actions against non-resident defendants.

§8444. Title of Cause—Service. §3. That, in any action brought to determine any adverse claim, estate, lien, or interest in real property, or to quiet title to real property, the plaintiff may include as a defendant in such action, and insert in the title thereof, in addition to the names of such persons or parties as appear of record to have, and other persons or parties who are known to have, some title, claim, estate, lien, or interest in the lands in controversy, the following viz.: "Also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien, or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein." And service of summons may be had upon all such unknown persons or parties defendant by publication as provided by law in case of non-resident defendants.

§8445. Rights of Unknown Heirs. §4. All such unknown heirs of deceased persons, and all such unknown persons or parties, so served by publication as in the preceding section of this act provided, shall have the same rights as are provided by law in case of all other defendants upon whom service is made by publication, and the action shall proceed against such unknown heirs, or unknown persons or parties, in the same manner as against defendants who are named, upon whom service is made by publication, and with like effect; and any such unknown heirs or unknown persons or parties who have or claim any right, estate, lien, or interest in the said real property in controversy, at the time of the commencement of the action, duly served as aforesaid, shall be bound and concluded by the judgment in such action, if the same is in favor of the plaintiff therein as effectually as if the action was brought against such defendant by his or her name and constructive service of summons obtained: Provided, however, That such judgment shall not bind such unknown heirs, or unknown persons or parties, defendant, unless the plaintiff shall file a notice of lis pendens in the office of the auditor of each county in which said real estate is located, in the manner provided by law, before commencing the publication of said summons.

§8446. Time and Manner of Service By Publication—Form. §5. The publication shall be made in a newspaper printed and published in the county where the action is brought (and if there be no newspaper in the county, then in a newspaper printed and published in an adjoining county, and if there is no such newspaper in an adjoining county, then in a newspaper printed and published at the capital of the state) once a week for six consecutive weeks. Provided, That publication of summons shall not be had until after the filing of the complaint; and the service of the summons shall be deemed complete at the expiration of the time prescribed for publication as aforesaid. The summons must be subscribed by the plaintiff or his attorney or attorneys. The summons shall contain the date of the first publication, and shall require the defendant or defendants upon whom service by publication is desired, to appear and answer the complaint within sixty days from the date of the first publication of such summons; and said summons for publication shall also contain a brief

§8452. Lis Pendens May Be Filed—Diligence of Party Filing Required.

§17. In an action affecting the title to real property the plaintiff, at the time of filing the complaint, or at any time afterwards, or whenever a writ of attachment of property shall be issued, or at any time afterwards, the plaintiff or a defendant, when he sets up an affirmative cause of action in his answer, and demands substantive relief at the time of filing his answer, or at any time afterwards, if the same be intended to affect real property, may file with the auditor of each county in which the property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a description of the real property in that county affected thereby. From the time of the filing only shall the pendency of the action be constructive notice to a purchaser or encumbrancer of the property affected thereby, and every person whose conveyance or encumbrance is subsequently executed or subsequently recorded shall be deemed a subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer, and shall be bound by all proceedings taken after the filing of such notice, to the same extent as if he were a party to the action. For the purpose of this section an action shall be deemed to be pending from the time of filing such notice: Provided, however, That such notice shall be of no avail unless it shall be followed by the first publication of the summons, or by the personal service thereof on a defendant within sixty days after such filing. And the court in which the said action was commenced may, in its discretion, at any time after the action shall be settled, discontinued or abated, on application of any person aggrieved and on good cause shown and on such notice as shall be directed or approved by the court, order the notice authorized in this section to be canceled of record, in whole or in part by the county auditor of any county in whose office the same may have been filed or recorded, and such cancellation, shall be made by an indorsement to that effect on the margin of the record.

Jury trial is waived by permitting action to be tried as equitable action, Frye v. Hill 14 W. 82.

§8488a. Fee Part of Costs. §2. The amount deposited by the party demanding a trial by jury shall be a part of the taxable costs in such action. The amounts received by the clerk on account of jury fees shall be accounted for as such other fees received.

§8489. Trial by Jury Drawing and Filling Panel—Consent to Less Than Twelve Jurors. §206.—206. When the action is called for trial, the clerk shall prepare separate ballots, containing the names of the jurors summoned, who have appeared, and not been excused, and deposit them in a box. He shall then draw from the box twelve names, and the persons whose names are drawn shall constitute the jury. If the ballots become exhausted, before the jury is complete, or if, from any cause, a juror or jurors be excused, or discharged, the sheriff, under the direction of the court, shall summon from the bystanders, citizens of the county as many qualified persons as may be necessary to complete the jury. Whenever it shall be requisite for the sheriff to summon more than one person at a time from the bystanders or body of the county, the names of the talesmen shall be returned to the clerk, who shall thereupon write the names upon separate ballots and deposit the same in the trial jury box, and draw such ballots separately therefrom, as in the case of the regular panel. The jury shall consist of twelve persons, unless the parties consent to a less number. The parties may consent to any number not less than three, and such consent shall be entered by the clerk on the minutes of the trial.

Arbitrarily selecting grand jury from as regular panel, State v. Lattin 19 W. 57; names drawn invalid, State ex rel. Murphy v. Superior Court 82 W. 284. Redford v. Spokane Street Ry. Co. 15 W. 419 distinguished.

Talesmen must have same qualifications Talesmen may be summoned though some of those drawn from the panel do not appear, State v. Holmes 12 W. 169; State v. Biles 6 W. 186.

Court may order a second panel instead of summoning talesmen, State v. Cushing 17 W. 544.

than twelve jurors, State v. Ellis 22 W. 129.

Separation of jury after agreeing on verdict must appear of record to be considered on appeal, Maling v. Crummey 5 W. 222.

Court shall construe written instruments, Tolmie v. Dean 1 W. T. 47.

§8490. Joining in Challenges—Peremptory Challenges. §207.—207. Either party may challenge the jurors, but when there are several parties on either side, they shall join in a challenge before it can be made. The challenge shall be to individual jurors, and be peremptory or for cause. Each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges.

Antagonistic defendants in action for tort must join in peremptory challenges, Crandall v. Puget Sound Tr., L. & P. Co. 77 W. 37; defendants in condemnation, Newell v. Loeb, id. 182.

Abutters defendants in condemnation must join, Manhattan Bldg. Co. v. Seattle 52 W. 226.

Error in allowing fourth peremptory challenge harmless when jury not made partial and last juror passed for cause, Creech v. Aberdeen, 44 W. 72.

§8491. Peremptory Challenge. §208.—208. A peremptory challenge is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court shall exclude him.

§8492. Challenge for Cause. §209.—209. A challenge for cause is an objection to a juror, and may be either:

1. General; that the juror is disqualified from serving in any action; or
2. Particular; that he is disqualified from serving in the action on trial.

§8493. General Cause of Challenge. §210.—210. General causes of challenge are:

1. A conviction for a felony.
2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by law for a juror.
3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind, or organs of the body, as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror.

Challenge for service within one year §8150.

§8494. Particular Cause of Challenge. §211.—211. Particular causes of challenges are of two kinds:

1. For such a bias as, when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this code as implied bias.

2. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror in reference to the action, or to either party, which satisfies the trier in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging, and which is known in this code as actual bias.

Juror not disqualified by answers on facts not in record, State v. Gohl 46 W. 408.

Juror states he has prejudice against personal injury case, but can try case on the evidence, held not subject to challenge, Denham v. Washington Water Power Co. 38 W. 354.

Coram nobis is not remedy for undisclosed bias after affirmance on appeal, State v. Armstrong 41 W. 601.

§8495. Challenge for Implied Bias. §212.—212. A challenge for implied bias may be taken for any or all of the following causes, and not otherwise:

1. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to either party.
2. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, master and servant or landlord and tenant, to the adverse party; or being a member of the family of, or a partner in business with, or in the employment for wages, of the adverse party, or being surety or bail in the action called for trial, or otherwise, for the adverse party.

3. Having served as a juror on a previous trial in the same action, or in another action between the same parties for the same cause of action, or in a criminal action by the state against either party, upon substantially the same facts or transaction.

4. Interest on the part of the juror in the event of the action, or the principal question involved therein, excepting always, the interest of the juror as a member or citizen of the county or municipal corporation.

Juror not disqualified because of service in case of same nature, State v. Austin 83 W. 444. Client of attorney for one of the parties is not disqualified, McCorkle v. Mallory 30 W. 632.

Former employer of decedent is disqualified in murder trial, State v. Coella 3 W. 99. Business relations with prosecuting attorney does not disqualify juror, State v. Boyce 24 W. 514.

§8496. Challenge for Actual Bias. §213.—213. A challenge for actual bias may be taken for the cause mentioned in the second subdivision of section two hundred and eleven. But on the trial of such challenge, although it should appear that the juror challenged has formed or expressed an opinion upon what he may have heard or read, such opinion shall not of itself be sufficient to sustain the challenge, but the court must be satisfied, from all the circumstances, that the juror cannot disregard such opinion and try the issue impartially.

Juror had formed opinion and should have been excused State v. Lattin 19 W. 57.

Juror had read newspapers but had not formed opinion and challenge was properly refused, State v. Giles 8 W. 12.

Challenge should specify grounds, State v. Biles 6 W. 186.

Where juror admits impression as to merits of cause, he should not be permitted to state whether it is favorable to defendant or not, White v. Territory, 1 W. 279.

Juror who has formed and expressed opinion that would require evidence to remove is disqualified, State v. Coella, 3 W. 99; State v. Murphy, 9 W. 204; State v. Willcox, 11 W. 215.

Juror who knows one of parties and would believe his statement when contradicted by one he did not know, may be challenged, Stimson v. Sachs 8 W. 391.

Juror having heard purported facts of killing soon after occurrence not disqualified, State v. Coella, 8 W. 512.

§8497. Exemption From Service Is Not Cause of Challenge. §214.—214. An exemption from service on a jury shall not be cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted.

§8498. Order and Manner of Peremptory Challenges. §215.—215. The jurors having been examined as to their qualifications, first by the plaintiff and then by the defendant, and passed for cause, the peremptory challenges shall be conducted as follows, to-wit:

The plaintiff may challenge one, and then the defendant may challenge one, and so alternately until the peremptory challenges shall be exhausted. The panel being filled and passed for cause, after said challenge shall have been made by either party, a refusal to challenge by either party in the said order of alternation, shall not defeat the adverse party of his full number of challenges, but such refusal on the part of the plaintiff to exercise his challenge in proper turn, shall conclude him as to the jurors once accepted by him, and if his right be not exhausted, his further challenges shall be confined, in his proper turn to talesmen only.

If party has passed peremptory challenge he cannot return to it, Poncin v. Furth 15 W. 292. In criminal case the defendant and state alternate, two and one, State v. Eddon 8 W. 292.

§8499. Order of all Challenges. §216.—216. The challenges of either party shall be taken separately in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class:

1. For general disqualification.
2. For implied bias.
3. For actual bias.
4. Peremptory.

§8500. Exceptions to and Trial of Challenges. §217.—217. The challenge may be excepted to by the adverse party for insufficiency, and if so, the court shall determine the sufficiency thereof, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true. The challenge may be denied by the adverse party, and if so, the court shall try the issue and determine the law and the facts.

§8501. Evidence on Trial of Challenge. §218.—218. Upon the trial of a challenge, the rules of evidence applicable to testimony offered upon the trial of an ordinary issue of fact shall govern. The juror challenged, or any other person otherwise competent, may be examined as a witness by either party. If a challenge be determined to be sufficient, or found to be true, as the case may be, it shall be allowed and the juror to whom it was taken excluded; but if determined or found otherwise, it shall be disallowed.

Latitude allowed in examination if for lence, Hoyt v. Independent etc. Co. 52 W. no other purpose than peremptory chal- 672.

§8502. Trial May Be Made Orally. §219.—219. The challenge, the exception and the denial may be made orally. The judge of the court shall note the same upon his minutes, and the substance of the testimony on either side.

§8504. Order of Trial. §221. When a jury has been sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following manner:

(1) The plaintiff shall briefly state the cause of action and the evidence by which he expects to sustain it. The defendant may in like manner state the defense, and the evidence he expects to offer in support thereof, but nothing in the nature of comments or argument shall be allowed in opening a case. It shall be optional with the defendant whether he states his case before or after the close of the plaintiff's evidence.

(2) The plaintiff, or the party upon whom rests the burden of proof in the whole action, must first produce his evidence; the adverse party will then produce his evidence.

(3) The parties then will be confined to rebutting evidence, unless the court shall consider that justice requires that evidence in the original case may then be offered.

(4) The court must reduce the charge to be given the jury to writing, and at the conclusion of the evidence he shall read his written charge to the jury. Either party may request such instructions as he deem material to the case, and the court may hear them upon the propriety of the requested instructions before finally settling the charge that he will give. If a stenographer shall be in attendance upon the trial of the cause, the court shall have the right to dictate the charge he desires to give to such stenographer, and to have the stenographer reduce the same to writing for him and a copy for each of the parties plaintiff and defendant. And the cost thereof shall be taxed as other costs in the action. When the charge shall have been given by the court, the plaintiff, or party having the burden of proof, may, by himself or one counsel, address the court and jury upon the law and facts in the case, after which the adverse party may address the court and jury in like manner, by himself and one counsel or by two counsel, and be followed by the party or counsel of the party first addressing the court. No more than two speeches on behalf of plaintiff or defendant shall be allowed. After the argument shall have been concluded, the jury shall retire to consider their verdict, and shall take with them to the jury room, among other matters proper to be taken to their jury room for further consideration by them, the written charge given them by the court. Either party, at any time before the hearing of a motion for a new trial may except to the instructions given by the court, or any part thereof. L. '09 184; L. '03 119.

§8507. Court Shall Decide all Questions Incident to Trial and all Questions of Law. §223.—223. All questions of law including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admission, and the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the court, and all discussions of law addressed to it.

Jury reading law in jury room not given them by the court is misconduct, Bouton-Perkins Lum. Co. v. Huston 81 W. 678.

Counsel cannot read law to jury, State v. Rholeder 82 W. 618.

§8508. Jury Shall Decide Questions of Fact in Issue. §224.—224. All questions of fact other than those mentioned in the section preceding, shall be decided by the jury and all evidence thereon addressed to them.

§8509. View by Jury.—Conduct. §225.—225. Whenever in the opinion of the court it is proper that the jury should have a view of real property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of a proper officer, to the place which shall be shown to them by the judge or by a person appointed by the court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent, no person other than the judge, or person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

§8510. Jury Allowed to Separate.—Conduct. §226.—226. The jurors may be kept together in charge of a proper officer, or may, in the discretion of the court, at any time before the submission of the cause to them, be permitted to separate; in either case they may be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with any other person, or among themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, or to express any opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them.

Sealed verdict not allowed in criminal cases, State v. Rogan 18 W. 43.

Jury may be allowed to separate before case submitted, State v. Johnny Tommy 19 W. 270.

Allowing jurors to retire from room is not a separation, Edwards v. Territory 1 W. T. 195.

Discharge of jury without verdict, §8517.

§8512. Juror as Witness—Conduct. §228.—228. A juror may be examined by either party as a witness, if he be otherwise competent. If he be not so examined, he shall not communicate any private knowledge or information that he may have of the matter in controversy, to his fellow jurors, nor be governed by the same in giving his verdict.

Competency of witnesses, §7721.

§8513. Deliberations of Jury. §229.—229. After hearing the charge the jury may either decide in the jury box or retire for deliberation. If they retire, they must be kept together in a room provided for them, or some other convenient place, under the charge of one or more officers, until they agree upon their verdict, or are discharged by the court. The officer shall, to the best of his ability, keep the jury thus separate from other persons, without drink, except water, and without food, except ordered by the court. He must not suffer any communication to be made to them, nor make any himself, unless by order of the court, except to ask them if they have agreed upon their verdict, and he shall not, before the verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed on. How jury kept, later section §8158.

§8515. What Papers May Be Used in Deliberations. §231.—231. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with them the pleadings in the cause, and all papers which have been received as evidence on the trial, (except depositions,) or copies of such parts of public records or private documents given in evidence, as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession.

Instructions may be taken, §8504.

Exhibits may be taken to jury room State v. Simmons 52 W. 132.

Inadvertent presence of depositions in jury room if jury did not consider them is harmless, Wintermute v. Standard Furniture Co. 53 W. 539.

Record of insanity inquiry may be taken to jury room, State v. Champoux 33 W. 339.

It is not error for jury to take original of amended complaint, Swadling v. Barne-son 21 W. 699.

§8516. Return of Jury for Instructions. §232. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if they desire to be informed of any point of law arising in the case, they may require the officer having them in charge to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court the information required shall be given in the presence of, or after notice to, the parties or their attorneys. L. '91 103.

§8518. Verdict Prevented by Discharge—New Trial Shall Be Had. §234. In all cases where a jury are discharged or prevented from giving a verdict, by reason of accident or other cause, during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the action shall thereafter be for trial anew. L. '91 103.

§8519. Court Shall Be Kept for Jury. §235.—235. While the jury are absent the court may adjourn from time to time, in respect to other business, but it is nevertheless to be deemed open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to the jury, until a verdict is rendered or the jury discharged. A final adjournment of the court discharges the jury.

Court always in session for purpose, §2700; Const., art. 4, §6.

§8520. Jury Conducted Into Court to Render Verdict—Roll Call. §236.—236. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they shall be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names shall then be called, and if all do not appear, the rest shall be discharged without giving a verdict.

§8521. Foreman Shall Answer. §237.—237. If the jury appear, they shall be asked by the court or the clerk whether they have agreed upon their verdict, and if the foreman answer in the affirmative, he shall, on being required declare the same.

§8522. Jury May Be Polled—Verdict May Be Corrected. §238.—238. When a verdict is given and before it is filed, the jury may be polled at the request of either party, for which purpose each shall be asked whether it is his verdict; if any juror answer in the negative the jury shall be sent out for further deliberation. If the verdict be informal or insufficient, it may be corrected by the jury under the advice of the court, or the jury may again be sent out.

§8532. Reference By Stipulation—Trial of Fact by Jury. §248.—248. All or any of the issues in the action, whether of fact or law, or both, may be referred upon the written consent of the parties; but either party shall have the right, in an action at law, upon an issue of fact, to demand a trial by jury.

§8533. Compulsory Reference. §249.—249. Where the parties do not consent, the court or judge may upon the application of either, direct a reference in all cases formerly cognizable in chancery in which reference might be made,

1. When the trial of an issue of fact shall require the examination of a long account on either side, in which case the referees may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or to report upon any specific question of fact involved therein; or

2. When the taking of an account shall be necessary for the information of the court, before judgment upon an issue of law, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect; or

3. When a question of fact other than upon the pleadings shall arise, upon motion or otherwise, in any stage of the action; or

4. When it is necessary for the information of the court in a special proceeding.

Hunley v. Ingle 88 W. 446.
Compulsory reference and denial of jury in action against manager of manufacturing plant—joinder of legal action, Lindley v. McGlaughlin 57 W. 581.

§8534. Appointment by Stipulation or Order. §250.—250. A reference may be ordered to any person or persons not exceeding three, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree the court or judge may appoint one or more, not exceeding three.

1. Qualified as a juror as provided by statute.
2. Competent as juror between the parties.
3. A duly admitted and practicing attorney.

§8536. Challenge of Referees. §252.—252. When the referees are chosen by the court, each party shall have the same right of challenge as to such referees, which shall be made and determined in the same manner and with like effect as in the formation of juries, except that neither party shall be entitled to a peremptory challenge.

§8537. Powers of Referees and Order of Trial. §253.—253. Subject to the limitations and directions prescribed in the order of reference, the trial by referees shall be conducted in the same manner as a trial by the court. They shall have the same power to grant adjournments, administer oaths, preserve order, punish all violations thereof upon such trial, compel the attendance of witnesses, and to punish them for non-attendance or refusal to be sworn or testify, as is possessed by the court.

§8538. Reports of Referees—Judgment—Costs. §254.—254. The report of the referees shall state the facts found, and when the order of reference includes an issue of law, it shall state the conclusions of law separately from the facts. The referees shall file with their report the evidence received upon the trial. If evidence offered by either party shall not be admitted on the trial and the party offering the same except to the decision, rejecting such evidence at the time, the exceptions shall be noted by the referees and they shall take and receive such testimony and file it with the report. Whatever judgment the court may give upon the report, it shall, when it appears that such evidence was frivolous and inadmissible, require the party at whose instance it was taken and reported, to pay all costs and disbursements thereby incurred.

Costs must be advanced referee to secure report of all the evidence, Hopkins v. Craib 101 W. 309.

May make supplemental report, Wheeler & Co. v. Ralph, 4 W. 617.

§8539. Filing of Report—Motions. §255.—255. The report shall be filed with the clerk. If it be filed in term time, either party may, within such time as may be prescribed by the rules of the court, or by special order, move to set the same aside or for judgment thereon, or such order or proceeding as the nature of the case may require. If the report be filed in vacation the like proceedings may be had at the next term following.

§8540. Power of Court Over Report—Judgment. §256.—256. The court may affirm or set aside the report, either in whole or in part. If it affirms the report it shall give judgment accordingly. If the report be set aside, either in whole or in part, the court may make another order of reference as to all or so much of the report as is set aside, to the original referees or others, or it may find the facts and determine the law itself and give judgment accordingly. Upon a motion to set aside a report, the conclusions thereof shall be deemed and considered as the verdict of the jury.

§8547. Motion—Affidavit. §2. Any party to or any attorney appearing in any action or proceeding in a superior court, may establish such prejudice by motion supported by affidavit that the judge before whom the action is pending is prejudiced against such party or attorney; so that such party or attorney cannot, or believes that he cannot, have a fair and impartial trial before such judge. Provided, further, That no party or attorney shall be permitted to make more than one application in any action or proceeding under this act.

§8548. Where Cause Shall Be Sent—But One Change. §52.—52. If the motion for a change of the place of trial be allowed, the change shall be made to the county or district where the action ought to have been commenced, if it be for the cause mentioned in subdivision one of section fifty-one, and in other cases to the most convenient county where the cause alleged does not exist. Nither party shall be entitled to more than one change of the place of trial, except for causes not in existence when the first change was allowed.

Garnishee may have change of venue, State ex rel. Wyman etc. Co. v. Superior Court 40 W. 442.

§8549. New County, Change Shall Be Made When. §53. Any party in a civil action pending in the superior court in a county out of whose limits a new county, in whole or in part, has been created, may file with the clerk of such superior court an affidavit setting forth that he is a resident of such newly created county, and that the venue of such action is transitory, or that the judges may be had—too late after adverse ruling, State ex rel. Deavers v. French 78 W. 260.

venue of such action is local, and that it ought properly to be tried in such newly created county; and thereupon the clerk shall make out a transcript of the proceedings already had in such action in such superior court, and certify it under the seal of the court, and transmit such transcript, together with the papers on file in his office connected with such action, to the clerk of the superior court of such newly created county, wherein it shall be proceeded with as in other cases. L. '91 71.

§8550. Duties of Clerk—Costs Paid by Whom—Status of Cause. §54.—54. When an order is made transferring an action or proceeding for trial, the clerk of the court must transmit the pleadings and papers therein to the court to which it is transferred. The costs and fees thereof and of filing the papers anew must be paid by the party at whose instance the order was made, except in the cases mentioned in subdivision one, section fifty-one, in which case the plaintiff shall pay costs of transfer. The court to which an action or proceeding is transferred, has and exercises over the same, the like jurisdiction as if it had been originally commenced therein.

Local action changed, court has full power, State ex rel. Howell v. Superior Court 82 W. 356. After change of venue in a criminal case information may be amended, State v. Lyts 25 W. 347.

§8551. Change of Venue by Stipulation. §55.—55. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections fifty-one [§8545] all the parties to the action, by stipulation in writing, or by consent in open court, entered in the records, may agree that the place of trial be changed to any county or district in the state, and thereupon the court must order the change agreed upon.

Venue may be stipulated—certiorari lies, Schwabacher & Co. v. Superior Court 61 W. 681.

§8552. Party Securing Change Must Not Delay It. §56.—56. If such papers be not transmitted to the clerk of the proper court, within the time prescribed in the order allowing the change, and the delay be caused by the act or omission of the party procuring the change, the adverse party, on motion to the court or judge thereof, may have the order vacated, and thereafter no other change of the place of trial shall be allowed to such party.

§8553. When Change of Venue Complete—Status of Action. §57.—57. Upon the filing of the papers with the clerk of the court to which the cause is transferred, the change of venue shall be deemed complete, and thereafter the action shall proceed as though it had been commenced in that court.

§8554. All Record Entries to Follow Change. §58.—58. The clerk of the court must also transmit with the original papers, where an order is made changing the place of trial, a certified transcript of all record entries, up to and including the order for such change.

§8556. Damage and Forfeiture for Waste. §601.—601. If a guardian, tenant in severalty, or in common, for life or for years, of real property, commit waste thereon, any person injured thereby may maintain an action at law for damages therefor against such guardian or tenant; in which action there may be judgment for treble damages, forfeiture of the estate of the party committing or permitting the waste and of eviction from the property. But judgment of forfeiture and eviction shall only be given in favor of the person entitled to the reversion against the tenant in possession, when the injury to the estate in reversion is determined in the action to be equal to the value of the tenant's estate or unexpired term or to have been done or suffered in malice.

Deposit of sand and gravel on city lot is not waste though injury for agricultural purposes, Moore v. Twin City Ice & C. S. Co. 92 W. 608.

Prior to statute remainderman allowed action only by equitable grace, McDowell v. Beckham, 72 W.

§8557. Treble Damages for Trespass. §602.—602. Whenever any person shall cut down, girdle or otherwise injure, or carry off any tree, timber or shrub on the land of another person, or on the street or highway, in front of any person's house, village, town or city lot, or cultivated grounds or on the commons of [or] public grounds of any village, town or city, or on the street or highway in front thereof, without lawful authority in an action by such person, village, town, or city, against the person committing such trespasses or any of them, if judgment be given for the plaintiff, it shall be given for treble the amount of damages claimed or assessed therefor, as the case may be.

Redemptioner can recover only actual damage for waste, Cogswell v. Brown 102 W. 625.

Trial amendment bringing in plaintiff's parents allowed, Townsend v. Three Lakes Lum. Co., 67 W. 654.

Removal of timber after cutting may not be evidence of willfulness, Rogers v. Kangley Timber Co. 74 W. 48.

The measure of damage is treble the value of the standing timber, Bailey v. Hayden, 63 W. 57.

Has no application where the owner of the fee removed timber that had been reserved from the grant, since the statute is penal and must be strictly construed, Skamania Boom Co. v. Youmans, 64 W. 94. 81 §1551.

Treble damages allowed only for cutting timber where other causes united—how

Defendant showed a contract, plaintiff having sued for tort, could recover nothing, Tacoma Mill Co. v. Perry 40 W. 44.

Action treated as one in conversion to cure objection of venue, McLeod v. Ellis 2 W. 117.

Jury should find single damages and the court assess treble damages, id.

In action for conversion the question is the wrongful taking and not mala fides—measure of damages, Chappell v. Puget Sound etc. Co. 27 W. 63.

Instruction to jury sustained—statute is penal in nature and intent must be shown, Gardner v. Lovegren 27 W. 356.

Equity will not interfere with trespass or threatened trespass, Meeker v. Gilbert 3 W. T. 369.

Trespases should be specifically alleged in action to enjoin, Wilkeson Co. v. Driver, 9 W. 177.

Parol proof of undisputed possession is sufficient show of title, Spurlock v. Pt. Townsend, etc., Ry., 13 W. 29.

§8558. When Single Damages. §603.—603. If upon trial of such action, it shall appear that the trespass was casual or involuntary, or that the defendant had probable cause to believe that the land on which such trespass was committed was his own, or that of the person in whose service or by whose direction the act was done or that such tree or timber was taken from uninclosed woodlands, for the purpose of repairing any public highway or bridge upon the land or adjoining it judgment shall only be given for single damages.

running line on magnetic variation called for in field notes, Heybrook v. Index Lum. Co., 49 W. 378.

§8559. Injunction by Claimant to Lands of the United States. §604.—604. When any two or more persons are opposing claimants under the laws of the United States to any land in this state, and one is threatening to commit upon such land waste which tends materially to lessen the value of the inheritance and which cannot be compensated by damages and there is imminent danger that unless restrained such waste will be committed, the party on filing this [his] complaint and satisfying the court or judge of the existence of the facts, may have an injunction to restrain the adverse party. In all cases he shall give notice and bond as is provided in other cases where injunction is granted, and the injunction when granted shall be set aside or modified as is provided generally for injunction and restraining orders.

Injunction against removal of timber, Arment v. Hensel 5 W. 152.

The state is not a "person" and injunction will not lie, McBride v. Commissioners of Pierce County 44 Fed. Rep. 17.

§8584. Office Hours. §2. Each clerk of a superior court shall keep his office open for the transaction of business on every judicial day, from eight to twelve in the forenoon, and from one to five in the afternoon.

§8585. Powers and Duties of Clerks. §3. The clerk of the supreme court and each clerk of a superior court has power to take and certify the proof and acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property or any other written instrument, authorized or required to be proved or acknowledged, and to administer oaths in every case when authorized by law: and it is the duty of the clerk of the supreme court, and of each county clerk for each of the courts for which he is clerk,

1. To keep the seal of the court, and affix it in all cases where he is required by law.

2. To record the proceedings of the court.

3. To keep the records, files, and other books and papers appertaining to the court.

4. To file all papers delivered to him for that purpose, in any action or proceeding in the court.

5. To attend the court of which he is clerk, to administer oaths and receive the verdict of a jury in any action or proceeding therein, in the presence and under the direction of the court.

6. To keep the journal of the proceedings of the court, and, under the direction of the court, to enter its orders, judgments, and decrees.

7. To authenticate, by certificate or transcript, as may be required, the records, files, or proceedings of the court, or any other paper appertaining thereto, and filed with him.

8. To exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon him elsewhere by statute.

9. In the performance of his duties, to conform to the direction of the court.

§8599. Transcripts—Fees. §5. When shorthand notes have been taken in any cause as in this act provided, if the court, or either party to the suit or action, or his attorney, requests a transcript of the notes into long hand, the official reporter shall make, or cause to be made, with reasonable diligence, full and accurate typewritten transcript of the testimony and other proceedings, which shall, when certified to, as hereinafter provided, be filed with the clerk of the court where such trial is had for the use of the court or parties to the action. The fees of the reporter for making such transcript shall be fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words for the original copy, and five cents per folio for each carbon copy ordered before the original is made, or made at the same time as the original, and when such transcript is ordered by any party to any such suit or action said fees shall be paid forthwith by the party ordering the same, and in all cases where a transcript is made as provided for under the provisions of this act the cost thereof shall be taxable as costs in the case, and shall be so taxed as other costs in the case are taxed: Provided, That when the defendant in any criminal cause shall present to the judge presiding satisfactory proof, by affidavit or otherwise, that he is unable to pay for such transcript, the presiding judge, if in his opinion justice will thereby be promoted, may order said transcript to be made by the official reporter, in which case the official reporter shall be paid for preparing said transcript ten cents per folio for the original copy and five cents per folio for each carbon copy ordered at the same time as the original or made at the same time as the original, which transcript fee shall be paid in like manner as the per diem fees are paid as specified in section three of this act.

§8600. Transcripts as Evidence. §6. The report of the official reporter, when transcribed and certified as being a correct transcript of the stenographic notes of the testimony, or other oral proceedings had in the matter, shall be prima facie a correct statement of such testimony or other oral proceedings had, and the same may thereafter, in any civil cause, be read in evidence as competent testimony, when satisfactory proof is offered to the judge presiding that the witness originally giving such testimony is then dead or without the jurisdiction of the court, subject, however, to all objections the same as though such witness were present and giving such testimony in person.

§8601. Transcripts after Reporter Out of Office. §7. When the official reporter who has taken notes in any cause, shall thereafter cease to be such official reporter, any transcript thereafter made by him therefrom, or made by any competent person under the direction of the court, and duly certified to by the person making the same, under oath, as a full, true and correct transcript of said notes, the same shall have full force and effect the same as though certified by an official reporter of said court.

§8602. Reporter Pro Tem. §8. In the event of the absence or inability of the official reporter to act, the presiding judge may appoint a competent stenographer to act pro tem, who shall perform the same duties as the official reporter, and whose report when certified to, shall have the same legal effect as the certified report of the official reporter. The reporter pro tem shall possess the qualifications and take the oath prescribed for the official reporter, and shall file a like bond, and shall receive the same compensation.

§8603. Judge's Stenographer—Pay. §9. In all counties or judicial districts, except counties of the first class and class "A" counties, having a regularly appointed official reporter, such official reporter shall act as amanuensis to the court where he is appointed, and the court shall allow per diem therefor as provided in this act: Provided, that in no event shall the per diem for such work exceed ten days in any one calendar month: And provided further, that said official reporter shall be allowed at least ten days' per diem for his services as reporter and amanuensis in each calendar month that the court where he is appointed is in session. L '19 ch 66.

§8604. Files Taken Out by Reporter. §10. Official reporters or reporters pro tem may, without order of court, upon giving a proper receipt therefor, procure at all reasonable hours from the office of the clerk of the court, any files or exhibits necessary for use in the preparation of statements of fact or transcribing portions of testimony or proceedings in any cause reported by them.

§8606. Transfer of Reporters. §12. At the request of either party to an action an official reporter from the same or any other district in the state may be substituted for the official reporter of the court in which the action is being tried for the purpose of reporting the trial of said action: Provided, That the party or parties to the action requesting such substitution pay or secure to be paid to the clerk of the court the necessary traveling and hotel expenses of the official reporters so substituted as aforesaid.

ment Two. The Chief Justice shall assign four of the associate judges to each department and such assignment may be changed by him from time to time; Provided, That the associate judges shall be competent to sit in either department and may interchange with one another by agreement among themselves, or if no such agreement be made, as ordered by the Chief Justice. The Chief Justice may sit in either department and shall preside when so sitting, but the judges assigned to each department shall select one of their number as presiding judge. Each of the departments shall have the power to hear and determine causes, and all questions arising therein, subject to the provisions in relation to the court en banc. The presence of three judges shall be necessary to transact any business in either of the departments, except such as may be done at chambers, but one or more of the judges may from time to time adjourn to the same effect as if all were present, and a concurrence of three judges shall be necessary to pronounce a decision in each department; Provided That if three do not concur, the cause shall be reheard in the same department or transmitted to the other department, or to the court en banc.

§8655. How Business Apportioned—Ordered En Banc. §4. The Chief Justice shall from time to time apportion the business to the departments, and may, in his discretion, before a decision is pronounced, order any cause pending before the court to be heard and determined by the court en banc. When a cause has been allotted to one of the departments and a decision pronounced therein, the Chief Justice, together with any two associate judges, may order such cause to be heard and decided by the court en banc. Any four judges may, either before or after decision by a department, order a cause to be heard en banc. The decision of a department, except in cases otherwise ordered as hereinafter provided, shall not become final until thirty days after the filing thereof, during which period a petition for rehearing, or for a hearing en banc, may be filed, the filing of either of which, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall have the effect of suspending such decision until the same shall have been disposed of. If no such petition be filed the decision of a department shall become final thirty days from the date of its filing, unless during such thirty-day period an order for a hearing en banc shall have been made; Provided, That if for any cause the Chief Justice or a majority of the department rendering any decision shall be of the opinion that such decision should go into effect prior to thirty days after its filing, it shall go into effect, and a judgment issue thereon, any time after its filing and prior to such thirty-day period, upon being in writing approved by the Chief Justice and any two associate judges who took no part in rendering such decision. The effect of granting a petition for a rehearing, or of ordering a cause once decided by department to be heard en banc, shall be to vacate and set aside the decision. Whenever a decision shall become final, as herein provided, a judgment shall issue thereon.

§8656. Court En Banc—Quorum. §5. The Chief Justice, or any four judges, may convene the court en banc at any time, and the Chief Justice shall be the presiding judge of the court when so convened. The presence of five judges shall be necessary to transact any business, and a concurrence of five judges present at the argument shall be necessary to pronounce a decision in the court en banc; Provided, That if five of the judges so present do not concur in a decision, then reargument shall be ordered and all the judges qualified to sit in the cause shall hear the argument, but to render a decision a concurrence of five judges shall be necessary; and every decision of the court en banc shall be final except in cases in which no previous decision has been rendered in one of the departments, and in such cases the decision of the court en banc shall become final thirty days after its filing, unless during such period a petition for rehearing be filed. The filing of such petition within such period shall have the effect of suspending the decision until disposed of by the concurrence of five judges, Provided That if for any cause five judges shall be of the opinion that such decision should go into effect prior to thirty days after its filing, it shall go into effect any time after its filing and prior to such thirty-day period upon being in writing approved by six judges of such court. Whenever a decision shall become final, as herein provided, a judgment shall issue thereon.

§8658. Court Always Open. §7. The Supreme Court shall always be open for the transaction of business except on non-judicial days. It shall hold regular sessions for the hearing of causes en banc, and in each of its departments, at the capital of the state at the respective times now provided by law for holding terms of the Supreme Court. Special sessions at the same place may be held at such other times as may be prescribed by the judges of such court.

AN ACT relating to the organization, powers and duties of the supreme court and declaring an emergency to exist. Approved December 23, 1889. Laws '89 p 321.

§8660. Number of Judges—Terms of Office. §1. The supreme court shall consist of five judges, who shall be elected by the qualified electors of the state at large, at the general state election at the time and places at which state officers are elected, next preceding the expiration of the term of office of their predecessors respectively, and hold their offices for the term of six years from and after the second Monday in January next after their election: Provided, That the justices elected on the first Tuesday of October, 1889, shall have so classified or shall so classify themselves by lot, that two of them shall go out of office at the end of three years, two of them at the end of five years, and one at the end of seven years from the second Monday in January, 1890; and an entry of such classification shall have been or shall be made in the minutes of the court, signed by such judges, and they shall cause the result thereof to be certified to the secretary of state and filed in his office.

Substitute—AN ACT to provide for the election of judges of the supreme court. Approved February 6, 1893. Laws '93 p 8.

§8661. Time of Election. §1. There shall be elected by the qualified electors of this state, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1894, and on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, every two years thereafter, as many judges of the supreme court, as there may be judges of said court whose terms of office shall expire on the second Monday in January next succeeding such election.

§8662. Vacancies. §2. If a vacancy occur in the office of a judge of the supreme court, the governor shall appoint a person to hold the office until the election and qualification of a judge to fill the vacancy, which election shall take place at the next succeeding general election at which a judge or judges of the supreme court shall be elected, and the judge so elected may qualify at any time within thirty days after his election, and shall hold the office for the unexpired term.

§8663. Chief Justice. §2. The judge having the shortest term to serve, not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the chief justice, and shall preside at all sessions of the supreme court, and in case there shall be two judges having in like manner the same short term, the other judges of the supreme court shall determine which of them shall be chief justice and in case of the absence of the chief justice, the judge having in like manner the shortest or next shortest term to serve shall preside. L '90 321.

§8664. Sessions—Court Rooms and Incidentals. §4. The supreme court shall always be open for the transaction of business except on non-judicial days. It shall hold regular sessions for the hearing of causes at the seat of government commencing on the second Mondays of January, May and October of each year, and special sessions at the same place, at such other times as may be prescribed by the justices thereof. If proper rooms in which to hold the court, and for the accommodation of the officers thereof, are not provided by the state, together with attendants furniture, fuel, lights, record books and stationery, suitable and sufficient for the transaction of business, the court, or any three justices thereof may direct the clerk of the supreme court to provide the same; and the expense thereof certified by any three justices to be correct, shall be paid out of the state treasury, out of any funds therein not otherwise appropriated. Such moneys shall be subject to the order of the clerk of the supreme court, and be by him disbursed on proper vouchers and accounted for by him in annual settlements with the state auditor.

§8665. Quorum. §5. It shall require a majority of the justices of the supreme court to form a quorum and pronounce a decision. In the determination of causes all decisions of the court shall be in writing, and the grounds of the decision shall be stated.

§8666. Jurisdiction. §6. The supreme court shall have original jurisdiction in habeas corpus, and quo warranto and mandamus as to all state officers, and appellate jurisdiction in all actions and proceedings, excepting that its appellate jurisdiction shall not extend to civil actions at law for the recovery of money or personal property when the original amount in controversy or the value of the property does not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, unless the action involves the legality of a tax, impost, assessment, toll, municipal fine, or the validity of a statute. The supreme court shall also have power to issue writs of mandamus review, prohibition, habeas corpus, certiorari, and all other writs necessary and proper to the complete exercise of its appellate and revisory jurisdiction. Each of the judges shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state, upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself, or before the supreme court or before any superior court of the state or any judge thereof.

Supreme court of the United States will examine opinions for grounds of jurisdiction, and if judgment has sufficient reasons for its support without Federal questions such will not be considered, Dibble v. Bellingham Bay Land Co. 163 U. S. 63. Attorney's fees to defend judgment suspended on certiorari cannot be included to make up jurisdictional amount, Leavitt v. Carr 22 W. 361. The statute providing procedure in habeas corpus does not apply to the supreme court, but court may provide procedure, In re Rafferty 1 W. 382.

§8667. Adjournments. §7. Adjournments from day to day, or from time to time are to be construed as recesses in the sessions, and shall not prevent the court from sitting at any time.

§8668. Judgment Final. §8. The judgments and decrees of the supreme court shall be final and conclusive upon all the parties properly before the court.

§8669. Court of Record. §10. The supreme court shall be a court of record and shall be vested with all power and authority necessary to carry into complete execution all its judgments, decrees and determinations in all matters within its jurisdiction according to the rules and principles of the common law and the constitution and laws of this state.

§8670. Form of Process. §11. Its process shall run in the name of the "State of Washington," bear test in the name of the chief justice, be signed by the clerk of the court, dated when issued, sealed with the seal of the court, and made returnable according to law, or such rule or orders as may be prescribed by the court.

§8671. Clerk and Reporter. §13. The judges of the supreme court, shall appoint a clerk and a reporter of the decisions of the court, removable at their pleasure each of whom shall receive an annual salary as shall be provided by law: Provided, That the legislature may at any time provide for the election of such clerk and prescribe the term of his office.

§8672. Oath of Office. §14. The several judges of the supreme court, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm as the case may be) that I will support the constitution of the United States, and the constitution of the State of Washington and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of the office of judge of the supreme court of the State of Washington to the best of my ability." Which oath or affirmation may be administered by any person authorized to administer oaths, a certificate whereof shall be affixed thereto by the person administering the oath. And the oath or affirmation so certified, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

§8673. Report to Governor. §16. The judges of the supreme court shall, on or before the first day of January in each year report in writing, to the governor such defects and omissions in the laws as they may believe to exist.

§8674. Seal. §17. The seal of the supreme court shall be the vignette of General George Washington, with the words "Seal of the supreme court, State of Washington," surrounding the vignette.

§8676. — Payment of. §2. The state auditor shall issue his warrant for salary of supreme court bailiffs, upon receipt of certificate of time served, signed by any one or more of the supreme court judges, and attested by the clerk of the supreme court.

AN ACT to prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of the reporter of the supreme court. Approved December 20, 1889. Laws '89 p 320.

§8677. Decisions to Be Reported. §1. The reporter of the decisions of the supreme court must prepare a report of such cases decided as he may by the court be directed to report.

§8678. Reporter Shall Prepare Syllabus. §2. He shall prepare such decisions for publication by giving the title of each case, a syllabus of the points decided, a brief statement of the facts bearing on the points decided, the names of the counsel, and a reference to such authorities as are cited from standard reports and text-books that have a special bearing on the case; and he shall prepare a full and comprehensive index to each volume and prefix a table of cases reported.

§8679. Reports to Be Published—Proofs. §3. The reports must be published under the supervision of the court, and to that end each of the judges must be furnished by the reporter with proof-sheets of each volume, thirty days before its final publication.

§8680. Corrections. §4. Within thirty days after such proof sheets are furnished, the judges must return the same to the reporter with corrections or alterations, and he must make the corrections or alterations accordingly.

§8682. Salary. §6. The annual salary of the reporter of the decisions of the Supreme Court shall be three thousand five hundred ($3,500.00) dollars. L. '09 578.

AN ACT to provide for the publication and sale of the Washington Supreme Court Reports. Approved March 11, 1905. Laws '05 p 330.

§8683. Style of Volumes—Paper—Buckram Binding. §1. The reports of the supreme court of the State of Washington shall be published in volumes of not less than seven hundred (700) pages, exclusive of indices and tables of cases reported, cases cited and statutes construed. The style of type used, the general typography and binding, shall be equal in quality and generally similar to that used in volume thirty-five (35) Washington Reports, official edition: Provided, That the reporter may require the publisher to have two more "ems" on each line and two more lines on each page. The publisher, under its contract with the state, may use in the publication of the reports, regular law book paper equal in quality to that used in volumes thirty-five (35) and ninety-one (91) of the Washington reports, and of weight not lighter than forty-five (45) pounds to the ream, when approved by the chief justice of the supreme court, and the reporter and the chief justice may authorize the furnishing of any portion of the volumes furnished to the state to be bound in buckram instead of sheep. L. '17 326, R.&B. §9066.

§8684. Contract—Price. §2. The reporter of the Supreme Court shall have no pecuniary interest in the volumes of the Reports, but they must be published under the supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and reporter, by contract, for periods of ten years each, to be entered into as hereinafter provided, with a responsible person or persons who shall agree to publish and sell said Reports on the terms most advantageous to the State and to individuals resident in this State, and at a rate not to exceed two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per bound volume, or three dollars per bound volume and the advance sheets of the opinions in such bound volume, delivered to the subscriber.

§8685. Bids—Notice of. §3. Before entering into said contract, it shall be the duty of the reporter to advertise for proposals for the publication of said Reports once each week for four consecutive weeks, in two daily papers published within this State. Such publication shall be commenced on the second Monday in June, 1905, and on the second Monday in June every ten years thereafter. The proposals shall be opened by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the reporter of said Court. It shall be the duty of the Chief Justice and the reporter of the Supreme Court to consider all proposals for the publication of said Reports so submitted, and to award the contract to the person or persons who will agree to publish and sell the same, on the terms most advantageous to the State and to individuals resident in this State. The reporter shall execute the contract on behalf of the State.

§8686. Contract—Bond. §4. The contract must provide:

First. That each volume shall be published within sixty (60) days after the manuscript is delivered by the reporter to the publisher, and that stereotype plates be made of each volume to the end that the same may never be out of print. Second. That the entire manufacture of said volumes shall be done within the State of Washington. Third. That the volumes or any portion thereof, or any notes, indices, or tables of cases, that may be published in connection therewith, shall not be copyrighted by the publisher, but it may be optional with the Legislature at any time to direct the reporter to copyright the volumes for the benefit of the State. Fourth. That the publisher shall sell three hundred (300) copies of each volume to the State at the price named in the proposals, and keep on hand and for sale within the State, to individuals resident in this State, at the price therefor, named in the proposals, a sufficient number of each volume to supply all demands for a period of ten (10) years from the date of publication thereof. Fifth. The contract shall further provide that the publisher shall issue once each week in pamphlet form, the opinions of the Supreme Court, with appropriate head notes, and table of cases; and sell the same to the subscribers to the Washington Reports at the price fixed in the proposals; and also, shall agree to mail without cost, a copy of each weekly issue, to each supreme judge, the reporter and attorney general, and to each judge of the superior court and prosecuting attorney of each county in this state, six copies to the state library, and six copies to the law department of the state university. Sixth. The contract shall further provide that the manufacture of the volumes shall be done to the entire satisfaction of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the reporter, and that in case of wilfull failure or refusal on the part of the publisher to comply with the terms of the contract, the reporter may, with the approval of the Chief Justice, declare the same forfeited and void, by the giving of written notice to the publisher to that effect, and the Chief Justice and reporter shall re-let the contract for the remainder of the unexpired term of the contract, as soon thereafter as practicable, upon new proposals to be called for, considered and awarded in the manner provided for in section three of this act. Seventh. That the contractor give a sufficient bond, running to the State of Washington, which must be approved by the reporter, for the fulfillment of the terms of the contract, in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

§8687. State's Purchase. §5. On the publication of each volume of Reports the Supreme Court must purchase for the use of the State, from the publisher to whom the contract is awarded, three hundred (300) copies of said volume at the price named in the contract, and deliver the same to the Librarian of the state library, who shall distribute same as required by law, and the remaining copies, if any there be, shall be deposited in the state library.

ALL, GENERAL PROVISIONS.

AN ACT relating to crimes and punishments and the rights and custody of persons accused or convicted of crime; and repealing certain acts. Approved March 22, 1909. Laws '09 p 890.

CHAPTER 1. — General Provisions.

§8688. Felonies and Misdemeanors Defined. §1. A crime is an act or omission forbidden by law and punishable upon conviction by death, imprisonment, fine or other penal discipline. Every crime which may be punished by death or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary is a felony. Every crime punishable by a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than ninety days, is a misdemeanor. Every other crime is a gross misdemeanor. N. Y. P. C. §3; Minn. C. '05 §4747.

Title sufficient to cover existing law of procedure — jeopardy, State v. George 84 W. 113.

Title of criminal code 1909 includes different method of proof than formerly obtained, State v. Blaine 64 W. 122.

Criminal code saves prior laws as to prior crimes, State v. Morrow 63 W. 297.

"Offense" not same as "act" 26 Minn.

507, 517; 5 N. W. 959. "Offense" includes all violations of law—ordinances 34 Minn. 1, 24 N. W. 458; 42 Minn. 258, 44 N. W. 115; not military code 74 Minn. 518, 77 N. W. 424.

"Offences" not felonies are misdemeanors 39 Minn. 153, 39 N. W. 305; same act may be punished under both law and ordinance 21 Minn. 202; 26 Minn. 507, 5 N. W. 959; 50 Minn. 128, 52 N. W. 387; 16 Minn. 474, Gil. 426; 36 Minn. 62, 30 N. W. 305; 42 Minn. 147, 43 N. W. 845; 77 Minn. 540, 80

N. W. 701; 84 Minn. 367, 87 N. W. 916. Conviction under ordinance is not bar 29 Minn. 445, 13 N. W. 913; 50 Minn. 128, 52 N. W. 387.

Same act may be punished under federal and state law 29 Minn. 445, 13 N. W. 913; 26 Minn. 507, 5 N. W. 959.

Same act may be different offences—no merger 10 Minn. 407, Gil. 325; under different statutes 69 Minn. 423, 72 N. W. 700.

Minnesota code is the measure of criminal law—no common law offenses 38 Minn. 368, 37 N. W. 587; 39 Minn. 153, 39 N. W. 305; 71 Minn. 28, 73 N. W. 626; but common law applies to definition of words if there is doubt 5 Minn. 19, Gil. 6; courts should further the doing away with the technicalities of the common law 2 Minn. 124, Gil. 99; 5 Minn. 19, Gil. 6; 38 Minn. 368, 37 N. W. 587.

As at the common law an officer may make arrests for felony without a warrant, State v. Symes 20 W. 485.

Convict serving sentence may be tried for crime committed before sentence and given another term after the first expires, Clifford v. Dryden 31 W. 545.

Penal statute repealed without saving clause pending prosecutions fall, Leschl v. Territory 1 W. T. 14; Corbett v. Territory 1 W. T. 431.

Superior courts have concurrent jurisdiction with municipal courts over misdemeanors in cities, State v. Considine 16 W. 358.

Violation of town ordinance made a misdemeanor and prosecuted in name of the state upheld, State v. Fountain 14 W. 236. 135 §3.

§8689. Persons Punishable. §2. The following persons are liable to punishment:

1. A person who commits in the state any crime, in whole or in part.
2. A person who commits out of the state any act which, if committed within it, would be larceny, and is afterward found in the state with any of the stolen property.
3. A person who, being out of the state, counsels, causes, procures, aids or abets another to commit a crime in this state.
4. A person who, being out of the state, abducts or kidnaps, by force or fraud, any person, contrary to the laws of the place where the act is committed, and brings, sends or conveys such person into this state.
5. A person who commits an act without the state which affects persons or property within the state, or the public health, morals or decency of the state, which, if committed within the state, would be a crime. N.Y.P.C. §16; Minn. C. '05 §4750. Persons punishable, §9393.

§8691. Duress as a Defense. §4. Whenever any crime, except murder, is committed or participated in by two or more persons, any one of whom participates only under compulsion by another engaged therein, who by threats creates a reasonable apprehension in the mind of such participator that in case of refusal he is liable to instant death or grievous bodily harm, such threats and apprehension constitute duress which will excuse such participator from criminal prosecution. Minn. C. '05 §4753.

Confederate in lesser crime convicted is not a defense in a prosecution for the of greater crime, State v. Moretti, 66 W. 537. murder of the person robbed, State v. Moretti, 66 W. 537.

Participation in a robbery under duress

§8692. Responsibility of Children. §5. Children under the age of eight years are incapable of committing crime. Children of eight and under twelve years of age are presumed to be incapable of committing crime, but this presumption may be removed by proof that they have sufficient capacity to understand the act or neglect, and to know that it was wrong. Whenever in legal proceedings it becomes necessary to determine the age of a child, he may be produced for inspection, to enable the court or jury to determine the age thereby; and the court may also direct his examination by one or more physicians whose opinion shall be competent evidence upon the question of his age. N.Y.P.C. §§18, 19. Minn. C. '05 §4754.

Child over 12 years presumed capable of crime, 53 Minn. 541, 55 N. W. 741; and is liable 86 Minn. 224, 90 N. W. 360, 1133.

in determining such purpose, motive or intent. N.Y.P.C. §22; Minn. C.'05 §4755.

Intoxication no defense to certain offenses—intent presumed, 11 Minn. 154, Gil. 95, 21 Minn. 22; 29 Minn. 221, 13 N. W. 140; 93 Minn. 38, 100 N. W. 638. In graver offences where "intent" necessary it is admissible as assault with intent to do great bodily harm, 11 Minn. 154 Gil. 95; 28 Minn. 426, 10 N. W. 472; 29 Minn. 221, 13 N. W. 140; 25 Minn. 161; larceny 21 Minn. 22; murder 13 Minn. 341, Gil. 315; 29 Minn. 221, 13 N. W. 140. Degree of intoxication necessary, 11 Minn. 154, Gil. 95; 13 Minn. 341, Gil. 315; 25 Minn. 161.

§8694. Insanity, Idiocy, etc., No Defense. §7. It shall be no defense to a person charged with the commission of a crime, that at the time of its commission, he was unable by reason of his insanity, idiocy or imbecility to comprehend the nature and quality of the act committed, or to understand that it was wrong; or that he was afflicted with a morbid propensity to commit prohibited acts; nor shall any testimony or other proof thereof be admitted in evidence. N.Y.P.C. §§21-3. burg 60 W. 106.

Act relating to criminal insane, §9293; insane prisoners, §8718. Partial insanity as defense—non-expert witnesses—burden of proof, State v. Craig 52 W. 66.

Section unconstitutional, State v. Stras-

§8695. Principal Defined. §8. Every person concerned in the commission of a felony, gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor, whether he directly commits the act constituting the offense, or aids or abets in its commission, and whether present or absent; and every person who directly or indirectly counsels, encourages, hires, commands, induces or otherwise procures another to commit a felony, gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor, is a principal, and shall be proceeded against and punished as such. The fact that the person aided, abetted, counseled, encouraged, hired, commanded, induced or procured, could not or did not entertain a criminal intent, shall not be a defense to any person aiding, abetting, counseling, encouraging, hiring, commanding, inducing or procuring him. N.Y.P.C. §§28-9; Minn. C.'05 §4758.

"Assenting" to act is not within the statute, State v. Peasley 80 W. 99.

after the fact 88 Minn. 175, 92 N. W. 965.

Abettor of manslaughter is principal—charge of physician withholding food held insufficient, State v. McFadden 48 W. 259.

§8697. Punishment of Accessories. §10. Every accessory to a felony may be indicted, tried and convicted either in the county where he became an accessory, or where the principal felony was committed; and whether the principal offender has or has not been convicted, or is or is not amenable to justice, or has been pardoned or otherwise discharged after conviction; and, except where a different punishment is specially provided by law, such accessory shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both. N.Y.P.C. §32; Minn. C.'05 §4760.

§8698. Conviction of Lesser Crime. §11. Upon the trial of an indictment or information, the defendant may be convicted of the crime charged therein, or of a lesser degree of the same crime, or of an attempt to commit the crime so charged, or of an attempt to commit a lesser degree of the same crime. Whenever the jury shall find a verdict of guilty against a person so charged, they shall in their verdict specify the degree or attempt of which the accused is guilty. N.Y.P.C. §35; Minn. C.'05 §4757.

§8699. Attempts. §12. An act done with intent to commit a crime, and tending but failing to accomplish it, is an attempt to commit that crime; and every person who attempts to commit a crime, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, shall be punished as follows:

1. If the crime attempted is punishable by death or life imprisonment, the person convicted of the attempt shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years.

2. In every other case he shall be punished by imprisonment in such manner as may be prescribed for the commission of the completed offense, for not more than half the longest term, or by a fine of not more than half the largest sum, prescribed upon conviction for the commission of the offense attempted, or by both such fine and imprisonment; but nothing herein shall protect a person who, in an unsuccessful attempt to commit one crime, does commit another and different one, from the punishment prescribed for the crime actually committed; and a person may be convicted of an attempt to commit a crime, although it appears on the trial that the crime was consummated, unless the court in its discretion shall discharge the jury and direct the defendant to be tried for the crime itself. §8703. Failure of Duty by Public Officer. §16. Whenever any duty is enjoined by law upon any public officer or other person holding any public trust or employment, their wilfull neglect to perform such duty, except where otherwise specially provided for, shall be a misdemeanor. Minn. C. '05 §4796.

§8705. Acts Punishable Under Foreign Law. §18. An act or omission punishable as a crime in this state is not less so because it is also punishable under the laws of another state, government or country, unless the contrary is expressly declared in the law relating thereto. Minn. C. '05 4766.

Acquittal in this state a bar, §9166.

§8707. Conviction or Acquittal in Other County. §20. Whenever, upon the trial of any person for a crime, it shall appear that the defendant has already been acquitted or convicted upon the merits, of the same crime, in a court having jurisdiction of such offense in another county of this state, such former acquittal or conviction is a sufficient defense.

§8708. Punishment for Contempt. §21. A criminal act which at the same time constitutes contempt of court, and has been punished as such, may also be punished as a crime, but in such case the punishment for contempt may be considered in mitigation. Minn. C. '05 §4768.

Criminal contempts, §8786.

§8709. Sending Letter, When Complete. §22. Whenever any statute makes the sending of a letter criminal, the offense shall be deemed complete from the time it is deposited in any postoffice or other place, or delivered to any person, with intent that it shall be forwarded; and the sender may be proceeded against in the county wherein it was so deposited or delivered, or in which it was received by the person to whom it was addressed. Minn. C. '05 §4769.

§8710. Omission, When Not Punishable. §23. No person shall be punished for an omission to perform an act when such act has been performed by another acting in his behalf, and competent to perform it. Minn. C. '05 §4770.

§8711. Commitment to Washington State Training School. §24. Whenever any boy between the ages of eight and sixteen years, or any girl between the ages of eight and eighteen years, shall be found guilty of any crime, except murder or manslaughter, the court may, in its discretion, order such person committed to the Washington State Training School to remain, in case of a boy, until he shall arrive at the age of eighteen years and, in case of a girl, until she shall arrive at the age of nineteen years, unless sooner paroled or legally discharged.

§8714. Working Prisoners. §27. The sheriff of each county shall employ all male persons sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail thereof in such manner and at such places within the county, as may be directed by the board of county commissioners of such county.

City and county prisoners put to work §§9320, 9334, 1674.

§8715. Suspending Sentences. §28. Whenever any person under the age of twenty-one years shall be convicted of any crime except murder, burglary, arson, or rape, the court may in its discretion, at the time of imposing sentence upon such person, direct that such sentence be stayed and suspended until otherwise ordered by such court, and that the sentenced person be placed under the charge of a parol or peace officer during the term of such suspension, upon such terms as the court may determine. In no case shall a sentence be suspended under the provisions of this section unless the prisoner if sentenced to confinement in a penal institution be placed under the charge of a parol officer, who is a duly appointed and acting officer of the institution to which the person is sentenced. L. '21 ch. 69.

Minn. C. '05 §4796.

§8704. Prohibited Acts Misdemeanors. §17. Whenever the performance of any act is prohibited by any statute, and no penalty for the violation of such statute is imposed, the committing of such act shall be a misdemeanor. Minn. C. '05 §4859.

§8705. Acts Punishable Under Foreign Law. §18. An act or omission punishable as a crime in this state is not less so because it is also punishable under the laws of another state, government or country, unless the contrary is expressly declared in the law relating thereto. Minn. C. '05 4766.

§8706. Foreign Conviction or Acquittal. §19. Whenever, upon the trial of any person for a crime, it appears that the offense was committed in another state or country, under such circumstances that the courts of this state had jurisdiction thereof, and that the defendant has already been acquitted or convicted upon the merits, upon a criminal prosecution under the laws of from the time it is deposited in any postoffice or other place, or delivered to any person, with intent that it shall be forwarded; and the sender may be proceeded against in the county wherein it was so deposited or delivered, or in which it was received by the person to whom it was addressed. Minn. C. '05 §4769.

§8711. Commitment to Washington State Training School. §24. Whenever any boy between the ages of eight and sixteen years, or any girl between the ages of eight and eighteen years, shall be found guilty of any crime, except murder or manslaughter, the court may, in its discretion, order such person committed to the Washington State Training School to remain, in case of a boy, until he shall arrive at the age of eighteen years and, in case of a girl, until she shall arrive at the age of nineteen years, unless sooner paroled or legally discharged.

City and county prisoners put to work §§9320, 9334, 1674.

§8715. Suspending Sentences. §28. Whenever any person under the age of twenty-one years shall be convicted of any crime except murder, burglary in the first degree, arson in the first degree, robbery, carnal knowledge of a female child under the age of ten years, or rape, the court may in its discretion, at the time of imposing sentence upon such person, direct that such sentence be staid and suspended until otherwise ordered by such court.

Authorizes the court to suspend sentence upon a plea of guilty, and to commit the defendant thereafter, State v. Mallahan, 65 W. 287.

Court cannot suspend sentence on adult pleading guilty, State ex Lundin v. Court 102 W. 600.

§8716. Indeterminate Sentences. §29. Whenever any person shall be convicted of any felony for which no fixed period of confinement is imposed by law, the court shall, in addition to any fine or forfeiture which he may impose, direct that such person be confined in the state penitentiary, or in the Washington State Reformatory, as the case may be, for a term not less than the minimum nor greater than the maximum term of imprisonment prescribed by law for the offense of which such person shall be convicted; and where no minimum term of imprisonment is prescribed by law, the court shall fix the same in his discretion at not less than six months nor more than five years; and where no maximum term of imprisonment is prescribed by law, the court shall fix such maximum term of imprisonment.

§8718. Insane Prisoners. §31. Whenever, in the judgment of the court trying the same, any person convicted of a crime shall have been at the time of its commission unable by reason of his insanity, idiocy or imbecility to comprehend the nature and quality of his act, or to understand that it was wrong, or shall be at the time of his conviction or sentence insane or an idiot or imbecile, such court may in its discretion direct that such person be confined for treatment in one of the state hospitals for the insane or in the insane ward of the state penitentiary, until such person shall have recovered his sanity. In determining whether any person convicted of a crime was at the time of the commission thereof unable by reason of his insanity, idiocy or imbecility to comprehend the nature and quality of his act, or to understand that it was wrong, or is at the time of his conviction or sentence insane or an idiot or imbecile, the court may take counsel with one or more experts in the diagnosis and treatment of insanity, idiocy and imbecility, and may make such personal or other examination of the defendant as in his judgment may be necessary to aid in the determination.

§8720. Two or More Convictions. §33. Whenever a person shall be convicted of two or more offenses before sentence has been pronounced for either, the imprisonment to which he is sentenced upon the second or other subsequent conviction shall commence at the termination of the first or other prior term or terms of imprisonment to which he is sentenced; and whenever a person while under sentence of felony shall commit another felony and be sentenced to another term of imprisonment, such latter term shall not begin until the expiration of all prior terms.

§8721. Habitual Criminals. §34. Every person convicted in this state of any crime of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, or of petit larceny, or of any felony, who shall previously have been convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of any crime which under the laws of this state would amount to a felony, or who shall previously have been twice convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of petit larceny, or of any misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, shall be adjudged to be an habitual criminal and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than ten years.

Every person convicted in this state of any crime of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, or of petit larceny, or of any felony, who shall previously have been twice convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of any crime which under the laws of this state would amount to a felony, or who shall previously have been four times convicted, whether in this state or elsewhere, of petit larceny, or of any misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor of which fraud or intent to defraud is an element, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for life.

§8722. Prevention of Procreation. §35. Whenever any person shall be adjudged guilty of carnal abuse of a female person under the age of ten years, or of rape, or shall be adjudged to be an habitual criminal, the court may, in addition to such other punishment or confinement as may be imposed, direct an operation to be performed upon such person, for the prevention of procreation. Vasectomy not an unconstitutional punishment, State v. Fellen, 70 W. 65.

§8723. Convicts Protected—Forfeitures Abolished. §36. Every person sentenced to imprisonment in any penal institution shall be under the protection of the law, and any unauthorized injury to his person shall be punished in the same manner as if he were not so convicted or sentenced. A conviction of crime shall not work a forfeiture of any property, real or personal, or of any right or interest therein. All forfeitures in the nature of deodands, or in case of suicide or where a person flees from justice, are abolished.

§8724. Conviction of Public Officer Forfeits Trust. §37. The conviction of a public officer of any felony or malfeasance in office shall entail, in addition to such other penalty as may be imposed, the forfeiture of his office, and shall disqualify him from ever afterwards holding any public office in this state.

§8725. Convict as Witness. §38. Every person convicted of a crime shall be a competent witness in any civil or criminal proceeding, but his conviction may be proved for the purpose of affecting the weight of his testimony, either by the record thereof, or a copy of such record duly authenticated by the legal custodian thereof, or by other competent evidence, or by his cross-examination, upon which he shall answer any proper question relevant to that inquiry, and the party cross-examining shall not be concluded by his answer thereto. §8737. Repeal Does Not Revive Former Law. §50. The repeal or abrogation by this act of any existing law shall not revive any former law heretofore repealed, nor affect any right already existing or accrued or any action or proceeding already taken, except as in this act provided; nor does it repeal any private statute or statute affecting civil rights or liabilities not expressly repealed.

§8738. Definition of Terms. §51. In construing the provisions of this act, save when otherwise plainly declared or clearly apparent from the context, the following rules shall be observed:

1. Each of the words "neglect," "negligence," "negligent," and "negligently" shall import a want of such attention to the nature or probable consequences of an act or omission as an ordinarily prudent man usually exercises in his own business.

2. Each of the words "corrupt" and "corruptly" shall import a wrongful desire to acquire or cause some pecuniary or other advantage to himself or another, by the person to whom applicable.

3. "Malice" and "maliciously" shall import an evil intent, wish or design to vex, annoy or injure another person. Malice may be inferred from an act done in wilfull disregard of the rights of another, or an act wrongfully done without just cause or excuse, or an act or omission of duty betraying a wilfull disregard of social duty.

4. The word "knowingly" imports a knowledge that the facts exist which constitute the act or omission of a crime, and does not require knowledge of its unlawfulness; knowledge of any particular fact may be inferred from the knowledge of such other facts as should put an ordinarily prudent man upon inquiry.

5. Whenever an intent to defraud constitutes a part of a crime, it is not necessary to aver or prove an intent to defraud any particular person.

6. The word "boat" shall include ships, steamers and other structures adapted to navigation or movement from place to place by water.

7. The word "signature" shall include any memorandum, mark, or sign made with intent to authenticate any instrument or writing, or the subscription of any person thereto.

8. The word "writing" shall include printing.

9. The word "property" shall include both real and personal property.

10. The term "real property" shall include every estate, interest and right in lands, tenements and hereditaments, corporeal or incorporeal.

11. The term "personal property" shall include dogs and all domestic animals and birds, water, gas and electricity, all kinds or descriptions of money, chattels and effects, all instruments or writings completed and ready to be delivered or issued by the maker, whether actually delivered or issued or not, by which any claim, privilege, right, obligation or authority, or any right or title to property real or personal, is, or purports to be, or upon the happening of some future event may be evidenced, created, acknowledged, transferred, increased, diminished, encumbered, defeated, discharged or affected, and every right and interest therein.

12. The word "bond" shall include an undertaking.

13. Words in the present tense shall include the future tense; and in the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter genders; and in the singular shall include the plural; and in the plural shall include the singular.

14. The word "person" shall include a corporation or joint stock association; and whenever it is used to designate a party whose property may be the subject of an offense it shall also include the state, or any other state, government or country which may lawfully own property within this state.

15. The term "judge" shall include every judicial officer authorized, alone or with others, to hold or preside over a court of record.

16. Any person shall be deemed an "owner" of any property who has a general or special property in the whole or any part thereof, or lawful possession thereof, either actual or constructive.

17. The words "dwelling house" shall include every building or structure which shall have been usually occupied by a person lodging therein at night, and whenever it shall be so constructed as to consist of two or more parts or rooms occupied or intended to be occupied, whether permanently or temporarily, by different tenants separately by usually lodging therein at night, or for any other separate purpose, each part shall be deemed a separate dwelling house of the tenant occupying the same.

18. The word "building" shall include every house, shed, boat, water craft, railway car, tent or booth, whether completed or not, suitable for affording shelter for any human being, or as a place where any property is or shall be kept for use, sale or deposit.

19. The word "night time" shall include the period between sunset and sunrise; the word "daytime" the period between sunrise and sunset.

20. The word "break," when used in connection with the crime of burglary, shall include:

(a) Breaking or violently detaching any part, internal or external, of a building;

(b) Opening, for the purpose of entering therein, any outer door of a building or of any room, apartment or set of apartments therein separately used and occupied, or any window, shutter, scuttle or other thing used for covering or closing any opening thereto or therein, or which gives passage from one part thereof to another;

(c) Obtaining entrance into such building or apartment by any threat or artifice, used for that purpose, or by collusion with any person therein;

(d) Entering such building, room or apartment by or through any pipe, chimney or other opening, or by excavating or digging through or under a building or the walls or foundation thereof.

21. The word "enter," when constituting an element or part of a crime, shall include the entrance of the offender, or the insertion of any part of his body, or of any instrument or weapon held in his hand and used or intended to be used to threaten or intimidate a person, or to detach or remove property.

22. The term "railway" or "railroad" shall include all railways, railroads and street railways, whether operated by steam, electricity or any other motive power.

23. The words "indicted" and "indictment" shall include "informed against" and "information"; and the words "informed against" and "information" shall include the words "indicted" and "indictment."

24. The words "officer," and "public officer" shall include all assistants, deputies, clerks and employes of any public officer and all persons exercising or assuming to exercise any of the powers or functions of a public officer.

25. The word "juror" shall include a talesman, and extend to jurors in all courts, whether of record or not.

26. The word "prisoner" shall include any person held in custody under process of law, or under lawful arrest.

27. The word "prison" shall mean any place designated by law for the keeping of persons held in custody under process of law, or under lawful arrest.

1. By word of mouth or writing shall advocate, advise or teach the duty, necessity or propriety of overthrowing or overturning organized government by force or violence, or by assassination of the executive head or of any of the executive officials of government, or by any unlawful means; or

2. Shall print, publish, edit, issue or knowingly circulate, sell, distribute or publicly display any book, paper, document, or written or printed matter in any form, containing or advocating, advising or teaching the doctrine that organized government should be overthrown by force, violence or any unlawful means; or,

3. Shall openly, wilfully and deliberately justify by word of mouth or writing the assassination or unlawful killing or assaulting of any executive or other officer of the United States or of any state or of any civilized nation having an organized government because of his official character, or any other crime, with intent to teach, spread or advocate the propriety of the doctrines of criminal anarchy; or

4. Shall organize or help to organize or become a member of or voluntarily assemble with any society, group or assembly of persons formed to teach or advocate such doctrine,

Shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both.

§8747. Inciting Breach of Peace. §312. Every person who shall wilfully print, publish, edit, issue, or knowingly circulate, sell, distribute or display any book, paper, document or written or printed matter, in any form, advocating, encouraging or inciting, or having a tendency to encourage or incite the commission of any crime, breach of the peace or act of violence, or which shall tend to encourage or advocate disrespect for law or for any court or courts of justice, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

§8748. — Liability of Editors and Others. §313. Every editor or proprietor of a book, newspaper or serial and every manager of a partnership or incorporated association by which a book, newspaper or serial is issued, is chargeable with the publication of any matter contained in such book, newspaper or serial. But in every prosecution therefor, the defendant may show in his defense that the matter complained of was published without his knowledge or fault and against his wishes, by another who had no authority from him to make the publication, and was retracted by him as soon as known.

§8749. Anarchy—Assemblages for. §314. Whenever two or more persons assemble for the purpose of advocating or teaching the doctrines of criminal anarchy, as defined in section 310 of this act, such an assembly is unlawful, and every person voluntarily participating therein by his presence, aid or instigation, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than ten years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

§8750. — Permitting Premises to Be Used. §315. Every owner, agent, superintendent, janitor, caretaker or occupant of any place, building or room who shall wilfully and knowingly permit therein any assemblage of persons prohibited by section 314 of this act, or who, after notification that the premises are so used, shall permit such use to be continued, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

§8751. Witness' Privilege. §316. No person shall be excused from giving evidence upon an investigation or prosecution for any of the offenses specified in sections 311 or 314 of this act, upon the ground that the evidence might tend to criminate himself.

§8829. Orders to the Court—Payments to Wife or Children. §2. In any case enumerated in the previous section, the court may render one of the following orders:

1st: Should a fine be imposed it may be directed by the court to be paid in whole or in part to the wife, or to the guardian, or to the custodian of the child or children, or to an individual appointed by the court as trustee.

2nd: Before trial, or after conviction, with the consent of the defendant, the court, in its discretion, having regard to the circumstances and to the financial ability or earning capacity of the defendant, shall have the power to make an order, which shall be subject to change by it from time to time as circumstances may require, directing the defendant to pay a certain sum weekly during such time as the court may direct, to the wife or to the guardian, or custodian of the minor child or children, or to an individual appointed by the court, and to release the defendant from custody or probation during such time as the court may direct, upon his or her entering into a recognizance, with or without sureties, in such sum as the court may direct. The condition of the recognizance to be such that if the defendant shall make his or her appearance in court whenever ordered to do so, and shall further comply with the terms of the order and of any subsequent modification thereof, then the recognizance shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

3rd: Where conviction is had and sentence to imprisonment in the county jail is imposed, the court may direct that the person so convicted shall be compelled to work upon the public roads or highways, or any other public work, in the county where such conviction is had, during the time of such sentence. And it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of the county where such conviction and sentence is had, and where such work is performed by persons under sentence to the county jail, to allow and order the payment, out of the current fund, to the wife, or to the guardian, or the custodian of the child or children, or to an individual appointed by the court as trustee, at the end of each calendar month, for the support of such wife, child, or children, ward or wards, a sum not to exceed one and fifty one-hundredths dollars for each day's work of such person.

§8830. Evidence. §3. Proof of the abandonment or non-support of a wife, or the desertion of a child or children, ward or wards, or the omission to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance for a child or children, ward or wards, is prima facie evidence that such abandonment or non-support, or omission to furnish food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance, is wilful. The provisions of section one are applicable whether the parents of such child or children are married or divorced and regardless of any decree made in said divorce action relative to alimony or to the support of the wife or child or children.

FOOD, ETC.

Selling Poison Without Label, and Recording the Same.

§8848. Labeling Drugs. §255. Every person who, in putting up any drug, medicine, or food, or preparation used in medical practice, or making up any prescription, or filling any order for drugs, medicines, food or preparation shall put any untrue label, stamp or other designation of contents upon any box, bottle or other package containing a drug, medicine, food or preparation used in medical practice, or substitute or dispense a different article for or in lieu of any article prescribed, ordered, or demanded, or put up a greater or less quantity of any ingredient specified in any such prescription, order or demand than that prescribed, ordered, or demanded, or otherwise deviate from the terms of the prescription, order, or demand by substituting one drug for another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, however, That, except in the case of a physician's prescriptions, nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to prevent or impair or in any manner affect the right of an apothecary, druggist, pharmacist or other person to recommend the purchase of an article other than that ordered, required or demanded, but of a similar nature, or to sell such other article in place or in lieu of an article ordered, required or demanded, with the knowledge and consent of the purchaser. N.Y.P.C. §401.

In trial for manslaughter instruction that violation is misdemeanor is not error, State v. Takano 94 W. 119.

§8849. Labeling Poison. §256. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell at retail or furnish any of the poisons named in the schedules hereinafter set forth, without affixing or causing to be affixed to the bottle, box, vessel or package, a label containing the name of the article and the word "poison" distinctly shown, with the name and place of business of the seller, all printed in red ink, together with the name of such poison printed or written thereon in plain, legible characters, which schedules are as follows, to-wit:

Schedule "A." Arsenic, cyanide of potassium, hydrocyanic acid, cocaine, morphine, strychnia and all other poisonous vegetable alkaloids and their salts, oil of bitter almonds, containing hydro-cyanic acid, opium and its preparations, except paragoric and such others as contain less than two grains of opium to the ounce.

Schedule "B." Aconite, belladonna, cantharides, colchicum, conium, cotton root, digitalis, ergot, hellebore, henbane, phytolacca, strophanthus, oil of tansy, veratrum viride, and their pharmaceutical preparations, arsenical solutions, carbolic acid, chloral hydrate, chloroform, corrosive sublimate, creosote, croton oil, mineral acids, oxalic acid, paris green, salts of lead, salts of zinc, white hellebore or any drug, chemical or preparation which, according to standard works on medicine or materia medica, is liable to be destructive to adult human life in quantities of sixty grains or less. Every person who shall dispose of or sell at retail or furnish any poisons included under schedule A shall, before delivering the same, make or cause to be made an entry in a book kept for that purpose, stating the date of sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the name and the quantity of the poison, the purpose for which it is represented by the purchaser to be required and the name of the dispenser, such book to be always open for inspection by the proper authorities, and to be preserved for at least five years after the last entry. He shall not deliver any of said poisons to any minor, intoxicated person, or person known to be of unsound mind, or to any person without satisfying himself that the purchaser is aware of its poisonous character and that the said poison is to be used for a legitimate purpose. The foregoing portions of this section shall not apply to the dispensing of medicines, or poisons, on physicians' prescriptions. Wholesale dealers in drugs, medicines, pharmaceutical preparations or chemicals shall affix or cause to be affixed to every bottle, box, parcel or outer enclosure of an original package containing any of the articles enumerated under said schedule A, a suitable brand in red ink with the word "poison" upon it. Every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. N.Y.P.C. §402.

§8850. Narcotic Drugs. §257. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, furnish or dispose of any opium, morphine, alkaloid-cocaine, or alpha or beta eucaine, or any derivative, mixture or preparation of any of them, except upon the signed prescription of a physician duly licensed under the laws of this state, which prescription shall be retained by the person dispensing the same, shall be filled but once, and of which no copy shall be taken by any person. The person dispensing the same shall at the time thereof indorse on the back of such prescription the name and street and house number of the person to whom dispensed; and the proprietor or manager of the store where dispensed shall keep all such prescriptions in a permanent file, separate from all other prescriptions, in his place of business for the period of two years after the same shall have been dispensed, and shall at any time allow the same to be inspected, and copies thereof to be made by any peace officer, the prosecuting attorney of the county where sold, or any authorized inspector of drugs: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit any manufacturer or licensed druggist from selling or delivering any of the drugs named to a person known to be a licensed physician or licensed druggist, nor prohibit a physician from dispensing the same in good faith to his patients, nor prohibit the sale of patent or proprietary medicines containing opium or morphine, in combination or compound with other active elements wherein the dose of opium is less than one-quarter grain, or the dose of morphine is less than one-twentieth grain. Every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. N.Y.P.C. §405a.

ROBBERY.

§9116. Robbery Defined. §166. Robbery is the unlawful taking of personal property from the person of another, or in his presence, against his will, by means of force or violence or fear of injury, immediate or future, to his person or property, or the person or property of a member of his family, or of anyone in his company at the time of the robbery. Such force or fear must be used to obtain or retain possession of the property, or to prevent or overcome resistance to the taking; in either of which cases the degree of force is immaterial. If used merely as a means of escape, it does not constitute robbery. Such taking constitutes robbery whenever it appears that, although the taking was fully completed without the knowledge of the person from whom taken, such knowledge was prevented by the use of force or fear. Every person who shall commit robbery shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than five years. N.Y.P.C. §§224-33; Minn. C. '05 §4907.

CHAPTER 5.—Crimes Against The Person. Suicide.

§9118. Attempting Suicide. §134. Every person who, with intent to take his own life, shall commit upon himself any act dangerous to human life, or which, if committed upon or toward another person and followed by death as a consequence, would render the perpetrator chargeable with homicide, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars. N.Y.P.C. §174; Minn. C. '05 §4870.

§9119. Aiding Suicide. §135. Every person who, in any manner, shall wilfully advise, encourage, abet or assist another in taking his own life shall be guilty of manslaughter. N.Y.P.C. §175; Minn. C. '05 §4871.

§9121. Incapacity of Person No Defense. §137. The fact that the person attempting to take his own life was incapable of committing crime shall not be a defense to a prosecution under either of sections 135 or 136 of this act. N.Y.P.C. §177; Minn. C. '05 §4873.

SUNDAY.*Sabbath Breaking.

§9122. Sabbath Breaking Defined. §242. Every person who, on the first day of the week, shall promote any noisy or boisterous sport or amusement, disturbing the peace of the day; or who shall conduct or carry on, or perform or employ any labor about any trade or manufacture, except livery stables, garages and works of necessity or charity conducted in an orderly manner

SEXUAL DISEASES.

AN ACT relating to crimes, prohibiting the advertising of the treatment and cure of sexual diseases, providing the penalty therefor and repealing sections [9022 and 9131-123 Pierce's Code] 2462 and 2710 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington. L. '21 ch. 168.

§9116-1. Advertising Cures—Penalty. §1. Every person who shall advertise, either in his own name, or in the name of another person, co-partnership or pretended co-partnership, association, corporation or pretended corporation, in any newspaper, pamphlet, circular, periodical or in any other written or printed paper, and every owner, publisher, editor or manager of any newspaper, pamphlet, circular, periodical or other written or printed paper; who shall publish, or permit to be published or inserted, an advertisement in any newspaper, pamphlet, circular, periodical, or other written or printed paper, owned or controlled by him, or of which he is the editor or manager, and every person who shall distribute, circulate, display or cause to be distributed, circulated or displayed, any newspaper, pamphlet, circular, periodical, or other written or printed paper containing any advertisement for the treatment or cure of venereal diseases, the restoration of lost manhood, or of lost vitality or lost vigor, or monthly regulators for women, or the treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, or diseases caused by sexual vice, self-abuse or any disease of like cause, or the sale of any medicine, drug, compound, mixture, appliance, or any means whatever, whereby sexual diseases of men or women may be cured or relieved, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

§9116-2. Evidence. §2. Any advertisement in any newspaper, periodical, pamphlet, circular or other written or printed paper, containing the words, "lost manhood", "lost vitality", "lost vigor," "monthly regulators for women", or words synonymous therewith, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to violate this act by the person or persons so advertising, or causing to be advertised, or publishing or permitting to be published, or distributing, circulating and displaying or causing to be distributed, circulated or displayed, and such other advertisement.

§9126. Preventing Religious Observance. §246. Every person, who by threats or violence shall wilfully prevent another person from performing any lawful act enjoined upon or recommended to him by the religion which he professes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. N.Y.P.C. §273; Minn. C. 65 § 4984.

§9127. Disturbing Religious Meeting. §247. Every person who shall wilfully disturb, interrupt, or disquiet any assemblage of people met for religious worship—

1. By noisy, rude or indecent behavior, profane discourse, either within the place where such meeting is held, or so near it as to disturb the order and solemnity of the meeting; or,

2. By exhibiting shows or plays, or promoting any racing of animals, or sary, moral persuasion being sufficient, State v. Stone, 66 W. 625.

AN ACT relating to crimes, providing penalties for the dissemination of doctrines inimical to public tranquility and orderly government, and repealing chapter 3 of the Laws of 1919 [Emergency]. Approved March 19, 1919. L. '19 ch 174.

§9127-1. Political Syndicalism Defined—Penalty. §1. Whoever shall

(1) Advocate, advise, teach or justify crime, sedition, violence, intimidation or injury as a means or way of effecting or resisting any industrial, economic, social or political change, or

(2) Print, publish, edit, issue or knowingly sell, circulate, distribute or display any book, pamphlet, paper, hand-bill, document, or written or printed matter of any form, advocating, advising, teaching or justifying crime, sedition, violence, intimidation or injury as a means or way of effecting or resisting any industrial, economic, social or political change, or

(3) Organize or help to organize, give aid to, be a member of or voluntarily assemble with any group of persons formed to advocate, advise or teach crime, sedition, violence, intimidation or injury as a means or way of effecting or resisting any industrial, economic, social or political change,

§9127-2. Permitting Use of Premises—Penalty. §2. Any owner, lessee, agent, occupant or person in control of any property who shall knowingly permit the use thereof by any person or persons engaged in doing any of the acts or things made unlawful by the preceding section, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

AN ACT to protect certain industrial enterprises wherein persons are employed for wage, and to prevent interference with the management or control thereof, and to prohibit the dissemination of doctrines inimical to industry, and prescribing penalties. [Emergency.] Approved March 19, 1919. L. '19 ch. 173.

§9127-3. Industrial Syndicalism Defined—Penalty. §1. Whoever, with intent that his act shall, or with reason to believe that it may, injure, interfere with, or obstruct any agricultural, stock-raising, lumbering, mining, quarrying, fishing, manufacturing, transportation, mercantile or building enterprise wherein persons are employed for wage, shall wilfully injure or destroy, or attempt or threaten to injure or destroy, any property whatsoever, or shall wilfully derange, or attempt or threaten to derange, any mechanism or appliance, shall be guilty of a felony.

§9127-4. Supplanting Owner—Penalty. §2. Whoever, with intent to supplant, nullify or impair the owner's management or control of any enterprise described in the preceding section, shall unlawfully take or retain, or attempt or threaten unlawfully to take or retain, possession or control of any property or instrumentality used in such enterprise, shall be guilty of a felony.

§9127-5. Advocacy of—Assemblage—Penalty. §3. Whoever shall

(1) Advocate, advise or teach the necessity, duty, propriety or expediency of doing or practicing any of the acts made unlawful by the two preceding sections, or

(2) Print, publish, edit, issue or knowingly sell, circulate, distribute or display any book, pamphlet, paper, hand-bill, document or written or printed matter of any form, advocating, advising or teaching such necessity, duty, propriety or expediency, or

(3) By word of mouth or writing justify any act or conduct with intent to advocate, advise or teach such necessity, duty, propriety or expediency, or

Shall be guilty of a felony.

§9127-6. Criminal Laws Saved. §4. This act shall not be construed to repeal or amend any existing penal statute.

TREASON.

CHAPTER 3.—Crimes Against the Sovereignty of the State. Treason.

§9128. Treason Defined—Penalty. §65. Treason against the people of the state consists in—

1. Levying war against the people of the state, or
2. Adhering to its enemies, or
3. Giving them aid and comfort.

Treason is punishable by death.

No person shall be convicted for treason unless upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act or by confession in open court. N.Y.P.C. §§37-8; Minn. C.'05 §4793.

Constitution defines treason, art. 1, §27.

§9129. Levying War. §66. To constitute levying war against the state an actual act of war must be committed. To conspire to levy war is not enough. When persons arise in insurrection with intent to prevent, in general, by force and intimidation, the execution of a statute of this state, or to force its repeal, they shall be guilty of levying war. But an endeavor, although by numbers and force of arms, to resist the execution of a law in a single instance, and for a private purpose, is not levying war. N.Y.P.C. §40; Minn. C.'05 §4795.

VAGRANCY.

§9131. Vagrancy Defined. §436. Every—

1. Person who asks or receives any compensation, gratuity or reward for practicing fortune telling, palmistry or clairvoyance; or,
2. Person who keeps a place where lost or stolen property is concealed; or,
3. Person practicing or soliciting prostitution or keeping a house of prostitution; or,
4. Common drunkards found in any place where intoxicating liquors are sold or kept for sale, or in an intoxicated condition; or,
5. Common gambler found in any place where gambling is conducted or where gambling paraphernalia or devices are kept; or,
6. Healthy person who solicits alms; or,
7. Lewd disorderly or dissolute person; or,
8. Person who wanders about the streets at late or unusual hours of the night without any visible or lawful business; or,
9. Person who lodges in any barn, shed, shop, outhouse, vessel, car, saloon or other place not kept for lodging purposes, without the permission of the owner or person entitled to the possession thereof; or,

10. Person who lives or works in a house of prostitution or solicits for any prostitute or house of prostitution; or,

11. Person who solicits business for an attorney around any court, jail, morgue or hospital; or elsewhere or,

12. Habitual user of opium, morphine, alkaloid-cocaine or alpha or beta eucaine, or any derivation mixture or preparation of any of them; or,

13. Person having no visible means of support, who does not seek employment, nor work when employment is offered to him; or,

14. Person who by his own confession thereto or prior conviction thereof is known to have been guilty of larceny, burglary, robbery or any crime of which fraud or an intent to defraud is an element, who shall be found in any drinking saloon or cellar, or any public dance hall or music hall where intoxicating liquors are sold, or be found intoxicated, or who, except upon lawful business, shall go about any dark street or alley or any residence section of any city or town in the night-time, or loiter about any steamboat landing, passenger depot, banking institution or crowded street, shop or thoroughfare, or any public meeting or gathering, or place where people gather in crowds—

Is a vagrant, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

Justice's jurisdiction §9131-121.

Is constitutional and extends to fortune telling, though the principles of astrology be followed, State v. Neitzel, 69 W. 567.

BANKS.

AN ACT punishing bank officers for receiving deposits knowing the bank to be insolvent. Approved March 10, 1893. Laws '93 p 271.

§9131-1. Bank Officer Receiving Deposits in Insolvent Bank. §1. Any president, director, manager, cashier or other officer of any banking institution, who shall receive or assent to the reception of deposits after he shall have knowledge of the fact that such banking institution is insolvent or in failing circumstances, shall be guilty of felony, and punished as hereinafter provided.

Law valid though constitution creates double liability, State v. Olson 35 W. 149.

§9131-2. — Penalty. §2. Any person violating the provisions of Sec. 1, of this act, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period of not less than two, nor more than twenty, years.

BEVERAGE RECEPTACLES.

Supplementary—AN ACT to protect manufacturers, bottlers and dealers in ale, porters, lager beer, soda, mineral waters, and other beverages, from the loss of their casks, barrels, kegs, bottles and boxes. Approved March 6, 1897. Laws '97 p 50.

§9131-3. Filing of Marks for Beverage Receptacles. §1. That all persons engaged in the manufacture, bottling or selling of ale, porter, lager beer, soda, mineral water, or other beverages in casks, kegs, bottles or boxes, with their names, or other marks of ownership stamped or marked thereon, may file in the office of secretary of the state and also in the office of the auditor of the county in which such articles are manufactured, bottled or sold, a description of names or marks so used by them, and cause the same to be printed for six successive weeks in a weekly newspaper, printed in the English language in counties where no daily newspaper is printed or published; and in counties where a daily newspaper is printed and published, the same shall be published in a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed in the English language six times a week for six successive weeks, in counties where such articles are manufactured, bottled or sold.

§9131-4. Conversion or Use of Receptacles—Penalty. §2. It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person or persons hereafter, without the written consent of the owner or owners thereof, to fill with ale, porter, lager beer or soda, mineral water or other beverages, for sale or to be furnished to customers, any such casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, or boxes so marked or stamped, or to sell, dispose of, buy or traffic in, or wantonly destroy any such cask, barrel, keg, bottle or box so marked, stamped, by the owner or owners thereof, after such owner or owners shall have complied with the provisions of the first section of this act. Any person or persons who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined five dollars for each and every cask, barrel, keg, or box, and fifty cents for each and every bottle so by him, her or them filled, bought, sold, used, trafficked in or wantonly destroyed, together with costs of suit for first offense, and ten dollars for each and every cask, barrel, keg and box, and one dollar for each and every bottle so filled, bought, sold, used, trafficked in, or wantonly destroyed, together with the costs of suit for each subsequent offense.

§9131-5. Use or Possession Prima Facie Evidence. §3. The using by any person other than the rightful owner thereof without such written permission, of any such cask, barrel, keg, bottle or box, for the sale therein of ale, porter, lager beer, soda, mineral waters or other beverages, or to be furnished to customers, or the buying, selling or trafficking in any such barrel, keg, bottle or box, by any person other than the owner, without such written permission, or the fact that any junk dealer or dealers in casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, or boxes, shall have in his or her possession any such cask, barrel, keg, bottle or box so marked or stamped and registered as aforesaid, without such written permission, shall, and is hereby declared to be prima facie evidence that such use, buying, selling, trafficking in or possession is unlawful within the meaning of this act.

BIGAMY.

§9131-6. Rule of Proof. §5. A recorded certificate of marriage, or a certified copy thereof, there being no decree of divorce, proves the marriage of a person for the purpose of this act. L. '95 372.

§9131-7. Absence Is Presumption of Death. §946.—183. The provisions of the preceding section do not extend to any person whose husband or wife has continually remained beyond seas, or who has voluntarily withdrawn from the other and remained absent for the space of five years together, the party marrying again not knowing the other to be living within that time; nor to any person who has good reason to believe such husband or wife to be dead; nor to any person who has been legally divorced, from the bonds of matrimony.

BRIDGES.

§9131-8. Driving Fast Over Bridges. §931.—168. That any person or persons, riding or driving faster than a walk, over any bridge located on any county or state road, composed of one or more spans, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not to exceed ten dollars nor less than five dollars to be collected by any court having competent jurisdiction thereof; and all moneys, so collected, shall be paid into the county treasury and become a part of the school fund. Provided, That this section shall apply only to bridges over thirty feet in length.

CHARCOAL.

§9131-9. Charcoal Measure. §1286.—525. All baskets for measuring charcoal, in this state shall contain two bushels and shall be of the following dimensions, viz: Nineteen (19) inches in breadth in every part thereof, and seventeen and one-half inches (17½) deep, measuring from the top of the basket to the highest part of the bottom and be well heaped; Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed so as to prevent the use of any basket, box or other measure in conformity with the standard of measurements as provided in this section.

§9131-10. — Penalty. §1287.—526. Any person or persons who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each and every offense so committed to be collected in similar manner as other fines for similar cases are now collected and all fines collected as aforesaid shall belong to the school fund of the county in which such offense or offenses may have been committed.

COUNTERFEITING.

§9131-11. Counterfeiting Gold Dust. §857.—94. Any person who shall counterfeit any kind or species of gold dust, gold bullion or bars, lumps, pieces or nuggets of gold, or any description whatsoever of uncoined gold, currently passing in this state, or shall alter or put off any kind of uncoined gold, mentioned in this section, for the purpose of defrauding any person, or persons, body politic or corporate, or shall make any instrument for counterfeiting, any kind of uncoined gold as aforesaid, knowing the purpose for which such instrument was made, or shall knowingly have in his possession, and secretly keep any instrument for the purpose of counterfeiting any kind of uncoined gold as aforesaid; every such person so offending, or any person or persons aiding or abetting in or about said offense or offenses, shall be deemed guilty of counterfeiting, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Supplementary—AN ACT for the prevention of cruelty to children, animals, fowls and birds and providing punishment therefor. Approved February 23, 1893. Laws '93 p 40.

§9131-12. Cruelty to Animals. §2. Whosoever shall overdrive, overload or drive when overloaded, overwork, cruelly beat, mutilate, torture, torment or deprive of necessary sustenance, cruelly abandon or neglect, or cause the same to be done, any animal, or being the owner or custodian thereof shall inflict unnecessary cruelty, or fails to provide it with proper food, drink, or who cruelly works such animals when unfit for labor, carries it or causes it to be carried in or upon a vehicle, or otherwise, in an unnecessarily cruel or inhuman manner, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months.

Compare later section, §1960.

§9131-13. Corporations Liable. §3. A corporation violating any of the provisions of either of the two preceding sections shall be punished by fine, as therein provided; and corporations in regard to animals transported, owned or used by them, or in their custody, shall be responsible for the knowledge and the acts of their agents and servants.

§9131-14. Railroad Companies' Methods. §4. Railroad companies in carrying or transporting animals shall not permit them to be confined in cars for a longer period than forty-eight consecutive hours without unloading them for rest, water and feeding for a period of at least two consecutive hours, unless prevented from so unloading them by unavoidable accident. In estimating such confinement the time during which the animals have been confined without such rest on connecting roads from which they are received shall be included. Animals so unloaded shall during such rest, be properly fed, watered by the owner or person having the custody of them, or in case of his default in so doing, then by the railroad company transporting them, at the expense of said owner or person in custody thereof, and said company shall in such case have a lien upon such animals for food, care and custody furnished and shall not be liable for such detention of such animals. If animals are transported where they can and do have proper food, water, space and opportunity for rest, the foregoing provision in regard to their being unloaded shall not apply. Violators of this section shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Compare later section, §1961.

§9131-15. Forfeiture of Animals—Sale by Auction. §7. After such seizure of said fowls, birds, dogs or other animals as provided for in section five of this act, application shall be made to a trial justice, or municipal court, for an order of forfeiture of the same, and if upon the hearing of the same, such notice having been given of the hearing as the court shall order, it shall be found that such fowls, birds, dogs or other animals, or any of them, at the time of such seizure, were engaged in fighting at an exhibition thereof, or were owned, kept, possessed or trained by any person with intent that they should be so engaged, all such fowls, birds, dogs or other animals, shall be adjudged forfeit, and such justice or court shall thereupon issue an order for selling the same at auction to the highest bidder, within twenty-four hours, the proceeds to be paid into the common school fund of the county where such seizure is made. Any fowls, birds, dogs or other animals seized as hereinbefore provided which are not adjudged forfeit, shall be delivered to the owner or the person entitled to the possession thereof. The necessary costs in the aforesaid proceedings shall be allowed and paid as costs in criminal prosecutions are paid.

Misdemeanor to kill sea gulls, §9131-98; honey bees, §145.

§9131-16. Cruelty to Birds. §8. Whosoever shall wantonly or cruelly pluck, maim, torture, deprive of necessary food or drink, or wantonly kill any fowl or insectivorous bird, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding twenty dollars.

§9131-17. Duties of Peace Officers. §9. Any judge, justice of the peace, police judge, sheriff, constable or police officer may arrest any person found committing any of the cruelties hereinbefore enumerated, without a warrant for such arrest, and any officer or member of any humane society, or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, may cause the immediate arrest of any person engaged in, or who shall have committed such cruelties, upon making oral complaint to any sheriff, constable or police officer, or such officer or member of such society may himself arrest any person found perpetrating any of the cruelties herein enumerated: Provided, That said person making such oral complaint or making such arrest shall file with a proper officer a written complaint, stating the act or acts complained of, within twenty-four hours, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, after such arrest shall have been made.

§9131-18. Disposition of Fines. §10. All fines herein provided for shall be paid into the common school fund of the county in which such fine shall be imposed.

ELECTIONS.

§9131-19. Fraud on Voter. §902.—139. If any person shall fraudulently cause, or attempt to cause any elector at any election pursuant to law in this state, to vote for a person different from the one he intended to vote for, such person so offending shall be fined not more than one hundred nor less than ten dollars.

§9131-20. Double Voting. §903. If any person shall vote, or attempt to vote more than once at any election, or shall knowingly hand in two or more tickets together, or, having voted in one township, precinct, ward, or county shall afterward, on the same day, vote, or attempt to vote, in another township, precinct, ward, or county, such person shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall be incapable of voting at any election or holding any office for two years thereafter. L. '11 394.

§9131-21. Election Officer Influencing Voter. §904. If any inspector, judge, or clerk of an election shall attempt to induce, by persuasion, menace, or reward, or promise thereof, any elector to vote for any person, such inspector, judge, or clerk shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. L. '11 394.

§9131-22. Voter Not Qualified. §905. If any person, knowing that he does not possess the legal qualifications of a voter, at any election authorized by law to be held in this state for any office whatever, shall vote at such election, such person shall be guilty of a felony. L. '11 394.

§9131-23. Officer Tampering With Ballot. §906. If any judge, inspector, clerk, or any other officer of an election shall open or mark, by folding or otherwise, any ticket presented by such elector at such election, or attempt to find out the names thereon, or suffer the same to be done by any other person, before such ticket is deposited in the ballot box, such judge, inspector, or clerk shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. L. '11 394.

§9131-24. Sale of Liquor on Election Day. §§907-8. Any person who shall barter, sell, give away, or in any manner dispose of any intoxicating liquors, on the day of any general or special election of state, county, or municipal officers within the state, district, county, or corporation in which said election is held, and before the polls have closed, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court. L. '91 119.

§9131-25. Intimidating or Treating Voter. §909. If any person shall use menace, force, threat or corrupt means at or previous to any election held pursuant to the laws of the state towards any elector to hinder or deter such elector from voting at said election, or shall directly or indirectly offer any bribe or reward of any kind to induce any elector to vote for or against any person, or proposition, or shall authorize any person so to do, such person shall be guilty of a felony. L. '11 394.

§9131-26. Inducing Indian to Vote. §910.—147. If any person shall induce or attempt to induce any Indian to vote or offer his vote, at any such election, such person so offending, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to which may be added imprisonment, in the county jail not to exceed three months, Provided,

That this section shall not be so construed as to include Indians, who are citizens and entitled to vote under the amendments to the constitution of the United States and the laws of congress.

§9131-27. Election Officers Allowing Double Voting. §911. If any inspector or judge of any such election shall knowingly permit any elector to cast a second vote at any such election, or shall knowingly permit any person not a qualified elector to vote at any such election, such inspector or judge of election shall be guilty of a felony and be incapable of holding any office in this state for five years thereafter. L. '11 394.

§9131-28. All Duties Enjoined or Prohibited. §912. Every person charged with the performance of any duty under the provisions of any law of this state relating to elections, or to any September primary or any other primary election held pursuant to law or the provisions of any charter or ordinance of any town or city of this state, who wilfully neglects or refuses to perform such duty, or who, in the performance of such duty, or in his official capacity, knowingly or fraudulently violates any of the provisions of law relating to such duty, shall be guilty of a felony. L. '11 394.

Section is general in application—applies to primary, State v. Robinson 69 W. 172.

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES.

Supplementary—AN ACT making it unlawful to injure, obstruct or destroy any line erected or constructed for the transmission of electrical current, or appurtenances or appliances connected therewith; or to remove, injure or destroy any house, shop, building or other structure or machinery connected therewith; or to set any fire that shall result in such injury or destruction; or to prevent the removal of any obstruction to such lines, and prescribing the punishment therefor. Approved March 13, 1899. Laws '99 p 180.

§9131-29. Tampering With Electric Appliances. §1. It shall be unlawful for anyone within the State of Washington to wilfully or maliciously, and without the consent of the owner, take down, remove, injure, obstruct, displace or destroy any line erected or constructed for the transmission of electrical current, or any poles, wires, conduits, cables, insulators, or any support upon which wires or cables may be suspended, or any part of any such line or appurtenances or apparatus connected therewith, or to sever any wire or cable thereof or in any manner to interrupt the transmission of electrical current over and along any such line; or to take down, remove, injure, or destroy any house, shop, building or other structure or machinery connected with or necessary to the use of any line erected, or constructed for the transmission of electrical current.

Later act §8977.

§9131-30. — By Setting Fire. §2. It shall be unlawful for any person within the State of Washington to wilfully or maliciously set any fire that shall result in the destruction, or injury of any line erected or constructed for the transmission of electrical current or any poles, conduits, wires, cables, insulators or any support upon which wires or cables may be suspended, or any part of any such line, or appurtenances or apparatus connected therewith, or any house, shop, building or other structure or machinery connected with or necessary to the use of any line erected or constructed for the transmission of electrical current, or to set any fire that shall in any manner interrupt the transmission of electrical current over and along any such line.

Arson generally, §8752.

§9131-31. — Penalty. §3. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of sections one and two of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

ESTRAYS.

Supplementary—AN ACT for the protection of stockraisers. Approved November 29, 1881. C81 §2537.

§9131-32. Owners Hunting for Estrays to Corral Other Stock. §2537.—1. It shall be the duty of any and all persons searching or hunting for stray horses, mules or cattle, to drive the band or herd in which they may find their stray horses, mules or cattle, into the nearest corral, before separating their said stray animals from the balance of the herd or band; that in order to separate their said stray animals from the herd or band, the person or persons owning said stray shall drive them out of and away from the corral in which they may be driven before setting the herd or band at large. Any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, before a justice of the peace, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and half the costs of prosecution; said fine so recovered to be paid into the school fund of the county in which the offense was committed; and in addition thereto shall be imprisoned until the fine and costs are paid.

Supplementary—AN ACT to prevent the driving of stock from their range, and providing penalty for the violation of the same. Approved February 19, 1891. Laws '91 p 26.

§9131-33. Stock on Range Removed Only by Owner. §1. That no person shall be permitted to lead, drive, or in any manner remove, any horse, mare, colt, jack, jenny, mule, or any head of neat cattle, or hog, sheep, goat, or any number of these animals, the same being the property of another person, from the range on which they are permitted to run in common, without the consent of the owner thereof first had and obtained: Provided, The owner of any such animals, as aforesaid, finding the same running on the herd grounds or on common range, with other animals of the same, may be permitted to drive his own animal or animals, together with such other animals as he cannot conveniently separate from his own, to the nearest and most convenient corral, or other place for separating his own from other animals, if he, in such case, immediately with all convenient speed, drive all such animals, not belonging to himself back to the herd ground or range from which he brought such animals.

§9131-34. — Penalty. §2. Any person violating the provisions of the foregoing section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than twenty nor exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, nor less than thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment, discretionary with the court, having jurisdiction of the same.

§9131-35. Conversion of Estray. §916.—153. If the taker up of estray property shall convert the same to his own use, before the title thereto shall vest in him according to law, or if he shall knowingly and willfully violate any of the provisions of the law regulating the taking up of estrays, such person, so offending, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and not less than double the value of such estray property.

The repeal of this section by Laws '01 p. 264 §6 was evidently an inadvertence. Ownership may be alleged to be in the state, §9292.

EXTORTION.

§9131-36. Extortion of Ferry Fees. §923.—160. If any ferryman, ferry owner, ferry keeper, or keeper of a toll bridge or toll gate, himself, or by any person in his employment, shall demand or receive any greater fees on account of ferriage or toll, than is, or may be fixed by law, or by the proper board doing county business, as the rates of ferriage or toll to be received by such person, upon conviction thereof, he shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one month.

FIRES.

TO PREVENT THE DESTRUCTION OF TIMBER BY FIRE.

Supplementary—AN ACT to prevent the destruction of forests by fire on public lands. Approved March 7, 1891. Laws '91 p 226.

Former provisions C81 §1224.

§9131-37. Forest Fires on United States or State Lands. §1. Any person or persons who shall wilfully and deliberately set fire to any wooded county or forest belonging to this state or the United States within this state, or to any place from which fire shall be communicated to any such wooded county or forest, or who shall accidentally set fire to any such wooded county or forest or to any place from which fire shall be communicated to any such wooded county or forest, and shall not extinguish the same, or use every effort to that end, or who shall build any fire, for lawful purposes, or otherwise, in or near any such wooded county or forest and through carelessness or neglect shall permit said fire to extend to and burn through such wooded county or forest; shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall apply to any person who in good faith shall set a back fire to prevent the extension of a fire already burning. All fines collected under this act shall be paid into the county treasury for the benefit of the common school fund of the county in which they are collected.

§9131-38. Fires on Another's Property. §1224. If any person shall, without malice, kindle a fire in any field, pasture, inclosure, forest, prairie, or timber land, not his own, without the consent of the owner, and the same shall spread and do damage to any buildings, fences, crops, cordwood, bark, or other personal property, not his own, or to any wood or timber land, not his own, he shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than five hundred dollars, and costs, according to the aggravation of the offense, and shall stand committed till the fine and costs are paid.

§9131-39. Setting Fire to Personal Property. §824.—61. Every person who shall wilfully and maliciously set fire to any pile or parcel of boards, timber, piles, or other lumber, cord wood, ricks stacks, or shocks of grain, hay or other vegetable products, or vegetable products severed from the soil not in ricks, stacks or shocks, or any standing grass or grain, or other cultivated vegetable product of the soil, shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year nor less than one month, and be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§9131-40. Malicious Fires on One's Own Land Communicated. §1225. If any person shall maliciously, with intent to injure any other person, by himself or any other person, kindle a fire on his own land, or the land of another person, and by means of such fire the buildings, fences, crops, or other personal property or wooded timber lands of any other person shall be destroyed or injured, he shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not less than twenty dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months nor more than twelve months, according to the aggravation of the offense. L. '91 119.

§9131-41. Negligent Fires on One's Own Land Communicated. §1226.—465. If any person shall for any lawful purpose kindle a fire upon his own land, he shall do it at such time and in such manner and shall take such care of it, to prevent it from spreading and doing damage to other persons property as a prudent and careful man would do, and if he fail so to do he shall be liable in an action on the case, to any person suffering damage thereby to the full amount of such damage.

§9131-42. Hunter's Fires With and Without Malice §1227. Any person who shall enter upon the lands of another person for the purposes of hunting or fishing, and shall, by the use of firearms, or other means, kindle any fire thereon, shall be punished by a fine not less than ten nor more than five hundred dollars, if such fire be kindled without malice; and if such fire be kindled maliciously, and with intent to injure any other person, such offender shall be punished by a fine not less than twenty nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months nor more than twelve months. L. '91 119.

§9131-43. Loggers May Kindle Fires. §1228.—467. Persons engaged in driving lumber upon any waters or streams of this state may kindle fires when necessary for the purpose in which they are engaged, but shall be bound to use the utmost caution to prevent the same from spreading and doing damage; and if they fail so to do, they shall be subject to all liabilities and penalties of this act, in the same manner as if the privilege granted by this action [section] had not been allowed.

§9131-44. Civil Action Saved. §1229.—468. The common law right to an action for damages done by fires is not taken away or diminished by this act, but it may be pursued, notwithstanding the fines or penalties set forth in §1224 [§9131-38] and §1225 [§9131-40] of this act; but any person availing himself of the provisions of §1226 [§9131-41] shall be barred of his action at common law for the damages so sued for, and no action shall be brought at common law, for kindling fires in the manner described in the §1228 [§9131-43]; but if any such fires shall spread and do damage, the person who kindled the same and any person present and concerned in driving such lumber, by whose act or neglect such fire is suffered to spread and do damage shall be liable in an action on the case for the amount of damages thereby sustained.

IRRIGATION APPLIANCES.

Supplementary—AN ACT making it a misdemeanor for any person to interfere with any headgate, measuring box or other device used for measuring or distributing water for irrigating, stock or domestic purposes, after the same shall have been adjusted by the sheriff or other proper authority, and providing a penalty therefor; and making the owner or occupant of the premises where such waters are used prima facie guilty thereof. Approved February 28, 1901. Laws '01 p 35.

§9131-56. Tampering With Irrigation Appliances. §1. An person who shall tamper with, alter, change or in any wise interfere with any headgate, measuring box, dam or other device used for diverting, measuring or distributing any water for irrigating, stock or domestic purposes after the same shall have been regulated, fixed or adjusted by any sheriff or other proper authority, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than ten nor greater than one hundred dollars.

§9131-57. Owner of Premises Prima Facie Guilty. §2. Whenever any such headgate, measuring box, dam or other device shall be altered, changed or tampered with after having been adjusted by such sheriff or other proper authority, so as to cause a greater quantity of water to flow into or through any irrigating or other ditch or canal, the person occupying, using or operating the lands or premises whereon such waters are used shall be prima facie guilty of violating the provisions of section 1 of this act.

LARCENY.

§9131-58. Conviction of Principal Not Necessary. §850. In any prosecution for the offense of buying, receiving or aiding in the concealment of stolen property, money or goods, known to have been stolen, or for bringing or aiding in bringing into this state any such property, money or goods, known to have been stolen, it shall not be necessary to aver, nor on the trial thereof to prove, that the person who stole such property has been convicted, nor that the larceny of such property, nor that any conspiracy or agreement between the defendant and any other person or persons concerning the stealing, buying, receiving, concealing or bringing of such stolen property was committed or entered into within the jurisdiction of the court trying the case. L. '90 129. Larceny generally, §8944.

§9131-59. Title to Property. §851.—88. All property obtained by larceny, robbery or burglary, shall be restored to the owner; and no sale, whether in good faith on the part of the purchaser or not, shall divest the owner of his rights to such property; and it shall be the duty of the officer who shall arrest any person charged as principal or accessory in any robbery or larceny, to secure the property alleged to have been stolen, and he shall be answerable for the same, and shall annex a schedule thereof to his return of the warrant.

§9131-60. Costs of Keeping Property. §852.—89. Upon any conviction of burglary, robbery, or larceny, the court may order a suitable recompense to the prosecutor, and also to the officer who has secured and kept the stolen property, not exceeding their actual expenses, with a reasonable allowance, for their time and trouble, to be paid by the county treasurer.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.

§9131-61. Malicious Injury to Animals. §838. If any person maliciously kill, maim or disfigure any horse, cattle, dog or other domestic animal of another, or maliciously administer poison to any such animal or animals, or expose any poisonous substance with intent that the same should be taken by it or them, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding $300. L. '93 236.

Malicious mischief generally, §8970.

§9131-62. Cruelty in Marking. §840.—77. It shall not be lawful for any person to cut off more than one-half of the ear or ears of any domestic animal, such as an ox, cow, bull, calf, sheep, goat or hog and any person cutting off more than one-half of the ear or ears of any such animals, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum less than twenty dollars.

§9131-63. Malicious Trespass—Roads—Telegraph Appliances. §841.—78. If any person maliciously injure, remove, or destroy any bridge rail, or plank road; or place or cause to be placed, any obstruction on such bridge or road; or willfully obstruct or injure any public highway or road; or maliciously cut, burn, or in any way break down, injure, or destroy any telegraph post, or in any way cut, break, or injure the wires or any apparatus thereto belonging, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than five years, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year.

§9131-64. Marriages Prohibited. §949.—186. Marriages in the following cases are prohibited:

1. When either party thereto has a wife or husband living at the time of such marriage.

2. When the parties thereto are nearer of kin to each other than second cousins whether of the whole or half-blood computing by the rules of the civil law.

3. It shall be unlawful for any man to marry his father's sister, mother's sister, father's widow, wife's mother, daughter, wife's daughter, son's widow, sister, son's daughter, daughter's daughter son's son's widow, daughter's son's widow, brother's daughter, or sister's daughter; it shall be unlawful for any woman to marry her father's brother, mother's brother, mother's husband, husband's father, son, husband's son, daughter's husband, brother, son's son, daughter's son, son's daughter's husband, daughter's daughter's husband, brother's son or sister's son; and if any person being within the degrees of consanguinity or affinity in which marriages are prohibited by this section, carnally know each other, they shall be deemed guilty of incest, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term not exceeding ten years, and not less than one year.

§9131-71. Nothing by Authority of Law Nuisance. §1238.—477. Nothing which is done or maintained under the express authority of a statute can be deemed a nuisance.

§9131-72. Successive Owners of Property Liable. §1239.—478. Every successive owner of property who neglects to abate a continuing nuisance upon, or in the use of such property caused by a former owner, is liable therefor in the same manner as the one who first created it.

Abatement Does Not Bar Damages. §1240.—479. The abatement of a nuisance does not prejudice the right of any person to recover damages for its past existence.

PUBLIC NUISANCE AND ABATEMENT THEREOF.

Injunction without damages is equitable action and no jury is allowed, Smith v. Mitchell 21 W. 536.

§9131-74. Remedies. §1242.—481. The remedies against a public nuisance are: Indictment, a civil action, or abatement. The remedy by indictment shall be as regulated and prescribed in this chapter. When a civil action for damages is resorted to, the practice shall conform to chapter 50 [§8231] of the civil practice act under title, "Nuisance."

City may abate nuisance in street by bill in equity, Moore v. Walla Walla 2 W. T. 184. R. R. Co. v. Whalen* 149 U. S. 157.

Public nuisance can be abated only by public officer unless there is private injury, Griffith v. Holman 23 W. 347.

§9131-75. Civil Action for Public Nuisance. §1243.—482. A private person may maintain a civil action for a public nuisance if it is specially injurious to himself but not otherwise.

Obstruction of road used twice a day by farmer for private purpose is special injury, Ingalls v. Eastman 61 W. 289. If highway in use as means of ingress and egress nuisance is "specially injurious," Smith v. Mitchell 21 W. 536.

§9131-76. Abatement by Public Officers. §1244.—483. A public nuisance may be abated by any public body or officer authorized thereto by law.

§9131-77. Abatement by Any Person. §1245.—484. Any person may abate a public nuisance, which is specially injurious to him by removing, or if necessary, destroying the thing which constitutes the same, without committing a breach of the peace or doing unnecessary injury.

§9131-78. Public Nuisance. §1246. It is a public nuisance,

1st: To cause or suffer the carcass of any animal or any offal, filth or noisome substance to be collected, deposited or to remain in any place to the prejudice of others.

2nd: To throw or deposit any offal or other offensive matter, or the carcass of any dead animal, in any watercourse, stream, lake, pond, spring, well, or common sewer, street or public highway, or in any manner to corrupt or render unwholesome or impure the water of any such spring, stream, pond, lake or well, to the injury or prejudice of others.

3rd: To obstruct or impede, without legal authority, the passage of any river, harbor or collection of water.

4th: To obstruct or encroach upon public highways, private ways, streets, alleys, commons, landing places, and ways to burying places.

5th: To carry on the business of manufacturing gun-powder, nitroglycerine or other highly explosive substance, or mixing or grinding the materials therefor, in any building within fifty rods of any valuable building, erected at the time such business may be commenced.

6th: To establish powder magazines near incorporated cities or towns, at a point different from that appointed by the corporate authorities of such city or town; or within fifty rods of any occupied dwelling house.

7th: To erect, continue, or use any building, or other place, for the exercise of any trade; employment or manufacture, which, by occasioning obnoxious exhalations, offensive smells or otherwise is offensive or dangerous to the health of individuals or of the public.

8th: To suffer or maintain on one's own premises or upon the premises of another, or to permit to be maintained on one's own premises any place where wines, spirituous, fermented, malt or other intoxicating liquors are kept for sale or disposal to the public in contravention of law.

And every person who has the care, government, management, or control of any building, structure, powder magazine, or any other place mentioned in this act, shall, for the purposes of this act, be taken and deemed to be the owner or agent of the owner or owners of such building, structure, powder magazine or other place, and as such may be proceeded against for the erecting, contriving, causing, continuing or maintaining such nuisance. §9150. Benefit of Clergy. §1171.—409. The plea of the benefit of clergy is abolished.

OF THE ARRAIGNMENT OF THE DEFENDANT AND WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE.

Must be tried within sixty days, §9143.

Motions and demurrer should be interposed upon plea of not guilty and not by objection to introduction of testimony,

Arraignment defined and in murder it can not be dispensed with, Elick v. Territory 1 W. T. 137.

Grounds of motion to set aside information, §9265; sufficiency of indictment or information, §9281.

Indictment or information must contain what, §9268.

§9153. When Motion to Set Aside Must Be Sustained. §1046.—284. The motion to set aside the indictment can be made by the defendant, on one or more of the following grounds, and must be sustained:

1. When it is not endorsed "a true bill," and the endorsement signed by the foreman of the grand jury as prescribed by this code.

2. When the names of all the witnesses examined before the grand jury are not endorsed thereon.

3. When it has not been presented and marked "filed," as prescribed by this code;

4. When any person, other than the grand jurors was present before the grand jury when the question was taken upon the finding of the indictment, or when any person, other than the grand jurors, was present before the grand jury during the investigation of the charge, except as required or permitted by law.

5. That the grand jury were not selected, drawn summoned, empaneled, or sworn as prescribed by law.

Accused not a "witness," State v. Kulbe, 67 W. 21.

§9154. — Exception. §1047.—285. The ground of the motion to set aside the indictment mentioned in the fifth subdivision of the preceding section is not allowed to a defendant who has been held to answer before indictment.

§9156. Objection Sustained, Defendant to Be Held. §1049. If the court direct that the case be resubmitted, the defendant, if already in custody, must so remain, unless he be admitted to bail; or if already admitted to bail, or money has been deposited instead thereof, the bail or money is answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new indictment or information.

If demurrer sustained unless for facts showing defense it is error to discharge defendant, State v. Bodekar 11 W. 417.

§9157. Charge Set Aside Is Not Bar. §1050. An order to set aside the indictment or information as provided in this chapter shall be no bar to a future prosecution for the same offense.

§9158. Grounds of Demurrer. §1051. The defendant may demur to the indictment or information when it appears upon its face either;

1. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of this code.

2. More than one crime is charged.

3. That the facts charged do not constitute a crime.

4. That the indictment or information contains any matter which if true would constitute a defense or other legal bar to the action.

Grounds of motion to set aside—indictment, §9153; information, §9265.

§9159. When Judgment on Demurrer Bar. §1052. If the demurrer is sustained because the indictment or information contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the action, the judgment shall be final, and the defendant must be discharged.

§9160. Demurrer Overruled—Procedure. §1053.—291. If the demurrer is overruled the defendant has a right to put in a plea. If he fails to do so, judgment may be rendered against him on the demurrer, and, if necessary, a jury may be impaneled to inquire and ascertain the degree of the offense.

§9161. Pleas. §1054. There are but three pleas to the indictment or information. A plea of,

1. Guilty.

2. Not guilty.

3. A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty.

Denial of separate pleas of not guilty assigned is cured by vacating plea and allowing demurrer, State v. Boyce 24 W. 514. Elliott, 69 W. 62.

No reply necessary to plea of former acquittal, State v. Lewis 31 W. 515.

Failure to enter plea is not reversible error and can not be raised in first instance in the Supreme Court—plea entered by nunc pro tunc order, State v. Costello 29 W. 366.

Trial without plea is reversible error, Palmer v. United States 1 W. T. 6.

§9162. Forms of Entry of Pleas. §1055. The plea may be entered on the record, substantially, in the following form:

1. A plea of guilty: The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in the indictment (or information as the case may be).

2. A plea of not guilty: The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment (or information as the case may be).

3. A plea of former conviction or acquittal: The defendant pleads that he has formerly been convicted (or acquitted, as the case may be) of the offense charged in the indictment (or information, as the case may be), by the judgment of the court of (naming it), rendered on the _____ day of _____, A. D. 18____ (naming the time).

The judgment for the defendant on a demurrer to the indictment or information, except where it is otherwise provided, or for an objection taken at the trial to its form or substance, or for variance between the indictment or information and the proof, shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense.

§9168. Defendant's Refusal, Plea of Not Guilty Entered. §1061. If the defendant fail or refuse to answer the indictment or information by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty must be entered by the court.

§9169. Plea of Guilty, When Jury to be Called. §1062.—300. If, on the arraignment of any person, he shall plead guilty, if the offense charged be not murder, the court shall, in their discretion, hear testimony, and determine the amount and kind of punishment to be inflicted; but if the defendant plead guilty to a charge of murder, a jury shall be empaneled to hear testimony, and determine the degree of murder, and the punishment therefor.

§9170. When Counsel to be Assigned. §1063.—301. If the defendant appear without counsel, he shall be informed by the court that it is his right to have counsel, before being arraigned and he shall be asked if he desire the aid of counsel, and if it appear that he is unable to employ counsel by reason of poverty, counsel shall be assigned to him, by the court.

§9194. Limitation of Actions. §1294.—533. When a limitation or period of time prescribed in any existing statute for acquiring a right or barring a remedy has begun to run before this act takes effect, and the same or any limitation is prescribed in this act, the time which has already run shall be deemed part of the time, prescribed as such limitation by this act.

§9195. Act Is Measure of the Law. §1295.—534. No statute, law, or rule is continued in force because it is consistent with the provisions of this act, on the same subject, but in all cases provided for by this act, all statutes, laws, and rules, heretofore in force in this state, whether consistent or not, with the provisions of this act, unless expressly continued in force by it, are repealed and abrogated.

CORPORATIONS.

AN ACT relating to procedure in criminal actions against corporations. Approved February 28, 1911. Laws '11 p 106.

§9199. Corporation Indicted—Procedure. §1. Whenever an indictment or information shall be filed in any superior court against a corporation charging it with the commission of a crime, a summons shall be issued by the clerk of such court, signed by one of the judges thereof, commanding the sheriff forthwith to notify the accused thereof, and commanding it to appear before such court at such time as shall be specified in said summons. Such summons and a copy of the indictment or information shall be at once delivered by such clerk to said sheriff and by him forthwith served and returned in the manner provided for service of summons upon such corporation in a civil action. Whenever a complaint against a corporation, charging it with the commission of a crime, shall be made before any justice of the peace or municipal judge, a like summons, signed by such justice of the peace or municipal judge, shall be issued, which, together with a copy of said complaint, shall be delivered to the sheriff at once and by him forthwith served as herein provided.

and upon such appearance, and thereafter, the same course shall be pursued, as nearly as may be, as upon the appearance of an individual to indictment, information or complaint and warrant charging him with the same offense. Upon failure of the corporation to make such appearance said court shall cause to be entered a plea of "not guilty," and upon appearance made or plea entered the corporation shall be deemed forthwith continuously present in court until the case shall be finally disposed of.

§9201. Judgment. §3. If the corporation shall be found guilty and a fine imposed, it shall be entered and docketed by the clerk, or justice of the peace or municipal judge as a judgment against the corporation, and it shall be of the same force and effect and be enforced against such corporation in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action.

§9205. — Jury Fee. §2105.—3. Every person convicted of a crime or held to bail to keep the peace, shall be liable to all the costs of the proceedings against him, including, when tried by a jury in the superior court, twelve dollars for a jury fee, and when tried by a jury before a committing magistrate, six dollars for jury fee, for which judgment shall be rendered and collection had as in cases of fines. The jury fee, when collected for a case tried by the superior court, shall be paid to the clerk, to be by him applied as the jury fee in civil cases is applied.

§9206. Cost Bills. §2106. In all convictions for felony, whether capital or punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the clerk of the superior court shall forthwith, after sentence, tax the costs in the case. The cost bill shall be made out in triplicate, and be examined by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the trial was had. After which the judge of the superior court shall allow and approve such bill or so much thereof as is allowable by law. The clerk of the superior court shall thereupon, under his hand, and the seal of the court, certify said triplicate cost bills, and shall file one with the papers of the cause and shall transmit one to the state auditor and one to the county auditor of the county in which said felony was committed. Upon the receipt of the cost bill, as provided for in the preceding section, the county auditor shall draw warrants for the amounts due each person, as certified in said cost bill, which warrants shall be paid as other county warrants are paid. On receipt of the certified copy of said cost bill, the state auditor shall examine and audit said bill and allow the same or so much thereof as may be allowable against the state, and shall credit the amount so allowed to the county from whence the bill came as so much state tax paid. The state auditor shall immediately notify the state treasurer and county auditor each of whom shall credit and charge accordingly. L. '83 35.

§9208. Guards for Prisoners. §2108.—6. In the necessary and actual transportation of prisoners to await or attend trial, the sheriff may employ necessary guards, not to exceed one for each prisoner. Said guards shall be allowed two dollars per day and mileage. The sheriff shall be allowed in conveying prisoners to and from the county to the place of trial, or to and from the place of confinement the mileage of officer, guard or guards, and prisoner or prisoners, or else the actual expenses incurred.

§9209. Costs on Account of Other Counties. §2109.—7. Whenever a juror, witness or officer is required to attend a court, or travel on official business out of the limits of his own county, and entitled to mileage, in lieu thereof, he may at his option receive his actual and necessary traveling expenses by the usually traveled route in going to and returning from the place where the court is held, or where the business is discharged. At the close of each term of the superior court, the clerk shall ascertain the amount due each juror for his mileage and per diem; and he shall also certify the amount of fees that may be due to the sheriff of any other county than that in which the court is held, who may have attended the term, having a prisoner in custody charged with or convicted of a crime, or for the purpose of conveying such prisoner to or from the county, which, when approved by the court, or judge, shall be a charge upon the county to which the prisoner belongs; and he shall also certify the amount which may be due witnesses attending from another county in a criminal case for their fees, which, when, approved by the court or judge, shall be a charge upon the county to which the case belongs.

§9210. Items Chargeable. §2110.—8. Each county shall be liable to pay the per diem and mileage, or other compensation in lieu thereof, to jurors of the county attending the superior court; the fees of the sheriff for maintaining prisoners charged with crimes, and his costs in conveying them to and from the superior court, as well as their board while there; the per diem and mileage, or such other compensation as is allowed in lieu thereof, of the sheriff of the county, when in criminal cases he is required to attend or travel to the superior court out of the limits of his own county; the costs in criminal cases taken from the county to the superior court: Provided, That none shall be so paid by the treasurer unless the particular items shall be approved by the judge and certified by the clerk under the seal of the court: And, provided further, That for the time or travel which may be paid by the parties or United States, no payment from the county fund shall be allowed, and no officer, juror or witness shall receive from the county double pay as a per diem for the same time, or as traveling expenses or mileage for the same travel, in how many different capacities, or in however many different causes they may be summoned, notified or called upon to testify or attend in. Territorial section. "United States" should read "state."

§9211. Court House, Jails and Incidentals. §2111.—9. The county in which the court is held shall furnish the court house, a jail or suitable place for confining prisoners, books for record, stationery, lights, wood, attendance and other incidental expenses of the court house and court. • • •

§9212. Costs Belong to County. §2112.—10. All costs collected against any person convicted of crime or misdemeanor, and all sums collected on recognizances of persons accused, or of witnesses in criminal cases, for fines and forfeitures, shall belong to the county from which the case came.

OF THE DOCKET.

§9213. Contents of Docket. §1044. The clerk shall, in preparing the docket of criminal cases, enumerate the indictments and informations pending according to the date of their filing, specifying opposite to the title of each action whether it be for a felony or misdemeanor, and whether the defendant be in custody or on bail, and shall, in like manner, enter therein all indictments and informations on which issues of fact are joined, all cases brought to the court on change of venue from other counties, and all cases pending upon appeal from inferior courts. L. '91 46.

EVIDENCE.

§9214. Witnesses—Compelling Attendance—Detention in Custody—Per Diem—Accused as Witness. §1067. Witnesses may be compelled to attend and testify before the grand jury; and witnesses on behalf of the state, or of the defendant, in a criminal prosecution, may be compelled to attend and testify in open court, if they have been subpoenaed, without their fees being first paid or tendered, unless otherwise provided by law; the court may, upon the motion of the prosecuting attorney, recognize witnesses, with or without sureties, to attend and testify at any hearing or trial in any criminal prosecution in any court of this state, or before the grand jury, and in default of such recognizance the court may direct that such witness shall be detained in the custody of the sheriff until the hearing or trial of the prosecution in which such testimony may be required: Provided, however, That each witness so detained by order of court pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be paid, in addition to witness fees for actual attendance in court, the sum of one dollar per day for time actually detained in custody, and shall be furnished food and lodging while so detained, and any person accused of any crime in this state, by indictment, information, or otherwise, may, in the examination or trial of the cause, offer himself, or herself, as a witness in his or her own behalf, and shall be allowed to testify as other witnesses in such case, and when accused shall so testify, he or she shall be subject to all the rules of law relating to cross-examination of other witnesses: Provided, That nothing in this code shall be construed to compel such accused person to offer himself or herself as a witness in such case: And provided further, That it shall be the duty of the court to instruct the jury that no inference of guilt shall arise against the accused if the accused shall fail or refuse to testify as a witness in his or her own behalf. ## ACCUSED, RIGHTS OF, CODE 1881.

RIGHTS OF PARTIES ACCUSED.

§9148. How Accused Held. §764. No person shall be held to answer in any court for an alleged crime or offense, unless upon an information filed by the prosecuting attorney, or upon an indictment by a grand jury, except in cases of misdemeanor before a justice of the peace, or before a court martial.

Rights of accused, later act, §9136. Not necessary for state to reply to criminal defense, State v. Lewis, 31 W. 515.

§9149. Court Must Be Competent. §770.—7. No person charged with any offense against the law shall be punished for such offense, unless he shall have been duly and legally convicted thereof in a court having competent jurisdiction of the case and of the person.

ARRAIGNMENT.

OF THE ARRAIGNMENT OF THE DEFENDANT AND WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE.

§9151. Arraignment. §46. When the indictment or information has been filed, the defendant, if he has been arrested, or as soon thereafter as he may be, shall be arraigned thereon before the court.

Must be tried within sixty days, §9143. State v. Bodeckar 11 W. 417; State v. Blanchard 11 W. 116.

Motions and demurrer should be interposed upon plea of not guilty and not by objection to introduction of testimony, Arraignment defined and in murder it can not be dispensed with, Ellick v. Territory 1 W. T. 137.

Grounds of motion to set aside information, §9265; sufficiency of indictment or information, §9281. Indictment or information must contain what, §9268.

§9153. When Motion to Set Aside Must Be Sustained. §1046.—284. The motion to set aside the indictment can be made by the defendant, on one or more of the following grounds, and must be sustained:

1. When it is not endorsed "a true bill," and the endorsement signed by the foreman of the grand jury as prescribed by this code.

2. When the names of all the witnesses examined before the grand jury are not endorsed thereon.

3. When it has not been presented and marked "filed," as prescribed by this code;

4. When any person, other than the grand jurors was present before the grand jury when the question was taken upon the finding of the indictment, or when any person, other than the grand jurors, was present before the grand jury during the investigation of the charge, except as required or permitted by law.

5. That the grand jury were not selected, drawn summoned, empaneled, or sworn as prescribed by law.

Arbitrarily selecting grand jury from Accused not a "witness," State v. Kulbe, 67 W. 21.

§9154. — Exception. §1047.—285. The ground of the motion to set aside the indictment mentioned in the fifth subdivision of the preceding section is not allowed to a defendant who has been held to answer before indictment.

§9156. Objection Sustained, Defendant to Be Held. §1049. If the court direct that the case be resubmitted, the defendant, if already in custody, must so remain, unless he be admitted to bail; or if already admitted to bail, or money has been deposited instead thereof, the bail or money is answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new indictment or information.

If demurrer sustained unless for facts showing defense it is error to discharge defendant, State v. Bodeckar 11 W. 417.

§9157. Charge Set Aside Is Not Bar. §1050. An order to set aside the indictment or information as provided in this chapter shall be no bar to a future prosecution for the same offense.

Judgment on verdict is bar, §9166.

§9158. Grounds of Demurrer. §1051. The defendant may demur to the indictment or information when it appears upon its face either;

1. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of this code.

2. More than one crime is charged.

3. That the facts charged do not constitute a crime.

4. That the indictment or information contains any matter which if true would constitute a defense or other legal bar to the action.

Grounds of motion to set aside—indictment, §9153; information, §9265.

§9159. When Judgment on Demurrer Bar. §1052. If the demurrer is sustained because the indictment or information contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the action, the judgment shall be final, and the defendant must be discharged.

§9160. Demurrer Overruled—Procedure. §1053.—291. If the demurrer is overruled the defendant has a right to put in a plea. If he fails to do so, judgment may be rendered against him on the demurrer, and, if necessary, a jury may be impaneled to inquire and ascertain the degree of the offense.

§9161. Pleas. §1054. There are but three pleas to the indictment or information. A plea of,

1. Guilty.

2. Not guilty.

3. A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty.

Denial of separate pleas of not guilty and former jeopardy sustained, State v. Elliott, 69 W. 62.

Failure to enter plea is not reversible error and can not be raised in first instance in the Supreme Court—plea entered by nunc pro tunc order, State v. Straub 16 W. 111.

No reply necessary to plea of former acquittal, State v. Lewis 31 W. 515.

When the jury disagrees plea of former acquittal can not be interposed State v. Costello 29 W. 366.

§9162. Forms of Entry of Pleas. §1055. The plea may be entered on the record, substantially, in the following form:

1. A plea of guilty: The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in the indictment (or information as the case may be).

2. A plea of not guilty: The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment (or information as the case may be).

3. A plea of former conviction or acquittal: The defendant pleads that he has formerly been convicted (or acquitted, as the case may be) of the offense charged in the indictment (or information, as the case may be), by the judgment of the court of (naming it), rendered on the _____ day of _____, A. D. 18____ (naming the time).

§9194. Limitation of Actions. §1294.—533. When a limitation or period of time prescribed in any existing statute for acquiring a right or barring a remedy has begun to run before this act takes effect, and the same or any limitation is prescribed in this act, the time which has already run shall be deemed part of the time, prescribed as such limitation by this act.

§9195. Act Is Measure of the Law. §1295.—534. No statute, law, or rule is continued in force because it is consistent with the provisions of this act, on the same subject, but in all cases provided for by this act, all statutes, laws, and rules, heretofore in force in this state, whether consistent or not, with the provisions of this act, unless expressly continued in force by it, are repealed and abrogated.

CORPORATIONS.

Approved February 28, 1911. Laws '11 p 106.

§9199. Corporation Indicted—Procedure. §1. Whenever an indictment or information shall be filed in any superior court against a corporation charging it with the commission of a crime, a summons shall be issued by the clerk of such court, signed by one of the judges thereof, commanding the sheriff forthwith to notify the accused thereof, and commanding it to appear before such court at such time as shall be specified in said summons. Such summons and a copy of the indictment or information shall be at once delivered by such clerk to said sheriff and by him forthwith served and returned in the manner provided for service of summons upon such corporation in a civil action. Whenever a complaint against a corporation, charging it with the commission of a crime, shall be made before any justice of the peace or municipal judge, a like summons, signed by such justice of the peace or municipal judge, shall be issued, which, together with a copy of said complaint, shall be delivered to the sheriff at once and by him forthwith served as herein provided.

and upon such appearance, and thereafter, the same course shall be pursued, as nearly as may be, as upon the appearance of an individual to indictment, information or complaint and warrant charging him with the same offense. Upon failure of the corporation to make such appearance said court shall cause to be entered a plea of "not guilty," and upon appearance made or plea entered the corporation shall be deemed forthwith continuously present in court until the case shall be finally disposed of.

§9201. Judgment. §3. If the corporation shall be found guilty and a fine imposed, it shall be entered and docketed by the clerk, or justice of the peace or municipal judge as a judgment against the corporation, and it shall be of the same force and effect and be enforced against such corporation in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action.

§9204. — Finding of Grand Jury. §2104.—2. When a grand jury upon a complaint submitted to them for investigation fail to find a bill of indictment for an offense against the laws of the state, they shall also inquire whether the complaint is frivolous or malicious, and decide whether the county or complainant shall pay the costs, and make return of their finding in open court. Any complainant adjudged by said grand jury as liable for the costs, shall forthwith be brought into court and sentenced to pay the same or stand committed until such judgment is satisfied or complied with.

§9205. — Jury Fee. §2105.—3. Every person convicted of a crime or held to bail to keep the peace, shall be liable to all the costs of the proceedings against him, including, when tried by a jury in the superior court, twelve dollars for a jury fee, and when tried by a jury before a committing magistrate, six dollars for jury fee, for which judgment shall be rendered and collection had as in cases of fines. The jury fee, when collected for a case tried by the superior court, shall be paid to the clerk, to be by him applied as the jury fee in civil cases is applied.

Upon the receipt of the cost bill, as provided for in the preceding section, the county auditor shall draw warrants for the amounts due each person, as certified in said cost bill, which warrants shall be paid as other county warrants are paid. On receipt of the certified copy of said cost bill, the state auditor shall examine and audit said bill and allow the same or so much thereof as may be allowable against the state, and shall credit the amount so allowed to the county from whence the bill came as so much state tax paid. The state auditor shall immediately notify the state treasurer and county auditor each of whom shall credit and charge accordingly. L. '83 35.

§9208. Guards for Prisoners. §2108.—6. In the necessary and actual transportation of prisoners to await or attend trial, the sheriff may employ necessary guards, not to exceed one for each prisoner. Said guards shall be allowed two dollars per day and mileage. The sheriff shall be allowed in conveying prisoners to and from the county to the place of trial, or to and from the place of confinement the mileage of officer, guard or guards, and prisoner or prisoners, or else the actual expenses incurred.

§9209. Costs on Account of Other Counties. §2109.—7. Whenever a juror, witness or officer is required to attend a court, or travel on official business out of the limits of his own county, and entitled to mileage, in lieu thereof, he may at his option receive his actual and necessary traveling expenses by the usually traveled route in going to and returning from the place where the court is held, or where the business is discharged. At the close of each term of the superior court, the clerk shall ascertain the amount due each juror for his mileage and per diem; and he shall also certify the amount of fees that may be due to the sheriff of any other county than that in which the court is held, who may have attended the term, having a prisoner in custody charged with or convicted of a crime, or for the purpose of conveying such prisoner to or from the county, which, when approved by the court, or judge, shall be a charge upon the county to which the prisoner belongs; and he shall also certify the amount which may be due witnesses attending from another county in a criminal case for their fees, which, when, approved by the court or judge, shall be a charge upon the county to which the case belongs.

§9210. Items Chargeable. §2110.—8. Each county shall be liable to pay the per diem and mileage, or other compensation in lieu thereof, to jurors of the county attending the superior court; the fees of the sheriff for maintaining prisoners charged with crimes, and his costs in conveying them to and from the superior court, as well as their board while there; the per diem and mileage, or such other compensation as is allowed in lieu thereof, of the sheriff of the county, when in criminal cases he is required to attend or travel to the superior court out of the limits of his own county; the costs in criminal cases taken from the county to the superior court: Provided, That none shall be so paid by the treasurer unless the particular items shall be approved by the judge and certified by the clerk under the seal of the court: And, provided further, That for the time or travel which may be paid by the parties or United States, no payment from the county fund shall be allowed, and no officer, juror or witness shall receive from the county double pay as a per diem for the same time, or as traveling expenses or mileage for the same travel, in how many different capacities, or in however many different causes they may be summoned, notified or called upon to testify or attend in. Territorial section. "United States" should read "state."

§9211. Court House, Jails and Incidentals. §2111.—9. The county in which the court is held shall furnish the court house, a jail or suitable place for confining prisoners, books for record, stationery, lights, wood, attendance and other incidental expenses of the court house and court. • • •

§9212. Costs Belong to County. §2112.—10. All costs collected against any person convicted of crime or misdemeanor, and all sums collected on recognizances of persons accused, or of witnesses in criminal cases, for fines and forfeitures, shall belong to the county from which the case came.

All fines and forfeitures belong to county, §§9305, 9332.

CHAPTER 84.

OF THE DOCKET.

§9213. Contents of Docket. §1044. The clerk shall, in preparing the docket of criminal cases, enumerate the indictments and informations pending according to the date of their filing, specifying opposite to the title of each action whether it be for a felony or misdemeanor, and whether the defendant be in custody or on bail, and shall, in like manner, enter therein all indictments and informations on which issues of fact are joined, all cases brought to the court on change of venue from other counties, and all cases pending upon appeal from inferior courts. L. '91 46.

EVIDENCE.

§9214. Witnesses—Compelling Attendance—Detention in Custody—Per Diem—Accused as Witness. §1067. Witnesses may be compelled to attend and testify before the grand jury; and witnesses on behalf of the state, or of the defendant, in a criminal prosecution, may be compelled to attend and testify in open court, if they have been subpoenaed, without their fees being first paid or tendered, unless otherwise provided by law; the court may, upon the motion of the prosecuting attorney, recognize witnesses, with or without sureties, to attend and testify at any hearing or trial in any criminal prosecution in any court of this state, or before the grand jury, and in default of such recognizance the court may direct that such witness shall be detained in the custody of the sheriff until the hearing or trial of the prosecution in which such testimony may be required: Provided, however, That each witness so detained by order of court pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be paid, in addition to witness fees for actual attendance in court, the sum of one dollar per day for time actually detained in custody, and shall be furnished food and lodging while so detained, and any person accused of any crime in this state, by indictment, information, or otherwise, may, in the examination or trial of the cause, offer himself, or herself, as a witness in his or her own behalf, and shall be allowed to testify as other witnesses in such case, and when accused shall so testify, he or she shall be subject to all the rules of law relating to cross-examination of other witnesses: Provided, That nothing in this code shall be construed to compel such accused person to offer himself or herself as a witness in such case: And provided further, That it shall be the duty of the court to instruct the jury that no inference of guilt shall arise against the accused if the accused shall fail or refuse to testify as a witness in his or her own behalf. AN ACT relating to the competency of witnesses in certain cases, and providing for immunity from indictment, information, prosecution and punishment for such witnesses. Approved March 4, 1907. Laws '07 p 99.

§9219. Evidence for State—Immunity. §1. That any person offending against any provisions of the common law or statutes of the State of Washington or any ordinances of any municipality thereof, relating to bribery, grafting or corrupt solicitation, shall be a competent witness against any other person so offending, and may be compelled to attend and testify upon any trial, hearing, proceeding or investigation in the same manner as any other person. But the testimony so given shall not be used in any prosecution or proceeding, civil or criminal, against the person so testifying. A person so testifying shall not thereafter be liable to indictment, information, prosecution, or punishment for such offense.

§9220. Exceptions. §2. The provisions of this act shall not be applicable to any prosecution or proceeding before a committing magistrate or justice of the peace.

FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE.

§9225. Agents to Demand Fugitives. §971. The governor of this state may appoint agents to demand of the executive authority of any state or territory any fugitive from justice, or any other person charged with felony or any other crime in this state; and whenever an application shall be made to the governor, for that purpose, the prosecuting attorney, when required by the governor, shall forthwith investigate the ground of such application, and report to the governor all material circumstances which may come to his knowledge, with an abstract of the evidence and his opinion as to the expediency of the demand; but the governor may, in any case, appoint such agents without requiring the opinion of or any report from the prosecuting attorney; and the accounts of the agents appointed for such purposes shall in all cases be audited by the state auditor and paid from the state treasury. L. '91 46.

Fugitive cannot be tried for lesser offense—court defining lesser offenses not error State v. Lindgrind 33 W. 440. question of law on the record, State v. Roller 30 W. 692.

Where crime charged is not one defendant was extradited for, objection should be made by plea in abatement presenting a question of law on the record, State v. Roller 30 W. 692. Fugitive may be tried for offense slightly different than that rendered for if there is no fraud, Harland v. Territory 3 W. T. 131.

§9226. Rendition of Foreign Fugitive. §972.—209. When a demand shall be made upon the Governor of this state by the executive of any state, or territory, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, for the delivery over of any person charged in such state or territory with treason felony, or any other crime, the prosecuting attorney or any other prosecuting officer, when required by the Governor, shall forthwith investigate the ground of such demand, and report to the Governor, all material facts which may come to his knowledge as to the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, especially as to whether he is held in custody or is under recognizance to answer for any offense against the laws of this state or of the United States, or by force of any civil process and also whether such demand is made according to law, so that such person ought to be delivered up; and if the Governor be satisfied that such demand is conformable to law and ought to be complied with, he shall issue his warrant under the seal of the state, authorizing the agents who make such demand, either forthwith, or at such time as shall be designated by the warrant, to take and transport such person to the line of the state, at the expense of such agents, and shall also by such warrant require the civil officers within this state to afford all needful assistance in the execution thereof.

Governor may investigate demand by any agency he chooses—rendition made to governor of Alaska, In re Gillis 38 W. 156.

seal, In re Baker 21 W. 259.

Custodian of fugitive in habeas corpus does not have to produce papers of demanding state—sufficiency of warrant. In re Sylvester 21 W. 263.

Requisition attested by lieutenant governor is good—courts will pass on sufficiency of foreign charge, Armstrong v. Van DeVanter 21 W. 682.

§9227. Duty of Domestic Peace Officers. §973.—210. Whenever any person shall be found within this state charged with an offense committed in any state or territory, and liable by the constitution and laws of the United States, to be delivered on the demand of the executive of such state or territory, any court or magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, may, upon complaint under oath, setting forth the offense, and such other matters as are necessary to bring the offense within the provisions of law, issue a warrant to bring the person so charged before the same or some other court, or magistrate, so authorized within the state, to answer such complaint, as in other cases.

Proceedings in commitment of offender, ice of the peace had no jurisdiction nor power to forfeit bail money, State ex rel. §9597.

Pre-requisites to holding fugitive—just- Grass v. White 40 W. 560.

§9228. Fugitive to Be Held. §974.—211. If, upon the examination of the person charged, it shall appear to the court or magistrate, by proof, in addition to the oath of the complainant, that there is reasonable cause to believe that the complaint is true, and that such person may be lawfully demanded of the Governor, he shall, if not charged with a capital crime, be required to recognize with sufficient sureties, in a reasonable sum, to appear before such court or magistrate at a future day, allowing a reasonable time to obtain a warrant of the executive, and to abide the order of the court or magistrate, and if such person shall not so recognize, he shall be committed to prison and there be detained until such day, in like manner as if the offense charged had been committed in this state; and if the person so recognizing shall fail to appear according to the conditions of his recognizance, he shall be defaulted, and the like proceedings shall be had as in the case of other recognizances entered into before such court or magistrate; but if such person be charged with a capital crime, he shall be committed to prison and there be detained until the day so appointed for his appearance before the court or magistrate.

Extradited prisoner may be tried for offense slightly different from charge, Harland v. Territory, 3 W. T. 131.

§9229. Fugitive Discharged—Re-arrest. §975.—212. If the person so recognized or committed shall appear before the court or magistrate upon the day ordered, he shall be discharged, unless he be demanded by some persons authorized by the warrant of the executive to receive him or unless the court or magistrate shall see cause to commit him, or require of him to recognize anew for his appearance at some other day; and if when ordered he shall not so recognize, he shall be committed and be detained as before provided. Whenever the person so appearing shall be recognized, committed or discharged, any person authorized by the warrant of the executive may at all times take him into custody, and the same shall be a discharge of the recognizance, if any, and shall not be deemed an escape.

§9230. Costs. §976.—213. The complainant in such cases shall be answerable for the actual costs and charges, and for the support in prison of any person so committed, and shall advance to the jailor one week's board at the time of commitment, and so from week to week, so long as such person shall remain in jail; and if he fails to do so, the jailor may forthwith discharge the person from his custody.

AN ACT to provide for payment of expenses for capture and detention of criminals in a foreign jurisdiction. Approved November 12, 1875. Laws '75 p 115.

§9231. State to Pay Expense of Foreign Government. §1. That the state auditor is hereby authorized to audit and allow, all just and legal claims, which any foreign government, or its officers, may have against this state, in accordance with the general fee-bills for like services, for the capture, detention, and keeping of any criminal who has escaped from this state, and taken refuge in any foreign jurisdiction, and upon the allowance of any such claim, he shall draw his warrant upon the state treasury therefor. And the state treasurer is hereby required to pay the same, out of any funds in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

GRAND JURY.

Summoned only on order of superior court, Const., art 1, §26. Grand jury was discharged, crime was committed and jury re-summoned, held defendant not having objected before indictment could not object after indictment, Blanton v. State 1 W. 265.

§9233. Challenges to Individuals. §978.—215. Challenges to individual grand jurors may be made by such person for reason of want of qualification to sit as such juror; and when in the opinion of the court, a state of mind exists in the juror such as would render him unable to act impartially and without prejudice.

Objection not taken at impaneling is waived, Clarke v. Territory, 1 W. T. 68; Blanton v. State, 1 W. T. 265.

§9234. Panel Discharged—Open Venire. §979. If a challenge to the panel be allowed, the panel shall be discharged, and the court may order the sheriff to summon from the by-standers and the body of the county a sufficient number of persons to act as grand jurors. L. '91 46.

Court should terminate proceedings on jury—qualifications of jurors, Yelm Jim discovery of void impaneling of grand v. Territory, 1 W. T. 63; Clarke v. Territory, 1 W. T. 68.

§9235. Talesmen. §980.—217. If a challenge to an individual juror be allowed, he shall be discharged and the panel filled.

§9236. Oath of Jurors. §981. The following oath shall be administered to the grand jury: "You, as grand jurors for the body of the county of _____ do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire into and true presentment make of all such matters and things as shall come to your knowledge, according to your charge; the counsel of the state, your own counsel, and that of your fellows, you shall keep secret; you shall present no person through envy, hatred, or malice; neither will you leave any person unpresented through fear, favor, affection, or reward, or the hope thereof; but that you will present things truly as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding, and according to the laws of this state. So help you God." L. '91 46.

§9237. Foreman and Clerk. §982.—219. A foreman of the grand jury shall be appointed by the court, who may remove him and appoint another at any time, and such foreman shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations to witnesses who shall appear before such grand jury, and the jury may appoint one of their number as clerk to keep a minute of their proceedings.

§9238. Charge to Jury. §983.—220. The grand jury shall be charged by the court as to the nature of their duties, and may at any reasonable time, ask the advice of the court as to any legal questions upon which they may desire information.

§9239. Prosecuting Attorney to Attend. §984. The prosecuting attorney shall attend on the grand jury for the purpose of examining witnesses and giving them such advice as they may ask. L. '91 46.

§9240. Duty of Grand Jury. §985. The grand jury shall inquire into the cases of parties in custody or under bail, charged with commission of offenses against the laws of this state and duly returned by a committing magistrate, or upon a complaint sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths and presented by the prosecuting attorney, or under the instructions of the court. L. '91 46.

Does not apply to cases in which information has been filed, State v. Croney 31 W. 122.

§9241. Presentment. §986.—223. If a member of a grand jury knows, or has reason to believe, that a public offense, triable within the county, has been committed, he must declare the same to his fellow jurors who may thereupon investigate the same, if a majority so order.

Procedure on presentment §9250.

§9242. Complainant Incompetent. §987.—224. No complainant who may institute a prosecution shall be competent to be present at the deliberations of a grand jury or vote for the finding of an indictment.

§9243. Malicious Indictments—Costs. §987.—225. Where a grand jury ignore a bill of indictment, they shall also find whether the prosecution is malicious and frivolous, and find whether the complainant or county shall pay the costs, which shall be returned with their proceedings into open court.

§9244. Jury Shall Examine Jails and Conduct of Public Officers. §988.—226. The grand jury shall especially inquire as to the offense of any person, confined in prison on a criminal charge; into the condition and mismanagement of the public prisons, in the county; into the willful misconduct in office of public officers, and shall in their discretion examine the public records of the county.

§9245. Defendant Not to Be Heard. §989.—227. The grand jury are not bound to hear evidence for the defendant; but it is their duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to them, and when they have reason to believe that other evidence within their reach will explain away the charge, they should order such evidence to be produced, and for that purpose may cause process to issue for the witnesses.

§9247. Proceedings Secret. §991.—229. No grand jury shall disclose the fact that an indictment for a felony has been found against any person not in custody or under recognizance, until such person has been arrested.

§9248. Jurors Privileged. §992.—230. No grand juror shall be allowed to state or to testify in any court in what manner he, or any member of the jury, voted on any question before them, or what opinion was expressed by any juror in relation to such question, or what question was before them; and in charging the grand jury the court shall remind them of the provisions of this and the preceding sections.

INDICTMENT.

Presentment, duty to make §9241.

§9249. Twelve Jurors Must Concur. §994.—232. An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors, and when so found, it must be endorsed "a true bill," and such endorsement signed by the foreman of the jury.

Twelve must concur §9246.

§9251. Name of Private Prosecutor to Be Indorsed—Costs. §996.—234. When an indictment is found at the instance of a private prosecutor, the following must be added to the endorsement required by the preceding section, "found at the instance of," (here state the name of the person) and in such case, if the prosecution fails, the court trying the cause, may award costs against the private prosecutor, if satisfied, from all circumstances, that the prosecution was malicious or without probable cause.

Jury may not award costs, In re Permstick 3 W. 672.

Witnesses indorsed in murder case after jury sworn, State v. Pepoon 62 W. 635.

§9252. Presentment and Filing—Secrecy. §997.—235. An indictment, when found by the grand jury must be presented by their foreman, in their presence to the court, and filed by the clerk, and remain in his office as a public record; but if the defendant has not been held to answer the charge, neither the indictment or any order or process in relation thereto, must be inspected by any person other than the judge of the court or an officer thereof in the discharge of a duty concerning the same, until after the arrest, of the defendant.

§9253. Indictment Shall Not Be Disclosed. §998.—236. No grand juror or officer of the court must disclose any fact concerning such indictment while it is not subject to public inspection; and a violation of this section, or the foregoing section, is punishable as a contempt.

Witnesses in rebuttal need not be indorsed. State v. Champoux 33 W. 339.

§9254. Not a True Bill—Procedure. §999.—237. When a person has been held to answer a criminal charge, and the indictment in relation thereto, is not found "a true bill," it must be endorsed "not a true bill," which endorsement must be signed by the foreman, and presented to the court, and filed with the clerk, and remain a public record; but in the case of an indictment not found "a true bill," against a person not so held, the same, together with the minutes of the evidence in relation thereto, must be destroyed by the grand jury.

§9255. Discharge if Not a True Bill. §1000. When an indictment indorsed "not a true bill" has been presented in court and filed, the effect thereof is to dismiss the charge; and the same cannot be again submitted to or inquired of by the grand jury, or made the cause of an information, unless the court so order. L. '91 46.

§9256. Presentment. §1001. A presentment is an informal statement of facts, for the purpose of obtaining the advice of the court as to the law thereon. It is made by the foreman, in the presence of the grand jury, and with the concurrence of twelve of their number. A presentment is not to be filed in court, or preserved beyond the sitting of the grand jury. L. '91 46.

§9281. Sufficiency of Indictment or Information. §1014. The indictment or information is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom,

1. That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive.

2. That it was found by a grand jury of the county in which the court was held.

3. That the defendant is named, or if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with the statement that his real name is to the jury unknown.

4. That the crime was committed within the jurisdiction of the court, except where, as provided by law, the act, though done without the county in which the court is held, is triable therein.

5. That the crime was committed at some time previous to the finding of the indictment, or filing of the information, and within the time limited by law for the commencement of an action therefor.

6. That the act or omission charged as the crime is clearly and distinctly set forth, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

7. The act or omission charged as the crime is stated with such a degree of certainty as to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon a conviction, according to the rights of the case. L. '91 46.

INSANE.

AN ACT relating to the criminal insane, their trial, commitment and custody. Approved February 21, 1907. Laws '07 p 33.

§9293. Criminal Insane Defined. §1. Any person who shall have committed a crime while insane, or in a condition of mental irresponsibility, and in whom such insanity or mental irresponsibility continues to exist, shall be deemed criminally insane within the meaning of this act. No condition of mind induced by the voluntary act of a person charged with a crime shall be deemed mental irresponsibility within the meaning of this act.

Insane prisoners, §8718; insanity as defense, §8694. Act applies to all criminal insane—is not ex post facto, State ex rel. Thompson Judgment cannot be vacated for errors v. Snell 49 W. 177.

§9294. Plea of Insanity. §2. When it is desired to interpose the defense of insanity or mental irresponsibility on behalf of one charged with a crime, the defendant, his counsel, or other person authorized by law to appear and act for him, shall at the time of pleading to the information or indictment file a plea in writing in addition to the plea or pleas required or permitted by other laws than this, setting up (1) his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of the commission of the crime charged, and (2) whether the insanity or mental irresponsibility still exists, or (3) whether the defendant has become sane or mentally responsible between the time of the commission of the crime and the time of the trial. The plea may be interposed at any time thereafter, before the submission of the cause to the jury, if it be proven that the insanity or mental irresponsibility of the defendant at the time of the crime was not before known to any person authorized to interpose a plea.

Court observing defendant on trial may in discretion order commission on sanity, State v. Peterson 90 W. 479.

Showing of insanity without pleading it not a defense, State v. Gounagias 88 W. 304.

Where accused filed no plea of insanity before the case was submitted to the jury the question was waived, State v. Wilson, 69 W. 235.

Withdrawal of plea does not affect other pleas, State v. Quinn 56 W. 295.

§9295. Verdict. §3. If the plea of insanity or mental irresponsibility be interposed, and evidence upon that issue be given, the court shall instruct the jury when giving the charge, that in case a verdict of acquittal of the crime charged be returned, they shall also return special verdicts finding (1) whether the defendant committed the crime, and if so, (2) whether they acquit him because of his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of its commission, (3) whether the insanity or mental irresponsibility continues and exists at the time of the trial, and (4) whether, if such condition of insanity or mental irresponsibility does not exist at the time of the trial, there is such likelihood of a relapse or recurrence of the insane or mental irresponsible condition, that the defendant is not a safe person to be at large. Forms for the return of the special verdicts shall be submitted to the jury with the forms for the general verdicts.

§9296. Discharge—Commitment. §4. If the jury find by their special verdicts that the defendant committed the crime charged, that he is acquitted because of his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of its commission, and that before the trial he has become a sane or mentally responsible person, and is not liable to a relapse or recurrence of the insane or mentally irresponsible condition, and is a safe person to be at large, he shall be discharged. If the jury find that the defendant committed the crime charged, that he is acquitted because of his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the time of its commission, and that the insanity or mental irresponsibility still exists, or, if it does not exist, that he is so liable to a relapse or recurrence of the insane or mentally irresponsible condition as to be an unsafe person to be at large, the court shall enter judgment in accordance therewith, and shall order the defendant committed as a criminally insane person until such time as he shall be discharged as hereinafter provided.

§9297. Statement of Facts. §5. Either party to the cause may have the evidence and all of the matters not of record in the cause made a part of the record by the certifying of a statement of facts or bill of exceptions as in other cases. If an appeal should be not taken, such statement of facts or bill of exceptions shall remain on file in the office of the clerk of the court where the cause was tried, and if an appeal be taken, the statement of facts or bill of exceptions shall be returned from the Supreme Court to the court where the cause was tried when the Supreme Court shall have rendered its final judgment in the cause.

§9298. Application for Examination—Procedure—Appeal. §6. When any person committed hereunder shall claim to have become sane or mentally responsible and to be free from danger of any relapse or recurrence of mental unsoundness and a safe person to be at large, he shall apply to the physician in charge of the criminal insane for an examination of his mental condition and fitness to be at large. If the physician shall certify to the warden that there is reasonable cause to believe that such person has become sane since his commitment and is a safe person to be at large, the warden shall permit him to present a petition to the court that committed him, setting up the facts leading to his commitment, and that he has since become sane and mentally responsible, and is in such condition that he is a safe person to be at large, and shall pray his discharge from custody. The petition shall be served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county, whose duty it shall be to resist the application. No other pleadings than the petition need be filed, and the court shall set the cause down for trial before a jury, and the trial shall proceed as in other cases. The sole issue to be tried in the case shall be whether the person petitioning for a discharge has, since his commitment, become a safe person to be at large, and the burden of proof shall be upon him. If the evidence given upon his trial upon the criminal charge shall have been preserved by statement of facts or bill of exceptions as hereinbefore provided, either party may read such parts of that record as may be desired as evidence upon the hearing. The jury shall be required to find whether the petitioner has become sane since his commitment, is not liable to a recurrence of the mental unsoundness or relapse, and is a safe person to be at large. If they so find, he shall be entitled to a discharge. If not, his petition shall be dismissed, and he shall be remitted to custody. Either party may appeal to the Supreme Court from the judgment discharging the petitioner or remitting him to custody, in the same manner that appeals in other cases are taken. The judgment of remission shall be conclusive that the petitioner is an unsafe person to be at large at the time of its entry; but if he shall subsequently claim to have become a sane and safe person to be at large, he may upon a certificate of probable cause by the attending physician, which shall show a change in his mental condition since the last trial, his present sanity and fitness to be at large, again petition for discharge, and the proceedings thereon shall be as hereinabove provided.

Procedure when change of venue, State ex rel. Thompson v. Snell 49 W. 177.

§9299. Recommitment — Procedure. §7. Should any criminally insane person discharged hereunder again become insane or mentally irresponsible, or be found to be an unsafe person to be at large because of mental unsoundness, the prosecuting attorney of the county from which he was committed may file a petition in the name of the State, setting up the facts leading to his commitment and subsequent discharge, and the relapse which is the basis of the petition. A warrant shall be issued for the defendant as in criminal cases, the defendant taken into custody, and the case tried to a jury, as in other cases provided herein; but the burden of proof, showing reasons for commitment, shall be upon the State. Should the jury find the defendant sane, and a safe person to be at large, he shall be discharged. Should they find that since his discharge he has suffered a relapse or recurrence of his mental unsoundness, and by reason thereof he is an unsafe person to be at large, the court shall issue an order remitting him to custody as criminally insane. The evidence given upon the former trial or trials, if preserved by statement of facts or bill of exceptions as hereinbefore prescribed, may be read upon such hearing, and either party may appeal to the Supreme Court as in other cases.

§9300. Criminal Insane at Penitentiary. §8. The authorities charged with the maintenance and conduct of the State penitentiary shall forthwith provide a ward or department in the State penitentiary wherein shall be confined persons committed as criminally insane persons under the provisions of this act. Such persons shall be under the custody and control of the warden of the penitentiary to the same extent that are other persons committed to his custody, but such provision shall be made for their control, care, and treatment as shall be proper in view of their derangement. Any person so committed shall not be discharged from the custody of the warden save upon the order of a court of competent jurisdiction made after a trial and judgment of discharge as herein provided. When any person so committed shall petition for a discharge, the warden of the penitentiary shall send him to the county where the hearing is to be had at the time the case shall be called for trial in the custody of a guard. During the time he shall be absent from the penitentiary, he shall be confined in the county jail, but shall at all times be deemed to be in the custody of the guard. If he shall be remitted to custody, the guard shall forthwith return him to the penitentiary. If he shall be discharged, the State may forthwith appeal from the order of discharge, and such appeal shall operate as a stay of the order and he shall remain in custody and be forthwith returned to the penitentiary until the Supreme Court shall have rendered a final decision in the cause. If the State does not desire to appeal, the order of discharge shall be a sufficient acquittal to the warden.

§9301. Criminal Insane to Be Transferred. §9. All the criminal insane now confined in the State hospitals for the insane shall be forthwith sent by the authorities of those hospitals to the State penitentiary and placed in the control of the warden and confined by him in the ward or department for the criminal insane, herein provided for, and shall not thereafter be discharged from his custody save in the manner herein provided. Any criminally insane person now confined in the State penitentiary shall be transferred to the ward for the criminally insane, and shall not be discharged, save as herein provided.

§9302. Commitment of Persons Not in Custody—Procedure. §10. The prosecuting attorney of any county wherein a person may have been acquitted of a crime because of his insanity or mental irresponsibility may cause any such person who is not in custody to be brought before the superior court of that county for trial as to the question of his sanity or mental responsibility by filing a petition in the name of the State setting up the commission of a crime by such person, his acquittal thereof because of his insanity, and his insanity or mental irresponsibility at the present time. The cause shall be tried to a jury as hereinbefore provided. The evidence given upon the trial of the criminal charge, if preserved by statement of facts or bill of exceptions, may be read in evidence, or the witnesses testifying upon the former trial may themselves be called. The jurors trying the criminal charge may testify as to the ground of acquittal. If the jury shall find that the defendant committed a crime, that he was acquitted thereof because of insanity, and that he is now insane or mentally irresponsible and an unsafe person to be at large, such person shall be committed to the penitentiary as a criminally insane person and be confined under the provisions of this act; otherwise, he shall be discharged. Either party may appeal to the Supreme Court as in other cases.

JUDGMENT.

The provisions of this chapter apply to costs in peace bonds and commitment proceedings, Clallam County v. Hall 23 W. 85.

Sentence of two years and fine of one dollar and costs held not excessive for forgery of fifteen dollar check, State v. Newton 29 W. 373.

Judgment may be for full fine, costs and imprisonment to be added, Foster v. Territory 1 W. 411.

§9304. Stay of Execution. §1112.—350. The defendant may have a stay of execution for the same length of time, and in the same manner, as provided by law in civil actions, and with like effect, and the same proceedings may be had therein.

§9305. Disposition of Fines. §1113.—351. All fines imposed on any person by the provisions of this act, where the same shall be collected, shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county where such conviction shall have been had, to go into the general county fund. The county treasurer shall give duplicate receipts therefor, one of which will be filed with the county auditor; and all officers refusing or neglecting to pay over any fines within one month after they shall have been received, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in four fold the amount of such fines so received.

§9306. Judgment. §1114.—352. After verdict of guilty, or finding of the court against the defendant, if the judgment be not arrested, or a new trial granted, the court must pronounce judgment.

Mandamus will lie to compel judgment on plea of guilty by adult the court having suspended sentence, State ex Lundin v. Court 102 W. 600.

Judgment can not vary from verdict as to crime or degree, State v. Symes 17 W. 596.

Twelve years for assault with intent to rob held not excessive, State v. Fenton 30 W. 325.

Judgment may be for imprisonment only though fine is also provided for, State v. Dunlap 25 W. 292.

§9307. Defendant Must Be Personally Present. §1115.—353. For the purpose of judgment, if the conviction be for an offense punishable by imprisonment, the defendant must be personally present; if for a fine only, he must be personally present or some responsible person must undertake for him to secure the payment of the judgment and costs; judgment may then be rendered in his absence.

It is not necessary that a defendant out dict of acquittal, State ex rel. Gabe v. on bail be present upon receipt of a ver- Main, 66 W. 381.

§9308. Bench Warrant if not Present. §1116.—354. If in any case the defendant is not present when his personal attendance is necessary, the court may order the clerk to issue a warrant for his arrest, which may be served in any county in the state, as a warrant of arrest in other cases.

§9309. Defendant Interrogated. §1117.—355. When the defendant appears for judgment, he must be informed by the court of the verdict of the jury and asked whether he have any legal cause to show why judgment should not be pronounced against him.

§9310. Bench Warrant and Forfeiture of Recognizance. §1118.—356. If the defendant have been discharged on bail, or have deposited money instead thereof, and do not appear for judgment, when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

§9311. Commitment Until Fine is Paid. §1119.—357. When the defendant is adjudged to pay a fine and costs the court shall order him to be committed to the custody of the sheriff until the fine and costs are paid or secured as provided by law.

It seems that fine and costs must be "paid," §9317.

§9312. Execution for Costs. §1120.—358. Upon a judgment for fine and costs, and for all adjudged costs, execution shall be issued against the property of the defendant, and returned in the same manner as in civil actions.

Executions in civil cases, §8125.

No execution if defendant in jail, §9320; §9347.

§9313. Recognizance in Addition to Punishment. §1121. Every court before whom any person shall be convicted upon an indictment or information for an offense not punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary may, in addition to the punishment prescribed by law, require such person to recognize with sufficient sureties in a reasonable sum to keep the peace, or to be of good behavior, or both, for any term not exceeding one year, and to stand committed until he shall so recognize. L. '91 46.

Recognizance to keep the peace generally, §9567.

§9314. Recognizance Same as to Keep the Peace. §1122.—360. In case of the breach of the conditions of any such recognizance, the same proceedings shall be had that are by law prescribed in relation to recognizances to keep the peace.

It seems that right to stay has been taken away by later section, §9317.

§9316. Non-Compliance With Stay. §1124.—362. Such sureties shall be approved by the clerk, and the entry of the recognizance shall be written immediately following the judgment, and signed by the bail, and shall have the same effect as a judgment, and if the fine or costs be not paid at the expiration of the sixty days, a joint execution shall issue against the defendant and the bail, and an execution against the body of the defendant, who shall be committed to jail, to be released as provided in this act, in committal for default to pay or secure the fine and costs.

§9317. Imprisonment for Fine and Costs. §1125. If any person ordered into custody until the fine and costs adjudged against him be paid shall not, within five days, pay, or cause the payment of the same to be made, the clerk of the court shall issue a warrant to the sheriff commanding him to imprison such defendant in the county jail until such fine and costs are paid, or until he has been imprisoned in such jail one day for every three dollars of such fine and costs; but execution may at any time issue against the property of the defendant as in other cases. L. '91, 46.

Stay if judgment on forfeited recognizance, §9348. law as to rate of allowance and issuance of execution while defendant is in jail, being later than §9320. Putting prisoners to work, §§8714, 9320, 9334, 1674.

"Payment of the same to be made" it seems takes away right to stay provided by, §§9304, 9315. Death abates action, State v. Furth 82 W. 665.

§9318. Form of Execution. §1126.—364. When any person shall be sentenced to be imprisoned in the penitentiary or county jail, the clerk of the court shall, as soon as may be, make out and deliver to the sheriff of the county, or his deputy, a transcript from the minutes of the court, of such conviction and sentence duly certified by such clerk, which shall be sufficient authority for such sheriff to execute the sentence who shall execute it accordingly.

All process shall run in the name of the state, Const., art. 4, §27.

§9319. Sentence to Penitentiary. §1127.—365. In every case where imprisonment in the penitentiary is awarded against any convict, the form of the sentence shall be, that he be punished by confinement at hard labor; and he may also be sentenced to solitary imprisonment for such term as the court shall direct, not exceeding twenty days at one time; and in the execution of such punishment the solitary shall precede the punishment by hard labor, unless the court shall otherwise order.

§9320. Serving Time for Fine and Costs. §1129. When a defendant is committed to jail on failure to pay any fines and costs he shall under the order of the county commissioners work out the amount of the fine and costs at the rate of two dollars per day and in case he shall so work out the fine and costs or in case he shall not be able to work or the county commissioners fail to provide work and he shall have been confined in the county jail one day for every two dollars of such fine and costs no execution shall issue therefor. When any defendant is in the custody of the sheriff by virtue of a sentence of imprisonment in the county jail and there be no county jail in the county he shall under the order of the county commissioners cause such person to work his unexpired term of imprisonment in such manner as said county commissioners may direct. L. '83 38.

Execution as in civil cases, §§9312, 9317.

Substitute—AN ACT relating to the issuance of the death warrant, the contents thereof, the return of same, fixing the place of executions, providing for the safe custody of the condemned, defining the duties of the superintendent of the State Penitentiary, the sheriff and the clerk in relation to said warrant, repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith, excepting as to acts done and crimes committed prior to the taking effect of this act. Received by the Governor June 12, 1901, and became a law without approval. General Repeal. Existing proceedings saved. Laws '01 Ex. Sess. p 17.

§9321. Death Warrant, When Issued. §1. When judgment of death is rendered following conviction and no appeal is taken, or the judgment has been affirmed on appeal, a death warrant shall be issued by the clerk of the trial court, which said warrant shall be signed by a judge of said court and attested by the clerk thereof under the seal of the court. Said warrant shall be directed to the superintendent of the State Penitentiary of the State of Washington and shall state the conviction of the person named therein and the judgment of the court, and appoint a day in which the judgment shall be executed by the superintendent of the State Penitentiary, which shall not be less than thirty nor more than ninety days from the date of final judgment.

Laws '01 p 100 did not become effective ing law though amended law will go into effect before its execution State ex rel. prior to repeal, in re Boyce 25 W. 612.

Warrant must issue according to exist- Campbell v. Superior Court 25 W. 271.

§9322. Order—Duties of Sheriff. §2. At the time of the issuance of said death warrant an order shall be issued by the clerk of the court, which shall be signed by the judge and attested by the clerk under the seal of the court. Said order shall direct the sheriff to hold the person condemned to death, who shall be named therein, in safe custody and forthwith deliver said person together with the death warrant into the hands of the superintendent of the State Penitentiary.

§9323. Execution—Who May Visit Condemned Person. §3. Upon delivery to him of said death warrant and of the person therein named, the superintendent of the State Penitentiary shall take the person condemned to be executed and keep said person in safe custody within said State Penitentiary until the day appointed in the warrant for the execution upon which appointed day he shall carry out the mandate contained in said warrant by executing said condemned person within the walls of the State Penitentiary in the manner provided by law. And between the date of receiving such condemned person and the date fixed in such warrant for his execution, such superintendent shall not suffer or permit any person to visit, converse, or communicate with such condemned person excepting the attendants in the State Penitentiary, legal, spiritual and medical advisers and the members of the immediate family of the condemned person, which visits and communications shall be under and subject to the rules and regulations of the State Penitentiary.

§9324. Record of Death Warrants. §4. The superintendent of the State Penitentiary shall keep in his office as part of the public records a book in which shall be entered a copy of the death warrant and his return made thereon together with a complete statement of his acts in pursuance of said warrant.

§9325. Return of Warrant. §5. Within twenty days after said execution the superintendent of the State Penitentiary shall return said death warrant to the clerk of the court from which same was issued with his return thereon showing all proceedings had by him thereunder.

§9327. Duties of Clerk on Return. §7. The clerk of the court from which the death warrant and the order to the sheriff were issued shall upon receipt of the returns from the superintendent of the State Penitentiary and from the sheriff, hereinbefore directed, file same with the records in the case and subjoin to the record of conviction and sentence a brief abstract of such returns.

§9328. Sheriff to Hold Convict. §8. Pending the issuance of the death warrant, the sheriff shall hold the condemned person in safe custody.

§9329. How Death Penalty Inflicted. §1131.—369. The punishment of death prescribed by law must be inflicted by hanging by the neck.

§9330. Time Passed for Death Sentence Another Day to Be Fixed. §1132.—371. Whenever the time appointed for the execution of a prisoner shall have passed, from any cause, the court by whom the time was fixed, or the judge or judges thereof, shall cause the prisoner to be brought immediately before the said court judge or judges, and proceed to appoint a day for the carrying into effect, of the sentence of death.

§9331. Clerk's Final Record. §1134. The clerk of the court shall make a final record of all the proceedings in a criminal prosecution within six months after the same shall have been decided, which shall contain a copy of the minutes of the challenge to the panel of the grand jury, the indictment or information, journal entries, pleadings, minutes of challenges to panel of petit jurors, judgment, orders, or decision, and bill of exceptions. L. '91 46.

§9332. Fines Belong to Counties. §1135.—373. All fines and forfeitures shall belong to the counties from which the defendants come, to be applied to the same purposes as if the court was a superior court of the county.

All fines belong to county, §§9305, 9212.

§9333. Pardons and Commutations. §1136.—374. Whenever a prisoner has been sentenced to death, the governor shall have power to commute such sentence to imprisonment for life at hard labor; and in all cases in which the governor is authorized to grant pardons or commute sentence of death, he may, upon the petition of the person convicted, commute a sentence or grant a pardon, upon such conditions, and with such restrictions, and under such limitations as he may think proper; and he may issue his warrant to all proper officers to carry into effect such pardon or commutation, which warrant shall be obeyed and executed, instead of the sentence, if any, which was originally given. The governor may also, on good cause shown, grant respites or reprieves from time to time as he may think proper.

Governor shall have power to pardon, Governor may issue warrant revoking Const., art. 3, §9; commutation, §§4378, conditional pardon—trial by court on 4391; parole, §4394; from reformatory. habeas corpus—conditions breached, §6753. Spencer v. Kees 47 W. 276.

Supplementary—AN ACT in relation to city and county prisoners. Approved December 1, 1881. C81 §§2075-6.

§9334. Work, Prisoners City Jail. §2075.—1. That when a person has been sentenced by any justice of the peace in a city in this state to a term of imprisonment in the city jail, whether in default of payment of a fine or otherwise, such person may be compelled on each day of such term, except Sundays, to perform eight hours' manual labor upon the streets, public buildings and grounds of such city and to wear an ordinary ball and chain, while performing such labor.

§9235. Work for Prisoners in County Jail. §2076.—2. When a person has been sentenced by a justice of the peace or judge of the superior court, to a term of imprisonment, in the county jail, whether in default of payment of a fine or costs or otherwise; such person may be compelled to work eight hours each day of such term in and about the county buildings, public roads, streets, and grounds: Provided, This shall not apply to persons, committed in default of bail.

Supplementary—AN ACT in relation to Territorial convicts and providing notices of convictions to be filed with the Territorial auditor. Approved November 28, 1883. Laws '83 p 71.

§9336. Conviction to Be Certified to State Auditor. §1. That in all convictions for felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state penitentiary, the clerk of the superior court in which any such conviction shall have occurred, shall, forthwith, after sentence, certify the fact of such conviction to the state auditor, giving the date of such sentence, the name and age, (if known,) of the party, the nature of the crime for which convicted, and the duration of sentence imposed by the court.

§9237. Warden's Report to State Auditor. §2. It shall be the duty of the superintendent, or keeper of the state penitentiary, immediately upon the expiration of the time for which any prisoner, confined in the state prison is convicted, or upon the death, pardon, release or escape of any such prisoner, to give official notice thereof to the state auditor. It shall be the duty of said superintendent or keeper of the prison, on or before the first day of January 1884, to make out a detailed report to the state auditor to be filed in his office showing:

The names of all prisoners committed to the penitentiary from and after the first day of June, 1878;

The county from which committed;

The nature of the crime for which convicted;

The duration of the sentence, also the names and number of all those who have died, who have been discharged, or who have escaped from said penitentiary, since the said first day of June 1878.

§9338. — Penalty. §3. Should the superintendent or keeper of the state penitentiary neglect or refuse to give the notice to the state auditor, as provided in section two (2) of this act, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall stand committed until said fine is paid.

§9339. Auditor's Record. §4. It shall be the duty of the state auditor to keep a public record of all convictions of parties sentenced to the state penitentiary; such record to embody the full data of facts reported to him under sections one (1) and two (2) of this act.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS.

§9340. Limitation of Actions. §779. Prosecutions for the offenses of murder and arson, where death ensues, may be commenced at any period after the commission of the offense; for offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in the penitentiary, within three years after their commission; and for all other offenses within one year after their commission: Provided. That any length of time during which the party charged was not usually and publicly resident within this state shall not be reckoned within the one and three years respectively: And further provided, That where an indictment has been found, or an information filed, within the time limited for the commencement of a criminal action, if the indictment or information be set aside, the time of limitation shall be computed from the setting aside of such indictment or information. L. '91 46.

Murder includes both degrees and manslaughter — preliminary examination is 19 W. 435.

NEW TRIALS.

Second conviction, credit given for time served under first §7334.

§9341. Grounds of New Trial. §1105. An application for a new trial must be made before judgment, and may be granted for the following causes materially affecting a substantial right of the defendant:

1. When the jury has received any evidence, paper, document or book not allowed by the court.
2. Misconduct of the jury.
3. Newly discovered evidence material for the defendant, which he could not have discovered with reasonable diligence, and produced at the trial.
4. Accident or surprise.
5. Error of law occurring at the trial, and excepted to by the defendant.
6. When the verdict is contrary to law and evidence; but not more than two new trials shall be granted for these causes alone. L. '91 46.

§9348. Stay of Execution. §1138. The parties, or either of them, against whom such judgment may be entered in the superior or supreme courts, may stay said execution for sixty days, by giving a bond, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned for the payment of such judgment at the expiration of sixty days, unless the same shall be vacated before the expiration of that time L. '91 46.

Vacation of forfeiture after 60 days in discretion of court, State v. Jackschitz 71 W. 253.

§9350. Defects Shall Not Defeat Recognizance. §88. No action brought on any recognizance given in any criminal proceeding whatever shall be barred or defeated, nor shall judgment be arrested thereon, by reason of any neglect or omission to note or record the default of any principal or surety at the time when such default shall happen, or by reason of any defect in the form of the recognizance if it sufficiently appear, from the tenor thereof, at what court or before what justice the party or witness was bound to appear, and that the court or magistrate before whom it was taken was authorized by law to require and take such recognizance; and a recognizance may be recorded after execution awarded. L. '91 46.

§9351. Actions on Recognizances. §1166.—404. All recognizances taken and forfeited before any justice of the peace or magistrate, shall be forthwith certified to the clerk of the superior court of the county; and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to proceed at once by action against all the persons bound in such recognizances, and in all forfeited recognizances whatever, or such of them as he may elect to proceed against.

REWARDS.

§9352. Reward, Obstructing Railroad Track. §1290.—529. The governor shall offer a standing reward of two hundred dollars ($200) for the arrest of each person who shall place any obstructions on any railroad track or who shall misplace any switch, rail, or ties on any such road, whereby the life of any person passing over said road, may be endangered; and for the arrest of each person engaged in the robbing or attempting to rob, any person upon, or having in charge in whole or in part, any stage coach, wagon, railroad train or other conveyance engaged in carrying passengers or any private conveyance within this state, the reward to be paid to the person making such arrest out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated immediately upon the conviction of the person so arrested, but no reward shall be paid except after such conviction.

§9353. — Payment of. §1291.—530. The auditor of the state shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the amount of the reward upon presentation to him of a certificate of the clerk of the court where the conviction was had of such conviction and the finding of the court that the satisfactory proof was made that the person claiming the reward is entitled thereto, under the provision of this act.

Supplementary—AN ACT to authorize the county commissioners in the several counties of Washington Territory to offer and pay rewards for the apprehension of criminals. Approved February 3, 1886. Laws '86 p 124.

§9354. Rewards by County Commissioners. §1. That the county commissioners in the several counties of the state of Washington, when in their opinion the public good requires it, be and are hereby authorized to offer and pay a suitable reward, not to exceed five hundred dollars in any one case, to any person or persons who, in consequence of such offer, apprehends, brings back and secures any person or persons, convicted of or charged with any criminal offense, if the offense be a felony.

§9355. — Payment of. §2. Whenever any such reward has been offered by any board of county commissioners in the state of Washington, for the apprehension of any person or persons, convicted of or charged with any criminal offense, if the offense be a felony the person or persons who shall first apprehend, bring back and secure, such person or persons so charged shall be entitled to such reward, and the board of county commissioners who have offered such reward, are authorized to draw a warrant or warrants on the county treasurer, for the amount of such reward, who shall pay the amount of said warrant or warrants, out of any money in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEARCH WARRANTS.

Intoxicating liquors, §§3173, 3196-8.

§9357. Search Warrants Authorized. §967.—204. When complaint shall have been made on oath, to any magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, that personal property has been stolen or embezzled, or obtained by false tokens, or pretenses, and that the complainant believes that it is concealed in any particular house or place, the magistrate if he be satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such belief, shall issue a warrant for such property.

§9358. — For What Purposes. §968.—205. Any such magistrate, when satisfied that there is reasonable cause, may also upon like complaint made on oath, issue search warrant in the following cases, to-wit:

1. To search for and seize any counterfeit or spurious coin, or forged instruments, or tools, machines, or materials, prepared or provided, for making either of them.

2. To search for and seize, any gaming apparatus used or kept, and to be used in any unlawful gaming house, or in any building, apartment or place, resorted to for the purpose of unlawful gaming

Forgery or uttering forged money, etc., Court cannot presume sheriff obtained gambling apparatus wrongfully, Way v. Territory, 1 W. T. 415.

§9359. To Whom Writ Directed—Contents. §969.—206. All such warrants shall be directed to the sheriff of the county or his deputy, or to any constable of the county, commanding such officer to search the house or place where the stolen property or other things for which he is required to search are believed to be concealed, which place and property, or things to be searched for shall be designated and described in the warrant, and to bring such stolen property or other things, when found, and the person in whose possession the same shall be found, before the magistrate who shall issue the warrant, or before some other magistrate or court having cognizance of the case.

Arrest of person without search and finding of property is false imprisonment by officer, Ton v. Stetson 43 W. 471.

§9360. Property to Be Kept. §970.—207. When any officer in the execution of a search warrant, shall find any stolen or embezzled property, or shall seize any other things for which a search is allowed by this chapter, all the property and things so seized, shall be safely kept by the direction of the court or magistrate, so long as shall be necessary for the purpose of being produced in evidence on any trial, and as soon as may be afterwards, all such stolen and embezzled property, shall be restored to the owner thereof, and all other things seized by virtue of such warrant shall be destroyed under direction of the court or magistrate.

TRIALS.

§9361. Continuances. §1077.—315. A continuance may be granted in any case on the ground of the absence of evidence on the motion of the defendant supported by affidavit showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained and that due diligence has been used to procure it; and also the name and place of residence of the witness or witnesses; and the substance of the evidence expected to be obtained and if the prosecuting attorney admit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial or offered and overruled as improper the continuance shall not be granted.

AN ACT relating to trials in criminal actions; and providing for the drawing, retaining and selection of alternate jurors, and providing when this act shall take effect. Approved March 3, 1917. Laws '17 p 185.

§9363. Alternate Jurors. §1. Whenever, in the opinion of a judge of a superior court about to try a defendant against whom has been filed any indictment or information for a felony, the trial is likely to be a protracted one, the court may cause an entry to that effect to be made in the minutes of the court, and thereupon, immediately after the jury is impaneled and sworn the court may direct the calling of one or two additional jurors, in its discretion, to be known as "alternate jurors." Such jurors must be drawn from the same source, and in the same manner, and of the same qualifications as the jurors already sworn, to be subject to the same examination and challenge: Provided, That the prosecution shall be entitled to one, and the defendant to two peremptory challenges to such alternate jurors. Such alternate jurors shall be seated near, with equal power and facilities for seeing and hearing the proceedings in the case, and shall take the same oath as the jurors already selected, and must attend at all times upon the trial of the cause in company with the other jurors; and for a failure so to do are liable to be punished for contempt. They shall obey the orders of and be bound by the admonition of the court upon each adjournment of the court; but if the regular jurors are ordered to be kept in the custody of the sheriff during the trial of the case, such alternate jurors shall also be kept in confinement with the other jurors; and except, as hereinafter provided, shall be discharged upon the final submission of the case to the jury. If, before the final submission of the case, a juror die, or become ill, so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged and draw the name of an alternate, who shall then take his place in the jury box and be subject to the same rules and regulations as though he had been elected as one of the original jurors.

Capital punishment abolished, only six cured if defendants peremptory challenges peremptory challenges remain, State v. Johnson 83 W. 1. not exhausted, State v. Champoux 33 W. 339.

Failure to sustain challenge for cause is State and defendant must alternate one and two. State v. Eddon 8 W. 292.

§9366. State's Peremptory Challenges. §1080.—318. The prosecuting attorney, in capital cases, may challenge peremptorily six jurors, in all other cases three jurors.

This section construed with section 601 challenge talesmen after waiver as to jury though it gives the State the last challenge, State v. Vance 29 W. 435.

§9367. Challenges to the Panel. §1081.—319. Challenges to the panel shall only be allowed for a material departure from the forms prescribed by law, for the drawing and the return of the jury, and shall be in writing, sworn to and proved to the satisfaction of the court.

Challenge not taken in manner required moned for "ensuing" month is not cause but entertained by court should be sustained if meritorious, State v. Payne, 6 W. 405. State v. Leroy 61 W. 563.

Jurors drawn preceding month and sum- Where testimony is not brought up on appeal court's action will be sustained, State v. Vance 29 W. 435.

§9368. Challenges for Causes. §1082.—320. Challenges for cause shall be allowed for such cause as the court may, in its discretion, deem sufficient, having reference to the causes of challenge prescribed in civil cases, as far as they may be applicable, and to the substantial rights of the defendant.

Drawing of jurors formerly serving valid unless challenged, State v. Barnes 54 W. 493. challenge on that account, State v. Rutten 13 W. 203.

Opinion disqualifies juror, State v. Riley 36 W. 441. Juror with opinion formed though he states he can disregard it is subject to challenge, State v. Willcox 11 W. 215.

Witness for the state is incompetent and compelling defendant to exhaust peremptory challenge to remove juror is error —prosecuting attorney should inform the court, State v. Stentz 30 W. 134. That prosecuting attorney is legal adviser of justice of the peace is not ground of challenge, State v. Lewis 31 W. 515.

Opinion that will disqualify, Rose v. State 2 W. 310. Juror with "feeling of prejudice," or opinion on insanity caused by use of liquor or has opinion from newspaper is not disqualified, State v. Croney 31 W. 122.

Juror having heard purported facts which he can disregard will not disqualify him, State v. Coella 8 W. 512. Counsel can not "extract" opinion of juror and then challenge for cause, State v. Straub 16 W. 111.

Juror with opinion that would take strong evidence to change is subject to challenge State v. Murphy 9 W. 204. Juror being taxpayer is not ground of challenge in trial of public officer for use of public funds, State v. Krug 12 W. 288; juror's impression but not opinion will not disqualify him, id.

Opinion and impression — prejudice against drunkenness and insanity as a defense, State v. Boyse 24 W. 440. Asking juror if after trial he has reasonable doubt he will find verdict of not guilty is improper, State v. Boklen 14 W. 403.

Court may put leading question as "would you obey the court as to the law in the case?" —impressions from reading newspaper, State v. Boyce 24 W. 514. It is improper to ask juror if he would give more credence to minister than to any one else State v. Holedger 15 W. 443.

Mere "impression" will not disqualify juror, State v. Harras 22 W. 57. Juror who has read but has not formed opinion though it would take some evidence to remove impression is not subject to challenge for cause, State v. Gile 8 W. 12.

Juror had opinion and challenge should have been sustained, State v. Moody 18 W. 165. When opinion was a qualified one juror not subject to challenge, State v. Farris 26 W. 205.

If juror is subject to challenge for cause but it refused error is cured by excuse of juror on peremptory challenge, State v. McCann 16 W. 249. Objection not taken is deemed waived, Clarke v. Territory 1 W. T. 69.

Opinion of juror—overruling of proper challenge is cured by peremptory challenge, State v. Carey 15 W. 549. Qualification of juror is largely in discretion of court, White v. Territory 3 W. T. 397.

Opinion of juror cause of challenge—failure to sustain challenge is error if defendant required to exhaust peremptory See notes to §§8496, 8498.

§9369. Disqualification of Juror. §1083. No person whose opinions are such as to preclude him from finding any defendant guilty of an offense punishable with death shall be compelled or allowed to serve as a juror on the trial of any indictment or information for such an offense. L. '91 46.

§9370. Oath of Jurors. §1084. The jury shall be sworn or affirmed well and truly to try the issue between the state and the defendant, according to the evidence; and in capital cases, to well and truly try, and true deliverance make between the state and the prisoner at the bar, whom they shall have in charge, according to the evidence. L. '91 46.

Record showing jury was sworn to try Oath of "true deliverance" instead of cause "well and truly" is sufficient, State "according to the evidence" sustained, v. Barkuloo 18 W. 141. State v. Gin Pon 16 W. 425.

Oath approved, State v. Johnny Tommy 19 W. 270. Oath varied, or "duly sworn" held valid, Leonard v. Territory 2 W. T.381; Hartigan v. Territory 1 W. T. 448.

Trial by court in civil cases, §§8477, 8488. Is this section in force? State v. Ellis 22 W. 129.

§9372. When Defendant's Presence Required. §1086.—324. No person prosecuted for an offense punishable by death, or by confinement in the penitentiary or in the county jail, shall be tried unless personally present, during the trial.

Admonition without presence of defendant and attorney for deliberation is error, State v. Shutzler 82 W. 365.

Instruction to jury in absence of accused not cured by again giving same instruction with defendant present, State v. Beaudin 76 W. 306.

Does not, in cases not capital, preclude the entry of judgment upon a verdict received in the absence of the defendant, if the defendant, out on bail, voluntarily absents himself, State ex rel. Gabe v. Main, 66 W. 381.

Defendant present at beginning of trial will be presumed present thereafter, State v. Costello 29 W. 366.

§9373. Presence or Bond When. §1087.—325. No person prosecuted for an offense, punishable by a fine only, shall be tried without being personally present, unless some responsible person, approved by the court, undertakes to be bail for stay of execution and payment of the fine and costs that may be assessed against the defendant. Such undertaking must be in writing, and is as effective, as if entered into after judgment.

In offense punishable by fine only, defendant may appear on arraignment by

Presence secured by bench warrant, §9308.

§9374. Conduct of Trial as in Civil Actions. §1088. The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of the trial, and the trial shall be conducted in the same manner as in civil actions. L. '91 46.

§9375. Jury Not to Separate. §1089.—327. Juries in criminal cases shall not be allowed to separate, except by consent of the defendant and the prosecuting attorney, but shall be kept together without meat or drink, unless otherwise ordered by the court, to be furnished at the expense of the county.

Separation of a juror in a felony case is reversible error, though defendant may not have been prejudiced thereby, nor a formal objection urged at the time, State v. Bennett, 71 or 72 W.

Consent given for jury to attend church, etc., but jury separated, held error, State v. Morden 87 W. 465; State v. Druxman 88 W. 424.

Separation of juror in felony cases is error, State v. Bennett 71 W. 673.

Separation after selection and before being sworn does not invalidate, State v. Newcomb 58 W. 414.

Does not apply to sworn on voir dire, State v. Clark 58 W. 128.

State v. Stockhammer 34 W. 262.

If juror inadvertently allowed to separate from others, defendant must object, State v. Shuck 38 W. 270.

Court asking defendant to permit a juror to go home on account of sickness in his family which leave was granted, is reversible error, State v. Parker 25 W. 405.

One sick juror was taken to court house on a car by bailiff and remainder walked with another bailiff is not a separation, State v. Burns 19 W. 52.

Jury can not separate after cause submitted and must give verdict in open court, Anderson v. Seattle 2 W. 183.

Court asked counsel for defendant if there was any objection to separation of jury before verdict, held not error unless defendant could show he was prejudiced, Tommy 19 W. 270.

State v. Holedger 15 W. 443.

Jury can not separate before verdict returned into court, State v. Barkuloo 18 W. 141; even by consent, State v. Rogan 18 W. 43; State v. Manson 19 W. 94.

Applies to jury accepted and sworn to try case and not jury on voir dire, State v. Voorhees 12 W. 53; State v. Johnnie 1 W. T. 196.

Hunter 18 W. 670.

Refusal of view will not be disturbed unless there is abuse of discretion, State v. defendant, State v. Lee Doon 7 W. 308.

§9377. Separate Trial in Joint Charge. §1091. When two or more defendants are indicted or informed against jointly, any defendant requesting it may, in the discretion of the trial judge be tried separately. L. '19 ch. 16; L., '91 46; R.&B. §2161.

Confines evidence to acts for which individual defendant alone is responsible, State v. Beebe, 66 W. 463.

Presence of one jointly indicted but not on trial in court is not error, State v. Hyde 22 W. 551.

Demand for separate trial sufficient when made within reasonable time after knowledge that state would ask for joint trial, State v. Moran, 66 W. 588.

Defendant may demand separate before cause is assigned for trial from which time until jury is sworn court may grant separate trial, State v. Mason 19 W. 94.

Refusal of separate trial if conspiracy charged—refusal of separate trial cured by acquittal, State v. McCann 16 W. 249.

§9378. A Defendant as State's Witness. §1092.—330. When two or more persons are included in one prosecution, the court may, at any time before the defendant has gone into his defense, direct any defendant to be discharged, that he may be a witness for the state. A defendant may also, when there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, at any time before the evidence is closed, be discharged by the court, for the purpose of giving testimony for a co-defendant. The order of discharge is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.

§9379. Variance, Second Charge. §1093.—331. When it appears at any time before verdict or judgment, that a mistake has been made in charging the proper offense, the defendant shall not be discharged if there appear to be good cause to detain him in custody; but the court must recognize him to answer to the offense shown, and if necessary recognize the witnesses to appear and testify.

Information for burglary in night time was quashed and another for burglary in day time filed giving defendant time to prepare for trial is valid procedure, State v. Hansen 10 W. 235.

Offenses must be tried in county where offense triable in two or more counties, committed, Const., art. 1, §22, §9394; of- §9391.

§9382. Answer is Bar to Included Offense. §1096. When the defendant has been convicted or acquitted upon an indictment or information of an offense consisting of different degrees, the conviction or acquittal shall be a bar to another indictment or information for the offense charged in the former, or for any lower degree of that offense, or for an offense necessarily included therein. L. '91 46.

§9383. Verdict for Lesser Degree. §1097. Upon an indictment or information for an offense consisting of different degrees, the jury may find the defendant not guilty of the degree charged in the indictment or information, and guilty of any degree inferior thereto, or of an attempt to commit the offense. §9385. Verdict Against One of Defendants. §1099. On an indictment or information against several, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment shall be entered accordingly. L. '91 46.

§9386. Reconsideration by Jury Under Instruction. §1100. When there is a verdict of conviction in which it appears to the court that the jury have mistaken the law, the court may explain the reason for that opinion, and direct the jury to reconsider the verdict; and if after such reconsideration they return the same verdict, it must be entered, but it shall be good cause for new trial. When there is a verdict of acquittal, the court cannot require the jury to reconsider it. L. '91 46.

§9387. Acquittal for Insanity. §1101. When any person indicted or informed against for an offense shall, on trial, be acquitted by reason of insanity, the jury, in giving their verdict of not guilty, shall state that it was given for such cause; and thereupon, if the discharge or going at large of such insane person shall be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the community, the court may order him to be committed to prison, or may give him into the care of his friends, if they shall give bonds, with surety to the satisfaction of the court, conditioned that he shall be well and securely kept, otherwise he shall be discharged. ## CHAPTER 86.

VENUE.

§9397. Change of Venue. §1072. The defendant may show to the court, by affidavit, that he believes he cannot receive a fair trial in the county where the action is pending, owing to the prejudice of the judge, or to excitement or prejudice against the defendant in the county, or some part thereof, and may thereupon demand to be tried in another county. The application shall not be granted on the ground of excitement or prejudice other than prejudice of the judge, unless the affidavit of the defendant be supported by other evidence; nor in any case unless the judge is satisfied the ground upon which the application is made does exist.

Change of venue in criminal case is in discretion of court, State v. Wright 97 W. 304.

Offenses must be tried in county, Const., art. 1, §22, §9394; offenses triable in two or more counties, §9391.

Change of venue is discretionary and will not be corrected unless abused—affidavit of witness introduced he can not testify orally, State v. Straub 16 W. 111.

§9398. Change on Prejudice of Judge—Transcript. §1073. When the affidavit is founded on prejudice of the judge, the court may, in its discretion, grant a change of venue to some other county, or may continue the cause until such time as it can be tried by another judge in the same county; if the affidavit is founded upon excitement or prejudice in the county against the defendant, the court may, in its discretion, grant a change of venue to the most convenient county. The clerk must, upon the granting of a change at the place of trial, make a transcript of the proceedings and order of court, and, having sealed up the same with the original papers, deliver them to the sheriff, who must without delay deposit them in the clerk's office of the proper county, and make his return accordingly.

Change for prejudice of judge in civil judge in same county is discretionary case §8546. State v. Hawkins 23 W. 289.

Whether change granted to another Supreme Court will not disturb refusal county or that cause be tried by another of change of venue unless most clearly abused, Edwards v. State 2 W. 291.

§9399. Change by Consent. §1075.—313. The court may at its discretion, at any time order a change of venue or place of trial to any county in the state, upon the written consent or agreement of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant.

§9400. Recognizance of Defendant and Witnesses. §1076. When a change of venue is ordered, if the offense be bailable, the court shall recognize the defendant, and in all cases the witnesses, to appear at the court to which the change of venue was granted.

APPEALS.

§9401. Appeals to Superior Court. §1858. Any person considering himself aggrieved by the judgment or decision of a Justice of the Peace in a civil action may, in person or by his agent, appeal therefrom to the Superior Court of the same county where the judgment was rendered or the decision made: Provided, There shall be no appeal allowed unless the amount in controversy exclusive of costs, shall exceed the sum of twenty dollars. L'05 41.

Pleadings may be amended on appeal, §9594.

Appellant shall pay costs on appeal from justice if he does not obtain more favorable judgment, §7468.

Under §3550, damages included in amount in controversy on appeal, State ex C. M. & P. S. Ry. v. Court, 73 W.

Certiorari and appeal are concurrent remedies, Woodbury v. Henningsen 11 W. 12.

Where only error committed by justice was in taxing costs such should be corrected and judgment affirmed, State v. White 8 W. 230.

No appeal lies from judgment by default on personal service and mandamus will not lie to compel superior court to take jurisdiction, State ex rel. Pacific Coast Steamship Co. v. Superior Court 12 W. 548.

§9402. How Taken. §1859. Such appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the justice and serving a copy on the adverse party or his attorney, and, unless such appeal be by a county, city, or school district, filing a bond or undertaking, as herein provided, within twenty days after the judgment is rendered or the decision made. No appeal, except when such appeals are by a county, city, or school district, shall be allowed in any case, unless a bond or an undertaking shall be executed on the part of the appellant and filed with and approved by the justice, with one or more sureties, in the sum of one hundred dollars, to the effect that the appellant will pay all costs that may be awarded against him on the appeal; or if a stay of proceedings before the justice be claimed, except by a county, city, or school district, a bond or undertaking, with two or more sureties, to be approved, by the justice, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment and costs, to the effect that the appellant will pay such judgment, including costs, as may be rendered against him on the appeal. L. '91 66

Notice of appeal from judgment "herebefore rendered" is sufficient, State ex rel. Maltby v. Superior Court 7 W. 223.

Notice must be filed before served—prohibition of superior court jurisdiction, State ex rel. Alladio v. Superior Court 17 W. 54; Filing and service of notice operates as appeal, but bond necessary for stay, Seattle Coal etc. Co. v. Lewis 1 W. T. 488. Defects of notice that will not invalidate McKiever v. Manchester 1 W. 255.

§9405. Transcript. §1863. Within ten days after the appeal has been taken in a civil action or proceeding, the appellant shall furnish the superior court with a transcript of all entries made in the justice's docket relating to the case, together with all the process and other papers relating to the action, and file(d) with the justice, which shall be certified by such justice to be correct; and upon the filing of such transcript, the superior court shall become possessed of the cause, and shall proceed in the same manner, as near as may be, as in actions originally commenced in that court, except as herein otherwise provided. L. '91 66.

When transcript is not filed within ten days it is in discretion of court to dismiss case, State ex rel. Cline v. Campbell 5 W. 517; State ex rel. Gardner v. Superior Court 9 W. 307.

It is discretionary with superior court to allow amendments, State ex rel. Bailey v. Superior Court 3 W. 705.

Amendments are allowed in the discretion of the court, Newbury v. Farmer 1 W. T. 183.

Allowance of amendments cannot be controlled by prohibition, State ex rel. Bagley v. Superior Court 3 W. 705.

Error of justice in ruling on jurisdiction may be raised on appeal though case has been tried on merits—return cannot be amended, Knoff v. Co-Operative Colony 1 W. 57.

§9407. Compelling Transcript. §1865. Upon an appeal being taken and allowed, the superior court may, by rule and attachment, compel the justice to make and deliver to the appellant a certified transcript of the proceedings, upon paying to such justice the fees allowed by law for making such transcript, and whenever the court is satisfied that the return of the justice is substantially erroneous or defective, it may, by rule and attachment, compel him to amend the same. L. '91 66.

§9408. Defective Bond—Dismissal. §1866.—178. No appeal allowed by a justice shall be dismissed on account of the bond being defective, if the appellant will, before the motion is determined, execute and file in the superior court such a bond as he should have executed at the time of taking the appeal, and pay all costs that shall have accrued by reason of such defect.

§9409. Judgment on Bond. §1867.—179. In all cases of appeal to the superior court, if on the trial anew in such court, the judgment be against the appellant, in whole or in part, such judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties in the bond for the appeal.

ARREST AND BAIL.

§9410. Arrest and Bail. §1746.—58. A justice of the peace shall issue a warrant of arrest in all such cases within his jurisdiction, and for such causes, and upon such proof as is provided for an order for a warrant in the act regulating civil actions.

No imprisonment for debt except in case of absconding debtors, Const., art 1, §17. No arrest—justice not liable in case of arrest. Hayes v. Hutchinson & Shields 81 W. 394.

§9411. — Plaintiff's Bond. §1747.—59. Before issuing the warrant of arrest, the justice shall require a bond on part of the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which may be sustained by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the bond, which shall be at least one hundred dollars.

§9413. Notice to Plaintiff. §1749.—61. The officer making the arrest shall immediately give notice thereof to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, and indorse on the warrant the time of the arrest, and the time of serving notice on the plaintiff.

§9414. Time Defendant May Be Held. §1750.—62. When a defendant is brought before a justice on a warrant, he shall be detained in the custody of the officer until he shall be discharged according to law; but in no case shall the defendant be detained longer than twenty-four hours from the time he shall be brought before the justice, unless within that time the trial of the action shall be commenced, or unless it has been delayed at the instance of the defendant.

§9415. Defendant's Discharge—Bond. §1751.—63. If the defendant, on his appearance, demand a continuance, the same may be granted, on condition that he remain in custody, or execute and file with the justice a bond with one or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the justice, to the effect [effect] that he will render himself amenable to the process of the court; or that the sureties will pay to plaintiff the amount of any judgment which he may recover in the action. On filing such bond, the justice shall order the defendant to be discharged from custody.

AN ACT relating to bail bonds and recognizance in Justice's Courts, and providing for the acceptance of money in lieu of other security. Approved March 4, 1919. L. '19 ch 76.

§9415a. Money Bail. §1. Justices of the Peace or Committing Magistrates may accept money as bail from persons charged with bailable offenses, and for the appearance of witnesses in all cases provided by law for the recognizance of witnesses. The amount of such bail or recognizance in each case shall be determined by the court in its discretion, and may from time to time be increased or decreased as circumstances may justify. The money to be received and accounted for in the same manner as provided by law for the Superior Courts.

§9416. Officer Failing to Serve Process. §1752.—64. If any officer, without showing good cause therefor, fail to execute any process to him delivered, and make due return thereof, or make a false return, such officer for every such offense, shall pay to the party injured ten dollars, and all damage such party may have sustained, by reason thereof, to be recovered in a civil action.

§9417. Guardian ad Litem for Infant. §1753.—65. No action shall be commenced by an infant plaintiff, except by his guardian, or until a next friend for such infant shall have been appointed. Whenever requested, the justice shall appoint some suitable person, who shall consent thereto in writing, to be named by such plaintiff, to act as his next friend in such action, who shall be responsible for the costs therein.

§9418. — Defendant. §1754.—66. After service and return of process against an infant defendant, the action shall not be further prosecuted, until a guardian for such infant shall have been appointed. Upon the request of such defendant, the justice shall appoint some person who shall consent thereto in writing, to be guardian of the defendant in defense of the action; and if the defendant shall not appear on the return day of the process, or if he neglect or refuse to nominate such guardian, the justice may, at the request of the plaintiff, appoint any discreet person as such guardian. The consent of the guardian or next friend, shall be filed with the justice; and such guardian for the defendant shall not be liable for any costs in the action.

§9419. One Hour for Appearance. §1755.—67. The parties shall be entitled to one hour in which to make their appearance after the time mentioned in the notice for appearance, but shall not be required to remain longer than that time, unless both parties appear; and the justice being present, is actually engaged in the trial of another action or proceeding; in such case he may postpone the time of appearance until the close of such trial.

OF PROCEEDINGS FOR CONTEMPT BEFORE JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

§9420. Contempt. §1842.—154. In the following cases, and no others, a justice of the peace may punish for contempt:

1. Persons guilty of disorderly, contemptuous and insolent behavior towards such justice while engaged in the trial of a cause, or in rendering judgment, or in any judicial proceedings, which tend to interrupt such proceedings, or impair the respect due to his authority.

2. Persons guilty of any breach of the peace, noise or disturbance, tending to interrupt the official proceedings of such justice.

3. Persons guilty of resistance or disobedience to any lawful order or process made or issued by him.

The following provisions apply to arbitrators, §7347.

§9421. — Punishment. §1843.—155. Punishment for contempt may be by fine, not exceeding twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding two days, at the discretion of the justice, unless otherwise provided by statute.

§9422. Hearing. §1844.—156. No person shall be punished for a contempt before a justice of the peace, until an opportunity shall have been given to him to be heard in his defense; and for that purpose the justice may issue his warrant to bring the offender before him.

§9423. Contempt in Justice's Presence. §1845.—157. If the offender be present, he may be summarily arraigned by the justice and proceeded against in the same manner as if a warrant had been previously issued, and the offender arrested thereon.

§9424. Form of Warrant. §1846.—158. The warrant for contempt may be in the following form:

State of Washington ——— County—ss.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of said County:

In the name of the State of Washington, you are hereby commanded to apprehend A B, and bring him before J P, one of the justices of the peace of said county, at his office in said county, to show cause why he should not be convicted of a contempt alleged to have been committed on the ——— day of ———, A. D. 18—, before the said justice, while engaged as a justice of the peace in a judicial proceeding.

Dated this ——— day of ——— A. D., 18—.

J. P. Justice of the Peace.

§9425. Form of Judgment. §1847.—159. Upon the conviction of any person for contempt, an entry thereof shall be made in the docket of such justice, stating the particular circumstances of the offense, and the judgment rendered thereon, and may be in the following form:

State of Washington ————— County,—ss.

Whereas, on the — day of — A. D., 18—, while the undersigned, one of the justices of the peace of said county, was engaged in the trial of an action between C D, plaintiff, and E F, defendant, in said county, A. B. of the said county, did interrupt the said proceedings, and impair the respect due to the authority of the undersigned, by (here describe the cause particularly). And whereas, the said A B was thereupon required by the undersigned to answer for the said contempt, and show cause why he should not be convicted thereof. And whereas, the said A B did not show cause against the said charge—be it therefor[e] ordered that the said A B is adjudged to be guilty and is convicted of the contempt aforesaid, and is adjudged by the undersigned to pay a fine of — dollars, (or be imprisoned, etc.)

Dated this — day of —, A. D. 18—.

J. P. Justice of the Peace.

§9426. Commitment. §1848.—160. If any person convicted of a contempt be adjudged to be imprisoned, a warrant of commitment shall be issued by the justice. If he be adjudged to pay a fine, a process may be issued to collect the same; and when so collected it shall forthwith be paid by the justice into the county treasury.

CONTINUANCES.

§9427. Continuances. §1769.—81. When the pleadings of the parties shall have taken place, the justice shall, upon the application of either party, if the defendant be not under arrest, and sufficient cause be shown on oath, continue the case for any time not exceeding sixty days. If the continuance be on account of absence of testimony, it shall be for such reasonable time as will enable the party to procure such testimony, and shall be at the cost of the party applying therefor, unless otherwise ordered by the justice; and in all other respects shall be governed by the law applicable to continuances in the superior court.

Continuance when jury is demanded, continuance is not general appearance, Nelson v. Campbell 1 W. 261.

COSTS AND FEES.

Guardian ad litem liable for §9417.

§9428. Tender of Judgment—Costs. §1784.—66. If the defendant, at any time before the trial, offer, in writing, to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specified sum, the plaintiff may immediately have judgment therefor, with costs then accrued; but if he do not accept such offer before trial, and fail to recover on the trial of the action, a sum greater than the offer, such plaintiff shall not recover any costs that may accrue after he shall have been notified of the offer of the defendant, but such costs shall be adjudged against him, and if he recover, deducted from his recovery. But the offer and failure to accept it, shall not be given in evidence to affect the recovery, otherwise than as to costs, as above provided.

Tender of money in superior court, §7466.

§9429. Judgment for Costs—Attorneys' Fees. §1785. When the prevailing party is entitled to recover costs in a civil action before a justice of the peace, the justice shall add the amount thereof to the judgment; in case of failure of the plaintiff to recover or of dismissal of the action, the justice shall enter up a judgment in favor of the defendant for the amount of his costs; and in case any party so entitled to costs is represented in the action by an attorney, the justice shall include an attorney's fee of five dollars as part of the costs: Provided, however, That the plaintiff shall not be entitled to such attorney fee unless he obtain, exclusive of costs, a judgment in the sum of five dollars or more. Any justice shall, on complaint on oath in writing before him, charging any person with the commission of any crime or misdemeanor, of which he has jurisdiction, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person, and cause him to be brought forthwith before him for trial.

Supreme court will prohibit superior case within justice's jurisdiction, State ex judge sitting as committing magistrate if Murphy v. Taylor 101 W. 148.

§9435. Arrests in Presence of Justice. §1889.—201. When any offense is committed in view of any justice he may, by verbal direction to any constable, or if no constable be present, to any citizen, cause such constable or citizen to arrest such offender, and keep him in custody for the space of one hour, unless such offender shall sooner be taken from such custody by virtue of a warrant issued on complaint on oath. But such person so arrested, shall not be confined in jail, nor put upon any trial, until arrested by virtue of such warrant.

§9435a. Trial. On the return of any warrant issued by him, it shall be the duty of the justice to docket the cause, and unless continuance be granted, forthwith to hear and determine the cause, and either acquit, convict and punish or hold to bail the offender, if the offense be bailable and prove to be one which should be tried in the superior court, or in default of bail, commit him to jail, as the facts and law may justify.

§9441. Continuances. §1895. Continuance may be granted, either on application of the defendant or the prosecuting witness, under the same rules as in civil cases; the cost of such continuance shall abide the event of the prosecution in all cases, and the justice shall recognize the defendant and the witnesses to appear from time to time, in the same manner as is provided in other criminal examinations before him. L. '91 18.

It seems that the right to stay is taken away in superior court judgments, §9317.

§9444. Appeal to Superior Court. §6. Every person convicted before a justice of the peace of any offense may appeal from the judgment, within ten days thereafter, to the superior court. The appeal shall be taken by orally giving notice thereof at the time the judgment is rendered, or by serving a written notice thereof upon the justice at any time after the judgment, and within the time allowed for taking the appeal; when the notice is given orally, the justice shall enter the same in his docket. The appellant shall be committed to the jail of the county until he shall recognize or give a bond to the state, in such reasonable sum, with such sureties as said justice may require, with condition to appear at the court appealed to, and there prosecute his appeal, and to abide the sentence of the court thereon, if not revised by a higher court. Complaint cannot be amended on appeal, State v. Hamshaw 61 W. 390.

§9445. No Fees in Advance—Default. §7. The appellant in a criminal action shall not be required to advance any fees in claiming his appeal, nor in prosecuting the same; but if convicted in the appellate court, or if sentenced for failing to prosecute his appeal, he may be required, as a part of the sentence, to pay the costs of the prosecution. If the appellant shall fail to enter and prosecute his appeal, he shall be defaulted on his recognizance, if any was taken, and the superior court may award sentence against him for the offense whereof he was convicted, in like manner as if he had been convicted thereof in that court; and if he be not then in custody, process may be issued to bring him into court to receive sentence.

If records lost they may be restored under §7780, State ex rel. Brockway v. Whitehead 88 W. 549.

§9447. Fines to Be Paid Over to County Treasurer—Affidavit—Treasurer's Receipt. §1901-213. It shall be the duty of every justice on the first Mondays in January and July in every year, and on going out of office, to pay over to the treasurer of his county all money he may have received on account of fines, and all fees which may have remained unclaimed in his hands for twelve months; and he shall, at the same time, deliver to such treasurer a statement in writing, showing by items the sources from which such money was derived, and shall append thereto an affidavit, that he has received no other money for fines, not before paid over to such treasurer, and has no other fees unclaimed for twelve months, in his hands; and the treasurer's receipt therefor he shall file with the auditor, who shall give him a quietus.

Substitute—AN ACT relating to the election of justices of the peace. Approved February 2, 1888. Laws '88 p 120.

§9449. Justices to Be Elected. §1. That the qualified electors of each election precinct in this state shall at the next general election and biennially thereafter elect one or more justices of the peace as hereinafter provided.

§9450. — Number. §2. Each election precinct shall be entitled to elect one justice of the peace, but the county commissioners of any county may at the time of organizing the precinct or at any time thereafter authorize the election of one additional justice of the peace in any precinct.

§9451. City and Adjoining Territory. §3. Each incorporated city in this State together with any adjoining precincts if any there are lying partly within and partly without said city shall for the purposes of this act and for fixing and limiting the number of justices of the peace to be elected in such city be deemed and considered one precinct, and the qualified electors within the limits thereof shall at each general election at the several polling places therein vote for and elect two justices of the peace and no more.

Determination of population, and number of justices, State ex rel. Williams v. Brooks 58 W. 648.

§9452. Jurisdiction as Heretofore. §4. The qualification, term of office, duties, powers and jurisdiction of justices of the peace shall be as now provided by law, except that no justice of the peace shall hereafter have jurisdiction of any action brought to enforce or collect any claim or demand which said justice had in any manner attempted to collect as agent or otherwise.

§9453. Eligibility to Office. §1691.—3. No person shall be eligible to the office of justice of the peace who is not a qualified voter, and who has not been a resident of the county in which he is elected six months next preceding his election; nor shall any sheriff, coroner, or clerk of the superior court be eligible to, or hold such office.

§9454. Election—Certificate—Oath. §1692.—4. The election of justice of the peace shall be conducted, and return of such election made in the same manner, as other elections; and every person duly elected shall be entitled to a certificate of election, and shall take an oath of office; which oath shall be endorsed on the back of the certificate of election, and together with the certificate, filed in the office of the county auditor.

§9455. Bond—Form. §1693.—5. Every person elected a justice of the peace, shall, at the time of filing his oath of office in the office of the county auditor, enter into a bond with the board of commissioners of the proper county, with two or more sureties, residents of the county, to be approved by the said auditor, in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully pay over, according to law, all moneys which shall come into his hands, by virtue of his office as justice of the peace. Said bond may be in the following form:

Know all men by these presents, that we, J. P., A. B., and C. D. are held and firmly bound unto the board of county commissioners of the county of _____, in the State of Washington, in the sum of five hundred dollars, for the payment of which we jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators.

Sealed with our seals, dated this _____ day of _____, A. D. 18____.

Whereas the said J. P. has been duly elected a justice of the peace, in and for the precinct of _____, in the county of _____, _____, A. D. 18____. Now the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said J. P. shall faithfully pay over according to law, all moneys which shall come into his hands by virtue of his office as justice of the peace, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise in full force.

Bond shall be approved by the county commissioners, §512.

§9456. Action on Bond. §1694.—6. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county auditor; and every person aggrieved by a breach of the condition thereof, may by an action upon the bond, have judgment against the justice and his sureties, for such sum as he may show himself entitled to, with costs and interest at the rate of twenty-five per cent. per annum; and upon any such judgment stay of execution shall not be allowed.

Later act provides bond shall be filed with county clerk, §512.

§9457. Term of Office. §1695.—7. Every justice of the peace shall hold his office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified; and every justice heretofore elected and qualified, shall continue to act as such until his term of office expires, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

§9458. Territory of Jurisdiction. §1702.—14. The jurisdiction of justices of the peace, elected in pursuance of the provisions of this act, shall be co-extensive with the limits of the county in which they are elected or appointed; and no other or greater, whether said county be attached to any other county for judicial purposes or not; but every justice of the peace shall continue to reside in the precinct for which he was elected, or appointed, during his continuance in office.

All duties shall be performed in precinct, §9560.

Judgments may be transcribed from one county to another, §9517.

§9460. Justice Vacating Office—Books to be Delivered. §1704.—16. If any justice of the peace shall die, resign, or remove out of the precinct for which he may be elected, or his term of office be in any other manner terminated, the docket, books, records and papers appertaining to his office, or relating to any suit, matter or controversy committed to him in his official capacity, shall be delivered to the nearest justice in the precinct, who may thereupon proceed to hear try and determine such matter, suit or controversy, or issue execution thereon, in the same manner as it would have been lawful for the justice before whom such matter or suit was commenced to have done: Provided, That if there be no other justice of the peace in said precinct such docket, books, records and papers shall be delivered to the county auditor, who, on demand shall deliver the same to a justice of said precinct, when there shall be one qualified therein, who shall exercise the same powers as though they had originally been delivered to him.

§9461. — Forfeiture for Failure. §1705. Every person whose duty it is to deliver over the dockets, books, records and papers, as prescribed in the last section, shall forfeit and pay for the use of the county, one hundred dollars for neglect to perform such duty, which sum may be recovered in an action in the name of the county, from such persons or their bondsmen. §9476. Criminal Process. §4. All criminal process issued by such police judge shall be in the name of the State of Washington and run throughout the state be directed to the chief of police, marshal or other police officer of any city or to any sheriff or constable in the state and shall be served by him.

§9477. Prosecutions in Name of City. §5. All prosecutions for the violation of any city ordinance shall be conducted in the name of the city, and may be upon the complaint of any person.

§9478. Clerk of Municipal Court. §6. The police judge of such city shall have power at any time to appoint a clerk to assist such police judge in clerical work incident to the performance of his duties, who shall be paid such salary out of the funds of the city as the city council may by ordinance determine. L. '03 34.

§9480. Costs and Fees. §8. In all civil and criminal cases arising from the violations of city ordinances tried by such police judge he shall charge up as costs in each case, the same fees as are charged by justices of the peace for like services in every action, and all fees so charged and collected by, and all fines and forfeitures paid to, such police judge shall belong to and be paid over by him weekly to the city.

§9481. Cases That Have Precedence. §9. Such police judge shall in the conduct of the business of the court give preference to cases arising under ordinances of the city; then to prosecutions for violation of the criminal laws of the State of Washington within the city; then to civil causes coming before him upon change of venue from the other justice of the peace in the city. No change of venue shall be allowed from such police judge in actions brought for violations of city ordinances.

§9482. Temporary Appointment. §10. Within five days after the passage of this act the board of county commissioners of the county wherein any such city is located, shall appoint a competent attorney at law residing in such city, who has been duly admitted to practice in the supreme court of the state, to be a justice of the peace of such precinct, and to hold office until his successor has been duly elected and qualified. And within five days after such appointee shall have qualified as required by law, the mayor of any such city shall appoint one of the justices of such precinct the police judge of such city as in this act provided.

§9486. Fees and Account Of. §3. The said justices of the peace and constables shall charge and collect for the use of their respective counties, and pay into the county treasury on the first Monday in each month, and on going out of office, all the fees now or hereafter allowed by law paid or chargeable in all cases, except such fees as are a charge against the county or state, and also on the first Monday in each month, and on going out of office, the said justices of the peace shall pay into the county treasury all moneys they shall have received on account of fines collected for violations of any state law.

Payment of fines and fees into treasury by justices generally, §9447.

§9487. Fee Book. §4. Each of the said justices of the peace and constables shall keep a fee book, open to public inspection, during office hours in which must be entered at once, and in detail all fines and fees or compensation of whatever nature, kind or description, collected or chargeable. On the first Monday of each and every month the said justices of the peace and constables must add up each column in their fee books to the first of each month and set down the totals, and on the expiration of the term of said officer they must deliver to the county auditor all fee books kept by them.

§9488. Fees to Be Paid Into Treasury—Receipts. §5. All fees and compensation collected from any source and all fines collected for violations of any state law shall be paid to the county treasurer on the first Monday of the following month, and the said justices and constable at the same time shall deliver to such treasurer a statement and copy of the fee book, for the month last past, showing by items the sources from which such fees and fines were derived, and shall append thereto an affidavit that they have received no other money for fees or fines, not before paid over to such treasurer. The treasurer shall file and preserve in his office said statements and affidavits, and shall issue to said justices and constables one original, and one duplicate receipt therefor and the said justices and constables shall preserve one in their offices and file the duplicate with the county auditor, whereupon the auditor shall charge the treasurer with the amount shown by the receipt.

§9489. Fees Go to Salary Fund. §6. All fees by this act directed to be paid into the county treasury, when received shall be put into the salary fund of the county treasury.

By later act these fees go into current expense fund, §7022.

§9490. Salaries, How Paid. §7. The salaries of the justices of the peace and constables provided for in this act shall be paid monthly out of the county treasury, and from the same funds, out of which other salaried county officers are paid, and it shall be the duty of the county auditor, on the first Monday of each and every month, to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of each of said justices and constables for the amount of salary due him, under the provisions of this act for the preceding month: Provided That the auditor shall not draw his warrant for the salary of any such officer for any month until the latter, first shall have filed his duplicate receipt with the auditor, properly signed by the treasurer, showing that he has made the statement and settlement for that month as required by this act.

§9491. Books and Stationery. §8. In cities of the first class of 100,000 population, or more, where there are two or more justices of the peace, such justices acting as a board shall have the power to appoint one chief clerk at a salary to be fixed by the board of county commissioners and such assistant clerks as may be found necessary by said justices, not exceeding the number of justices unless authority to appoint additional clerks be obtained from the board of county commissioners, the salaries of said clerks to be designated by the county commissioners, and paid in the same manner and at the same time as said justices. The board of county commissioners may allow justices of the peace in cities of the second class and cities of the first class of less than 100,000 population one clerk, and the board of county commissioners shall furnish for the use of each of the justices provided for in this chapter a suitable office room; and also, they shall furnish to each of the said justices and constables all necessary books, blanks and stationery for conducting the public business of his office; said office room, books, blanks, and stationery to be paid for on the warrant of the auditor out of the general fund of the county. L. '17 345, R.&B. §6547.

§9492. Expenses of Constables. §9. In addition to the salary provided to be paid to the constables named in this act, the county commissioners shall pay the actual traveling expenses of said constables while on official duties, to be audited by the board of county commissioners.

§9493. Collection of Fees. §10. Said justices and constables shall not in any case, except for the state, or county and other cases provided by law perform any official services unless the fees prescribed for such services are paid in advance, and on such payment the said justices and constables must perform the services required, and shall give receipts for all fees collected, whenever requested. For every failure or refusal to perform official duty when the fees are tendered, said justices and constables shall be liable on their official bonds.

EVIDENCE.

OF WITNESSES AND DEPOSITIONS.

§9494. Witnesses Brought Twenty Miles. §1869.—181. A subpoena issued by a justice of the peace shall be valid to compel the attendance of a witness in the justice's court, if such witness be within twenty miles of the place of trial.

§9495. Service of Subpoena. §1870.—182. A subpoena may be served by any person above the age of eighteen years, by reading it to the witness, or by delivering to him a copy at his usual place of abode.

§9496. Attachment for Witness. §1871.—183. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the justice, by proof made before him, that any person, duly subpoenaed to appear before him in an action, shall have failed, without a just cause, to attend as a witness, in conformity to such subpoena, and the party in whose behalf such subpoena was issued, or his agent, shall make oath that the testimony of such witness is material, and the justice shall have the power to issue an attachment to compel the attendance of such witness: Provided, That no attachment shall issue against a witness in any civil action, unless his fees for mileage and one day's attendance have been tendered or paid in advance, if previously demanded by such witness from the person serving the subpoena.

§9497. Writ—Arrest—Costs. §1872.—184. Every such attachment may be directed to any sheriff or constable of the county in which the justice resides, and shall be executed in the same manner as a warrant; and the fees of the officer for issuing and serving the same, shall be paid by the person against whom the same was issued, unless he shows reasonable cause to the satisfaction of the justice, for his omission to attend; in which case the party requiring such attachment shall pay all such costs.

§9498. Damage for Failure to Appear. §1873.—185. Every person subpoenaed as aforesaid, and neglecting to appear, shall also be liable to the party in whose behalf he may have been subpoenaed, for all damages which such party may have sustained by reason of his non-appearance: Provided, That such witness had the fees allowed for mileage and one day's attendance paid, or tendered him, in advance, if demanded by him at the time of the service.

§9500. — Rebuttal. §1875.—187. The examination of a party thus taken may be rebutted by adverse testimony.

§9501. — Pleadings Stricken. §1876.—188. If a party refuse to attend and testify at the trial, or give his deposition before trial, when required, his complaint answer or reply, may be stricken out, and judgment taken against him.

§9502. When Party Issuing Subpoena May Testify §1877.—189. A party examined by an adverse party may be examined on his own behalf, in respect to any matter pertinent to the issue. But if he testify to any new matter, not responsive to the inquiries put to him by the adverse party or necessary to qualify or explain his answer thereto, or to discharge, when his answer would charge himself, such adverse party may offer himself as a witness, and he shall be so received.

§9503. Deposition. §1878.—190. Either party, in an action depending before a justice of the peace, may cause the deposition of a witness therein to be taken, when such witness resides, or is about to go more than twenty miles from the place of trial, or is so sick, infirm, or aged, as to make it probable that he will not be able to attend at the trial.

§9505. When Deposition May Be Used. §1880.—192. The justice shall allow every deposition, taken, certified, and returned according to law, to be read on the trial of the cause in which it is taken, in all cases where the same testimony, if given verbally before him, could have been received; but no such deposition shall be read on the trial unless it appears to the justice that the witness, whose deposition is so offered:

1. Is dead or resides more than twenty miles from the place of trial; or
2. Is unable, or cannot safely attend before the justice, on account of sickness, age, or other bodily infirmity.
3. That he has gone more than twenty miles from the place of trial, without the consent or collusion of the party offering the deposition.

EXECUTIONS.

Supplementary proceedings on transcript filed §7949.

OF EXECUTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS THEREON.

§9506. Stay. §1786.—98. The execution upon a judgment by a justice of the peace, may be stayed in the manner hereinafter provided, upon reasonable notice to the opposite party, and for the following periods of time, to be calculated from the date of the judgment:

1. If the judgment be for any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars, exclusive of costs, one month.
2. If it be for more than twenty-five dollars, two months.

§9507. — Bond. §1787.—99. To entitle any person to such stay of execution, some responsible person, to be approved by the justice, and not being a party to the judgment, must, within five days after rendering of the judgment, enter into a bond, before the justice, to the adverse party, in a sufficient sum to secure the payment of the judgment and costs, conditioned to be void upon such payment, at the expiration of the stay.

§9508. — Form. §1788.—100. Such bond shall be signed by the person entering into the same, and may be in the following form:

Whereas A. B. has obtained a judgment before J. P., on [one] of the justices of the peace in and for — county on the — day of —, 18—, against C. D. for — dollars; now, therefore, I, E. F. acknowledge myself bound to A. B., in the sum of — dollars; this bond to be void if such judgment shall be paid at the expiration of — month after the time it was rendered.

—, E. F.

Dated the — day of —, 18—.

§9509. Execution Against Sureties. §1789.—101. If at the expiration of such stay, the judgment be not paid, the execution shall issue against both the principal and bail. If the principal do not satisfy the execution, and the officer cannot find sufficient property belonging to him upon which to levy, he shall levy upon the property of the bail, and in his return shall state what amount of money, collected by him on the execution, was collected from the bail, and the time when the same was received.

§9510. Surety Substituted. §1790.—102. After the return of such execution, the bail shall be entitled, on application to the justice, to have the judgment or so much thereof as may have been collected from him in satisfaction of the execution, transferred to his use; and he may collect the same from the defendant by execution, together with the interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum.

§9511. After Stay Execution Recalled. §1791.—103. If judgment be stayed in the manner above provided, after an execution has been issued thereon, the justice shall revoke such execution, in the same manner, and with like effect as he is hereinafter directed to revoke an execution, after an appeal has been allowed; and if the defendant have been committed, shall order him to be discharged from custody.

Revocation of execution on appeal, §9403.

§9512. Set-off of Mutual Judgments. §1792.—104. If there be mutual justice's judgments between the same parties, upon which the time for appealing has elapsed on judgment, on the application of either party, and reasonable notice given to the adverse party, one may be set off against the other, by the justice before whom the judgment against which the set-off is proposed, may be.

§9513. — of Another Justice. §1793.—105. If the judgment proposed as a set-off was rendered before another justice, the party proposing such set-off shall produce before such justice a transcript of such judgment, upon which there is a certificate of the justice before whom such may be, that it is unsatisfied in whole or in part, and that there is no appeal, and that such transcript was obtained for the purpose of being set-off against the judgment to which it is offered as a set-off. The justice granting such transcript shall make an entry thereof on his docket, and all further proceedings on such judgment shall be stayed, unless such transcript be returned with the proper justice's certificate thereon, that it has not been allowed in set-off.

§9515. No Execution After Five Years. §1795.—107. Execution for the enforcement of a judgment in a justice's court, may be issued on the application of the party entitled thereto, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed; but after the lapse of five years from the date of the judgment, no execution shall issue except by leave of the justice before whom such judgment may be, upon reasonable notice, to the defendant.

§9516. Successor of Justice May Issue Execution. §1796.—108. When any judgment shall have been rendered by any justice of the peace, and the same not be satisfied during his continuance in office, and the docket of such justice shall have been transferred to another justice, or to the successor of the justice rendering such judgment, the justice to whom the docket shall be delivered shall issue execution upon such unsatisfied judgment in the same manner, and with like effect as if he himself had rendered the judgment.

§9517. Transcript to Other Counties. §1797.—109. If the defendant have not goods and chattels in the county in which judgment was rendered, sufficient to satisfy the execution, the justice before whom such judgment may be, shall, at the request of the party entitled, make out a certified transcript of the same, which may be delivered to a justice in any other county, who shall make an entry thereof in his docket, and issue execution thereon for the amount of the judgment, or such part as shall be unsatisfied, with costs as in other cases.

Judgment may be made lien on realty and execution issue from superior court, §8112.

§9519. Justice's Endorsement of Execution—Constable's Endorsement. §1799.—111. Before any execution shall be delivered, the justice shall state in his docket, and also on the back of the execution, the amount of the debt, or damages and costs, and of the fees due to each person separately, and the officer receiving such execution shall indorse thereon the time of the reception of the same.

§9520. Alias Executions. §1800.—112. If an execution be not satisfied, it may, at the request of the plaintiff be renewed from time to time by the justice who issues the same, or the justice to whom his docket is transferred by an indorsement thereon to that effect, signed by him and dated when the same shall be made. If any part of such execution has been satisfied the indorsement of renewal shall express the sum due on the execution. Every such indorsement shall renew the execution in full force in all respects for thirty days, and no longer; and an entry of such renewal shall be made in the docket of the justice.

§9521. Notice of Sale. §1801.—113. The officer, after taking goods and chattels into his custody by virtue of an execution, shall, without delay, give public notice by at least three advertisements, put up at three public places in the county, of the time and place, when and where they will be exposed for sale. Such notice shall describe the goods and chattels taken, and shall be put up at least ten days before the day of sale.

§9523. Officer Shall Not Purchase. §1803.—115. No officer shall directly or indirectly purchase any goods or chattels at any sale made by him upon execution, and every such purchase shall be absolutely void.

§9525. Garnishment. §1805.—117. If there be no property found, or if the goods and chattels levied on be not sufficient to satisfy such execution, the officer shall, on demand of the plaintiff, summon in writing, as garnishees, such persons as may be named to the plaintiff or his agent, to appear before the justice on the return day of the execution, to answer such interrogatories as may be put to them, touching their liabilities as garnishees, and the like proceedings shall be had thereon, before the justice to final judgment, as in the proceedings by attachment.

Later act relating to garnishment, Justice court, §9530.

§9526. Execution Against Either Party for Costs. §1806.—118. Any justice of the peace may issue an execution against the prevailing party, to collect fees and costs for which such party may be liable, after an execution has been first issued against the other party, and returned "no property found."

§9527. Claim to Property by Third Party. §1807.—119. If any property levied on be claimed by any other person than the defendant in the execution, and the claimant make affidavit of his title or right to the possession of the same, stating the ground of such title or right, and serve the same upon the sheriff or constable, while the property is in his possession, said sheriff or constable shall not be bound to keep the property unless the plaintiff on demand indemnify him in the same manner as provided in this act for cases where property held under attachment is claimed by persons not parties to the suit and when such claim is made, the sheriff or constable shall immediately file the claimant's affidavit with the justice, and notify the plaintiff thereof, and unless the property be at once released, the justice shall set the case for trial, upon the allegations of the claimant's affidavit, and the case shall proceed and be determined in the same manner, as provided in this act, for cases where property held under attachment is claimed by persons not parties to the suit.

Other provisions may be applied for redelivery, Meakim v. Ludwig 99 W. 180.

GARNISHMENT.

AN ACT in relation to garnishments in justice courts in the State of Washington. Approved March 17, 1909. Laws '09 p 607.

§9530. Garnishment, Cause of. §1. The justices of the peace in the various precincts in this state may issue writs of garnishment, returnable to their respective courts, where the plaintiff sues for a debt which is just, due and unpaid; or where the plaintiff has a judgment wholly or partially unsatisfied in the court from which he seeks to have the writ of garnishment issued. L '11 637.

Public corporations subject to writ §8026.

§9531. Affidavit. §2. Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment, the plaintiff, or someone in his behalf, shall make application therefor by affidavit, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ, and that he has reason to believe and does believe that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant or that he has in his possession or under his control personal property or effects belonging to the defendant, or that the garnishee is a corporation and that the defendant is the owner of shares of the capital stock thereof, and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee. L '11 637.

§9532. Appearance—Answer—Time of Service. §3. When the foregoing requisites have been complied with, the justice of the peace shall, without additional fee, docket the case in the name of the plaintiff, as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant and shall immediately issue a writ of garnishment directed to the garnishee commanding him to appear before the justice who issues the writ, at a certain place, day and hour, which shall not be less than six nor more than twenty days from the date of the issuance of the writ, to answer on oath in what amount, if any, he was indebted to the defendant when such writ was served upon him, and what personal property or effects if any, of the defendant he had in his possession or under his control when such writ was served upon him; and where it appears from the affidavit for the writ that the garnishee is a corporation in which the defendant is the owner of shares, the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer what number of shares, if any, the defendant owned in such corporation when such writ was served upon it. The writ of garnishment shall be served at least five days before the time for answer mentioned therein. L '11 637.

The State of Washington, To..... Greeting:

Whereas, in the justice court in and for.....precinct,
.....county, State of Washington, before .....
Justice of the Peace, in a certain cause wherein ..... is plaintiff and ..... is defendant, the plaintiff claiming an indebtedness (or having a judgment, as the case may be) against the said ..... of ..... dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, has applied for a writ of garnishment against you:

Now, therefore, you are hereby commanded to be and appear before the said justice at his office ..... in said county, on the ..... day of ....., 19....., at ..... o'clock in the .....noon of said day, then and there to answer upon oath in what amount, if any, you were indebted to the said ..... when this writ was served upon you, and what personal property or effects, if any, of the said ..... you had in your possession or under your control when this writ was served upon you (and if the garnishee be a corporation in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, then the writ shall proceed: And further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said ..... owned in ....., a corporation, when this writ was served upon you).

§9534. Writ, Signature Endorsements and Delivery. §5. The writ of garnishment shall be dated and signed by the justice of the peace, and the name and office address of the attorney for the plaintiff shall be endorsed thereon, or in case the plaintiff has no attorney, then the name and address of the plaintiff shall be endorsed thereon. The writ, when so issued and endorsed, shall be delivered by the justice of the peace who issues it to the party applying therefor, or to his attorney.

§9535. Service. §6. The writ of garnishment may be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the garnishee lives, or it may be served by any citizen of the State of Washington over the age of twenty-one years and not a party to the action in which it is issued in the same manner as a summons in an action is served. And in case such writ is served by an officer, such officer shall make his return thereon, showing the time, place and manner of service and noting thereon his fees for making such service and shall sign his name to such return. In case such service is made by any person other than an officer, such person shall attach to the original writ his affidavit showing his qualifications to make such service and the time, place and manner of making service, but no fee shall be allowed for the service of such writ unless the same is served by an officer.

Action dismissed for wrong venue, Knott v. Co-Operative Colony 1 W. 57. Objection will avail defendant after trial on merits, id.

§9536. Data to Bank when Garnishee. §7. In cases where the writ of garnishment issued under the provisions of this act is directed to corporation carrying on a general banking business in the State of Washington, the plaintiff, in addition to serving the writ of garnishment upon said garnishee, shall at the same time and as a part of said service deliver to said garnishee a statement in writing signed by the plaintiff or his attorney, stating the place of residence of the defendant and his business, occupation, trade or profession, and unless such statement is so delivered with said writ of garnishment, the service of said writ shall not be deemed complete and the garnishee shall not be held liable thereon.

§9537. What is Held. §8. From and after the service of such writ of garnishment, it shall not be lawful for the garnishee to pay to the defendant any debt owing to him at the time of such service, or to deliver to him any personal property or effects belonging to the defendant in his possession or under his control at the time of such service, nor shall the garnishee, if it be a corporation in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of any shares owned by said defendant at the time of such service; and any such payment, delivery, sale or transfer shall be void and of no effect as to so much of said debt, personal property or effects or shares as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand.

§9538. Bond of Defendant. §9. If the defendant in the principal action causes a bond to be executed to the plaintiff, with sureties, to be approved by the justice of the peace issuing the writ, conditioned that he will pay any judgment that may be rendered against him in favor of the plaintiff in said action, and shall file said bond with said justice of the peace, the writ of garnishment shall, upon the filing and approval of said bond, be immediately discharged, and all proceedings had thereunder shall be vacated and said justice shall issue and deliver to said defendant a certificate to the effect that said writ of garnishment has been discharged, and upon the delivery of said certificate to the garnishee he shall be discharged of any further liability under said writ, Provided That the garnishee shall not be thereby deprived from recovery of costs in said proceeding to which he would otherwise be entitled under this act.

§9539. Form of Answer. §10. The answer of the garnishee shall be in writing and signed and verified as other pleadings and shall make true answers to the several matters inquired of in the writ of garnishment and shall be served upon the plaintiff or his attorney and filed with the justice of the peace who issued said writ.

§9540. Garnishee Discharged, When. §11. Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee that he was not indebted to the defendant when the writ of garnishment was served upon him and that he had not in his possession or under his control any personal property or effects of the defendant when the writ was served; and when the garnishee is a corporation in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares of stock, if it shall further appear from such answer that the defendant was not the owner of any such shares when the writ was served, and should the answer of the garnishee not be controverted as hereinafter provided, the court shall enter judgment discharging the garnishee.

§9541. Default of Garnishee. §12. Should the garnishee fail to answer the writ by the time prescribed therein, the court shall, upon application of the plaintiff therefor, declare and enter the default of the garnishee and shall thereafter render judgment as follows:

In case the plaintiff has a judgment against the defendant, judgment shall be rendered against the garnishee for the full amount of such judgment with all accruing interest and costs. In case judgment has not been rendered in the principal action at the time when the default of the garnishee is declared and entered, final judgment shall not be rendered against the garnishee until the final judgment in the principal action is entered; and if the plaintiff recovers judgment against the defendant, the court shall enter judgment against the garnishee for the full amount of the judgment awarded to the plaintiff against the defendant; but if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against the defendant, the garnishee shall be discharged without costs. L'11 637.

§9542. Judgment Against Garnishee. §13. Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee, or should it be otherwise made to appear as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant in any amount when the writ of garnishment was served upon him, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against such garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due from the garnishee, less the amount of the costs awarded to the garnishee, unless the amount so admitted or found to be due shall exceed the amount of the judgment rendered or thereafter rendered in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, with interest and costs, in which case it shall be for the amount of such judgment rendered or thereafter to be rendered, with interest and costs; Provided, however, That judgment shall not be rendered against the garnishee until the final judgment in the principal action is entered, and if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against the defendant the garnishee shall be discharged and shall have and recover his costs against plaintiff: Provided, however, If it shall appear from the answer of the garnishee and the same is not controverted, or if it shall appear from the trial hereinafter provided for that the garnishee was indebted to the defendant in any sum at the time of the service of said writ, but that said indebtedness is not matured and is not due and payable, the court shall make an order requiring the garnishee to pay such sum into court when the same becomes due, less the amount of the costs awarded to the garnishee, the date when such payment is to be made to be specified in said order, and in default thereof that judgment shall be entered against the garnishee for the amount of such indebtedness so admitted or found to be due. In case the garnishee shall pay said sum at the time specified in said order, said payment shall operate as a discharge; otherwise judgment shall be entered against him as above provided. Provided further, That if judgment shall be rendered in favor of the principal defendant, or if any judgment rendered against him shall be satisfied prior to the date of payment specified in said order, the garnishee shall not be required to make the payment hereinbefore provided for, nor shall any judgment in such case be against him.

§9543. Execution. §14. Execution may be issued on the judgment against the garnishee herein provided for in like manner as upon any other judgment. The amount made upon any such execution shall be paid by the officer executing the same to the justice of the peace from whom such execution was issued, and shall be applied to the satisfaction of such judgment, interest and costs, and also to the satisfaction of the judgment against the defendant, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the garnishee.

§9544. Garnishee Shall Surrender Property. §15. Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee, or should it be made otherwise to appear, as hereinafter provided, that the garnishee had in his possession or under his control when the writ was served upon him, any personal property or effects of the defendant liable to execution, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the justice on demand, such personal property or effects, or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's claim. In cases where a judgment has been rendered in the principal action, such personal property or effects may be sold in like manner as other property is sold upon execution on a judgment. In cases where judgment has not been rendered in the principal action, the justice of the peace shall retain such personal property or effects in his possession until the rendition of the judgment therein, and in case judgment is entered in such principal action in favor of the plaintiff, said goods or effects, or sufficient of them to satisfy said judgment, may be sold in like manner as other property is sold upon an execution issued on a judgment. In case judgment shall be rendered in such action against the plaintiff and in favor of the defendant, such effects and personal property shall be by the justice returned to the defendant.

§9545. Garnishee in Contempt. §16. Should the garnishee adjudged to have effects or personal property of the defendant in his possession or under his control, as provided in the preceding section, fail or refuse to deliver them to the justice on such demand, the garnishee shall, on motion of the plaintiff, be cited to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt of court for such failure or refusal, and should the garnishee fail to show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure and refusal he shall be fined for such contempt and imprisoned until he shall deliver such personal property or effects.

§9546. Sale of Shares of Stock. §17. Where the garnishee is a corporation and it appears by the answer or otherwise that the defendant was, when the writ of garnishment was served upon it, the owner of any shares of stock in such corporation, the court shall render a decree ordering the sale under execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant of such shares of the defendant in such corporation, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such execution.

§9547. — How Conducted. §18. The sale so ordered shall be conducted in all respects as other sales of personal property under execution, and the officer making such sale shall execute a transfer of such shares to the purchaser with a brief recital of the judgment of the court under which the same was sold.

§9548. — What Title Passes. §19. Such sale shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser all the right, title and interest which the defendant had in such shares of stock, and the proper officers of such company shall enter such sale and transfer on the books of the company in the same manner as if the sale had been made by the defendant himself.

§9549. Answer Controverted. §20. If the plaintiff should not be satisfied with the answer of the garnishee, he shall state such fact to the justice of the peace, who shall thereupon enter the fact in his docket, and an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases; Provided, however, No pleading shall be necessary on such issue other than the affidavit of the plaintiff, the answer of the garnishee and the statement of the plaintiff that he is not satisfied with the answer.

§9550. — Attorney's Fee. §21. Where the answer in controverted and the garnishee is subsequently discharged upon the trial thereof, his costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, shall be taxed against the plaintiff; and if the garnishee upon his answer being controverted by the plaintiff is held liable to an extent greater than the liability admitted in his answer, the costs of the plaintiff upon such proceeding, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, shall be taxed against the garnishee.

§9552. Identity of Persons. §23. Where the garnishee in his answer states that he was indebted or had personal property or effects in his possession or under his control at the time of the service of the writ of garnishment upon him to a person of the same or similar name to the defendant, and stating the place of business or residence of said person, and that he does not know whether or not such person is the same person as the defendant, and prays the court to determine whether or not the person to whom he was indebted or whose personal property or effects he had in his possession is the same person as the defendant, the court, before rendering judgment against the garnishee defendant as hereinbefore provided, shall take proof as to the identity of said persons, and if he should find therefrom that they are not one and the same individual, the garnishee shall be discharged and shall have and recover his costs against the plaintiff; and should find that the said persons are one and the same individuals, he shall make a similar judgment as to the payment of the money or the delivery of personal property and effects and as to costs of the garnishee as is hereinbefore provided, where the garnishee is held upon his answer. Before any such hearing on the question of identity is had, the plaintiff shall cause the justice of the peace to issue a citation directed to the person to whom the garnishee answers he was indebted or whose personal property or effects the garnishee has answered he had in his possession or under his control, commanding him to appear before the justice of the peace from which it is issued within ten days after the service of the same upon him, and to answer on oath whether or not he is the same person as the defendant in said action. Said citation shall be dated and attested in like manner as a writ of garnishment and be delivered to the plaintiff or his attorney and shall be served in the same manner as a summons in an action is served. If upon the hearing in this section provided for, the court shall find that the defendant or judgment debtor is the same person as the person to whom the garnishee defendant was indebted, or whose personal property or effects said garnishee defendant had in his possession or under his control, it shall be sufficient answer to any claim of said person against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee or on the possession by him of any personal property or effects for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid or such personal property or effects delivered under the judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions in this act.

§9553. Defendant's Exemptions. §24. It shall not be necessary for the garnishee to plead or set forth in his answer any defense which the defendant might have to the cause of action against him, nor to plead or set forth in his answer any claim of exemption which may be available to the defendant, but this section shall not be construed to preclude the defendant from pleading, claiming or asserting any exemption which may be available to him under the laws of the State of Washington now in force or hereinafter to be enacted.

JUDGMENT.

Lien by filing transcript §8112.

OF JUDGMENT.

§9554. Judgment of Non-Suit. §1780.—92. Judgment that the action be dismissed, without prejudice to a new action, may be entered, with costs, in the following cases:

1. When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted.
2. When he fails to appear at the time specified in the notice, upon continuance, or within one hour thereafter.
3. When it is objected at the trial, and appears by the evidence that the action is brought in the wrong county; but if the objection be taken and overruled, it shall be cause only of reversal or appeal; if not taken at the trial it shall be deemed waived, and shall not be cause of reversal.

§9555. By Default. §1781. When the defendant fails to appear and plead at the time specified in the notice, or within one hour thereafter, judgment shall be given as follows:

1. When the defendant has been served with a true copy of the complaint, judgment shall be given without further evidence for the sum specified therein;

2. In other cases, the justice shall hear the evidence of the plaintiff, and render judgment for such sum only as shall appear by the evidence to be just, but in no case exceed the amount specified in the complaint.

3. The justice shall have full power at any time after a judgment has been given by default for failure of the defendant to appear and plead at the proper time, to vacate and set aside said judgment for any good cause and upon such terms as he shall deem sufficient and proper. Such judgment shall only be set aside upon five days notice in writing served upon the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney and filed with the justice within ten days after the entry of the judgment. The justice shall hear the application to set aside such judgment either upon affidavits or oral testimony as he may deem proper. In case such judgment is set aside the making of the application for setting the same aside shall be considered an entry of general appearance in the case by the applicant, and the case shall duly proceed to a trial upon the merits: Provided, That, no justice of the peace shall pay out or turn over money or property received by him by virtue of any default judgment until the expiration of the ten days for moving to set aside such default judgment has expired. L. '15 141, R.&B. §1858.

§9556. Trial by the Court. §1782.—94. Upon issue joined, if a jury trial be not demanded, the justice shall hear the evidence, and decide all questions of law and fact, and render judgment accordingly.

§9557. Judgment on Verdict. §1783.—95. Upon the verdict of a jury, the justice shall immediately render judgment thereon. When the trial is by the justice, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, if the defendant has been arrested and is still in custody; in other cases it shall be entered within three days after the close of the trial.

JURISDICTION OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

§9558. Territory of Jurisdiction. §1706.—18. The jurisdiction of all justices of the peace shall be co-extensive with the limits of the county in which they are elected and no other or greater unless otherwise expressly provided by statute.

Substitute—AN ACT fixing the venue of actions in justice courts. Approved March 7, 1899. Laws '99 p 53.

§9559. Venue. §1. All civil actions commenced in a justice court against a defendant or defendants residing in a city or town of more than three thousand inhabitants shall be brought in the justice court of the precinct in said city or town in which one or more of such defendants reside.

Prior to amendment held to apply only to civil actions, State ex rel. Calderwood v. Schomber 23 W. 573.

§9560. Jurisdiction as Heretofore. §2. The jurisdiction of justices of the peace in all civil actions, except as provided in the preceding section, shall be co-extensive with the limits of the county in which they are elected or appointed, and no other or greater, but every justice of the peace shall continue to reside and perform all the duties of his office in the precinct for which he was elected or appointed during his continuance in office. L. '01 105.

Jurisdiction, prior act §9458.

§9561. Office—Process. §1707.—19. Every justice of the peace shall keep his office in the precinct for which he may be elected, and not elsewhere: but he may issue process in any place in his county.

§9562. Office With Law Partner. §1708.—20. No justice of the peace shall hold his office in the same room with a practicing attorney, unless such attorney shall be his law partner: and in that case such partner shall not be permitted to appear or practice as an attorney, in any case tried before such justice of the peace.

§9564. Civil Jurisdiction. §1710. Every justice of the peace shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of the following civil actions and proceedings:

1. Of an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only in which the sum claimed is less than one hundred dollars.

2. Of an action for damages for injuries to the person, or for taking or detaining personal property, or for injuring personal property, or for an injury to real property when no issue raised by the answer involves the plaintiff's title to or possession of the same, when the amount of damages claimed is less than one hundred dollars; also of actions to recover the possession of personal property, when the value of such property as alleged in the complaint is less than one hundred dollars.

3. Of an action for a penalty less than one hundred dollars.

4. Of an action upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money, when the amount claimed is less than one hundred dollars, though the penalty of the bond exceed that sum, the judgment to be given for the sum actually due, not exceeding the amount claimed in the complaint.

5. Of an action on an undertaking or surety bond taken by him or his predecessor in office when the amount claimed is less than one hundred dollars.

6. Of an action for damages for fraud in the sale, purchase or exchange of personal property, when the damages claimed are less than one hundred dollars.

7. To take and enter judgment on confession of a defendant, when the amount of the judgment confessed is less than one hundred dollars.

8. To issue writs of attachment upon goods chattels moneys and effects, when the amount is less than one hundred dollars.

9. Of all other actions and proceedings of which jurisdiction is specially conferred by statute, when the amount involved is less than one hundred dollars, and the title to or right of possession of or to a lien upon real property is not involved. L. '91 137.

1. In which the title to real property shall come in question.
2. Nor to an action for the foreclosure of a mortgage or enforcement of a lien on real estate.
3. Nor to an action for false imprisonment, libel, slander, malicious prosecution, criminal conversation or seduction.
4. Nor to any action against an executor or administrator as such.

TITLE TO LAND.

§9566. Land Cases to Be Certified Up. §1868.—180. If it appear on the trial of any cause before a justice of the peace, from the evidence of either party, that the title to lands is in question, which title shall be disputed by the other, the justice shall immediately make an entry thereof in his docket, and cease all further proceedings in the cause, and shall certify and return to the superior court of the county, a transcript of all the entries made in his docket, relating to the cause, together with all the process and other papers relating to the action, in the same manner, and within the same time, as upon an appeal; and thereupon the parties shall file their pleadings, and the superior court shall proceed in the cause to final judgment and execution, in the same manner as if the said action had been originally commenced therein, and the cost shall abide the event of the suit.

PEACE RECOGNIZANCES.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS—PROCEEDINGS TO PREVENT THE COMMISSION OF CRIMES.

§9567. Peace Bonds. §1903.—215. Justices of the peace shall have power to cause all laws made for the preservation of the public peace to be kept; and in the execution of that power, may require persons to give security to keep the peace, or for their good behavior, or both, in the manner herein provided.

Person convicted required to give peace bond §9313.

§68. Complaint. §1904.—216. Whenever complaint shall be made to any such magistrate, that any person has threatened to commit an offense against the property or person of another the magistrate shall examine the complaint, and any witness who may be produced on oath, and reduce such complaints to writing and the same shall be subscribed by complainant.

§9569. Hearing—Appeal—Transcript. §1905. It shall be the duty of every magistrate examining a person charged with an offense, or with an intention to commit an offense, to examine all the witnesses he shall deem material, and reduce their testimony to writing, a copy of which, whether the accused is discharged, committed, or held to bail, or shall take an appeal, he shall transmit to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the offense. L. '91 18.

In all criminal cases evidence shall be taken, §9439. If crime has been committed proceed as in trials, §9437; or as committing magistrate, §9597.

§9570. Warrant. §1905.—218. If, upon the examination, it shall appear that there is just cause to fear that such offense may be committed the magistrate shall issue a warrant under his hand, reciting the substance of the complaint, and requiring the officer to whom it may be directed, forthwith to apprehend the person complained of, and bring him before such magistrate or some other magistrate, or court having jurisdiction of the cause.

§9571. Hearing on the Case—Recognizance. §1907.—219. The magistrate before whom any person is brought upon charge of having made threats as aforesaid shall, as soon as may be, hear and examine the complaint. And if it shall appear that there is just cause to fear that any such offense will be committed by the party complained of, he shall be required to enter into recognizance with sufficient sureties, in such sum as the magistrate shall direct, towards all the people of the state, and especially towards the person requiring such security, for such term as the magistrate shall order, not exceeding one year, but he shall not be ordered to recognize for his appearance at the superior court, unless he is charged with some offense for which he ought to be held to answer at said court.

§9572. Commitment in Default of Bond. §1908.—220. If the person so ordered to recognize, shall fail to enter into such recognizance, the magistrate shall commit him to the county jail during the period for which he was required to give security, or until he shall so recognize, stating in the warrant the cause of commitment, with the sum and time for which security was required.

§9573. When Complainant Liable for Costs. §1909.—221. If, upon examination, it shall not appear that there is just cause to fear that any such offense will be committed by the party complained of, he shall be forthwith discharged; and if the magistrate shall deem the complaint unfounded, frivolous or malicious, he may order the complainant to pay the costs of prosecution, who shall thereupon be answerable to the magistrate and the officer for their fees, as for his own debt.

§9574. Costs. §1910.—222. When no order respecting the costs is made by the magistrate they shall be allowed and paid in the same manner as costs before justices in criminal prosecutions; but in all cases where a person is required to give good security for the peace, or for his good behavior, the magistrate may further order that the costs of prosecution, or any part thereof, shall be paid by such person, who shall stand committed until such costs are paid, or he is otherwise legally discharged.

Costs are lien on real property, Clallam County v. Hall 23 W. 85.

§9575. Appeals. §9. An appeal may be taken from the order of a magistrate requiring a person to give security to keep the peace, or for good behavior. Such appeal shall be taken in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as appeals from justices' courts in criminal actions, and the magistrate may require recognizances of the appellant and the witness as in appeals in such criminal actions. L. '91 66.

Appeals in criminal actions, §9444.

§9576. Judgment on Appeal. §1913.—225. The court before which such appeal is prosecuted, may affirm the order of the justice or discharge the appellant, or may require the appellant to enter into a new recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum and for such time as the court shall think proper, and may also make such order in relation to the costs of prosecution as may be deemed just and reasonable.

§9577. Failure to Prosecute Appeal. §1914. If any party appealing from such order of a magistrate shall fail to prosecute his appeal, his recognizance shall remain in full force and effect, as to any breach of the condition, without an affirmance of the judgment or order of the magistrate, and also shall stand as security for costs which shall be ordered by the court appealed to to be paid by the appellant.

§9578. Discharge at Any Time Bond Given. §1915.—227. Any person committed for not finding sureties or refusing to recognize as required by the magistrate, may be discharged by any judge or justice of the peace, on giving such security as was required.

Commitments must be certified in ten days, §9610.

§9580. Breaches of the Peace in Presence of Magistrate. §1917. Every person who shall, in the presence of any magistrate, or before any judge of a court of record, make an affray, or threaten to kill or beat another, or to commit any violence or outrage against his person or property, and every person who, in the presence of such judge or magistrate, shall contend with hot and angry words to the disturbance of the peace, may be ordered, without process or other proof, to recognize for keeping the peace or being of good behavior for a term not exceeding three months, and in case of refusal, may be committed as before directed.

Procedure if offense is committed in presence of justice, §9435.

§9582. Surety May Surrender Principal. §1919.—231. Any surety in recognizance to keep the peace, or for good behavior, or both, shall have the same authority and right to take and surrender his principal as if he had been bail for him in a civil cause, and upon such surrender, shall be discharged and exempt from liability for any act of the principal—subsequent to such surrender, which would be a breach of the condition of the recognizance, and the person so surrendered may recognize anew, with sufficient sureties, before any justice of the peace, for the residue of the term, and thereupon shall be discharged.

§9583. Number. §1920.—232. Any word used in this act in the singular or plural number shall, whenever it is necessary to give effect and force to the same, according to the true intent thereof, be taken and construed to mean either.

PLEADINGS.

PLEADINGS AND ADJOURNMENTS.

§9584. Time of Pleading. §1756.—68. The pleadings in justice's court shall take place upon the appearance of the parties, unless they shall have been previously filed, or unless the justice shall, for good cause shown, allow a longer time than the time of appearance.

One hour for appearance §9419.

§9585. Pleadings. §1757.—69. The pleadings in the justice's court shall be:

1. The complaint of the plaintiff, which shall state in a plain and direct manner the facts constituting the cause of action.

2. The answer of the defendant, which may contain a denial of the complaint, or any part thereof; and also a statement, in a plain and direct manner, of any facts constituting a defense.

3. When the answer sets up a set-off by way of defense, the reply of the plaintiff.

New matter in answer except set-off is presumed denied, Bellingham Bay & B. C. Ry. v. Strand 1 W. 133.

§9586. What Pleadings to Be in Writing. §1758.—70. The pleadings shall be in writing, when the action is for one of the following causes:

1. For a forcible or unlawful entry upon, or a forcible or unlawful detention of lands, tenements or other possessions.

2. To recover the occupancy or possession of a mining claim. In all other cases the pleadings may be oral or in writing.

Superior court has jurisdiction of forcible entry and detainer, Const., art. 4 §6.

§9587. Oral Pleadings—No Form. §1759.—71. When the pleadings are oral the substance of them shall be entered by the justice in his docket. When in writing they shall be filed in his office and a reference made to them in his docket. Pleadings shall not be required to be in any particular form, but shall be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

§9588. Pleading on Information and Belief. §1760.—72. A statement in an answer or reply, that the party has not sufficient knowledge or information, in respect to a particular allegation in the previous pleadings of the adverse party to form a belief, shall be deemed equivalent to a denial.

§9589. Pleadings for Money Only—Exhibits. §1761.—73. When the cause of action, or set-off, arises upon an account or instrument for the payment of money only, it shall be sufficient for the party to deliver the account or instrument, or a copy thereof, to the court, and to state that there is due to him thereon, from the adverse party, a specified sum which he claims to recover or set-off. The court may, at the time of pleading, require that the original account, or instrument, be exhibited to the inspection of the adverse party, with liberty to copy the same; or if not so exhibited, may prohibit its being given in evidence.

Verification of written pleadings, §8383.

Judgment by default without proof on written pleadings, §9555.

§9592. Pleadings to Be Made Certain. §1764.—76. Either party may object to a pleading by his adversary, or to any part thereof that is not sufficiently explicit for him to understand it, or that it contains no cause of action or defense although it be taken as true. If the court deem the objection well founded, it shall order the pleading to be amended; and if the party refuse to amend, the defective pleading shall be disregarded.

§9593. Variance to Be Disregarded. §1765.—77. A variance between the proof on the trial, and the allegations in a pleading, shall be disregarded as immaterial, unless the court be satisfied that the adverse party has been misled to his prejudice thereby.

§9594. Amendments—Continuances—Costs. §1766.—78. The pleadings may be amended at any time before the trial, or during the trial, or upon appeal, to supply any deficiency or omissions in the allegations or denials, necessary to support the action or defense, when by such amendment substantial justice will be promoted. If the amendment be made after the issue, and it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that a continuance is necessary to the adverse party, in consequence of such amendment, a continuance shall be granted. The court may also, in its discretion, require as a condition of an amendment, the payment of costs to the adverse party.

Justice to whom change of venue taken may allow amendment of information—jury failing to agree—time for deliberation—continuance. State ex rel. Adams v. Grimes, 80 W. 14. It is discretionary with superior court to allow amendments, State ex rel. Bagley v. Superior Court King County 3 W 705. Constable's return cannot be amended, Knorr v. Co-Operative Colony 1 W 57.

Set-off of mutual judgments, §9512.

§9596. Set-off More Than Jurisdiction. §1768.—80. When the set-off of the defendant proved, shall exceed the claim of the plaintiff, and such excess in amount exceed the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the court shall allow such amount as is necessary to cancel the plaintiff's claim, and give the defendant a judgment for costs; but in such case, the court shall not render judgment for any further sum in favor of the defendant.

PRELIMINARY EXAMINATIONS.

OF THE EXAMINATION OF OFFENDERS, COMMITMENT FOR TRIAL, AND TAKING BAIL.

§9597. Preliminary Examinations. §1921.—233. Upon complaint being made to any justice of the peace, or judge of the superior court, in open court or in vacation, that a criminal offense has been committed, he shall examine on oath the complainant and any witness provided by him, and shall reduce the complaint to writing, and shall cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant, and if it shall appear that any offense has been committed of which the superior court has exclusive jurisdiction, the magistrate shall issue a warrant reciting the substance of the accusation, and requiring the officer to whom it shall be directed, forthwith to take the person accused and bring him before the person issuing the warrant unless he shall be absent or unable to attend thereto, then before some other magistrate of the county, to be dealt with according to law, and in the same warrant may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be therein named, to appear and give evidence on the examination.

Commitment proceedings may be had on holiday, §2700.

§9598. Defendant Pursued Anywhere in the State. §1922.—234. If any person against whom a warrant may be issued for an alleged offense, committed in any county, shall, either before or after the issuing of such warrant escape from, or be out of the county, the sheriff or other officer to whom such warrant may be directed may pursue and apprehend the party charged, in any county in this state, and for that purpose may command aid, and exercise the same authority as in his own county.

§9600. Hearing—Bail—Commitment. §1924.—236. If the defendant shall not enter into recognizance with sureties, the magistrate shall proceed to hear and examine the complaint, and may adjourn the examination from time to time, not exceeding in all ten days from the time such defendant shall have been brought before him, and in case of such adjournment, the magistrate may, if the offense be bailable, take a recognizance with sufficient sureties for the appearance of the defendant at such further examination; and if he fail to enter into such recognizance, he shall be ordered into custody until the time appointed for such examination.

§9601. When Complainant Shall Pay Costs. §1925.—237. If it should appear upon the whole examination that no offense has been committed, or that there is not probable cause for charging the defendant with an offense, he shall be discharged, and if in the opinion of the magistrate, the complaint was malicious, or without probable cause, and there was no reasonable ground therefor, the costs shall be taxed against the party making the complaint.

§9603. Procedure if Justice Has Not Jurisdiction. §1927. If it appear that a bailable offense has been committed, the magistrate shall order the defendant to enter into recognizance, with sufficient sureties, for his appearance in the superior court, to answer the charge, and if he shall not do so, or the offense be not bailable, he shall commit him to jail. The justice of the peace who committed the person, or the judge of the superior court to which the party is held to answer, may admit to bail in the amount required, and approve the sureties. The recognizance shall be conditioned in effect that the defendant will appear in the superior court to answer said charge whenever the same shall be prosecuted, and at all times, until discharged according to law, render himself amenable to the orders and process of the superior court, and if convicted, render himself in execution of the judgment. L. '91 18.

Recognizance at trial if justice cannot punish §9437.

§9604. Justice May Associate Others. §1928.—240. Any magistrate to whom complaint is made or before whom any defendant is brought, may associate with himself one or more magistrates of the same county, and they may, together, execute the powers and duties before mentioned; but no fees shall be taxed for such associates.

§9605. Recognizance of Witnesses. §1929. Where the person arrested is held to bail or committed to jail, or forfeits his recognizance, the magistrate shall recognize the witnesses for the prosecution to be and appear in the superior court to which the party is recognized, bailed, or committed, whenever their attendance shall be required.

§9606. When Witnesses Required to Give Sureties. §1930.—242. If the magistrate shall be satisfied that there is good cause to believe that any such witness will not perform the condition of his recognizance unless other security be given, such magistrate may order the witness to enter into recognizance with such sureties as may be deemed necessary for his appearance at court.

§9607. Recognizance of Witness Not Sui Juris. §1931.—243. When any married woman or a minor is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for the appearance of such witness, or the magistrate may, in his discretion, take the recognizance of such married woman or minor in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars which shall be valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability or [of] coverture or minority.

§9608. Commitment of Witnesses—Depositions. §1932. All witnesses required to recognize with or without sureties shall, if they refuse, be committed to the county jail by the magistrate, there to remain until they comply with such orders or be otherwise discharged according to law: Provided, That when the magistrate is satisfied that any witness required to recognize with sureties is unable to comply with such order, he shall immediately take the deposition of such witness and discharge him from custody upon his own recognizance. The testimony of the witness shall be reduced to writing by a justice or some competent person under his direction, and he shall take only the exact words of the witness; the deposition, except the cross-examination, shall be in the narrative form, and upon the cross-examination the questions and answers shall be taken in full. The defendant must be present in person when the deposition is taken, and shall have an opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses; he may make any objections to the admission of any part of the testimony, and all objections shall be noted by the justice; but the justice shall not decide as to the admissibility of the evidence, but shall take all the testimony offered by the witness. The deposition must be carefully read to the witness, and any corrections he may desire to make thereto shall be made in presence of the defendant by adding the same to the deposition as first taken; it must be signed by the witness, certified by the justice, and transmitted to the clerk of the superior court, in the same manner as depositions in civil actions. And if the witness is not present when required to testify in the case, either before the grand jury or upon the trial in the superior court, the deposition shall be submitted to the judge of such superior court, upon the objections noted by the justice, and such judge shall suppress so much of said deposition as he shall find to be inadmissible, and the remainder of the deposition may be read as evidence in the case, either before the grand jury or upon the trial in the court. L. '91 18.

§9609. Deposition to Be in Writing and Signed. §1933.—245. The testimony of the witness examined, shall be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, when he shall think it necessary, and shall be signed by the witnesses.

§9610. Transcript to Superior Court. §16. It shall be the duty of all magistrates within this state, before whom any person or persons shall be committed or held to bail to answer for any crime, to return their proceedings, duly certified, including a copy of all recognizances taken by them, to the clerk of the superior court within ten days after the final hearing and commitment, or holding to bail, as aforesaid; and any justice of the peace who shall fail or neglect to make such return shall not be entitled to receive any fees or costs in such case. L. '91 18.

§9611. Compounding Misdemeanors. §1935.—247. When any person be committed to prison, or shall be under examination or recognizance to answer any charge for a misdemeanor for which the party injured may have a remedy by civil action, except where the offense was committed upon a sheriff or other officer, justice, or violently, or with intent to commit a felony, if the party injured shall appear before the magistrate who made the commitment or took the recognizance, or is conducting the examination, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the magistrate may, in his discretion, on payment of all costs which may have accrued, discharge the recognizance, or supersede the commitment by an order under his hand, and may also discharge all recognizance and supersede the commitment of all witnesses in the case.

Compounding crimes, act '09, §8782; former law not repealed, §9189.

§9612. Action on Witnesses Forfeited Recognizance. §1936.—248. When any person under recognizance in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer before a justice, or to testify in any court, shall fail to perform the condition of any recognizance, his default shall be recorded; and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to proceed at once, by action against the person bound by recognizance, or such of them as he may elect.

§9613. Costs to Be Certified Up. §1937.—249. In all cases where any magistrate shall order a defendant to recognize for his appearance before a justice of the peace, or the superior court, he shall forward with the papers in the case, an abstract of the costs that have accrued in the case and such costs shall be subject to the final determination of the case.

REPLEVIN.

§9614. Replevin. §1809.—121. The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property, may, at the time of issuing such summons, or at any time before answer, claim the immediate delivery of such property as provided in this act.

Search warrants for property, §9357.
Replevin in superior court, §8421.

Complaint must state situs of property
Woodbury v. Henningsen 11 W 12.

§9615. — Affidavit. §1810.—122. When a delivery is claimed, an affidavit shall be made by the plaintiff, or by some one in his behalf, showing:

1. That the plaintiff is the owner of the property claimed, (particularly describing it,) or is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof, by virtue of a special property therein, the facts in respect to which shall be set forth.
2. That the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant.
3. The alleged cause of the detention thereof, according to his best knowledge, information and belief.
4. That the same has not been taken for a tax, assessment or fine, pursuant to a statute, or seized under an execution or attachment against the property of the plaintiff, or if so seized, that it is by statute exempt from such seizure, and delivering the same to him personally if he can be found within the county, or to his agent from whose possession the property is taken, or if neither can be found in the county, by leaving them at the usual abode of either within the county, with some person of suitable age and discretion; or if neither have any known place of abode in the county, by putting them into the post office, directed to the defendant at the post office nearest to him.
5. The actual value of the property.

§9616. Order to Levy. §1811.—123. The justice shall thereupon, by an indorsement in writing upon the affidavit, order the sheriff or any constable of the county, to take the same from the defendant and deliver it to the plaintiff upon receiving a proper bond.

§9617. Bond—Levy—Service on Defendant. §1812.—124. Upon the receipt of the affidavit and order with a bond, executed by two or more sureties, approved by the sheriff or constable, to the effect, that they are bound in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof, be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, the sheriff or constable shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit, order and bond.

§9618. Justification of Sureties. §1813.—125. The defendant may, within two days after the service of a copy of the affidavit, order and bond, give notice to the officer that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fail to do so, he shall be deemed to have waived all objection to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties shall justify upon one day's notice before the justice; and the officer shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties, until the objection to them is either waived as above provided, or until they justify, or new sureties be substituted and they justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he cannot reclaim the property as provided in the next section.

Failure of sureties to justify exonerates them, Rinear v. Skinner 20 W. 541.

§9619. Counter-Bond. §1814.—126. At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof upon giving to the officer a bond executed by two or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required, within two days after the taking and serving of notice to the defendant, it shall be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in this chapter.

§9620. Justification of Counter-Bond. §1815.—127. The defendant's sureties, upon one day's notice to the plaintiff, or his attorney shall justify before the justice, and upon such justification, the officer shall deliver the property to the defendant. The officer shall be responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify, or until the justification is complete or expressly waived, and may retain the property until that time, but if they, or others in their place, fail to justify at the time appointed, he shall deliver the property to the plaintiff.

§9622. Keeping of Property. §1817.—129. When the officer shall have taken property, as in this chapter provided, he shall keep it in a secure place, and deliver to the party entitled thereto, upon receiving his lawful fees for taking, and his necessary expenses for keeping the same.

§9623. Claim by Third Party—Bond. §1818.—130. If the property taken be claimed by any other person than the defendant or his agent, and such person make affidavit of his title thereto, or his right to the possession thereof, stating the ground of such title or right, and serve the same upon the officer before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the sheriff shall not be bound to keep the property or deliver it to the plaintiff, unless the plaintiff, on demand of him or his agent, indemnify the officer against such claim by a bond executed by two sufficient sureties, accompanied by their affidavits, that they are each worth double the value of the property, as specified in the affidavit of the plaintiff, over and above their debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution and freeholders or householders of the county; and no claim to such property by any other person than the defendant or his agent, shall be valid against the officer, unless made as aforesaid, and notwithstanding such claim, when so made, he may retain the property a reasonable time to demand such indemnity.

SMALL CLAIMS DEPARTMENT.

AN ACT creating "small claims department of justice's courts", defining their jurisdiction and providing a system of practice and procedure therefor. Approved March 20, 1919. L. '19 ch 187.

§9624-1. Jurisdiction Under $20. §1. That in every justice's district of this state there shall be created and organized by the justice of the peace thereof a department to be known as the "small claims department of the justice's court," which shall have jurisdiction, but not exclusive, in cases for the recovery of money only where the amount claimed does not exceed twenty dollars ($20.00), and where the defendant resides within the district of such justice court.

§9624-2. Action by Verified Claim. §2. Actions in such small claims departments shall be deemed commenced by the plaintiff appearing before the justice of the peace and subscribing to and verifying a claim as hereinafter provided.

§9624-3. Hearing—Notice—Fees. §3. Upon filing said claim such justice of the peace shall appoint a time for the hearing of said matter and shall cause to be issued a notice of the claim, as hereinafter provided, which shall be served upon the defendant.

Said justice of the peace shall collect in advance upon each claim the sum of one dollar ($1.00), and this shall be the only fee for such justice of the peace to be charged or taxed against the plaintiff in such action during the pendency or disposition of said claim: Provided, however, that when any such "small claims department" shall be created and organized in any justice's district as herein provided, in which the justice is not paid a salary, he may be paid as compensation for conducting such department from the county treasury of his county such monthly salary as the county court and commissioners of said county shall deem just and proper.

§9624-4. Service—Fee. §4. Said notice of claim shall be served by the officers provided for in [§9632] Section 1760 of Remington's 1915 Codes and Statutes of Washington, and the same shall be served in the manner provided for in [§9628] Section 1761 of said Codes and Statutes, but no other paper is to be served with said notice. The officer serving such notice shall be entitled to receive from the plaintiff fifty cents ($.50) for such service; which sum, together with the fee of the justice of the peace named in section 3, shall be added to any judgment given for plaintiff.

§9624-5. Contents of Claim. §5. The claim hereinbefore referred to shall contain the name of the plaintiff and the name of the defendant, followed by a statement, in brief and concise form, of the nature and amount of said claim and the time of the accruing of such claim; and shall also state the name and residence of the defendant, if same be known to the plaintiff, for the purpose of serving the notice of claim on such defendant.

§9624-7. Verification — Assignee's Denied. §7. All claims must be verified by the real claimant, and no claim shall be filed or prosecuted in such department by the assignee of such claim.

§9624-8. Attorneys Not Allowed — Trial — Judgment. §8. No attorney at law nor any person other than the plaintiff and defendant, shall concern himself or in any manner interfere with the prosecution or defense of such litigation in said department without the consent of the justice of said justice's court; nor shall it be necessary to summon witnesses, but the plaintiff and defendant in any claim shall have the privilege of offering evidence in their behalf by witnesses appearing at such hearing, and the justice may informally consult witnesses or otherwise investigate the controversy between the parties, and give judgment or make such orders as may by him be deemed to be right, just and equitable for the disposition of the controversy.

§9624-9. No. Pleadings — Writs Limited. §9. No formal pleading, other than the said claim and notice, shall be necessary to define the issue between the parties: and the hearing and disposition of all such actions shall be informal, with the sole object of dispensing speedy and quick justice between the litigants: Provided, that no attachment, garnishment or execution shall issue from the small claims department on any claim except as hereinafter provided.

§9624-10. Loser to Pay. §10. If the judgment or order be against the defendant, it shall be his duty to pay the same forthwith upon such terms and conditions as the justice of such court shall prescribe.

Washington.

In the Justice's Court of.....County, Before.....
Justice of the Peace for.....Precinct.
.....Defendant.

In the Small Claims Department.

This is to certify that in a certain action before me, the undersigned, had on this the .....day of.....19....., wherein... was plaintiff and .....defendant, jurisdiction of said defendant having been had by personal service (or otherwise) as provided by law. I then and there entered judgment against said defendant in the sum of..... Dollars; which judgment has not been paid.

Witness my hand this.....day of....., 19.....

Small Claims Department.

The justice of the peace of said justice's court shall forthwith enter such judgment transcript on the judgment docket of such justice's court; and thereafter garnishment, execution and other process on execution provided by law may issue thereon, as obtains in other cases of judgments of justice's courts, and transcripts of such judgments may be filed and entered in judgment lien dockets in superior courts with like effect as in other cases.

§9624-12. Separate Docket. §12. Each justice of the peace shall keep a separate docket for the small claims department of his court, in which he shall make a permanent record of all proceedings, orders and judgments had and made in such claims department.

SUMMONS.

COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS—SERVICE AND RETURN OF PROCESS.

§9625. Summons—Complaint. §1712.—24. Civil actions in the several justices' courts of this state may be instituted either by the voluntary appearance and agreement of the parties, by the service of a summons, or by the service upon a defendant of a true copy of the complaint and notice, which notice shall be attached to the copy of the complaint and cite the defendant to be and appear before the justice at the time and place therein specified, which shall not be less than six nor more than twenty days from the date of filing the complaint.

§9626. Summons—Verified Claim. §1713.—25. A party desiring to commence an action before a justice of the peace, for the recovery of a debt by summons, shall file his claim with the justice of the peace, verified by his own oath, or that of his agent or attorney, and thereupon the justice of the peace shall, on payment of his fees, if demanded, issue a summons to the opposite party, which summons shall be in the following form or as nearly as the case will admit, viz:

State of Washington, _____ County.—ss.

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Said County:

In the name of the State of Washington, you are hereby commanded to summon ..... if he (or they) be found in your county to be and appear before me at _____ on _____ day of _____ at — o'clock p. m. or a. m. to answer the complaint of _____ for a failure to pay him a certain demand, amounting to _____ dollars and _____ cents, upon —(here state briefly the nature of the claim) and of this writ make due service and return.

Given under my hand this _____ day of _____ 18—.

_____ Justice of the Peace.

And the summons shall specify a certain place, day and hour for the appearance and answer of the defendant, not less than six nor more than twenty days from the date of filing plaintiff's claim with the justice, which summons shall be served at least five days before the time of trial mentioned therein, and shall be served by the officer delivering to the defendant, or leaving at his place of abode with some person over twelve years of age, a true copy of such summons, certified by the officer to be such.

§9627. Complaint and Notice. §1714.—26. Any person desiring to commence an action before a justice of the peace, by the service of a complaint and notice, can do so by filing his complaint verified by his own oath or that of his agent or attorney with the justice, and when such complaint is so filed, upon payment of his fees if demanded, the justice shall attach thereto a notice, which shall be substantially as follows:

State of Washington _____ County.—ss.

To _____

[In the name of the State of Washington],

You are hereby notified to be and appear at my office in _____ on the _____ day of _____, 18—, at the hour of — m., to answer to the foregoing complaint, or judgment will be taken against you as confessed and the prayer of the plaintiff granted. _____, J. P.

Dated _____, 18—.

§9628. — Service. §1715.—27. The complaint and notice shall be served at least five days before the time mentioned in the notice, for the defendant to appear and answer the complaint, by delivering to the defendant, or leaving at his place of abode, with some person over twelve years of age, a true copy of the complaint and notice, certified by the officer or person making the service to be such.

Service on child under 12 years quashed after trial, Woodbury v. Henningsen 11 W. 12. Service on one partner will not warrant personal judgment against all, McCoy v. Bell 1 W. 504.

§9629. Process, Style and Service. §1716. All process issued by justices of the peace shall run in the name of the State of Washington, be dated the day issued and signed by the justice granting the same and all executions and writs of attachment or of replevin shall be served by the sheriff or some constable of the county in which the justice resides, but a summons or notice and complaint may be served by any citizen of the State of Washington over the age of twenty-one years and not a party to the action. L '03 18.

AN ACT relating to service of process in justice courts. Approved March 13 1909. Laws '09 p 433.

§9632. — Officer Salaried, Fees to Be Turned In. §1. All process in actions and proceedings in justice courts, having a salaried constable, when served by an officer, shall be served by such constable or by the sheriff of the county or his duly appointed deputy; and all fees for such service shall be paid into the county treasury.

§9633. Proof of Service. §1719.—31. Proof of service in either of the above cases shall be as follows: When made by a constable or sheriff his return signed by him and indorsed on the paper or process. When made by any person other than such officer, then by the affidavit of the person making the service.

§9634. Service by Publication. §1720.—32. In case personal service cannot be had by reason of the absence of the defendant from the county in which the action is sought to be commenced, it shall be proper to publish the summons or notice with a brief statement of the object and prayer of the claim or complaint, in some weekly newspaper published in the county wherein the action is commenced; or if there is no paper published in such county, then in some newspaper published in the nearest adjoining county, which notice shall be published not less than once a week for three weeks prior to the time fixed for the hearing of the cause, which shall not be less than four weeks from the first publication of said notice. Said notice may be substantially as follows:

State of Washington County of _____ ss.—In Justice's Court, _____ Justice.

To _____.

You are hereby notified that _____ has filed a complaint (or claim as the case may be) against you in said court which will come on to be heard at my office in _____ in _____ county, Wash., on the _____ day of _____ A. D. 18—, at the hour of — o'clock — m., and unless you appear and then and there answer, the same will be taken as confessed and the demand of the plaintiff granted. The object and demand of said claim (or complaint, as the case may be) is (here insert a brief statement.) _____, J. P.

§9636. Service May Be Admitted. §1722.—34. The written admission of the defendant, his agent or attorney, endorsed upon any summons, complaint and notice, or other paper, shall be complete proof of service in any case.

§9637. When Jurisdiction Vested. §1723.—35. The court shall be deemed to have obtained possession of the case from the time the complaint or claim is filed, after completion of service, whether by publication or otherwise. And shall have control of all subsequent proceedings.

§9638. Docket. §1724.—36. Every justice of the peace shall keep a docket in a well bound book in which he shall enter:

1. The titles of all actions commenced before him.
2. The object of the action or proceeding, and if a sum of money be claimed, the amount of the demand.
3. The date of the notice and the time of its return; and if an order to arrest the defendant be made, the statement of the facts on which the order is issued.
4. The time when the parties, or either of them, appear, or their non-appearance, if default be made.
5. A brief statement of the nature of the plaintiff's demand, and the amount claimed; and if any set-off be pleaded, a similar statement of the set-off, and the amount estimated and every motion, rule order, and exception with the decision of the court thereon.
6. Every continuance, stating at whose request, and for what time.
7. The demand for a trial by jury, when the same is made, and by whom made; the order for the jury, and the time appointed for the trial and return of the jury.
8. The names of the jury who appear and are sworn; the names of witnesses sworn, and at whose request.
9. The verdict of the jury, and when received; and if the jury disagree and are discharged, the fact of such disagreement and discharge.
10. The judgment of the court, and the time when rendered.

11. The time of issuing execution, and the name of the officer to whom delivered, and an account of the debt and costs, and the fees due to each person separately.

12. The fact of an appeal having been made and allowed, and the time when.

13. Satisfaction of the judgment, or any money paid thereon, and the time when.

TRIALS.

Trial by the court, §9556.

Less than twelve may be provided.

Trial by jury in criminal cases, §9436.

Const., art. 1, §21.

§9640. Demand for Jury—Fee. §1770. After the appearance of the defendant and before the justice shall proceed to enquire into the merits of the cause, either party may demand a jury to try the action, which jury shall be composed of six good and lawful men having the qualifications of jurors in the superior court of the same county, unless the parties shall agree upon a less number; provided, that the party demanding the jury shall first pay to the justice the sum of six dollars, which shall be paid over by the justice to the jury before they are discharged and said amount shall be taxed as costs against the losing party.

§9641. Continuance. §1771. When a jury is demanded the trial of the case must be adjourned until the time fixed for the return of the jury; if neither party desire an adjournment the time must be determined by the justice and must be on the same day or within the next two days. The jury must be immediately selected as herein provided.

Continuances generally, §9427.

§9642. Panel—Striking Jury. §1772. The justice shall write in a panel the names of eighteen persons, citizens of the county, from which the defendant his agent or attorney must strike one name, the plaintiff his agent or attorney one, and so on alternately until each party shall have stricken six names, and the remaining six names, shall constitute the jury to try such case; and if either party neglect or refuse to aid in striking the jury as aforesaid, the justice shall strike the name in behalf of such party.

§9643. Summons for Jury—Form. §1773. The justice shall thereupon issue a summons for the jury in which the following form shall be observed in substance:

The State of Washington, County of.....[ss.]

CHANGE OF VENUE.

§9649. Change of Venue. §1938.—250. If previous to the commencement of any trial before a justice of the peace, the defendant, his attorney or agent, shall make and file with the justice an affidavit that the deponent believes that the defendant cannot have an impartial trial before such justice, it shall be the duty of the justice to forthwith transmit all papers and documents belonging to the case, to the next nearest justice of the peace in the same county, who is not of kin to either party, sick, absent from the county, or interested in the result of the action either as counsel or otherwise. The justice to whom such papers and documents are so transmitted, shall proceed as if the suit had been instituted before him. Distance as contemplated by this section, shall mean to be by the nearest traveled route. The costs of such change of venue shall abide the result of the suit.

§9652. Sale. §2. Any person having a lien under the provisions of Section 1 of this act for feeding, herding, pasturing, training, caring for or ranching any horses, mules, cattle or sheep, shall retain such animal for a period of ten (10) days, at the expiration of which time, if the owner of such animal does not satisfy such lien, the sheriff or any constable may sell such animal at public auction after giving the owner ten days' notice of the time and place of such sale by delivering a copy of such notice to the owner, or in case personal service cannot be had, by publishing same in a newspaper of general circulation in said county where said feeding, herding, pasturing, training, caring for, and ranching was furnished; if there be no paper of general circulation in said county, then by posting notices of the time and place of such sale in three conspicuous places in said county, and after satisfying the lien and costs that may accrue, any residue remaining shall be paid to the owner of said animal or person who may be lawfully entitled to the same.

§9653. Delivery Not Waiver. §3. Whenever any horses, mules, cattle or sheep shall be entrusted for the purpose of feeding, herding, pasturing, training, caring for, and ranching to any farmer, ranchman, herder of cattle, tavern keeper, livery or boarding stable keeper, continuously for some time, either definite or indefinite, the voluntary delivery of the same to the owner or his agent shall not waive or defeat the lien provided for in Section 1 of this act, and the person having such lien may enforce his lien against said property in any court of competent jurisdiction at any time within ten (10) days after parting with the possession thereof; Provided, That such lien shall not attach to the interest nor affect the rights of a third person who may have acquired an interest in or title to an animal against which a lien is claimed, for value and without knowledge of the claimed lien, while such animal is not in possession of the claimant.

§9654. Enforcing Lien. §2. Any person having a lien under the provisions of section 1 of this act, may enforce the same by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction; and said property may be sold on execution for the purpose of satisfying the amount of such judgment and costs of sale, together with the proper costs of keeping the same up to the time of said sale.

BAILEES.

AN ACT concerning liens of commission merchants, carriers, wharfingers, and warehousemen. Approved December 7, 1881. C81 §§1980-85.

§9655. Bailee's Lien. §1980.—1. That whenever property upon which charges for advances, freight, transportation, wharfage, or storage, due and unpaid, and a lien shall remain and be held in store by the person, or persons in whose favor such lien exists uncalled for, it shall be lawful for such person or persons to cause such property to be sold as is herein provided, Records and receipts by bailees — sale, Unclaimed goods, sale, etc. §3652. etc. §3650. Pledged property, how foreclosed or sold, Nagel v. Ham, Yearsley & Ryrie 88 W 99.

§9656. — Sale of Perishable Property. §1981.—2. If said property consists of live stock, the maintenance of which at the place where kept is wasteful and expensive in proportion to the value of the animals, or other of the perishable property liable, if kept, to destruction, waste or great depreciation, the person or persons having such lien, may sell the same upon giving ten days' notice.

§9657. — Sale of Property. §1982.—3. All other property upon which such charges may be unpaid, due, and a lien after the same shall have remained in store uncalled for, for a period of thirty days after such charges shall have become due, may be sold by the person or persons, having a lien for the payment of such charges upon giving ten days' notice: Provided, that when the property can be conveniently divided into separate lots or parcels, no more lots or parcels shall be sold than shall be sufficient to pay the charges due on the day of sale, and the expenses of the sale.

§9658. Application of Proceeds. §1983.—4. The moneys arising from sales made under the provisions of this act shall first be applied to the payment of the costs and expenses of the sale, and then to the payment of the lawful charges of the person or persons having a lien thereon for advances, freight, transportation, wharfage or storage, for whose benefit the sale shall have been made; the surplus, if any, shall be retained subject to the future lawful charge of the person or persons for whose benefit the sale was made, upon the property of the same owners still remaining in store uncalled for, if any there be, and to the demand of the owner of the property who shall have paid such charges or otherwise satisfied such lien, and all moneys remaining uncalled for, for the period of three months, shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall remain in his hands a special fund for the benefit of the lawful claimants thereof.

Court properly ordered balance paid over to county treasurer, Koyukuk Mining Co. v. Van de Vanter 30 W. 385.

§9659. Contract May Waive Lien. §1984.—5. Nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to alter or affect the terms of any special contract in writing, made by the parties as to the advances, affreightment, wharfage or storage; but when any such special contract shall have been made, its terms shall govern irrespective of this act.

§9660. Notice of Sale. §1985.—6. All notices required under this act, shall be given as is or may be by law provided in case of sale of personal property upon execution.

§9663. Priority of Lien. §3. The liens created by this chapter are preferred to any lien, mortgage or other encumbrance which may attach subsequently to the time of the commencement of the performance of the labor, or the furnishing of the materials for which the right of lien is given by this chapter, and are also preferred to any lien, mortgage or other encumbrance which may have attached previously to that time, and which was not filed or recorded so as to create constructive notice of the same prior to that time, and of which the lien claimant has no notice. L. '17 229, R.&B. §1156.

Priority of wages to materials in all liens §9665c.

§9664. Enforcement of Lien. §4. The lien herein provided for may be enforced against all persons having a junior or subsequent interest in any such chattel, by notice and sale in the same manner that a chattel mortgage is foreclosed [§9749] or by decree of any court in this state exercising original equity jurisdiction in the county wherein such chattel may be, in an action commenced within nine months after the filing of such lien notice, and if no such action shall be commenced within such time such lien shall cease. L. '17 229, R.&B. §1157.

§9664a. Filing of Notice. §5. Upon presentation of such lien notice to the Auditor of any County, and the payment to him of fifteen cents, he shall file the same, and endorse thereon the time of the reception, the number thereof, and shall enter the same in a suitable book or file (but need not record the same). Such book or file shall have herewith an alphabetic index, in which the County Auditor shall index such notice by noting the name of the owner, name of lien claimant, description of property, date of lien (which shall be the date upon which such expenditure of labor, skill or material was completed), date of filing and when released, the date of release.

§9665b. Liberal Construction of Act. §1981.—43. This act establishes the law of this state respecting the subject to which it relates, and its provisions and all proceedings under it, are to be liberally construed with a view to effect its object.

AN ACT relating to liens upon chattels, and amending sections 1154, 1155, 1156, 1157 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, and adding a new section to be known as section 1157-a of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington. Approved March 10, 1917. Laws 17, p. 229.

Sections §9661-64 were amended under the above title and the following new section added.

§9665c. Priority of Labor Over Material Liens—Personal Judgment—Deficiency. §5. In every case originating in or removed to a court of competent jurisdiction, in which different liens are claimed against the same property, the court, in the judgment, must declare the rank of such lien or class of liens, which shall be in the following order:

1. All persons performing labor;
2. All persons furnishing material;

And the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied to each lien or class of liens in the order of its rank; and personal judgment may be rendered in an action brought to foreclose a lien, against any party personally liable for any debt for which the lien is claimed, and if the lien be established, the judgment shall provide for the enforcement thereof upon the property liable as in case of foreclosure of mortgages; and the amount realized by such enforcement of the lien shall be credited upon the proper personal judgment, and the deficiency, if any, remaining unsatisfied, shall stand as a personal judgment, and may be collected by execution against the party liable therefor. The court may allow, as part of the costs of the action, the moneys paid for filing or recording the claim, and a reasonable attorney's fee in the action.

§9672. Liens on Orchard Lands. §1. Any person or corporation who shall do or cause to be done any labor upon any orchard or orchard lands, in pruning, spraying, cultivating and caring for the same, at the request of the owner thereof, or his agent, shall have a lien upon such orchard and orchard lands for such work and labor so performed.

§9673. Filing Claims—Enforcement. §2. Any person or corporation claiming the benefit of this chapter, must within 40 days after the close of such work or labor for each season during which such work and labor is done, file for record with the county auditor of the county in which said work and labor was performed and in which said land or part thereof is situated, a claim of lien which shall be in substance in accordance with the provisions of [§9710] section 1134 of Rem. & Bal. Code, so far as the same is applicable, which said claim of lien shall be verified as in said section provided, and such lien may be enforced in a civil action in the same manner as near as may be, as provided in [§9716] section 1140 of Rem. & Bal. Code.

§9674. Limitation of Action—Costs and Attorney Fees. §3. Any action to foreclose such claim of lien shall be brought within eight calendar months after the filing of such claim for lien as provided in section 2 hereof and in any such action brought to enforce such lien, the court shall allow as part of the costs the money paid for making, filing and recording such claim of lien and a reasonable attorney's fee.

INN-KEEPERS.

AN ACT for the protection of hotel, inn, lodging-house and boarding-house keepers. Approved March 7, 1890. Laws '90 p 96.

§9675. Inn-Keepers' Lien. §1. That hereafter all hotel keepers, inn keepers, lodging-house keepers and boarding-house keepers in this state, shall have a lien upon the baggage, property or other valuables of their guests, lodgers or boarders, brought into such hotel, inn, lodging-house or boarding-house by such guests, lodgers or boarders, for the proper charges due from such guests, lodgers or boarders for their accommodation, board or lodging and such other extras as are furnished at their request, and shall have the right to retain in their possession such baggage, property or other valuables until such charges are fully paid, and to sell such baggage, property or other valuables for the payment of such charges in the manner provided in section two hereof.

§9676. — Sale of Property. §2. That whenever any baggage, property or other valuables, which have been retained by any hotel keeper, inn keeper, lodging-house keeper or boarding-house keeper in his possession by virtue of the provision of section one hereof, shall remain unredeemed for the period of three months after the same shall have been so retained, then it shall be lawful for such hotel keeper, inn keeper, lodging house keeper or boarding-house keeper to sell such baggage, property or other valuables at public auction, after giving the owner thereof ten days' notice of the time and place of such sale, through the post-office, or by advertising in some newspaper published in the county where such sale is made, or by posting notices in three conspicuous places in such county, and out of the proceeds of such sale to pay all legal charges due from the owner of such baggage, property or valuables, including proper charges for storage of the same, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid to the owner upon demand.

LANDLORD.

Landlords lien on crops §9666.

AN ACT providing for a lien for rent due and to become due, and for the enforcement thereof. Approved March 17, 1917. Laws '17 p 769.

§9677. Liens for Rent Due. §1. Any person to whom rent may be due, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall have a lien for such rent which is paramount to, and has preference over, all other liens except liens for taxes, general and special liens of labor and mortgages or conditional bills of sale duly recorded prior to tenancy upon personal property of the tenant which has been used or kept on the rented premises, except property of third persons delivered to or left with the tenant for storage, repair, manufacture or sale, and such property exempt from execution by the laws of the State of Washington. Such liens shall not be for more than two months' rent due or to become due, nor for any rent or any installment thereof which has been due for more than two months; that no writing or recording shall be necessary to create such lien; and if such property be removed from the rented premises and not returned to the owner, agent, executor, administrator, or assign said lien shall continue and be a superior lien on the property so removed for ten days from the date of its removal, and said lien may be enforced against the property wherever found. In the event the property contained in the rented premises be destroyed by fire or other elements, the lien shall extend to any money that may be received by the tenant as indemnity for the destruction of said property, nor shall the lien be lost by the sale of the said property, except merchandise sold in the usual course of trade or to purchasers without notice of the tenancy. The provisions of this act shall not apply to, nor shall it be enforced against, the property of tenants in dwelling houses or apartments or any other place that is used exclusively as a home or residence of the tenant and his family.

§9678. Enforcement. §2. Said lien may be enforced in the same manner as the foreclosure of a chattel mortgage [§9749] in the superior court of the county in which the property or any portion thereof is situated.

LOGGERS.

Substitute—AN ACT providing liens upon saw logs, spars, piles or other timber, and upon lumber and shingles, and concerning the remedy to secure and obtain such liens, and the benefit thereof, and the manner and procedure of obtaining the same. §9680. Lien on Manufactures from Timber. §2. Every person performing work or labor or assisting in manufacturing saw logs and other timber into lumber and shingles has a lien upon such lumber while the same remains at the mill where it was manufactured, or in the possession or under the control of the manufacturer, whether such work or labor was done at the instance of the owner of such logs or his agent or any contractor or subcontractor of such owner. The term lumber, as used in this act shall be held and be construed to mean all logs or other timber sawed or split for use including beams, joists, planks, boards shingles, laths, staves, hoops and every article of whatsoever nature or description manufactured from saw logs or other timber.

§9681. Lien for Stumpage. §3. Any person who shall permit, another to go upon his timber land and cut thereon saw logs, spars, piles or other timber, has a lien upon the same for the price agreed to be paid for such privilege, or for the price such privilege would be reasonably worth in case there was no express agreement fixing the price.

Labor prior to vendor retaining title on sale to bankrupt at stumpage rate, In re Little Elk Logging Co. 218 Fed. 142.

§9682. Priorities. §4. The liens provided for in this chapter are preferred liens and are prior to any other liens, and no sale or transfer of any saw logs, spars, piles or other timber or manufactured lumber or shingles shall divest the lien thereon as herein provided, and as between liens provided for in this act those for work and labor shall be preferred: Provided That as between liens for work and labor claimed by several laborers on the same logs or lot of logs the claim or claims for work or labor done or performed on the identical logs proceeded against, to the extent that said logs can be identified, shall be preferred as against the general claim of lien for work and labor recognized and provided for in this act.

§9683. Duration of Lien. §5. The person rendering the service of [or] doing the work or labor named in sections 1 and 2 of this act, is only entitled to the liens as provided herein for services, work or labor for the period of eight calendar months, or any part thereof next preceding the filing of the claim, as provided in section 8 of this act.

Notice of claim must be filed to have action on bond, Rodgers v. Fidelity & Dep. Co. 89 W. 316.      Reduction of time relates to remedy and liens must be enforced in reasonable time, McQuestin v. Morrill 12 W. 335.

§9685. Filing of Claim. §7. Every person within thirty days after the close of the rendition of the services, or after the close of the work or labor mentioned in the preceding sections, claiming the benefit hereof, must file for record with the county auditor of the county in which such saw logs, spars, piles and other timber were cut, or in which such lumber or shingles were manufactured, a claim containing a statement of his demand and the amount thereof, after deducting as nearly as possible all just credits and offsets, with the name of the person by whom he was employed, with a statement of the terms and conditions of his contract, if any, and in case there is no express contract, the claim shall state what such service, work or labor is reasonably worth; and it shall also contain a description of the property to be charged with the lien sufficient for identification with reasonable certainty, which claim must be verified by the oath of himself or some other person to the effect that the affiant believes the same to be true, which claim shall be substantially, in the following form:

§9686. — For Stumpage. §8. Every person mentioned in section three of this act, claiming the benefit thereof, must file for record with the county auditor of the county in which such saw logs, spars, piles, or other timber were cut, a claim in substance the same as provided in the next preceding section of this act, and verified as therein provided.

§9687. Record of Claims. §9. The county auditor must record any claim filed under this act in a book kept by him for that purpose, which record must be indexed as deeds and other conveyances are required by law to be indexed, and for which he may receive the same fees as are allowed by law for recording deeds and other instruments.

§9688. Length of Time Lien Binding. §10. No lien provided for in this act binds any saw logs, spars, piles or other timber, or lumber and shingles, for a longer period than eight calendar months after the claim as herein provided has been filed, unless a civil action be commenced in a proper court, within that time, to enforce the same: Provided, however, That in case such civil action so commenced, should for any cause, other than the merits, be non-suited or dismissed, then the lien shall continue for the term of one calendar month, if the said eight months have expired, to permit the commencement of another action thereon, which shall be as effective in prolonging the lien as if it had been entered during the term of eight months hereinbefore stated.

§9690. Sheriff as Receiver. §12. The sheriff of the county wherein the lien is filed shall be the receiver when one is appointed, and the superior court upon a showing made shall appoint such receiver without notice, who shall be allowed such fees as may seem just to the court, which fees shall be accounted for by such sheriff as other fees collected by him in his official capacity; Provided, That at any time when any property is in the custody of such sheriff under the provisions of this act, and any person claiming any interest therein, may deposit with the clerk of the court in which such action is pending, a sum of money in an amount equal to the claim sued upon, together with one hundred ($100) dollars, to cover costs and interest, (unless the court shall make an order fixing a different amount to cover such costs and interest, then such an amount as the court shall fix to secure such costs and interest, which such action is being prosecuted) and shall have the right to demand and receive forthwith from such sheriff the possession and custody of such property: Provided, That in no action brought under the provisions of this act shall costs be allowed to lien holders unless a demand has been made for payment of his lien claim before commencement of suit unless the court shall find the claimants at time of bringing action had reasonable ground to believe that the owner or the person having control of the property upon which such lien is claimed was attempting to defraud such claimant, or prevent the collection of such lien. 1909 143.

Supersedeas will not release logs from receiver's possession, Anderson v. Tingley 20 W. 592.

§9691. Answer to Be on Merits. §13. If the defendant or defendants appear in a suit to enforce any lien provided by this act he or they shall make their answer on the merits of the complaint, and any motion or demurrer against the said complaint must be filed with the answer; and no motion shall be allowed to make complaint more definite and certain, if it appear to the court that the defendant or defendants have or should have knowledge of the facts, or that it can be made more certain and definite by facts which will appear, necessarily, in the testimony; but the case, unless the court sustains the demurrer to the complaint shall be heard on the merits as speedily as possible, and amendments of the pleadings, if necessary, shall be liberally allowed.

§9692. What Products Liable. §14. Any person who shall bring a civil action to enforce the lien herein provided for, or any person having a lien as herein provided for, who shall be made a party to any such civil action, has the right to demand that such lien be enforced against the whole or any part of the saw logs, spars, piles, or other timber, or manufactured lumber or shingles upon which he has performed labor, or which he has assisted in securing or obtaining, or which he has cut on his timber months next preceding the filing of his lien, for all his labor upon, or for all his assistance in obtaining or securing said logs, spars, piles or other timber, or in manufacturing said lumber or shingles during the whole or any part of the eight months mentioned in section seven (7) of this act, or for timber cut during the whole or any part of the eight months above mentioned. And where proceedings are commenced against any lot of saw logs, spars, piles or other timber or lumber, or shingles as herein provided, and some of the lienors claim liens against the specific logs, spars, piles or other timber or lumber or shingles proceeded against, and others against the same, generally, to secure their claims for work and labor, the priority of the liens shall be determined as hereinbefore provided.

§9693. Lien Shall Not Be Defeated. §15. No mistake or error in the statement of the demand, or of the amount of credits and offsets allowed, or of the balance asserted to be due to claimant, nor in the description of the property against which the claim is filed, shall invalidate the lien, unless the court finds that such mistake or error in the statement of the demand, credits and offsets or of the balance due was made with intent to defraud, or the court shall find that an innocent third party, without notice, direct or constructive, has, since the claim was filed, become the bona fide owner of the property lienied upon, and that the notice of claim was so deficient that it did not put the party upon further inquiry, in any manner.

Error in alleging lien notice as to time work done may be amended—inclusion of non-lienable item will not defeat lien, Maris v. Clevenger 29 W. 395.

§9696. Judgment—Sale. §18. In each civil action judgment must be rendered in favor of each person having a lien for the amount due to him, and the court or judge thereof shall order any property subject to the lien herein provided for, to be sold by the sheriff of the proper county in the same manner that personal property is sold on execution, and the court or judge shall apportion the proceeds of such sale to the payment of each judgment, according to the priorities established in this act, pro rata in its class, according to the amount of such judgment.

§9698. Destroying Identity of Property. §20. Any person who shall eloin, injure or destroy, or who shall render difficult, uncertain or impossible of identification any saw logs, spars, piles, shingles or other timber upon which there is a lien, as herein provided, without the express consent of the person entitled to such lien, shall be liable to the lien holder for the damages to the amount secured by his lien, and, it being shown to the court in the civil action to enforce said lien it shall be the duty of the court to enter a personal judgment for the amount in such action against the said person provided he be a party to such action or the damages may be recovered by a civil action against such person.

§9699. Liens on Steamers. §1939. That all steamers, vessels, and boats, their tackle, apparel and furniture are liable—

1. For service rendered on board at the request of, or under contract with their respective owners, charterers, masters, agents or consignees.

2. For work done or material furnished in this state for their construction, repair or equipment at the request of their respective owners, charterers, masters, agents, consignees, contractors, sub-contractors, or other person or persons having charge in whole or in part of their construction, alteration, repair or equipment; and every contractor, builder, or person having charge, either in whole or in part, of the construction, alteration, repair or equipment of any steamer, vessel or boat, shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of this chapter, and for supplies furnished in this state for their use, at the request of their respective owners, charterers, masters, agents or consignees, and any person having charge, either in whole or in part, of the purchasing of supplies for the use of any such steamer, vessel or boat, shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of this chapter.

3. For their wharfage and anchorage within this state.

4. For non-performance or mal-performance of any contract for the transportation of persons or property between places within this state, or to or from places within this state, made by their respective owners, masters, agents or consignees.

5. For injuries committed by them to persons or property within this state, or while transporting such persons or property to or from this state. Demands for these several causes constitute liens upon all steamers, vessels and boats, and their tackle, apparel and furniture, and have priority in the order of the sub-divisions hereinbefore enumerated, and have preference over all other demands; but such liens continue in force only for a period of three years from the time the cause of action accrued. Supplementary—AN ACT to create and provide means for the enforcement of a lien on steamers, vessels and boats in favor of stevedores or others engaged in stowing, loading or unloading of cargo or performing services connected therewith, in from, at or about steamers, vessels and boats. Approved March 16, 1901. Laws '01 p 136.

§9700. — Additional Liens. §1. All steamers, vessels and boats, their tackle, apparel and furniture shall be held liable at all ports and places within this state or within the jurisdiction of the courts of this state or within the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States in said state for services rendered by stevedores, longshoremen or others engaged in the loading, unloading, stowing or dunnaging of cargo in or from any steamer, vessel or boat in any harbor or at any other place within said state, or within the jurisdiction of the courts thereof as above stated, and said steamers, vessels and boats shall further be liable as per their contracts for all services performed upon wharfs or landing places by stevedores, longshoremen or others; Provided, That such services must have been so performed in and about and be connected with the loading, unloading, dunnaging or stowing of said cargo.

§9701. — Priority. §2. Demands for wages and all sums due under contracts or otherwise for the performance of all or any of the services mentioned in the last preceding section shall constitute liens upon all steamers, vessels and boats, their tackle, apparel and furniture, and shall have priority over all other demands save and excepting the demands mentioned in the first three sub-divisions of section 5953 of Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of the State of Washington [§9699], to which said demands the lien hereby provided shall be subordinate; Provided, That such liens shall only continue in force for the period of three years from the date when such work was done or the last services performed by such stevedores, longshoremen or others.

§9702. Practice. §3. The liens hereby created may be enforced by a suit, in rem, and the law regulating like proceedings shall govern in all such suits.

§9703. — Enforcement of. §1940.—2. Such liens may be enforced, in all cases of maritime contracts or service, by a suit in admiralty, in rem, and the law regulating proceedings in admiralty shall govern in all such suits and in all cases of contracts or service not maritime, by a civil action in any superior court in this state.

Proof of filing is sufficient without proof of recording—terms of contract—failure to include wife's name—inclusion of items not furnished will not vitiate, Bolster v. Stocks 13 W. 460.

Notice indefinite and with verbal variances held good, Sautter v. McDonald 12 W. 27.

Lien runs from time material furnished rather than time of engineer's certificate when required before payment, Washington Bridge Co. v. Land and R. Imp. Co. 12 W. 272.

Notice stating substance of contract is good though it refers to plans, Mras v. Duff 11 W. 36.

Inclusion of items not furnished will not defeat lien, Peterman v. Milwaukee Brg. Co. 11 W. 199.

Neither misdescription of property nor mistake as to legal or equitable title to property nor as to whether person is contractor or sub-contractor will not invalidate, McHugh v. Black 11 W. 370.

Notice with husband as reputed owner binds community, Douthitt v. MacCulsky 11 W. 601.

Where notice and complaint describe same lot but differ as to the street number of the house variance is not fatal—word "seal" written after notary's name in copy imports seal to original, Griffith v. Maxwell 20 W. 403.

Any number of claimants doing work on same building may join in notice—proper designation of employer and owner—need not state terms of contract in notice, Hopkins v. Jamieson-Dixon Mill Co. 11 W. 308.

Inclusion of items not lienable if separable will not vitiate lien and personal judgment may be had for such items—failure to include husband's name as reputed owner is not fatal—auditor's certificate and proof of lienor's signature will admit notice in evidence, Powell v. Nolan 27 W. 318.

Notice that labor performed at "request" of another is sufficient, Young v. Borzone 26 W. 4.

Supreme court will treat defective notice as defective pleading and insufficiency not pointed out to trial court will consider it amended where no one will be injured, Olson v. Snake River R. R. Co. 22 W. 139.

Failure to state terms of building contract is not a defect in notice Greene v. Finnell 22 W. 186.

Lienor may assign as collateral security, Potvin v. Denny Hotel Co. 9 W. 316.

§9713. Separate Claim for Each Building. §8. In every case in which one claim is filed against two or more separate pieces of property, owned by the same person, or owned by two or more persons who jointly contracted for the labor, or material for which the lien is claimed, the person filing such claim must designate in the claim the amount due him on each piece of property, otherwise the lien of such claim is postponed to other liens. The lien of such claim does not extend beyond the amount designated as against other creditors having liens upon either of such pieces of property.

Failure to specify separate buildings house if lot not divided—amendment may postpone lien after those specified, Seattle Lumber Co. v. Sweeney 33 W. 691. be made as to third party intervening after filing notice, Cullivan v. Treen 13 W. 261.

Several liens may be filed on houses on same lot claiming on all of lot for each legation of amount due on each house is sufficient, Powell v. Nolan 27 W. 318.

§9714. Duration of Lien. §9. No lien created by this act binds the property subject to the lien for a longer period than eight calendar months after the claim has been filed unless an action be commenced in the proper court within that time to enforce such lien; or if credit be given, then eight calendar months after the expiration of such credit; and in case such action be not prosecuted to judgment within two years after the commencement thereof, the court in its discretion may dismiss the same for want of prosecution, and the dismissal of such action, or a judgment rendered therein, that no lien exists, shall constitute a cancellation of the lien.

Duration of lien limited—bankruptcy does not toll statute, McDermott v. Tolt Land Co. 101 W. 114. Mahon 42 W. 452.

Eight months not limitation but life of lien and service must be had—general statute on service does not aid—cross-complaint does not aid, City Sash & Door Co. v. Bunn 90 W. 669. Party cannot be brought into action after time has expired, Northwest Bridge Co. v. Tacoma Shipbuilding Co. 36 W. 333.

The lien expires as to a mortgagee although suit was commenced against the owner within time, where the mortgagee was not made a party, Davis v. Bartz, 65 W. 395. It must be affirmatively shown that action is brought in time and objection may be made in first instance on appeal—if wife not a party in foreclosure within time personal judgment may be had, but no lien, Peterson v. Dillon 27 W. 79.

Time of action runs from last notice filed, Lindley v. McGlauffin 58 W. 636. Assignee of claim after action begun has one year to file supplemental pleading—action to foreclose on community must be in time against both spouses, Powell v. Nolan 27 W. 318.

Complaint must be filed within eight months—personal judgment, Service v. Mc- Cited 91 W. 507.

§9715. Rights of Owner and Contractor. §10. The contractor shall be entitled to recover upon the claim filed by him only such amount as may be due him according to the terms of his contract, after deducting all claims of other parties for labor performed and materials furnished; and in all cases where a claim shall be filed under this act for labor performed or materials furnished to any contractor, he shall defend any action brought thereupon at his own expense; and during the pendency of such action, the owner may withhold from the contractor the amount of money for which the claim is filed; and in case of judgment against the owner or his property, upon the lien, the owner shall be entitled to deduct from any amount due or to become due by him to the contractor, the amount of the judgment and costs, and if the amount of such judgment and costs shall exceed the amount due by him to the contractor or if the owner shall have settled with the contractors in full, he shall be entitled to recover back from the contractor the amount, including costs for which the lien is established, in excess of any sum that may remain due from him to the contractor.

Contract price lienable though part for ing but oversee construction, Powell v. superintendence and profits, Smyth v. Nolan 27 W. 318. Contractor has lien though he did nothing but oversee construction, Powell v. Lance & Peters 52 W. 560. Cited 77 W. 304.

§9716. Foreclosure of Liens. §11. The liens provided by this act, for which claims have been filed, may be foreclosed and enforced by a civil action in the court having jurisdiction; in any action brought to foreclose a lien, all persons who, prior to the commencement of such action, have legally filed claims of liens against the same property, or any part thereof shall be joined as parties, either plaintiff or defendant; and no person shall begin an action to foreclose a lien upon any property while a prior action begun to foreclose another lien on the same property is pending, but if not made a party plaintiff or defendant to such prior action, he may apply to the court to be joined as a party thereto, and his lien may be foreclosed in such action; and no action to foreclose a lien shall be dismissed at the instance of a plaintiff therein to the prejudice of another party to the suit who claims a lien.

Action to foreclose should not be dismissed for failure to complete building and of refusal of architect to give certificate, Windham v. Independent Telephone Co. 35 W. 166.

§9717. Priorities. §12. In every case in which different liens are claimed against the same property, the court, in the judgment, must declare the rank of such lien or class of liens, which shall be in the following order:

1. All persons performing labor.
2. All persons furnishing material.
3. The subcontractors.
4. The original contractors.

And the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied to each lien or class of liens in the order of its rank; and personal judgment may be rendered in an action brought to foreclose a lien, against any party personally liable for any debt for which the lien is claimed, and if the lien be established, the judgment shall provide for the enforcement thereof upon the property liable as in case of foreclosure of mortgages; and the amount realized by such enforcement of the lien shall be credited upon the proper personal judgment, and the deficiency, if any remaining unsatisfied, shall stand as a personal judgment, and may be collected by execution against the party liable therefor. The court may allow, as part of the costs of the action, the moneys paid for filing or recording the claim, and a reasonable attorney's fee in the superior and supreme courts.

Attorney's fees allowed in trial court other fee will not be granted in supreme court, Lavanvay v. Cannon 37 W. 593.

AN ACT regulating contracts for public improvement, fixing the percentages to be retained for the protection of materialmen and laborers, giving a lien thereon, and providing for the foreclosure thereof. L. '21 ch. 166.

§9727-1. Funds to Be Reserved. §1. That contracts for public improvements or work by the state, or any county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, shall provide, and there shall be reserved from the moneys earned by the contractor on estimates during the progress of the improvement or work, a sum equal to fifteen per cent. (15%) of such estimates, said sum to be retained by the state, county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, as a trust fund for the protection and payment of any person or persons, mechanic, sub-contractor or materialman who shall perform any labor upon such contract or the doing of said work, and all persons who shall supply such person or persons or sub-contractors with provisions and supplies for the carrying on of such work. Said fund shall be retained for a period of thirty (30) days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed, and every person performing labor or furnishing supplies towards the completion of said improvement or work shall have a lien upon said fund so reserved, provided such notice of the lien of such claimant shall be given in the manner and within the time provided in [§9727] section 1161 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Code and Statutes of Washington as now existing and in accordance with any amendments that may hereafter be made thereto: Provided, however, That where in any improvement or work the contract price shall exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), but ten per cent. (10%) shall be reserved on estimates in excess of said sum or where the aggregate of previous estimates equals or exceeds said amount. The provisions of this act shall be deemed exclusive and shall supersede all provisions and regulations in conflict herewith.

§9727-2. Use of Reserve. §2. That after the expiration of thirty (30) days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work, and the expiration of the time for the filing of lien claims, as herein provided, said reserve, or all amounts thereof in excess of a sufficient sum to meet and discharge the claims of materialmen and laborers who have filed their claims, as provided for in section 1 of this act, together with a sum sufficient to defray the cost of such action and to pay attorneys' fees, shall be paid to said contractor.

§9727-3. Limitation of Claims and Action. §3. Any person, firm or corporation filing a lien claim against said reserve fund shall have four (4) months from the time of the filing of claims against said fund in which to bring an action for the foreclosure of such lien. The liens provided for in this chapter shall be enforced by a civil action in the superior court of the county wherein the lien was filed, and shall be governed by the laws regulating the proceedings in civil actions touching the mode and manner of trial, and the proceedings and laws to secure property so as to hold it for the satisfaction of any lien that be against it. In the event the lien claimant fails to bring an action within the time provided for and limited herein, the said reserve fund shall be discharged from the lien of said claimant and the moneys so held shall be forthwith paid to the contractor: Provided, however, That the limitation of four (4) months provided for herein shall not be construed as a limitation upon the right to sue the contractor or his surety where no right of foreclosure against said fund is sought.

§9728. Retroactive Effect. §1. That all bonds issued and given prior to June 12, 1915, which embody the terms and provisions prescribed and provided for and which conform to and comply with the terms and provisions of that certain act entitled, "An act relating to contractors and bonds upon public works, and amending [§§9724, 9727] sections 1159 and 1161 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington," passed the House February 8, 1915, passed the Senate February 24, 1915, and passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto on March 3, 1915, shall have the same legal force and effect and be construed, and the rights and liabilities of all parties thereto and thereunder shall be the same as though the said act entitled, "An act relating to contractors and bonds upon public works, and amending [§§9724, 9727] section 1159 and 1161 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington" had been in full force and effect at the time any such bond was given, and the courts of this state shall give to such bonds the same force and effect and no other or greater force and effect than would have been given had the said act entitled: "An act relating to contractors and bonds upon public works, and amending [§§9724, 9727] sections 1159 and 1161 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington" been in force and effect at the time such bond was signed and given.

SIRES.

AN ACT to protect stock breeders in the State of Washington and declaring an emergency. Approved February 14, 1890. Laws '90 p 451.

§9729. Lien for Service of Sires. §1. That in order to secure to the owner or owners of sires payment for service the following provisions are enacted. That every owner of a sire having a service fee, in order to have a lien upon the female served, and upon the get of any such sire under the provisions of this act for such service shall file, for record with the county auditor of the county where said sire is kept for service, a statement verified by oath or affirmation to the best of his knowledge and belief, giving the name, age, description and pedigree as well as the terms and conditions upon which such sire is advertised for service. Provided, That owners of sires who are not in possession of pedigrees for such sires shall not be debarred from the benefits of this act.

§9730. Sire to Be Certified. §2. The county auditor upon the receipt of the statement as specified in section one of this act duly verified by affidavit, shall issue a certificate to the owner, or owners of said sire, which shall be posted by the owner in a conspicuous place where said sire may be stationed which certificate shall state the name, age, description, pedigree and ownership of such sire, the terms and conditions upon which the said sire is advertised for service and that the provisions of this act so far as relates to the filing of the statement aforesaid has been complied with.

§9731. Filing Lien. §3. The owner or owners of any such sire receiving such certificate, by complying with the last two preceding sections of this chapter, shall obtain and have a lien upon the female served for the period of one year from the date of service, or upon the get of any such sire for the period of one year from the date of birth of such get: Provided, Said owner or owners shall file for record a statement of account, verified by affidavit, with the county auditor of the county wherein the service has been rendered, of the amount due such owner or owners for said service, together with a description of the female served, within ten months from the date of service or date of birth, as the case may be: Provided further, That the lien upon the get of any such sire shall be a preferred lien: And provided further, That no sale or transfer of any female animal served shall defeat the right of such lien holder. R&B §3163, L. '13, ch. 53.

§9732. — Foreclosure. §4. Liens under this act to be foreclosed in the same manner as liens upon other personal property are foreclosed.

§9733. Filing Fees. §5. For filing certificate, making copy of such affidavit, and the certificate of date of such filing, the clerk of record shall be entitled to the same fees as are provided by law for similar service in regard to chattel mortgages.

WAGES.

§9734. Priority of Wages in Insolvency. §1972.—34. In all assignments of property made by any person to trustees or assignees on account of the inability of the person at the time of the assignment to pay his debts, or in proceedings in insolvency, the wages of the miners, mechanics, salesmen, servants, clerks, or laborers, employed by such persons to the amount of one hundred dollars, each, and for services rendered within sixty days previously are preferred claims and must be paid by such trustees or assignees before any other creditor or creditors of the assignor.

ASSIGNMENT AND SATISFACTION.

AN ACT relating to assignments and satisfaction of mortgages. Approved February 25, 1897. Laws '97 p 23.

§9742. Record of Assignment of Mortgage. §1. Any person to whom any real estate or chattel mortgage is given, or the assignee of any such mortgage, may, by an instrument in writing, by him signed and acknowledged in the manner provided by law entitling mortgages to be recorded, assign the same to the person therein named as assignee, and any person to whom any such mortgage has been so assigned, may, after the assignment has been recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein such mortgage is of record, acknowledge satisfaction of the mortgage, and discharge the same of record.

Failure to record will give subsequent purchasers good title, Gottstein v. Harrington 25 W. 508.

§9743. Assignees—Satisfaction of Record. §2. All satisfactions of mortgages heretofore made by the assignees thereof, where the assignment was in writing, signed by the mortgagee or assignee, and where the same was recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein the mortgage was recorded, are hereby validated, and such satisfactions of mortgages so made shall have the same effect as if made by the mortgagees in such mortgages.

AN ACT to secure the cancellation of satisfied mortgages. Approved January 29, 1886. General repeal. Laws '86 p 116.

§9744. Satisfying Record—Separate Instrument. §1. Whenever the amount due on any mortgage is paid, the mortgagee, his legal representatives or assigns, shall, at the request of any person interested in the property mortgaged, acknowledge satisfaction of the same on the margin of the page upon which the mortgage is recorded (which marginal satisfaction shall be at the time attested by the auditor or his deputy), or by executing an instrument in writing referring to the mortgage by the volume and page of the record or otherwise sufficiently describing it and acknowledging satisfaction in full thereof. Said instrument shall be duly acknowledged, and upon request shall be recorded in the county wherein the mortgaged property is situated. Every instrument of writing heretofore recorded and purporting to be a satisfaction of mortgage, which sufficiently describes the mortgage which it purports to satisfy so that the same may be readily identified, and which has been duly acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments or oaths, is hereby declared legal and valid, and a certified copy of the record thereof is hereby constituted prima facie evidence of such satisfaction.

§9745. Failure to Satisfy Record—Remedy. §2. If the mortgagee shall fail so to do after sixty days from the date of such request or demand he shall forfeit and pay to the mortgagor the sum of twenty-five dollars, to be recovered in any court having competent jurisdiction, and said court, when convinced that said mortgage has been fully satisfied, shall issue an order in writing directing the auditor to cancel said mortgage, and the auditor shall immediately record the order and cancel the mortgage as directed by the court, upon the margin of the page upon which the mortgage is recorded, making reference thereupon to the order of the court and to the page where the order is recorded.

Forfeiture for failure to satisfy applies to trust deed and is full measure of damages, Morrill v. Title Guar. & S. Co. 94 W 258.

§9748. Record. §1988.—2. A mortgage of personal property must be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the mortgaged property is situated, in a book kept exclusively for that purpose. When personal property mortgaged is thereafter removed from the county in which it is situated, it is, as except between the parties to the mortgage, exempted from the operation thereof unless either:

First. The mortgagee within thirty days after such removal causes the mortgage to be recorded in the county to which the property has been removed; or

Second. The mortgage be recorded in the custom house; or Third. The mortgagee within thirty days after such removal takes possession of the property, Provided, That a mortgage on any vessel or boat, or part of a vessel or boat, over twenty tons burden, shall be recorded in the office of the collector of customs, where such vessel is registered, enrolled or licensed and need not be recorded elsewhere.

'AN ACT' relating to the filing and recording of mixed chattel and real estate mortgages in the State of Washington, and curative provisions relative thereto. Approved March 13, 1899. Laws '99 p 118.

Prior to this act mixed mortgage executed and recorded as on realty would not hold personalty, Radebaugh v. Tacoma etc. Co. 8 W. 570.

Prior to statute mixed mortgage recorded as that of realty was not void as to chattels and judgment creditor had priority, Illinois Tr. & Sav. Bank v. Seattle Elec. Ry. & Power Co. (C. C. A.) 82 Fed. Rep. 936.

§9775. Form of Record. §2. In case any mortgage covering mixed real estate and personal property has heretofore been or may hereafter be recorded in the record of mortgages of real estate, or in the record of chattel mortgages, and in case the affidavit required by law to be attached to chattel mortgages was not or shall not be recorded as a part of said chattel mortgage but has been or shall be afterwards recorded upon a separate page of said record and a reference made at the place of the original record of said real estate or chattel mortgage to the said affidavit stating the volume and page on which the same may be found, said record shall constitute notice from and after the date of the filing of said affidavit, the same as if the affidavit and mortgage had been recorded together at the same time and at the same place.

ABSENTEES ESTATES.

Supplementary—AN ACT relating to the management, control and disposition of property belonging to absentees. Approved March 8, 1915. Laws '15 p. 132.

§9776. Petition for Court to Assume Control—Notice—Hearing—Appointment of Trustee. §1. Whenever it shall be made to appear by petition to any judge of the superior court of any county that there is property in such county, either real or personal, that requires care and attention, or is in such a condition that it is a menace to the public health, safety or welfare, or that the custodian of such property appointed by the owner thereof is either unable or unwilling to continue longer in the care and custody thereof, and that the owner of such property has absented himself from the county and that his whereabouts is unknown and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, which petition shall state the name of the absent owner, his approximate age, his last known place of residence, the circumstances under which he left and the place to which he was going, if known, his business or occupation and his physical appearance and habits so far as known, the judge to whom such petition is presented shall set a time for hearing such petition not less than six weeks from the date of filing, and shall by order direct that a notice of such hearing be published for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county where such petition is filed and in such other counties and states as will in the judgment of the court be most likely to come to the attention of the absentee or of persons who may know his whereabouts, which notice shall state the object of the petition and the date of hearing, and set forth such facts and circumstances as in the judgment of the court will aid in identifying the absentee, and shall contain a request that all persons having knowledge concerning the absentee shall advise the court of the facts. If it shall appear at such hearing that the whereabouts of the absentee is unknown, but there is reason to believe that upon further investigation and inquiry he may be found, the judge may continue the hearing and order such inquiry and advertisement as will in his discretion be liable to disclose the whereabouts of the absentee, but when it shall appear to the judge at such hearing or any adjournment thereof that the whereabouts of the absentee cannot be ascertained, he shall appoint a suitable person resident of the county as trustee of such property, taking into consideration the character of the property and the fitness of such trustee to care for the same, preferring in such appointment the husband or wife of the absentee to his presumptive heirs, the presumptive heirs to kin more remote, the kin to strangers, and creditors to those who are not otherwise interested, provided they are fit persons to have the care and custody of the particular property in question and will accept the appointment and qualify as hereinafter provided.

§9777. Inventory and Appraisal—Bond of Trustee. §2. The trustee so appointed shall make, subscribe and file in the office of the clerk of the court an oath for the faithful performance of his duties, and shall, within such time as may be fixed by the judge, prepare and file an inventory of such property, and the judge shall thereupon appoint three disinterested and qualified persons to appraise such property, and report their appraisal to the court within such time as the court may fix. Upon the coming in of the inventory and appraisal, the judge shall fix the amount of the bond to be given by the trustee, which bond shall in no case be less than the appraised value of the personal property and the annual rents and profits of the real property, and the trustee shall thereupon file with the clerk of the court a good and sufficient bond in the amount fixed and with surety to be approved by the court, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as trustee, and for accounting for such property, its rents, issues, profits and increase.

§9778. Reports of Trustee. §3. The trustee shall, at the expiration of one year from the date of his appointment and annually thereafter and at such times as the court may direct, make and file a report and account of his trusteeship, setting forth specifically the amounts received and expended and the conditions of the property.

§9779. Sale of Property—Income Applied—Compensation of Trustee. §4. If the property or any part thereof be personal property of a perishable nature or property likely to deteriorate in value, or if necessary to pay debts against the absentee which have been duly approved and allowed in the same form and manner as provided for the approving and allowing of claims against the estate of a deceased person the trustee may sell the same under order of the court so to do, at public or private sale, and upon such terms and notice as the court may direct, and shall hold the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the necessary expenses thereof, subject to the order of the court. The trustee is authorized and empowered to, by order of the court, expend the proceeds received from the sale of such property, and also the rents, issues and profits accruing therefrom in the care, maintenance and upkeep of the property, so long as the trusteeship shall continue, and the trustee shall receive out of such property such compensation for his services as may be fixed by the court.

§9780. Removal or Resignation of Trustee. §5. The court shall have the power to remove or to accept the resignation of such trustee and appoint another in his stead. At the termination of his trust, as hereinafter provided or in case of his resignation or removal, the trustee shall file a final account, which account shall be settled in the manner provided by law for settling the final accounts of administrators and guardians.

§9781. Period of Trusteeship. §6. Such trusteeship shall continue until such time as the owner of such property shall return or shall appoint a duly authorized agent or attorney in fact to care for such property, or until such time as the property shall be provisionally distributed to the presumptive heirs, or to the devisees and legatees of the absentee as hereinafter provided, or until such time as the property shall escheat to the state as hereinafter provided.

§9782. Distribution—Presumption of Death—Will. §7. Whenever the owner of such property shall have been absent from ~~the~~ county for the space of five years and his whereabouts are unknown, and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, his presumptive heirs at law may apply to the court for an order of provisional distribution of such property, and to be let into provisional possession thereof: Provided, That such provisional distribution may be made at any time prior to the expiration of five years, when it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that there are strong presumptions that the absentee is dead: and in determining the question of presumptive death, the court shall take into consideration the habits of the absentee, the motives of and the circumstances surrounding the absence, and the reasons which may have prevented the absentee from being heard of. Notice of hearing upon application for provisional distribution shall be published in like manner as notices for the appointment of trustees are published. If the absentee left a will in the possession of any person such person shall present such will at the time of hearing of the application for provisional distribution and if it shall be made to appear to the court that the absentee has left a will and the person in possession thereof shall fail to present it, a citation shall issue requiring him so to do, and such will shall be opened, read, proven, filed and recorded in the case, as are the wills of decedents.

§9783. Provisional Distribution—Bond of Distributees. §8. If it shall appear to the ~~satisfaction~~ of the court upon the hearing of the application for provisional distribution that the absentee has been absent and his whereabouts unknown for the space of five years, or there are strong presumptions that he is dead, the court shall enter an ~~order~~ directing that the property in the hands of the trustee shall be provisionally distributed to the presumptive heirs, or to the devisees and legatees under the will, as the case may be, upon condition that such heirs, devisees and legatees respectively give and file in the court bonds with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the court, conditioned for the return of or accounting for the property provisionally distributed in case the absentee shall return and demand the same, which bonds shall be respectively in twice the amount of the value of the personal property distributed, and in ten times the amount of estimated annual rents, issues and profits of any real property so provisionally distributed.

tained, his presumptive heirs-at-law or the legatees and devisees under the will, as the case may be, to whom the property has been provisionally distributed, may apply to the court for a decree of final distribution of such property and satisfaction, discharge and exoneration of the bonds given upon provisional distribution. Notice of hearing of such application shall be given in the same manner as notice of hearing of application for the appointment of trustee and for provisional distribution and if at the final hearing it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the owner of the property has been absent and unheard of for the space of fifteen years and his whereabouts are unknown, the court shall exonerate the bonds given on provisional distribution and enter a decree of final distribution, distributing the property to the presumptive heirs-at-law of the absentee or to his devisees and legatees, as the case may be.

§9785. Final Settlement—Escheat. §10. Whenever the owner of such property for which a trustee has been appointed under the provisions of this act shall have been absent and unheard of for a period of fifteen years and no presumptive heirs-at-law have appeared and applied for the provisional distribution of such property and no will of the absentee has been presented and proven, the trustee appointed under the provisions of this act shall apply to the court for a final settlement of his account and upon the settlement of such final account the property of the absentee shall be escheated in the manner provided by law for escheating property of persons who die intestate leaving no heirs.

§9791. Reports of Executors and Administrators. §159. Within thirty days after the expiration of the time for filing of claims of creditors, the executor or administrator shall make, verify by his oath, and file with the clerk of the court a report of the affairs of the estate. Such report shall contain a statement of the claims filed and allowed and all those rejected, and if it be necessary to sell or mortgage any property for the purpose of paying debts or settling any obligations against the estate or expenses of administration or allowance to the family, he may in such report set out the facts showing such necessity and ask for such sale or mortgage; such report shall likewise state the amount of property, real and personal, which has come into his hands, and give a detailed statement of all sums collected by him, and of all sums paid out, and it shall state such other things and matters as may be proper or necessary to give the court full information regarding any transactions by him done or which should be done. Such executor or administrator may, however, make, verify, and file, prior to the expiration of the time for the presentation of claims, any reports which in his judgment would be proper or which the court may order to be made.

§9792. Notice of Hearing—Settlement by Court. §160. It shall not be necessary for the executor or administrator to give any notice of the hearing of any report prior to the final report, except as in [§9950] §64 provided, but the court may require notice of the hearing of any such report. If the court does not require such notice to be given, then at any time after ten days following the filing of any report, other than the final report, the court may hear and settle such report.

§9793. Final Report and Petition for Distribution. §161. When the estate shall be ready to be closed, such executor or administrator shall make, verify and file with the court his final report and petition for distribution. Such final report and petition shall, among other things, show that the estate is ready to be settled, and shall show any moneys collected since the previous report, and any property which may have come into the hands of the executor or administrator since his previous report, and debts paid, and generally the condition of the estate at that time. It shall likewise set out the names and addresses, as nearly as may be, of all the legatees and devisees in the event there shall have been a will, and the names and addresses, as nearly as may be, of all the heirs who may be entitled to share in such estate, and shall give a particular description of all the property of the estate remaining undisposed of, and shall set out such other matters as may tend to inform the court of the condition of the estate, and it may ask the court for a settlement of the estate and distribution of property and the discharge of the executor or administrator. If the executor or administrator has been discharged without having legally closed the estate, or without having legally obtained an adjudication as to the heirs, or without having legally procured a decree of distribution or final settlement the court may in its discretion upon petition of any person interested, cause all such steps to be taken in such estate as were omitted or defective.

§9794. Notice of Hearing. §162. When such final report and petition for distribution, or either, shall have been filed, the court shall fix a day for the hearing of the same, which day must be at least twenty-five days subsequent to the day of the first publication and posting of notices of such hearing as hereinafter provided. Notice of the time and place fixed for such hearing shall be given by the executor or administrator by publishing the same at least once a week for three successive weeks preceding the time

§9795. Hearing—Objection to Report—Decree of Distribution—Partition. §163. Upon the date fixed for the hearing of such final report and petition for distribution, or either thereof, or any day to which such hearing may have been adjourned by the court, if the court be satisfied that the notice of the time and place of hearing has been given as provided herein, it may proceed to the hearing aforesaid. Any person interested may file objections to the said report and petition for distribution, or may appear at the time and place fixed for the hearing thereof and present his objections thereto. The court may take such testimony as to it appears proper or necessary to determine whether the estate is ready to be settled, and whether the transactions of the executor or administrator should be approved, and to determine who are the legatees or heirs or persons entitled to have the property distributed to them, and the court shall, if it approves such report, and finds the estate ready to be closed, cause to be entered a decree approving such report, find and adjudge the persons entitled to the remainder of the estate, and that all debts have been paid, and by such decree shall distribute the real and personal property to those entitled to the same. The court may, upon such final hearing, partition among the persons entitled thereto, the estate held in common and undivided, and designate and distribute their respective shares; or assign the whole or any part of said estate to one or more of the persons entitled to share therein. That the person or persons to whom said estate is assigned shall pay or secure to the other parties interested in said estate their just proportion of the value thereof as determined by the court from the appraisement, or from any other evidence which the court may require.

If it shall appear to the court at or prior to any final hearing that the estate cannot be fairly divided, then the whole or any part of said estate may be sold or mortgaged in the manner provided by law for the sale or mortgaging of property by executors or administrators and the proceeds thereof distributed to the persons entitled thereto as provided in the final decree. Upon the production of receipts from the beneficiaries or distributees for their portions of the estate, the court shall, if satisfied with the correctness thereof, adjudge the estate closed and discharge the executor or administrator.

The court shall have authority to make partition, distribution and settlement of all estates in any manner which to the court seems right and proper, to the end that such estates may be administered and distributed to the persons entitled thereto. No estate shall be partitioned, nor sale thereof made where partition is impracticable, except upon a hearing before the court and upon the testimony of at least three disinterested witnesses previously appointed by the court for the purpose of viewing such property to be partitioned or sold. The court shall fix the values of the several pieces or parcels to be partitioned at the time of making such order of partition or sale; and may order the property sold and the proceeds distributed, or may order partition and distribute the several pieces or parcels, subject to such charges or burdens as shall be proper and equitable. The provisions of this section shall be concurrent with and not in derogation of other existing statutes as to partition of property. L. '21 ch. 93.

§9794. Notice of Hearing. §162. When such final report and petition for distribution, or either, shall have been filed, the court shall fix a day for the hearing of the same, which day must be at least twenty-five days subsequent to the day of the first publication and posting of notices of such hearing as hereinafter provided. Notice of the time and place fixed for such hearing shall be given by the executor or administrator by publishing the same at least once a week for three successive weeks preceding the time fixed for such hearing, such publication to be in such paper as the court may order, and such notice shall be posted in three public places in the county at least twenty-five days preceding the time fixed for such hearing, and which shall state in substance that a final report and petition for distribution have, or either thereof has, been filed with the clerk of the court, and that the court is asked to settle such report, distribute the property to the heirs or persons entitled to the same, and discharge the executor or administrator, and it shall give the time and place fixed for the hearing of such final report and petition and shall be signed by the executor or administrator or the clerk of the court and be posted and published or caused to be posted and published as aforesaid. §9795. Hearing—Objections to Report—Decree of Distribution. §163. Upon the day fixed for the hearing of such final report and petition for distribution, or either thereof, or any day to which such hearing may have been adjourned by the court, if the court be satisfied that the notice of the time and place of hearing has been given as provided herein, it may proceed to the hearing aforesaid. Any person interested may file objections to the said report and petition for distribution, or may appear at the time and place fixed for the hearing thereof and present his objections thereto. The court may take such testimony as to it appears proper or necessary to determine whether the estate is ready to be settled, and whether the transactions of the executor or administrator should be approved, and to determine who are the legatees or heirs or persons entitled to have the property distributed to them, and the court shall, if it approves such report and find the estate ready to be closed, cause to be entered a decree approving such report, find and adjudge the persons entitled to the remainder of the estate, and that all debts have been paid, and by such decree shall distribute the real and personal property to those entitled to same, and direct the executor or administrator to deliver to the distributees their portions according to the provisions of such decree and to make return of his proceedings to the court, showing receipt by such distributees of their portions of the estate, which decree shall be final and conclusive as to all the world. Upon such return being made, the court shall, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, adjudge the estate closed and discharge the executor or administrator: Provided, however, The court may, in its discretion, distribute any property subject to any encumbrance thereon.

§9798. Agent's Bond and Compensation. §166. Such agent shall give a bond to the State of Washington, to be approved by the court, conditioned faithfully to manage and account for such estate, before he shall be authorized to receive the same, and the court appointing such agent may allow a reasonable sum out of the estate for his services and expenses.

§9799. Sale of Unclaimed Share. §167. When the estate shall have remained in the hands of the agent unclaimed for three years, it shall be sold under order of the court, and the proceeds, after deducting the expenses of the sale and allowance to the agent, to be fixed by the court, shall be paid into the county treasury. When the payment is made the agent shall take triplicate receipts, one of which he shall file with the county auditor, and another with the court.

§9800. Liability of Agent. §168. The agent shall be liable on his bond for the care and preservation of the estate while in his hands, and for the payment of the proceeds of sale as required by the preceding section, and may be sued thereon by any person interested.

§9801. Claimant for Proceeds of Sale—Escheat to State. §169. If any person shall within four years immediately following the payment of said money as aforesaid to the treasurer, appear and claim the money paid into the treasury, the court making the distribution, being first satisfied of his right, shall order the payment of such money, and, upon the presentation of a certified copy of the order to the county auditor, he shall draw his warrant on the county treasurer for the amount. If no such claim be made within the four year period last above mentioned the said money shall escheat to the state.

§9802. Receipts for Expenses and Charges to Be Filed. §170. In rendering his accounts or reports the executor or administrator shall produce receipts for the expenses and charges which he shall have paid, which receipts shall be filed and remain in court; however, he may be allowed any item of expenditure, not exceeding twenty dollars ($20.00), for which no receipt is produced, if such item be supported by his own oath, but such allowances without receipts shall not exceed the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) in any one estate.

§9803. Order for Payment of Debts. §171. The debts of the estate shall be paid in the following order:

1. Funeral expenses in such amount as the court shall order.

2. Expenses of the last sickness, in such amount as the court shall order.
3. Wages due for labor performed within sixty days immediately preceding the death of decedent.
4. Debts having preference by the laws of the United States.
5. Taxes, or any debts or dues owing to the state.
6. Judgments rendered against the deceased in his lifetime which are liens upon real estate on which executions might have been issued at the time of his death, and debts secured by mortgages in the order of their priority.
7. All other demands against the estate.

§9804. Mortgage and Judgment Preferences. §172. The preference given in the preceding section to a mortgage or judgment shall only extend to the proceeds of the property subject to the lien of such mortgage or judgment.

§9805. Allowance to Precede Payment. §173. No claim against the estate shall be paid until the same shall first have been allowed by both the executor or administrator and the court.

§9806. Payments in Case Estate Insufficient. §174. If the estate shall be insufficient to pay the debts of any class, each creditor shall be paid in proportion to his claim, and no other creditor of any lower class shall receive any payment until all those of the preceding class shall have been fully paid.

§9807. Expense of Monument Payable From Estate. §175. Executors and administrators of the estate of any deceased person are hereby authorized, by and with the consent of the court, to expend a reasonable amount out of the estate of the decedent to erect a monument or tombstone suitable to mark the grave or crypt of the said decedent, and the expense thereof shall be paid as the expenses of administration are paid.

§9808. Liability of Personal Representatives for Payment of Claims. §176. Whenever a decree shall have been made by the court for the payment of creditors, the executor or administrator shall be personally liable to each creditor for his claim or the dividend thereon, except when his inability to make the payment thereof from the property of the estate shall result without fault upon his part. The executor or administrator shall likewise be liable on his bond to each creditor.

§9809. Actions on Unpaid Claim—Actions for Contributions. §177. If, after the accounts of the executor or administrator have been settled and the property distributed, it shall appear that there is a creditor or creditors whose claim or claims have been duly filed and not paid or disallowed, the said claim or claims shall not be a lien upon any of the property distributed, but the said creditor or creditors shall have a cause of action against the executor or administrator and his bond, for such an amount as such creditor or creditors would have been entitled to receive had the said claim been duly allowed and paid, and shall also have a cause of action against the distributees and creditors for a contribution from them in proportion to the amount which they have received. If the executor or administrator or his sureties be required to make any payment in this section provided for, he or they shall have a right of action against said distributees and creditors to compel them to contribute their just share.

Distributee cannot be sued as trustee for rightful distributee, Doble v. State 95 W. 62.

§9810. Order Maturing Claim Not Due. §178. If there be any claim not due the court may in his discretion, after hearing upon such notice as may be determined by it, mature such claim and direct that the same be paid in the due course of the administration.

Claim not due or contingent shall be presented within one year, Barto v. Stewart 21 W. 605.

§9811. Contingent and Disputed Claims. §179. If there be any contingent or disputed claim against the estate, the amount thereof, or such part thereof as the holder would be entitled to, if the claim were established or absolute, shall be paid into the court, where it shall remain to be paid over to the party when he shall become entitled thereto; or if he fail to establish his claim, to be paid over or distributed as the circumstances of the case may require.

§9812. Issuance of Letters After Final Settlement. §180. A final settlement of the estate shall not prevent a subsequent issuance of letters of administration, should other property of the estate be discovered, or if it should become necessary and proper from any cause that letters should be again issued.

ADOPTION.

§9813. Who May Adopt Child. §1667. Any inhabitant of this State, not married, or any husband and wife jointly, may petition the superior court of their proper county for leave to adopt and change the name if desired, of any child under the age of twenty-one years, but a written consent must be given to such adoption by the child, if of the age of fourteen years, and by each of his or her living parents who is not hopelessly insane or a confirmed drunkard. If there be no such parents, or if the parents be unknown, or shall have abandoned such child, or if such parents, or either of them, are hopelessly insane, or a confirmed drunkard, then by the legal guardian; if there be no such guardian, then by a discreet and suitable person appointed by said court to act in the proceedings as the next friend of such child: ~~Pro-~~vided however, That if the parents are living separate and apart, the consent of both is not required, but such consent may be given by the parent having the care, custody and control of such child: And provided further, That either spouse may adopt a child of the other. §9814. Examination of Wife. §1668.—372. That, if the petition be filed by husband and wife, the court shall examine the wife separate and apart from her husband, and shall refuse leave for such adoption, unless the court shall be satisfied, from such examination that the wife of her own free will and accord desires such adoption.

§9815. Showing to Be Made. §1669.—373. That, upon the compliance with the foregoing provisions, if the court shall be satisfied of the ability of the petitioner, or petitioners, to bring up and educate the child properly, having reference to the degree and condition of the child's parents, and shall be satisfied of the fitness and propriety of such adoption, the court shall make an order setting forth the facts, and declaring that, from that date, such child, to all legal intents and purposes, is the child of the petitioner or petitioners, and that the name of the child is hereby changed.

ADVANCEMENT.

XX.—Distribution Prior to Settlement and Advancement.

§9817. Application for Premature Distribution. §181. At any time after six months from the date of the first publication of notice to creditors, any heir, legatee, or devisee, may present his petition to the court praying that the legacy or share of the estate to which he is entitled may be given to him, upon his giving bond with security for the payment of his proportion of the debts of the estate, inheritance tax, expenses of administration, support of the family, or other obligations of the estate.

§9818. Notice. §182. Notice of the application shall be given to the executor or administrator and to all persons interested in the estate in the same manner that notice is required to be given of the settlement of the final account of the executor or administrator and petition for distribution.

§9819. Resistance of Application. §183. The executor, administrator, or any person interested in the estate may appear and resist the application; or any other heir, legatee, or devisee may make a similar application for himself.

§9820. Order Setting Off Share of Estate—Bond to Secure Payment of Debts. §184. If, on the hearing of such petition or petitions, it appear to the court that the estate is but little in debt and that the shares of the parties applying may be allowed and set off to him or them without injury to the creditors of the estate, the court may make a decree establishing such petitioner or petitioners to be heirs or legatees or devisees and set off to him or them by a decree his or her portion of such estate: Provided, Each one of them shall first execute and deliver to the executor or administrator a bond in such sum as may be designated by the court, and with sureties to be approved by the court, which bond shall be conditioned for the payment by the devisee or legatee or heir, whenever required, of his portion of the debts, expenses of administration, inheritance tax, allowance to the family and other obligations of the estate.

§9821. Costs. §185. The cost of the proceedings authorized by the preceding section shall be paid by the applicant, or if there be more than one, shall be equally apportioned among them.

§9822. Enforcing Repayment by Distributee. §186. Whenever any bond has been executed and delivered under the provisions of the preceding sections and the court shall determine that it is proper and necessary to require payment of any part of the money thereby secured, he may make an order requiring the payment and direct the executor or administrator to take such proceedings as may be necessary to enforce such payments, and such executor or administrator may, if the court so order, institute suit on the said bond for the collection of such sums.

§9823. Advancements, Determination of. §187. All questions as to advancements made, or alleged to have been made, by the deceased to any heirs may be heard and determined by the court before any distribution is made as in this act provided and the same shall be specified in the decree of distribution.

APPEAL.

§9824. Appeals to Supreme Court. §221. Any interested party may appeal to the supreme court from any final order, judgment or decree of the court, and such appeals shall be in the manner and way provided by law for appeals in civil actions.

CITATIONS AND NOTICES.

II.—Notices and Citations.

§9825. Notices, Manner of Giving. §3. Whenever personal notice is required to be given to any party to a proceeding in matters of probate, and other proceedings under this act, and no other mode of giving notice is prescribed, it may be given in the manner required for the service of summons in civil actions or by citation issued from the court, signed by the clerk and under the seal of the court, directed to the sheriff of the proper county, requiring him to cite such person to appear before the court or judge, as the case may be, at a time and place to be named in such citation. In the body of the citation shall be briefly stated the nature or character of the proceedings.

§9827. Time of Service. §5. In all cases in which citations are issued from the superior court in probate and other proceedings under this act, they shall be served at least ten days before the time at which they are made returnable, except when issued from the court in cases where the law requires the judge to issue them upon his own motion, and he does so issue them; and in such cases they shall be served in sufficient time to allow the person served to be in attendance on the court.

CLAIMS.

XVI.—Claims Against Estate.

§9828. Notice to Creditors—Limitation—When Notice May Be Omitted. §107. Every executor or administrator shall, immediately after his appointment, cause to be published in some newspaper printed in the county, if there be one, if not, then in such newspaper as may be designated by the court, a notice that he has been appointed and has qualified as such executor or administrator, and therewith a notice to the creditors of the deceased, requiring all persons having claims against the deceased to serve the same on the executor or administrator or his attorney of record, and file with the clerk of the court, together with proof of such service, within six months after the date of the first publication of such notice. Such notice shall be published not less than once in each week for three successive weeks, or for such further time as the court may direct. If a claim be not filed within the time aforesaid, it shall be barred. Proof by affidavit of the publisher of the publication of such notice shall be filed with the court: Provided, however, In cases where all the property is awarded to the widow, husband or children as in this act provided, the notice to creditors herein provided for may be omitted.

§9836. When Bar of Statute Not to Run. §115. The time during which there shall be a vacancy in the administration shall not be included in any limitations herein prescribed.

§9837. Actions Pending at Death—Substitution. §116. If any action be pending against the testator or intestate at the time of his death, the plaintiff shall within ninety days after first publication of notice to creditors, serve on the executor or administrator a motion to have such executor or administrator, as such, substituted as defendant in such action, and, upon the hearing of such motion, such executor or administrator shall be so substituted, unless, at or prior to such hearing, the claim of plaintiff, together with costs, be allowed by the executor or administrator and the court. After the substitution of such executor or administrator, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the action as in other civil cases.

Applies to superior court and does not repeal §7328 relating to substitution in supreme court, Mohney v. Davis 102 W. 158.

§9838. Partial Allowance of Claim. §117. Whenever any claim shall have been filed and presented to an executor or administrator and the court, and a part thereof shall be allowed, the amount of such allowance shall be stated in the indorsement. If the creditor shall refuse to accept the amount so allowed in satisfaction of his claim, he shall recover no costs in any action he may bring against the executor or administrator, unless he shall recover a greater amount than that offered to be allowed, exclusive of interest and costs.

In action for conversion judgment to be satisfied as other claims, Collins v. Denny Clay Co. 41 W. 136.

§9840. Judgment Against Decedent to Be Presented as Claim. §119. When any judgment has been rendered against the testator or intestate in his lifetime, no execution shall issue thereon after his death, but it shall be presented to the executor or administrator, as any other claim, but need not be supported by the affidavit of the claimant, and if justly due and unsatisfied, shall be paid in due course of administration: Provided, however, That if it be a lien on any property of the deceased, the same may be sold for the satisfaction thereof, and the officer making the sale shall account to the executor or administrator for any surplus in his hands.

Community judgment properly filed as claim in probate of wife's estate, First Nat. Bank v. Cunningham, 72 W. 532.

§9841. Claims of Personal Representatives. §120. If the executor or administrator is himself a creditor of the testator or intestate, his claim, duly authenticated by affidavit, shall be filed and presented for allowance or rejection to the judge of the court, and its allowance by the judge shall be sufficient evidence of its correctness. This section shall apply to non-intervention and all other wills.

Court cannot pass on claim of executor nonintervention will, Schubach v. Redelsheimer 92 W. 124. claim (1890)—remedy is by action and if judge has rejected administrator's claim he must resign if he brings action, Wilkins v. Wilkins 1 W. 87.

No appeal lies from order rejecting

§9842. Resignation or Removal of Executor or Administrator—Deduction of Time. §121. In case of resignation or removal for any cause of any executor or administrator, and the appointment of another or others, after notice has been given by publication as required by law, by such executor or administrator first appointed, to persons to file their claims against the estate, it shall be the duty of the judge of the court to cause notice of such resignation or removal and such new appointment to be published two successive weeks in the same newspaper in which the original notice was published, if the publication of such paper is at the time continued, and if not, then in some other newspaper published in the county, or if there be no newspaper published in such county, then in a newspaper published in the state and of general circulation in the county, but the time between the resignation or removal and such publication shall be deducted from the time within which claims shall be filed unless such time shall have expired before such resignation or removal.

CONSTRUCTION.

This chapter, a part of Code 1881, was not repealed by Probate Code 1917. at §1351. §9776.

§9843. Act Is Continuation of Former Laws. §1681.—385. The provisions of this act, so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutes, must be construed as continuations thereof, and not as new enactments.

§9844. Former Laws Repealed. §1684.—388. No statute, law, or rule is continued in force because it is consistent with the provisions of this act on the same subject; but in all cases provided for by this act, all statutes, laws and rules heretofore in force in this state, whether consistent or not with the provisions of this act, unless expressly continued in force by it, are repealed, and abrogated.

§9845. Repeal Does Not Revive Former Law. §1685.—389. This repeal, or abrogation does not revive any former law heretofore repealed, nor does it affect any right already existing or accrued, or any action or proceeding already taken, except as in this act provided, nor does it affect any private statute not expressly repealed.

§9846. Act Shall Be Liberally Construed. §1686.—390. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed, and shall not be limited by any rule of strict construction.

DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION.

Supplementary—AN ACT to regulate the descent of real estate and the distribution of personal property. Approved December 1, 1881. General Repeal. C81 §§3302-17.

§9847. Descent of Realty. §3302.—1. When any person shall die seized of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any right thereto, or entitled to any interest therein, in fee simple, or for the life of another, not having devised the same, they shall descend subject to debts as follows:

First—If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife and only one child, or the lawful issue of one child, in equal shares to the surviving husband, or wife and child, or issue of such child. If the decedent leaves a ~~surviving~~ husband or wife, and more than one child living or one child living, and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, one-third to the surviving husband or wife, and the remainder in equal shares to his children and to the lawful issue of any deceased child by right of representation. If there be no child of the decedent living at his death, the remainder goes to all of his lineal descendants; and if all the descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the decedent, they share equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation.

Second—If the decedent leaves no issue, the estate goes in equal shares to the surviving husband or wife, and to the decedent's father and mother, if both survive. If there be no father nor mother, then one-half goes in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent and to the children of any deceased brothers or sisters, by right of representation. If decedent leaves no issue, nor husband, nor wife, the estate must go to his father and mother.

Third—If there be no issue, nor husband nor wife, nor father and mother, nor either, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent, and to the children of any deceased brother or sister, by right of representation.

Fourth—If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife and no issue, and no father nor mother, nor brother, nor sister, the whole estate goes to the surviving husband or wife.

Fifth—If the decedent leaves no issue, nor husband, nor wife, and no father nor mother, nor brother nor sister, the estate must go to the next of kin, in equal degree, excepting that when there are two or more collateral kindred in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claimed through the nearest ancestor must be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor more remote, however.

Sixth—If the decedent leaves several children or one child and the issue of one or more other children, and any such surviving child dies under age, and not having been married, all the estate that comes to the deceased child by inheritance from such decedent, descends in equal shares to the other children of the same parent, and to the issue of any such other children who are dead, by right of representation.

Seventh—If at the death of such child, who dies under age, not having been married, all the other children of his parents are also dead, and any of them have left issue, the estate that came to such child by inheritance from his parent, descends to the issue of all other children of the same parent; and if all the issue are in the same degree of kindred to the child, they share the estate equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation.

Eighth—If the decedent leaves no husband, wife or kindred, the estate escheats to the state, for the support of common schools, in the county in which the decedent resided during lifetime, or where the estate may be situated.

AN ACT relating to the descent of property. Approved March 22, 1919. L. '19 ch 197.

§9847-1. Spouse Grantee or Devisee Without Heirs Estate Reverts. §1. If a person die leaving a surviving spouse and issue by a former spouse and leaving a will whereby all or substantially all the deceased's property passes to the surviving spouse or having before death conveyed all or substantially all his or her property to the surviving spouse, and afterwards the latter die without heirs and without disposing of his or her property by will so that except for this act the same would all escheat, the issue of the spouse first deceased shall take and inherit from the spouse last deceased the property so acquired by will or conveyance or the equivalent thereof in money or other property.

§9847-3. Escheat, When. §3. Except as provided in section one, if a person die intestate leaving no husband or wife or descendant or parent or ancestor, and no descendant of a parent or of a parent's parent, his estate shall escheat to the state for the support of the common schools.

§9848. Descent of Community Property. §3303.—2. Upon the death of either husband or wife, one-half of the community property shall go to the survivor, subject to the community debts, and the other half shall be subject to the testamentary disposition of the deceased husband or wife, subject also to the community debts. In case no testamentary disposition shall have been made by the deceased husband or wife of his or her half of the community property it shall descend equally to the legitimate issue of his, her or their bodies. If there be no issue of said deceased living or none of their representatives living, then the said community property shall all pass to the survivors, to the exclusion of collateral heirs, subject to the community debts the family allowance and the charges and expenses of administration.

§9852. How Kinship Computed. §3307.—6. The degree of kindred shall be computed according to the rules of the civil law, and the kindred of the half blood shall inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree.

§9853. When Advancements Considered Part of Estate. §3308.—7. Any estate, real or personal that may have been given by the intestate in his lifetime as an advancement to any child or other lineal descent, shall be considered a part of the intestate's estate so far as regards the division and distribution thereof among his issue, and shall be taken by such child or other descendant, toward his share of the intestate's estate.

Debt due the estate by devisee may be set off against realty Boyer v. Robinson 26 W. 117. Money furnished son-in-law not considered an advancement, Girault v. Hotelling Co. 7 W. 90.

§9854. No Contribution if Advancement Greater Than Proper Share. §3309.—8. If the amount of such advancement there exceed the share of the heir so advanced, he shall be excluded from any further portion in the division and distribution of the estate, but he shall not be required to refund any part of such advancement, and if the amount so received shall be less than his share, he shall be entitled to so much more as will give him his full share of the estate of the deceased.

§9855. Realty and Personalty Considered Together. §3310.—9. If any such advancement shall have been made in real estate, the value thereof shall, for the purposes of the preceding section, be considered as part of the real estate to be divided, and if it be in personal estate, and if in either case it shall exceed the share of real or personal estate respectively, that would have come to the heir so advanced, he shall not refund any part of it, but shall receive so much less out of the other part of the estate as will make the whole share equal to those of the other heirs who are in the same degree with him.

§9856. Test of Advancement. §3311.—10. All gifts and grants shall be deemed to have been made in advancement, if expressed in the gift or grant to be so made, or if charged in writing by the intestate as an advancement, or acknowledged in writing as such by the child or other descendant.

§9857. How Valuation of Advancement Made. §3312.—11. If the value of the estate so advanced shall be expressed in the conveyance, or in the charge thereof made by the intestate, or in the acknowledgment by the party receiving it, it shall be considered of that value in the division and distribution of the estate, otherwise it shall be estimated at its value when given.

§9858. Advancement Chargeable to Heir of Heir. §3313.—12. If any child or lineal descendant so advanced, shall die before the intestate, leaving issue, the advancement shall be taken into consideration in the division and distribution of estate, and the amount thereof shall be allowed accordingly by the representatives of the heir so advanced, as so much received towards their share of the estate in like manner as if the advancement had been made directly to them.

§9859. "Issue" and "Real Estate" Defined. §3314.—13. The word "issue," as used in this act, includes all the lawful lineal descendants of the ancestor, and the words "real estate," include all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and all rights thereto, and all interests therein possessed and claimed in fee simple, or for the life of a third person.

§9860. Succession by Representation. §3315.—14. Inheritance or succession by right of representation takes place when the descendants of any deceased heir take the same share or right in the estate of another that their parent would have taken if living. Posthumous children are considered as living at the death of their parent.

DISTRIBUTION OF PERSONALTY.

§9861. Distribution of Personalty. §3316.—15. When any person shall die possessed of any separate personal estate, or of any right or interest therein not lawfully disposed of by his last will, the same shall be applied and distributed as follows:

(1) The widow, if any, shall be allowed all articles of her apparel or ornament, according to the degree and estate of her husband, and such provisions and other necessities for the use of herself and family under her care, as shall be allowed and ordered in pursuance of the provisions of any law; and this allowance shall be made as well when the widow receives the provision made for her in the will of her husband as when he dies intestate.

(2) The personal estate remaining after such allowance, shall be applied to the payment of the debts of the deceased, with the charges for the funeral and the settling of the estate.

(3) The residue, if any, of the personal estate, shall be distributed among the same persons as would be entitled to the real estate by this act, and in the same proportion as provided, excepting as herein further provided.

(4) If the intestate leave a husband and issue, the husband shall be entitled to one-half the residue.

(5) If there be no issue, the husband shall be entitled to the whole of the residue.

(6) If the intestate leave a widow and issue, the widow shall be entitled to one-half of said residue.

(7) If there be no issue the widow shall be entitled to the whole of the residue.

(8) If there be no husband, widow or kindred of the intestate, the said personal estate shall escheat to the state, for the use of common schools in the particular county in which the intestate shall have resided at time of death.

§9863. Realty Descends Directly to Heir. §1. When a person dies seized of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any right thereto or entitled to any interest therein in fee or for the life of another, his title shall vest immediately in his heirs or devisees, subject to his debts, family allowance expenses of administration and any other charges for which such real estate is liable under existing laws. No administration of the estate of such decedent, and no decree of distribution or other finding or order of any court shall be necessary in any case to vest such title in the heirs or devisees, but the same shall vest in the heirs or devisees instantly upon the death of such decedent: Provided, That no person shall be deemed a devisee until the will has been probated. The title and right to possession of such lands, tenements or hereditaments so vested in such heirs or devisees, together with the rents issues and profits thereof, shall be good and valid against all persons claiming adversely to the claims of any such heirs, or devisees, excepting only the executor or administrator when appointed and persons lawfully claiming under such executor or administrator; and any one or more of such heirs or devisees, or their grantees, jointly or severally, may sue for and recover their respective shares or interests in any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments and the rents, issues and profits thereof, whether letters testamentary or of administration be granted or not, from any person except the executor or administrator and those lawfully claiming under such executor, or administrator.

DRUNKARDS.

§9869. Drunkard Squandering His Property. §1671. Any person may make complaint of any person addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, to the superior judge in the county wherein such person so addicted resides, that the person complained of is a habitual drunkard, and that in consequence thereof such person is squandering his or her earnings or property, or that he or she neglects his or her business, or that such person abuses or maltreats his or her family,—which complaint must be verified by the oath of the complainant to the effect that the same is true. L. '81 14.

§9870. Judgment of Drunkenness. §1673. Any person addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors may, upon complaint thereof, or upon certificate of a justice of the peace as hereinafter provided, be adjudged a habitual drunkard.

§9871. Relative May Make Complaint. §1674. Either the father, husband, mother, wife, son or daughter of any person addicted to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, or any person in the interest of the relative aggrieved or of the general public may ~~make~~ complaint to the superior judge of the county, wherein such person, so addicted resides, that the person complained of is a habitual drunkard, and that, in consequence thereof, such person is squandering his earnings or property, or that he neglects his business or that he abuses or maltreats his family, which complaint must be verified by the oath of the complainant to the effect that the same is true. And every justice of the peace in whose court any person shall have been convicted twice on a charge of being drunk, or drunk and disorderly, shall certify to the superior judge of the county in which he resides, that said person has thus twice been convicted. L. '83 32.

§9872. Service. §1672. Upon filing of the complaint, duly verified, the superior judge shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the accused forthwith and shall summon him to appear and answer, giving at least ten days' notice, and if upon the hearing of the evidence, the allegations of the complaint are sustained, or upon filing a certificate of a justice of the peace as above provided, such judge shall, in open court, declare the accused to be a habitual drunkard, and shall cause the proceeding to be entered in full upon the records of the court. L. '83 32.

§9873. Costs—When Complainant to Pay. §1673. The same fees shall be allowed to the superior judge, justice of the peace, and the sheriff or constable, in all proceedings under the foregoing section of this act, as is allowed by law for like processes and services, and like fees for witnesses as in civil cases before justice of the peace; and if the complaint is not sustained, the person making the complaint shall pay the costs; and in case the complaint is sustained, the person accused shall pay the costs. '83 32.

§9875. Action for Injury By Sale of Liquor. §1675.—379. Any person who shall be injured in person or property or means of support, by any habitual drunkard, as defined by this act, while in a state of intoxication, or in consequence of such intoxication, shall have a right of action in his or her own name, severally or jointly, against any person or persons who shall, by selling or giving intoxicating liquors to such habitual drunkards, have caused his intoxication in whole or in part, and such person selling or giving such intoxicating liquors as aforesaid, shall be liable severally or jointly for all damages sustained, and the same may be recovered in a civil action. A married woman may bring such action in her own name, and all damages recovered by her shall inure to her separate use, and all damages recovered by a minor under this act, shall be paid either to such minor or to such person in trust for him or her, as the court may direct.

§9876a. Vacation of Judgment of Drunkenness. §1677.—381. Any person so declared to be an habitual drunkard may, at any time after the expiration of two years from the time he was so declared to be such, by petition addressed to the judge of the court in which he was so adjudged, have a hearing in such court, upon a day which shall be by such court set, which day shall not be more than ten days after the filing of such petition in such court, which petition may contain a statement of facts tending to show the improved condition and habits of such petitioner and to establish his character for sobriety, and a prayer that the order on record so declaring him to be such habitual drunkard be vacated and he be released from the effects thereof; which petition shall be duly verified by the petitioner. And if upon the hearing of such petition and the evidence in support thereof it appear to the judge that such petitioner is entitled to have such record vacated and ~~he so released~~, then he shall make an order so declaring that such record be vacated and annulled and that the petitioner be thereafter released from the effects thereof. L. '81 14.

ESCHEATS.

AN ACT relating to escheats. Approved March 12 1907. Laws '07 p 253.

§9877. Property Escheats to State. §1. Whenever any person possessed of any property within this state shall die intestate leaving no heirs, such property shall escheat to, and the title thereto immediately vest in the State of Washington, subject, however, to existing liens thereon, the payments of decedent's debts, and the expenses of administration.

§9878. Administration. §2. Such estates shall be administered and settled in the same manner as other estates. If at the expiration of eighteen months after the issuance of letters of administration, no heirs shall have appeared and established their claim thereto, the court having jurisdiction of such estate shall render a decree escheating all the property and effects of such decedent to the State of Washington.

§9879. Personal Property. §3. After any estate shall have been escheated as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the administrator thereof, under the supervision and direction of the court, to sell all the personal property, such sales to be made in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem to the best advantage to the estate. The proceeds of such personal property shall be first exhausted before any real property shall be subjected to the debts of decedent, expenses of administration, or the satisfaction of liens thereon.

§9880. Powers in Tax Commission. §4. The State Board of Tax Commissioners shall have supervision of all matters relating to escheats. Whenever the said Board shall have information that any person possessed of property within this State has died intestate and without known heirs, said Board, or any member thereof, may apply to the court for the appointment of an administrator, or take such other steps as it may deem proper. No sale of any property of such estate, except perishable goods or settlement of any final account, shall be made or be valid until after fifteen days notice thereof in writing and shall have been first served upon the said Board of Tax Commissioners. Said Board, or any member thereof, may demand of any administrator, other officer or person having charge of or being in possession of such estate or property, or any portion thereof, and it shall be the duty of such officer or person to furnish said Board, or any member thereof, any information or copies of any papers, vouchers, claims or reports in his possession, relating thereto, and failure or refusal so to do shall be cause for his removal by the court.

§9881. Account of Administrator. §5. Upon the settlement of any escheated estate, and before the discharge of the administrator, officer or person in charge thereof, all moneys in his hands shall be paid to the State Treasurer who shall issue his receipt therefor in duplicate, one of which shall be filed with the State Board of Tax Commissioners, and he shall prepare a duplicate list accurately describing all real property so escheated, one of which shall be filed with the said State Board of Tax Commissioners and one in the office of the Commissioner of Public Lands.

§9882. Record of Tax Commission. §6. The State Board of Tax Commissioners shall keep a record in which shall be entered memoranda of all matters and proceedings in relation to escheats, and in which shall be entered a description of all real property escheated, and they shall also keep an account of all moneys collected and paid into the State Treasury under the provisions of this act.

§9883. Belong to School Fund. §7. All escheats shall inure to and become a part of the permanent common school fund of the state and all escheated real property shall be managed, sold and handled in the manner provided by law for the management, disposition and sale of the State common school lands.

§9884. Attorney General. §8. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General and of the several county attorneys of the State to advise and assist the said State Board of Tax Commissioners in any and all of the matters and proceedings that may be had under the provisions of this act.

Partition will not lie within one year against executrix nonintervention will, Bishop v. Locke 92 W. 90.

This section not repealed by §9863 providing for direct descent, Gibson v. Slater 42 W. 347.

W. 192.

Estate does not vest in executor to create relation of debtor and creditor between him and distributee—court may compel distribution—executor cannot offset personal claim against distributee, McLaughlin v. Barnes 12 W. 373.

Administrator substituted for deceased in actions as trustee, and held not accountable to estate, In re Belt's Estate 29 W. 535.

If unauthorized person has collected debts remedy is still against original debtor and personal property may be followed, McCoy v. Ayres 2 W. T. 307.

§9886. Actions for Recovery of Property and on Contract. §148. Actions for the recovery of any property or for the possession thereof, and all actions founded upon contracts, may be maintained by and against executors and administrators in all cases in which the same might have been maintained by and against their respective testators or intestates.

executor of principal guarantor will not discharge surety, id.

Action by and against executors, §7961.

§9887. Waste, Conversion and Trespass. §149. Executors and administrators may maintain actions against any person who shall have wasted, destroyed, taken, carried away, or converted to his own use the goods of their testator or intestate in his lifetime; also may maintain actions for trespass committed on the estate of the deceased during his lifetime.

A railroad fill upon a street to the damage of an abutting owner is a trespass, for

§9888. Actions on Torts of Decedent. §150. Any person, or his personal representatives, shall have an action against the executor or administrator of any estate or intestate who in his lifetime shall have wasted, destroyed, taken, or carried away, or converted to his own use, the goods and chattels of any such person, or committed any trespass on the real estate of such person.

§9889. Actions on Bonds of Prior Executor or Administrator. §151. Any administrator may in his own name, for the benefit of all parties interested in the estate, maintain actions on the bond of an executor or of any former administrator of the same estate.

§9890. Compromise of Claims. §152. The court shall have power to authorize the executor or administrator to compromise and compound any claims, owing the estate.

without authority of court, Denney v. Parker 10 W. 218.

§9891. Recovery of Decedent's Fraudulent Conveyances. §153. When there shall be a deficiency of assets in the hands of an executor or administrator, and when the deceased shall in his lifetime have conveyed any real estate, or any rights, or interest therein, with intent to defraud his creditors or to avoid any right, duty or debt of any person, or shall have so conveyed such estate, which deeds or conveyances by law are void as against creditors the executor or administrator may, and it shall be his duty to, commence and prosecute to final judgment any proper action for the recovery of the same, and may recover for the benefit of the creditors all such real estate so fraudulently conveyed, and may also, for the benefit of the creditors, sue and recover all goods, chattels, rights and credits which may have been so fraudulently conveyed by the deceased in his lifetime, whatever may have been the manner of such fraudulent conveyance.

Widow has no interest in action as an heir, although the property conveyed was community personalty, Daniels v. Spear, 65 W. 121. Rights of executor are same as though the creditors were prosecuting the action against the fraudulent transferee during the lifetime of the deceased, Daniels v. Spear, 65 W. 121.

XI.—Qualifications of Executors and Administrators.

§9892. Persons Disqualified—Trust Companies and National Banks—Non-residents. §87. The following persons are not qualified to act as executors or administrators. Corporations, non-residents of this state, minors, persons of unsound mind, or who have been convicted of any felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; Provided, That trust companies regularly organized under the laws of this state and national banks when authorized so to do may act as administrators or guardians of the estate of minors or other incompetents upon petition of any person having a preference right to such appointment and may act as executors or guardians when so appointed by will. But no trust company or national bank shall be entitled to qualify as such executor or guardian under any will hereafter drawn by it, or its agents or employees, and no salaried attorney of any such company shall be allowed any attorney fee for probating any such will, or in relation to the administration or settlement of any such estate, and no part of any attorney fee shall inure, directly or indirectly, to the benefit of any trust company or national bank. And when any person to whom letters testamentary or of administration have been issued becomes disqualified to act because of leaving the state, becoming of unsound mind, or being convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, the court having jurisdiction shall revoke his or her letters: Provided, A person named as executor in any last will and testament may be appointed to act as such executor whether he be a resident of this state or not: Provided, further, That such non-resident executor shall file a bond to be approved by the court and appoint an agent or attorney in the county where such estate is being probated, upon whom service of all papers may be made; such appointment to be in writing and filed by the clerk with other papers of such estate.

FAMILY, SUPPORT OF.

XV.—Provisions for the Support of the Family.

§9893. Provisions in Lieu of Homestead and Exemptions. §103. If it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that no homestead has been claimed in the manner provided by law, either prior or subsequent to the death of the person whose estate is being administered, then the court, upon such notice as may be determined by the court, upon being satisfied that the funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration have been paid or provided for, and upon petition for that purpose, shall award and set off to the surviving spouse, if any, property of the estate, either community or separate, not exceeding the value of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), exclusive of any mortgage or mechanic's, laborer's or materialmen's or vendor's liens upon the property so set off, which property so set off shall include the home and household goods, if any, and such award shall be made by an order or judgment of the court and shall vest the absolute title, and thereafter there shall be no further administration upon such portion of the estate so set off, but the remainder of the estate shall be settled as other estates. The order or judgment of the court making the award or awards provided for in this section shall be conclusive and final, except on appeal and except for fraud. The awards in this section provided shall be in lieu of all homestead provisions of the law and of exemptions.

Husband allowed the benefit of this section, In re Murphy's Estate 30 W. 9.

If homestead is separate property title does not descend as above directed, Austin v. Clifford 24 W. 172.

§9894. Homestead—Provision Additional to Homestead—Awards from Separate Property. §104. In event a homestead has been, or shall be selected in the manner provided by law, whether the selection of such homestead result in vesting the complete or partial title in the survivor, it shall be the duty of the court, upon petition of any person interested, and upon being satisfied that the value thereof does not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), exclusive of mortgages, mechanic's, laborer's, materialmen's or vendor's liens thereon, to enter a decree, upon such notice as the court may determine, setting off and awarding such homestead to the survivor, thereby vesting the title thereto in fee simple in the survivor. In addition thereto, the court, upon being satisfied that the funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration have been paid or provided for, shall set off and award to such survivor, other property, either separate or community, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) in value, exclusive of all such liens. If the value of the homestead, exclusive of all such liens, be less than two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), the court shall set off and award additional property, either separate or community, in lieu of such deficiency, so that the value of the homestead, exclusive of all such liens, when added to the value of the other property awarded, exclusive of all such liens, shall equal three thousand dollars ($3,000.00). Said decree shall particularly describe the said homestead and other property so awarded, and such homestead and other property so awarded shall not be subject to further administration, and such decree shall be conclusive and final, except on appeal, and except for fraud, and such awards shall be in lieu of all further homestead rights and of all exemptions: Provided, That the awards in this and the next preceding section provided for, shall not be taken from separate property of the deceased, which is otherwise disposed of by will, where there is no minor child living as the issue of the surviving spouse and the deceased.

§9895. Provision for Minor Children. §105. If there be no surviving spouse, the court shall award and set aside to the minor child or children, if any, and in such proportions as he considers proper, property of the estate as the court may consider necessary for the care and support of said minor or minors until they become of legal age, not exceeding in value the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00).

§9896. Further Allowance for Maintenance. §106. In addition to the awards herein provided for, the court may make such further reasonable allowance of cash out of the estate as may be necessary for the maintenance of the family according to their circumstances, during the progress of the settlement of the estate, and any such allowance shall be paid by the executor or administrator in preference to all other charges, except funeral charges, expenses of last sickness and expenses of administration.

GUARDIANS.

XXII.—Appointment of Guardians for Minors, Insane and Mentally Incompetent Persons.

§9897. Authority to Appoint Guardians. §195. The superior court of each county shall have power to appoint guardians for the persons and estates, or either thereof, of minors, insane and mentally incompetent persons resident of the county, and guardians for the estates of all such persons who are non-residents of the state but who have property in such county needing care and attention.

Vaughn* 95 W. 256.      ment of special counsel unwarranted—expenses of guardian, In re Bayer 80 W. 340.      Appearance by ward having attained majority at final accounting and discharge of guardian dispenses with guardian ad litem—conveyances, Meeker v. Meeker 50 W. 473.

§9905. Oath and Bond of Guardian—Successive Recoveries on Bond. §203. Before letters of guardianship are issued, each guardian shall take and subscribe an oath and file a bond, with sureties to be approved by the court, payable to the State of Washington, in such sum as the court may fix, and such bond shall be conditioned substantially as follows: The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bound A. B., who has been appointed guardian for C. D., shall faithfully discharge the office and trust of such guardian according to law and shall render a fair and just account of his guardianship to the superior court for the county of _____, from time to time as he shall thereto be required by such court, and comply with all orders of the court, lawfully made, relative to the goods, chattels, moneys, care, management and education of such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, or his or her property, and render and pay to such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person all moneys, goods, chattels, title papers and effects which may come into the hands or possession of such guardian, at such time and in such manner as the court may order or adjudge, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and effect. The said bond shall be for the use of such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, and shall not become void upon the first recovery, but may be put in suit from time to time against all or any one of the obligors, in the name and for the use and benefit of any person entitled by the breach thereof, until the whole penalty shall be recovered thereon. The court may require an additional bond whenever for any reason it may appear to the court that such additional bond should be given.

Bond by guardian is jurisdictional under prior law—sale void, Vanhorn v. Nestoss 90 W. 228.      Provisions mentioned applied to guardian's bond, Newberg v. Wilkinson, 190 Fed. 62; affirmed 199 Fed. 673.

§9907. Inventory—Accounts—Final Accounting—Payment and Collection of Debts—Education of Ward. §205. It shall be the duty of the guardian of any estate:

1. To make out and file, within three months after his appointment, a full inventory, verified by oath, of the real and personal estate of his ward, with the value of the same, and failing so to do, it shall be the duty of the court to remove him and appoint a successor.

2. To manage the estate for the best interest of his ward.

3. To render on oath to the proper court an account of his receipts and of his expenditures, with vouchers therefor, at least once in every two years, and whenever cited to do so, and failing so to do, he shall receive no allowances for services, and be liable to said ward on his bond in damages for ten per cent. of the whole amount of the estate, both real and personal in his hands belonging to such ward.

4. At the expiration of his trust fully to account for and pay over to the proper person all the estate of said ward remaining in his hands.

5. To pay all just debts due from such ward out of the estate in his hands, and to collect all debts and demands due such ward, and in case of doubtful debts, to compound the same, and to appear for and defend, or cause to be defended, all suits against such ward.

6. When any ward has no father or mother, or such father or mother is unable or fails to educate such ward, it shall be the duty of his guardian to provide for him such education as the amount of his estate may justify.

§9909. No Action Unless Claim Rejected. §207. No holder of a claim, demand or judgment against an estate of a person under guardianship shall maintain an action thereon or enforce same, unless the claim, demand or judgment shall have been first presented to such guardian and by him rejected in whole or in part. A failure or neglect to allow a claim for thirty days after the same is presented shall be deemed a rejection thereof.

§9910. Judgments, Except Foreclosures, Rank as Claims. §208. No judgment entered against such guardian or the estate or person of any such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, except for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien, shall be a lien against or upon the estate of such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, but such judgment shall be presented and paid as other claims of the same class or grade.

Judgment may be obtained against insane surety on attachment bond without a hearing and his property sold on execution—the proceedings not subject to collateral attack, Pollock v. Horn 13 W. 626.

§9911. Removal or Death of Guardians—Delivery of Estate to Successors. §209. The court in all cases shall have power to remove guardians for good and sufficient reasons, which shall be entered of record, and to appoint others in their place or in the place of those who may die, who shall give bond and security for the faithful discharge of their duties as heretofore prescribed; and when any guardian shall be removed or die, and a successor be appointed, the court shall have power to compel such guardian removed to deliver up to such successor all goods, chattels, moneys, title papers, or other effects belonging to such minor, insane or mentally incompetent person, which may be in the possession of such guardian so removed, or of the executors or administrators of a deceased guardian, or in the possession of any other person or persons, and upon failure, to commit the party offending to prison, until he, she, or they comply with the order of the court.

§9914. Sale, Lease or Mortgage of Property. §212. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of a court by the petition of any guardian, that it is necessary or proper to sell, lease or mortgage any of the real or personal property of the estate of such ward for the purpose of paying debts or for the care, support and education of such ward, or to redeem any property of such ward's estate covered by mortgage or other lien, or for the purpose of making any investments, or for any other purpose which to the court may seem right and proper, the court may make an order directing such sale, lease or mortgage of such part or parts of the real or personal property as shall to the court seem proper.

A transfer of infant's interest for the purpose of making a mortgage is void though the transaction is fair, Dormitzer v. German Savings etc. Society 23 W. 132. Bond is mandatory though will may dispense with it, Hatch v. Ferguson 57 Fed. Rep. 966; affirmed (C. C. A.) 68 id. 43.

§9915. Petition. §213. Such application shall be by petition, verified by the oath of the guardian, and shall substantially set forth:

1. The value and character of all personal estate belonging to such ward that has come to the knowledge or possession of such guardian.
2. The disposition of such personal estate.
3. The amount and condition of the ward's personal estate, if any, dependent upon the settlement of any estate, or the execution of any trust.
4. The annual income of the real estate of the ward.
5. The amount of rent received and the application thereof.
6. The proposed manner of reinvesting the proceeds of the sale, if asked for that purpose.
7. Each item of indebtedness, or the amount and character of the lien, if the sale is prayed for the liquidation thereof.
8. The age of the ward, where and with whom residing.
9. All other facts connected with the estate and condition of the ward necessary to enable the court to fully understand the same. If there is no personal estate belonging to such ward, in possession or expectancy, and none has come into the hands of such guardian, and no rents have been received, the fact shall be stated in the application.

§9916. Law Governing Sales and Mortgages by Executors Appointed—Leases. §214. All the provisions of this act with reference to applications by administrators or executors for sales and mortgages by them, and notices concerning same, and all provisions of this act with reference to the report of such administrator or executor of sales and mortgages, and the confirmation thereof, shall be applicable to sales and mortgages made by any guardian mentioned in this act, but the court may order leases to be made upon such terms, conditions and notices as it may see fit. The provisions of [§9950] §64 hereof shall not be applicable to guardianships.

§9917. Sales Not Avoided by Irregularities—Conclusiveness of Confirmation. §215. No sale by any guardian of real or personal property shall be void or be set aside or be attacked because of any irregularities whatsoever, and none of the steps leading up to such sale or the confirmation thereof shall be jurisdictional, and the confirmation by the court of any such sale shall be conclusive as to the regularity and legality of such sale or sales, and the passing of title after confirmation by the court shall vest an absolute title in the purchaser, and such instruments of transfer may not be attacked for any purpose or any reason, except for fraud.

Act has no retroactive effect and prior sale by guardian without bond void, Vanhorn v. Nestoss 99 W. 328. Does not cure prior sale by guardian without bond, Vanhorn v. Nestoss 99 W. 328.

§9818. Compensation and Expenses. §216. Every guardian shall be allowed by the court, on settling his accounts, the amount of all reasonable expenses incurred in the execution of his trust, and also such compensation for his services and the services of his attorney, as the court shall deem reasonable.

§9919. Removal of Property of Non-resident Ward. §217. When the guardian and ward are both non-residents, and the ward is entitled to property in this state, which may be moved to another state or territory, such property may be removed to the state or territory in which such ward may reside, upon the application of the guardian to the judge of the superior court of the county in which the estate of the ward, or the principal part thereof, may be, in the manner following: The guardian so applying must produce a transcript from the records of a court of competent jurisdiction, certified according to the laws of this state, showing his appointment as guardian of the ward in the state or territory in which he and the said ward reside, that he has qualified as such according to the laws thereof; and must also give thirty days' notice to the resident executor, administrator, guardian, agent or trustee, if there be such, of the applications. Thereupon, if no objection be made, or if no good cause be shown to the contrary, the judge of the court shall make an order granting such guardian leave to remove the property of said ward to the state or territory in which he or she may reside; which order shall be full and complete authority to said guardian to sue for and receive the same in his own name, for the use and benefit of said ward.

Removal of infant's property from the state, §9919. This act by implication repeals former law—sale of property is authorized, Coleman v. Cravens 41 W. 1.

§9920. Guardian's Notice to Creditors of Ward—Limitation of Claims. §218. Every guardian for any insane or mentally incompetent person shall, after appointment and qualification, cause notice of his appointment to be published in some newspaper printed in the county of his appointment, once a week for three consecutive weeks, and if there be no such paper published in such county, then by posting such notice for a like period at the courthouse of such county. The court by order may require such notice to be published or posted for an additional period. Such notice shall further call upon all creditors to serve their claims, duly verified, on such guardian or his attorney of record, and file with the clerk of the court, with proof of service, within six months from the date of the first publication of such notice, otherwise such claims shall be barred.

Claim not barred after three months as in estates, Clough v. Monroe 86 W. 507.

INVENTORY.

XIV.—The Inventory and Effects of Deceased Persons.

§9921. Inventory—Appraisers. §95. Every executor or administrator shall make and return, upon oath, into the court, within one month after his appointment, a true inventory of all of the property of the estate which shall have come into his hands, and within thirty days after filing such inventory he shall make application to the court to appoint three disinterested persons to appraise the property so inventoried, and it shall be the duty of the court to appoint such appraisers. Such appraisers shall receive as compensation for their services each the sum of three ($3.00) per day and mileage. If any part of the estate shall be in another county than that in which letters are issued, appraisers residing in such county may be appointed by the court having jurisdiction of the case, or, if most advisable, the same appraisers may act: Provided, that the court may appoint persons to appraise the estate at the time, or any time after the appointment of the administrator; And provided further, that where it is shown by the filing of such inventory, or other proof, to the satisfaction of the court, that the whole estate consists of personal property of less value than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) exclusive of moneys, drafts, checks, bonds, or other securities of fixed value, an appraisement may be dispensed with in the discretion of the court. Does not apply where one comes into possession under claim of ownership, Jackson v. Lamar, 67 W. 385.

This section is not repealed by §9863 providing for direct descent to heirs—administrator of wife's estate may recover of husband, Gibson v. Slater 42 W. 347.

Administrator has no right without authority of the court to make substantial improvements, but where it is done by consent of all parties allowance may be made, In re Alfstad's Estate 27 W. 175.

Administrator is liable for use and occupation, Id.

Administrator has right to possession of realty until heirs are determined and distribution made (1890), Hanford v. Davies 1 W. 477; see §9863 and notes.

Devisee or heir cannot maintain ejectment (1892), Dunn v. Peterson 4 W. 170; Balch v. Smith Id. 497; see §9863 and notes.

Administrator may reclaim his own property improperly included in inventory, Filley v. Murphy 30 W. 1.

§9922. Oath and Duties of Appraisers. §96. Before proceeding to the discharge of their duties the appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, to be attached to the inventory, that they will honestly and impartially appraise the property which shall be exhibited to them, according to the best of their knowledge and ability; they shall proceed to estimate and appraise the property, and set down each article separately, with the value thereof in dollars and cents, in figures, opposite the respective articles: Provided, however, Household articles need not be separately mentioned. The inventory shall contain all the estate of the deceased, real and personal, a statement of all credits, partnership and other interests, bonds, mortgages, notes, moneys, and other securities for the payment of money belonging to the deceased, specifying the name of the debtor in each security, the date, the sum originally payable, the indorsements thereon, if any, and their dates, and the sum which, in the judgment of the appraisers, may be collectible on each debt, interest or security.

§9923. Claims Against Personal Representatives Not Discharged by Appointment. §97. The naming of any person as executor in a will, or the appointment of any person as administrator, shall not operate as a discharge from any just claim which the testator or intestate had against the executor or administrator, but the claim shall be included in the inventory and the executor and administrator shall be liable to the same extent as he would have been had he not been appointed executor or administrator.

§9924. Discharge of Testator's Claim Construed Specific Bequest. §98. The discharge or bequest in a will of any debt or demand of the testator against any executor named in his will or against any person shall not be valid against the creditors of the deceased, but shall be construed as a specific bequest of such debt or demand, and the amount thereof shall be included in the inventory, and shall, if necessary, be applied in payment of his debts; if not necessary for that purpose, it shall be paid in the same manner and proportions as other specific legacies.

§9925. Failure to Return Inventory Ground for Revoking Letters. §99. If any executor or administrator shall neglect or refuse to return the inventory within the period prescribed, or within such further time, not exceeding three months, as the court may allow, the court may revoke the letters testamentary or of administration; and the executor or administrator shall be liable on his bond to any party interested for the injury sustained by the estate through his neglect.

This section is directory and court may revoke letters in its discretion, Clancy v. McElroy 30 W. 567.

§9926. Additional Inventory on Discovery of Further Assets. §100. Whenever property not mentioned in any inventory shall come to the knowledge and possession of the executor or administrator, he shall cause the same to be appraised in the manner prescribed in this act, and an additional inventory to be returned, subscribed and sworn to as is provided in this act, as soon as practicable after the discovery thereof, and the making of such inventory may be enforced, after notice, by attachment to which may be added the revocation of the letters.

Informal additional inventory sustained, Ackerson v. Orchard 7 W. 377.

§9927. Embezzlement Prior to Letters. §101. If any person, before the granting of letters testamentary or of administration, shall embezzle or alienate any of the moneys, goods, chattels, or effects of any deceased person, he shall stand chargeable, and be liable to the executor or administrator of the estate, in the value of the property so embezzled or alienated, together with any damage occasioned thereby, to be recovered for the benefit of the estate.

§9928. Discovery of Concealed or Embezzled Property. §102. The court shall have authority to bring before it any person or persons suspected of having in his possession or having concealed, embezzled, conveyed or disposed of any of the property of the estate, or who has in his possession or within his knowledge any conveyances, bonds, contracts, or other writings which contain evidence of or may tend to establish the right, title, interest or claim of the deceased in and to any property. If such person be not in the county in which the letters were granted, he may be cited and examined either before the court of the county where found or before the court issuing the order of citation, and if he be found innocent of the charges he shall be entitled to recover costs of the estate, which costs shall be fees and mileage of witnesses, statutory attorneys fees, and such per diem and mileage for the person so charged as allowed to witnesses in civil proceedings. Such party may be brought before the court by means of citation such as the court may choose to issue, and if he refuse to answer such interrogatories as may be put to him touching such matters, the court may commit him to the county jail, there to remain until he shall be willing to make such answers.

Ownership of property may be tried. In re Martin's Estate 82 W. 226.

§9930. Books of Record. §2. There shall be kept in the office of the clerk of the superior court the following books of record for probate matters:

1. A journal, in which shall be entered all orders, decrees and judgments made by the court, or the judge thereof, and the minutes of the court, in probate proceedings.

2. A record of wills, in which shall be recorded all wills admitted to probate.

3. A record of letters testamentary and of administration, in which all letters testamentary and of administration shall be recorded.

4. A record of bonds, in which all bonds and obligations required by law to be approved by the court or judge in matters of probate shall be recorded.

5. A record of claims, in which at least one page shall be given to each estate or case, wherein shall be entered, under the title of each estate or case, in separate columns properly ruled: 1, the names of claimants against the estate; 2, the date of filing proof of claim; 3, the amount claimed; 4, the amount allowed; 5, the date of allowance; 6, the nature of the claim; 7, the amount paid; 8, the number of the voucher for each payment; 9, the date of filing the voucher; 10, the date of disallowance and of notice of disallowance.

6. A memorandum of the files, in which at least one page shall be given to each estate or case, wherein shall be noted each paper filed in the case, except proof of claims and vouchers noted in record of claims, and the date of filing each paper.

7. A record of marriages, in which certificates of all marriages solemnized in the county shall be recorded.

General Provisions.

§9931. Jurisdiction of Courts in Administration of Estates. §219. It is the intention of this act that the courts mentioned shall have full and ample power and authority to administer and settle all estates of decedents, minors, insane and mentally incompetent persons in this act mentioned. If the provisions of this [act] with reference to the administration and settlement of such estate should in any cases and under any circumstances be inapplicable or insufficient or doubtful, the court shall nevertheless have full power and authority to proceed with such administration and settlement in any manner and way which to the court seems right and proper, all to the end that such estates may be by the court administered upon and settled.

§9932. Exercise of Powers. §220. In exercising any of the jurisdiction or powers by this act given or intended to be given, the court is authorized to make, issue and cause to be filed or served, any and all manner and kinds of orders, judgments, citations, notices, summons, and other writs and processes not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, which may be considered proper or necessary in the exercise of such jurisdiction.

LETTERS.

IX.—Letters Testamentary and of Administration.

§9933. Letters to Executors—Refusal to Serve. §47. After probate of any will, letters testamentary shall be granted to the persons therein appointed executors. If a part of the persons thus appointed refuse to act, or be disqualified, the letters shall be granted to the other persons appointed therein. If all such persons refuse to act, letters of administration with the will annexed shall be granted to the person to whom administration would have been granted if there had been no will.

Court acquires jurisdiction by petition of son and appoint another though heirs pro- one not entitled and may reject such per- test, In re Wilbur's Estate 8 W. 35.

§9934. Objections to Executors Named. §48. Any person interested in a will may file objections in writing to the granting of letters testamentary to the persons named as executors, or any of them, and the objection shall be heard and determined by the court.

§9935. Community Property, How Administered. §49. A surviving spouse shall be entitled to administer upon the community property, notwithstanding any provisions of the will to the contrary, if the court find such spouse to be otherwise qualified; but if such surviving spouse do not make application for such appointment within forty days immediately following the death of the deceased spouse, he or she shall be considered as having waived his or her right to administer upon such community property. If any person, other than the surviving spouse, make application for letters testamentary on such property, prior to the expiration of such forty days, then the court, before making any such appointment, shall require notice of such application to be given the said surviving spouse, for such time and in such manner as the court may determine, unless such applicant show to the satisfaction of the court that there is no surviving spouse or that he or she has in writing waived the right to administer upon such community property.

§9936. Minority or Absence of Executor. §50. If the executor be a minor or absent from the state, letters of administration with the will annexed shall be granted, during the time of such minority or absence, to some other person unless there be another executor who shall accept the trust, in which case the estate shall be administered by such other executor until the disqualification shall be removed, when such minor, having arrived at full age, or such absentee, having returned, shall be admitted as joint executor with the former.

§9937. Revocation of Letters by Discovery of Will. §51. If after letters of administration are granted a will of the deceased be found and probate thereof be granted, the letters shall be revoked and letters testamentary or of administration with the will annexed, shall be granted.

§9938. Annulment of Letters. §52. The court appointing any executor or administrator shall have authority for any cause deemed sufficient, to cancel and annul such letters, and appoint other executors or administrators in the place of those removed.

§9939. Effect of Death of Executor. §53. No executor of an executor shall, as such, be authorized to administer upon the estate of the first testator, but on the death of the sole or surviving executor of any last will, letters of administration with the will annexed, on the estate of the first testator left unadministered, shall be issued.

§9940. Powers of Executor When Associates Are Disqualified. §54. When any of the executors named shall not qualify or having qualified shall become disqualified or be removed, the remaining executor or executors shall have the authority to perform every act and discharge every trust required by the will, and their acts shall be effectual for every purpose.

§9941. Authority of Administrators with Will Annexed. §55. Administrators with the will annexed shall have the same authority as the executor named in the will would have had, and their acts shall be as effectual for every purpose.

Estate having been administered in another state held no necessity for administration in his state after thirteen years—allowance to widow—certiorari, State ex rel. Speckart v. Superior Court 48 W. 141.

§9942. Execution of Letters Testamentary and With Will Annexed. §56. Letters testamentary and of administration with the will annexed shall be signed by the clerk of the court, and under the seal of the court, and a copy of the will shall be attached to the letters.

§9943. Record and Certification of Letters. §57. The clerk shall record, in a well-bound book kept for that purpose, all letters testamentary and of administration before they are delivered to the executors or administrators, and shall certify on such letters that they have been so recorded.

§9944. Copies as Evidence. §58. Copies of such letters, or copies of the records thereof, certified by the clerk, and under the seal of the superior court, shall be received as evidence in any court in this state.

In the superior court of the county of.....

Whereas, the last will of A B, deceased, was, on the.....day of....., A. D....., duly exhibited, proven, and recorded in our said superior court, a copy of which is hereto annexed; and whereas, it appears in and by said will that C D is appointed executor thereon, and, whereas, said C D has duly qualified, now, therefore, know all men by these presents, that we do hereby authorize the said C D to execute said will according to law.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this.....day of....., A. D. 19....

§9946. Form With Will Annexed. §60. Letters of administration with the will annexed shall be in substantially the same form as provided for letters testamentary.

§9947. Persons Entitled to Letters of Administration. §61. Administration of the estate of the person dying intestate shall be granted to some one or more of the persons hereinafter mentioned, and they shall be respectively entitled in the following order:

1. The surviving husband or wife, or such person as he or she may request to have appointed.

2. The next of kin in the following order: 1, child or children; 2, father or mother; 3, brothers or sisters; 4, grandchildren.

3. One or more of the principal creditors.

4. If the persons so entitled shall neglect for more than forty days after the death of the intestate to present a petition for letters of administration, or if there be no relatives or next of kin or they waive their right, or if there be no principal creditor or creditors, then the court may appoint any suitable person to administer such estate.

Court may appoint on petition of any one interested, if appointee refuses appoint another, Wilkie v. Bailey 74 W. 241.

Right of creditor to appointment of administrator depends on the nonaction of other classes given a preference right, Larson v. Stewart, 69 W. 223.

The right of a surviving spouse to administer waived by failure to apply within 40 days, Koloff v. C. M. & P. S. Ry., 71 W. 543.

"Creditors" mean those at time of death, id.

Husband neglecting to apply for three years cannot resist appointment of another, In re Sutton's Estate 31 W. 340.

§9948. Application for Letters. §62. Application for letters of administration shall be made by petition in writing, signed and verified by the applicant or his attorney, and filed with the court, which petition shall set forth the facts essential to giving the court jurisdiction of the case, and state, if known, the names, ages and residence of the heirs of the deceased and that the deceased died without a will.

State ex rel. Meyer v. Clifford 78 W. 555.

Failure to verify petition is not fatal, McCoy v. Ayres 2 W. T. 203.

§9949. Notice of Hearing—Exceptions as to Petition by Surviving Spouse. §63. When a petition for letters of administration or for letters of administration with the will annexed shall be filed, the clerk must give notice thereof, by causing notices to be posted in at least three public places in the county, one of which must be at the place where the court is held, containing the name of the decedent, the name of the applicant and the time at which the petition will be heard. Such notice shall be given at least ten days before the time fixed for such hearing, and the clerk shall have authority to fix the time of such hearing: Provided, however, No notice of hearing need be given or posted if the petition be presented by or on behalf of the surviving husband or wife, and on the presentation of such petition by or on behalf of the surviving husband or wife, the court may at once make appointment and cause letters of administration to be issued: Provided, further, That if there be a surviving spouse and the petition is presented by anyone other than the surviving spouse prior to forty days after the death of the intestate, notice to such surviving spouse shall be given as hereinbefore provided.

§9950. Special Notice to Heirs, Legatees or Devisees. §64. At any time after the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of any decedent, any person interested in said estate as heir, devisee or legatee, or attorney for such heir, devisee or legatee, may serve upon the executor or administrator (or upon the attorney for such executor or administrator) and file with the clerk of the court wherein the administration of such estate is pending, a written request stating that he desires special notice of any or all of the following named matters, steps or proceedings in the administration of said estate, to-wit: 1. Filing of petitions for sales, leases or mortgages of any property of the estate. 2. Filing of accounts. 3. Filing of petitions for distribution. 4. Petitions by the executor or administrator for family allowances and homesteads.

Mode of Giving Notice—Finding as to Regularity. Such request shall state the postoffice address of such heir, devisee or legatee, or his attorney, and thereafter a brief notice of the filing of any of such petitions or accounts, except petitions for sale of perishable property, or other personal property which will incur expense or loss by keeping, shall be addressed to such heir, devisee or legatee, or his attorney, at his stated postoffice address, and deposited in the United States postoffice, with the postage thereon prepaid, at least five days before the hearing on such petition or account; or personal service of such notices may be made on such heir, devisee or legatee, or attorney, not less than five days before such hearing, and such personal service shall be equivalent to such deposit in the postoffice, and proof of mailing or of personal service must be filed with the clerk before the hearing of such petition or account. If upon the hearing it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the said notice has been regularly given, the court shall so find in its order or judgment, and such judgment shall be final and conclusive.

§9951. Form of Letters of Administration. §65. Letters of administration shall be signed by the clerk, and be under the seal of the court, and may be substantially in the following form:

State of Washington, county of .....

Whereas, A. B., late of ..... on or about the ..... day of ..... A. D. .... died intestate, leaving at the time of his death, property in this state subject to administration: Now, therefore, know all men by these presents, that we do hereby appoint ..... administrator upon said estate, and whereas said administrator has duly qualified, hereby authorize him to administer the same according to law.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this ..... day of .....

§9952. Oath of Executor or Administrator. §66. Before letters testamentary or of administration are issued to the executor or administrator, he must take and subscribe an oath, before some person authorized to administer oaths, that he will perform, according to law, the duties of his trust as executor or administrator, which oath must be recorded.

§9953. Bond of Executor or Administrator—Increase or Reduction of Bond. §67. Every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue must, before receiving them, execute a bond to the State of Washington, except as hereinafter provided, with such surety, or sureties, as the court may judge sufficient, which bond shall be in a sum to be fixed by the court, and which bond must be conditioned that the executor or administrator shall faithfully execute the duties of the trust according to law, and such bond shall be approved by the court. The court may at any time and for any reason require the executor or administrator to give additional bonds, the same to be conditioned and to be approved as above provided: Provided, The court may allow a reduction of the bond upon proper showing.

§9954. Citation and Examination of Sureties—Costs. §68. Before the judge approves any bond required under this chapter, and after its approval, he may, of his own motion, or upon the motion of any person interested in the estate, supported by affidavit that the sureties, or some one or more of them, are not worth as much as they have justified to, order a citation to issue, requiring such sureties to appear before him at a designated time and place, to be examined touching their property and its value; and the judge must, at the same time, cause notice to be issued to the executor or administrator, requiring his appearance on the return of the citation, and on its return he may examine the sureties and such witnesses as may be produced touching the property of the sureties and its value; and if upon such examination he is satisfied that the bond is insufficient he must require sufficient additional security. If the bond and sureties are found by the court to be sufficient, the costs incident to such hearing shall be taxed against the party instituting such hearing. As a part of such costs the sureties appearing shall be allowed such fees and mileage as witnesses are allowed in civil proceedings: Provided, That when the citation herein referred to is issued on the motion of the court, no costs shall be imposed.

§9955. Waiver of Bond. §69. When it is expressly provided in the will that no bonds shall be required of the executor, letters testamentary may issue and sale of real estate be made and confirmed without any bond, unless the court for good cause requires one to be executed; but the executor may at any time afterwards, if it appear from any cause necessary or proper, be required to file a bond, as in other cases.

§9956. Additional Bond May Be Required. §70. Any person interested may at any time by verified petition to the court, or otherwise, complain of the sufficiency of any bond or sureties thereon, and the court may upon such petition, or upon its own motion, and with or without hearing upon the matter, require the executor or administrator to give a new, or additional bond, or bonds, and in all such matters the court may act in its discretion and make such orders and citations as to it may seem right and proper in the premises.

§9957. Persons Excluded as Sureties. §71. No judge of the superior court, no sheriff, clerk of a court, or deputy of either, and no attorney at law shall be taken as surety on any bond required to be taken in any proceeding in probate.

§9958. Record of Bonds. §72. The clerk shall record in a book kept for that purpose all bonds given by executors and administrators, and preserve the originals in regular file.

§9959. Defective Bonds—Successive Recoveries. §73. No bond required under the provisions of this chapter, and intended as such bond, shall be void for want of form, recital or condition; nor shall the principal or surety on such account be discharged, but all the parties thereto shall be held and bound to the full extent contemplated by the law requiring the same, to the amount specified in such bond. In all actions on such defective bond the plaintiff may state its legal effect in the same manner as though it were a perfect bond. The bond shall not be void upon the first recovery, but may be sued and recovered upon, from time to time, by any person aggrieved in his own name, until the whole penalty is exhausted.

"against" him held good, Rupe v. Kemp 99 W. 371.

§9960. Revocation of Letters—Citation and Hearing. §74. Whenever the court has reason to believe that any executor or administrator has wasted, embezzled, or mismanaged, or is about to waste, or embezzle the property of the estate committed to his charge, or has committed, or is about to commit a fraud upon the estate, or is incompetent to act, or is permanently removed from the state, or has wrongfully neglected the estate, or has neglected to perform any acts as such executor or administrator, or for any other cause or reason which to the court appears necessary, it shall have power and authority, after citation and hearing to revoke such letters. The manner of the citation and of the service of the same and of the time of hearing shall be wholly in the discretion of the court, and if the court for any such reasons revokes such letters the powers of such executor or administrator shall at once cease, and it shall be the duty of the court to immediately appoint some other executor or administrator, as in this act provided.

§9961. Hearings in Chambers. §75. The applications and acts authorized by the foregoing section in this chapter may be heard and determined in court or at chambers. All orders made therein must be entered upon the minutes of the court.

§9962. Powers of Remaining Executors. §76. If there be more than one executor or administrator of an estate, and the letters to part of them be revoked or surrendered, or a part die or in any way become disqualified, those who remain shall perform all the duties required by law.

§9963. Administrator De Bonis Non. §77. If the executor or administrator of an estate shall die, resign, or the letters be revoked before the settlement of the estate, letters of administration of the goods remaining unadministered shall be granted to those to whom administration would have been granted if the original letters had not been obtained, or the person obtaining them had renounced administration, and the administrator de bonis non shall perform the like duties and incur the like liabilities as the former executors or administrators.

§9964. Accounting on Death or Resignation of Executor or Administrator. §78. If any executor or administrator resign, or his letters be revoked, or he die, he or his representatives shall account for, pay, and deliver to his successor, or to the surviving or remaining executors or administrators, all money and property of every kind, and all rights, credits, deeds, evidences of debt, and papers of every kind, of the deceased, at such time and in such manner as the court shall order on final settlement with such executor or administrator or his legal representatives.

Administrator de bonis non may sue former executor or his personal representatives for rents, etc., Denton v. Schneider 80 W. 506.

Husband was administrator of wife's estate and died his administrator took wife's community estate; held that second administrator of wife could not claim property after standing by for a year and a half, In re Hill's Estate 6 W. 285.

§9965. Proceedings Against Delinquent Executors. §79. The succeeding administrator, or remaining executor or administrator, may proceed by law against any delinquent former executor or administrator, or his personal representatives, or the sureties of either, or against any other person possessed of any part of the estate.

§9966. Limitation of Action Against Sureties. §80. All actions against sureties shall be commenced within six years after the revocation or surrender of letters of administration or death of the principal.

XIII.—Settlement of Estates Without Administration.

§9967. Settlement Without Court—Order of Distribution—Refusal or Disqualification of Executor Named—Mismanagement. §92. In all cases where it is provided in the last will and testament of the deceased that the estate shall be settled in a manner provided in such last will and testament, and that such estate shall be settled without the intervention of any court or courts, and where it duly appears to the court, by the inventory filed, and other proof, that the estate is fully solvent, which fact may be established by an order of the court on the filing of the inventory, it shall not be necessary to take out letters testamentary or of administration, except to admit the will to probate and to file a true inventory of all the property of such estate and give notice to creditors and to the state board or person having charge of the collection of inheritance tax, in the manner required by existing laws. After the probate of any such will and the filing of such inventory all such estates may be managed and settled without the intervention of the court, if the last will and testament shall so provide. But when the estate is ready to be closed the court, upon application, shall have authority and it shall be its duty, to make and cause to be entered a decree finding and adjudging that all debts have been paid, finding and adjudging also the heirs and those entitled to take under the will and distributing the property to the persons entitled to the same, such decree to be made after notice given as provided for like decrees in the estates of persons dying intestate: Provided, however, In all cases, if the party named in such will as executor shall decline to execute the trust or shall die or be otherwise disabled for any cause from acting as such executor, then letters testamentary or of administration shall issue and the estate be settled as in other cases: And provided further, If the person named in the will shall fail to execute the trust faithfully and to take care and promote the interest of all parties, then, upon petition of a creditor of such estate, or of any of the heirs, or of any person on behalf of any minor heir, it shall be the duty of the court to cite such person having the management of such estate to appear before such court, and if, upon hearing of such petition it shall appear that the trust in such will is not faithfully discharged, and that the parties interested, or any of them have been or are about to be damaged by such actual doings of the executor, then, in the discretion of the court, administration may be had and required as is now required in the administration of estates, and in all such cases the costs of the citation and hearing shall be charged against the party failing and neglecting to execute the trust as required in such will.

§9968. Powers of Non-Intervention Executors. §93. Executors acting under wills such as are mentioned in the last preceding section shall have power, after the filing of an inventory of the estate, if the said estate has been adjudged solvent, to mortgage, lease, sell and convey the real and personal property of the testator without an order of the court for that purpose and without notice, approval or confirmation, and in all other respects administer and settle the estate without the intervention of the court.

§9969. Right to Possession and Management. §94. Every executor or administrator shall, after having qualified, by giving bond as hereinbefore provided, have a right to the immediate possession of all the real as well as personal estate of the deceased, and may receive the rents and profits of the real estate until the estate shall be settled or delivered over, by order of the court, to the heirs or devisees, and shall keep in tenantable repair all houses, buildings and fixtures thereon, which are under his control.

PARTNERSHIPS.

XII.—Partnerships.

§9970. Inventory of Partnership Property. §88. The executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person who was a member of a co-partnership, shall include in the inventory, in a separate schedule, the whole of the property of such co-partnership; and the appraisers shall estimate the value thereof and also the value of such deceased person's individual interest in the partnership property.

Administration by Surviving Partner—Accounting to General Administrator. The whole of the partnership property shall be administered by such executor or administrator, unless the surviving partner shall within five days from the filing of the inventory, or such further time as the court may allow, apply for the administration thereof. If he so apply, he shall be entitled to administer the partnership property if the court find him to be qualified. If letters of administration be issued to such partner, he shall give such bond as the court may require. He shall be denominated the administrator of the partnership and shall give such notice to the partnership creditors as general administrators are required to give and shall settle the partnership estate in the same manner as is or shall be provided for the settlement of estates of deceased persons, except he shall account to the general executor or administrator for the interest of the deceased in the partnership property.

§9971. Purchase of Deceased Partner's Interest by Survivor—Protection Against Partnership Liabilities. §89. The surviving partner, whether he be administrator or not, shall have the right at any time to petition the court to purchase the interest of such deceased in any or all of the personal property of the partnership. Upon such petition being presented it shall be the duty of the court, in such manner as it may see fit, to learn and by order to fix the value of the interest of the deceased over and above all partnership debts and obligations, in such partnership personal property, and the terms and conditions upon which such surviving partner may purchase, and thereafter such surviving partner shall have the preference right for such length of time as the court may fix, to purchase the interest of such deceased partner at the price and upon the terms and conditions fixed by the court. It shall be the duty of the court to make such orders as it may deem proper or necessary to protect the estate of the deceased against any liability for partnership debts or obligations.

§9972. Authority to Survivor to Operate Business. §90. The court shall have authority, in instances where it is deemed advisable, to authorize the administrator of the partnership property to continue to operate any going business pending the settlement of the partnership estate or the purchase by the surviving partner of the interest of the deceased partner.

§9973. Administration Where Survivor Does Not Act. §91. In case the surviving partner is not appointed administrator of the partnership property, the administration thereof shall devolve upon the executor or administrator and the court shall have power to require the surviving partner to deliver the partnership property and evidences thereof to the administrator or executor.

Limitation of time warrants certiorari to review refusal to grant letters to partner, State ex rel. Keasal v. Superior Court 76 W. 291.

§9975. Sales of Personal Property—Mortgage or Pledge. §123. The court may at any time order any personal property of the estate sold for the preservation of such property or for the payment of the debts of the estate or the expenses of administration or for the purpose of discharging any obligation of the estate or for any other reason which may to the court seem right and proper, and such order may be made either upon or without petition therefor, and such sales may be either at public auction or private sale and with or without notice of such sale, as the court may determine, and upon such terms and conditions as the court may decide upon. No notice of petition for sale of any personal property need be given, except as provided in [§9950] section 64 hereof, unless the court expressly orders such notice. Where personal property is sold prior to appraisal, the sale price shall be deemed the value for appraisal. Personal property may be mortgaged or pledged for the same reasons and purposes, and in the same manner as is hereinafter provided for real property.

§9976. Sale or Mortgage of Realty—Petition—Hearing—Petition Not Essential. §124. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that any portion or all of the real property should be sold or mortgaged for the purpose of raising money to pay the debts and obligations of the estate, the expenses of administration, inheritance tax or for the support of the family, the court may order the sale or mortgage of such portion of the real property as appears to the court necessary for the purpose aforesaid. It shall be the duty of the executor or administrator to present a petition to the court giving a description of all the property of the estate and its character, the amount of the debts, expenses and obligations of the estate and such other things as will tend to assist the court in determining the necessity for the sale or mortgage and the amount thereof. Unless the court shall by order expressly so provide, no notice of the hearing of such petition for sale or mortgage need be given, except as provided in [§9950] section 64 hereof; if, however, the court should order notice of such hearing, it shall determine upon the kind, character and time thereof. At the hearing of such petition the court may have brought before it such testimony or information as it may see fit to receive, for the purpose of determining whether it should order any of the property of the estate sold or mortgaged. The absence of any allegation in the petition shall not deprive the court of jurisdiction to order said sale or mortgage, and the court may, if it see fit, order such sale or mortgage or both without any petition having been previously presented.

§9977. Order Directing Mortgage — Mortgage Not Impaired by Irregularities. §125. If the court should determine that it is necessary or proper, for any of the said purposes, to mortgage any or all of said property, it may make an order directing the executor or administrator to mortgage such thereof as it may determine upon, and such order shall contain the terms and conditions of such transaction and authorize the executor or administrator to execute and deliver his note or notes and secure the same by mortgage, and thereafter it shall be the duty of such executor or administrator to comply with such order. The executor or administrator shall not deliver any such note, mortgage or other evidence of indebtedness until he has first presented same to the court and obtained its approval of the form. Every mortgage so made and approved shall be effectual to mortgage and encumber all the right, title and interest of the said estate in the property described therein at the time of the death of the said decedent, or acquired by his estate, and no irregularity in the proceedings shall impair or invalidate any mortgage given under such order of the court and approved by it.

§9978. Order Directing Sale. §126. If the court should determine that it is necessary to sell any or all of the real estate for the purposes mentioned in this act, then it may make and cause to be entered an order directing the executor or administrator to sell so much of the real estate as the court may determine necessary for the purposes aforesaid. Such order shall give a particular description of the property to be sold and the terms of such sale and shall provide whether such property shall be sold at public or private sale. The court shall order sold that part of the real estate which is generally devised, rather than any part which may have been specifically devised, but the court may, if it appears necessary, sell any or all of the real estate so devised. After the giving of such order it shall be the duty of the administrator or executor to sell such real estate in accordance with the order of the court and as in this act provided with reference to the public or private sales of real estate.

Sale out of order as directed, held valid, In re Bryant's Estate 38 W. 337.

§9979. Sales of Realty at Public Auction. §127. When real property is directed to be sold at public auction, notice of the time and place of such sale shall be posted in not less than three public places in the county where the property or some part thereof is situated, at least twenty days before the day of sale, and such notice shall be published in some newspaper published in said county, if there be one, and if none, then in such newspaper or newspapers as the court may by order direct, once a week for three successive weeks before such sale, in which notices the property ordered sold shall be described with proper certainty. At the time and place named in such notices for the said sale, the executor or administrator shall proceed to sell the property upon the terms and conditions ordered by the court, and to the highest and best bidder. All sales of real estate at public auction shall be made at the front door of the court house of the county in which the lands are, unless the court shall by order otherwise direct.

Sales are proceedings in rem and personal notice not necessary even to spouse Ryan v. Ferguson 3 W. 356.

§9980. Postponement of Sale. §128. The executor or administrator, should he deem it for the best interests of all concerned, may postpone such sale to a time fixed but not to exceed twenty days, and such postponement shall be made by proclamation of the executor or administrator at the time and place first appointed for the sale; if there be an adjournment of such sale for more than three days, then it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator to cause written notice of such adjournment to be posted at the place of posting the original notices of sale in addition to making such proclamation.

§9981. Private Sale of Realty—Notice—Written Bids Required—Shortening Time of Notice. §129. When a sale of real property is ordered to be made at private sale, notice of the same must be posted in three public places in the county in which the property or part thereof is situated, and published in a newspaper, if there be one printed in the same county; if none, then in such newspaper as the court may direct; such notice to be posted at least two weeks and be published once a week for at least two successive weeks before the day on or after which the sale is to be made, in which the lands and tenements to be sold must be described with common certainty. The notice must state the day on or after which the sale will be made and the place where offers or bids will be received. The day last referred to must be at least fifteen days from the first publication of notice and the sale must not be made before that day, but must be made within six months thereafter. The bids or offers must be in writing, and may be left at the place designated in the notice or delivered to the executor or administrator personally, or may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court to which the return of sale must be made, at any time after the first publication of the notice and before the making of the sale. If it be shown that it will be for the best interest of the estate the court or judge may, by an order, shorten the time of notice, which shall not, however, be less than one week, and may provide that the sale may be made on or after a day less than fifteen, but not less than eight days from the first publication of the notice of sale, and the sale may be made to correspond with such order.

§9982. Sale Must Bring 90% of Appraised Value—Reappraisement. §130. No sale of real estate at private sale shall be confirmed by the court unless the sum offered is at least ninety per cent of the appraised value thereof, nor unless such real estate shall have been appraised within one year immediately prior to such sale. If it has not been so appraised, or if the court is satisfied that the appraisement is too high or too low, appraisers may be appointed, and they must make an appraisement thereof in the same manner as in the case of the original appraisement of the estate, and which appraisement may be made at any time before the sale, or the confirmation thereof.

§9983. Return of Sale—Approval by Court—Resale. §131. The executor or administrator making any sale of real estate, either at public or private sale, shall within ten days after making such sale file with the clerk of the court his return of such sale, the same being duly verified. At any time after the expiration of ten days from the filing of such return the court may without notice approve and confirm such sale and direct proper instruments of transfer to be executed and delivered. But if the court shall be of the opinion that the proceedings were unfair, or that the sum obtained was disproportionate to the value of the property sold, or if made at private sale that it did not sell for at least ninety per cent of the appraised value as in the preceding section provided, and that a sum exceeding said bid by at least ten per cent exclusive of the expense of a new sale, may be obtained, the court may refuse to approve or confirm such sale and may order a resale. On a resale, notice shall be given and the sale shall be conducted in all respects as though no previous sale had been made.

Fire insurance policy void after confirmation and before deed, Moller v. Niagara Fire Ins. Co. 54 W. 439.

378. A sale confirmed will convey title regardless of recitals of deed, Ryan v. Ferguson 3 W. 368.

§9984. Offer of Increased Bid. §132. If, at any time before confirmation of any such sale, any person shall present to the court or file with the clerk of the court a bid on such property for an amount equal to ten per cent higher than the bid upon which sale was made by the executor or administrator, and shall deposit with the court or the clerk not less than twenty per cent of such bid, the same to be forfeited to the estate unless such bidder shall comply with his bid, then it shall be the duty of the court to cause the former successful bidder to be informed of such increased bid and to give such former successful bidder an opportunity to raise his bid higher than the bid of said subsequent bidder, and if such former successful bidder fails within the time fixed by the court to raise his bid as aforesaid, the property may be sold to such subsequent bidder, or if such first successful bidder should raise his bid as herein provided then the property may be sold to him.

§9985. Order for Conveyance. §133. Upon the confirmation of any such sale the court shall direct the executor or administrator to make, execute, and deliver instruments conveying the title to the person to whom such property may be sold, and such instruments of conveyance shall be deemed to convey all the estate, rights and interests of the testator or intestate at the death of the deceased, and any interest acquired by the estate.

§9986. Confirmation Conclusive as to Regularity. §134. No petition or allegation thereof for the sale of real estate shall be considered jurisdictional, and confirmation by the court of any sale shall be absolutely conclusive as to the regularity of all proceedings leading up to and including such sale, and no instrument of conveyance of real estate made after confirmation of sale by the court shall be open to attack upon any grounds whatsoever except for fraud, and the confirmation by the court of any such sale shall be conclusive proof that all statutory provisions and all orders of the court with reference to such sale have been complied with.

§9987. Sale or Mortgage of Realty to Pay Legacy. §135. When a testator shall have given any legacy by will that is effectual to charge real estate, and his goods, chattels, rights and credits shall be insufficient to pay such legacy, together with the debts and charges of administration, the executor or administrator, with the will annexed, may obtain an order to sell or mortgage his real estate for that purpose in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as prescribed in this chapter in case of a sale or mortgage for the payments of the debts.

§9988. Insufficiency of Estate to Pay Debts. §136. If the provision made by the will or the estate appropriated be not sufficient to pay the debts and expenses of administration and family expenses, such part of the estate as shall not have been disposed of by the will, if any, shall be appropriated for that purpose, according to the provisions of this chapter.

§9989. Liability of Devises and Legacies for Debts. §137. The estate, real and personal, given by the will to any legatees or devisees, shall be held liable for the payment of the debts, the expenses of administration and allowances to the family, in proportion to the value or amount of the several devises or legacies, if there shall not be other sufficient estate, except that specific devises or legacies may be exempted, if it appear to the court necessary to carry into effect the intention of the testator.

§9990. Contribution Among Devisees and Legatees. §138. When the estate given by any will has been sold for the payment of debts and expenses, all the devisees and legatees shall be liable to contribute, according to their respective interests, to any devisee or legatee from whom the estate devised to him may be taken for the payments of the debts or expenses; and the court, when distribution is made, shall, by decree for that purpose, settle the amount of the several liabilities and decree how much each person shall contribute.

§9991. Sale of Decedent's Contract Interest in Lands. §139. If the deceased person at the time of his death was possessed of a contract for the purchase of lands, his interest in such lands under such contract may be sold on the application of his executor or administrator in the same manner as if he died seized of such lands; and the same proceedings may be had for that purpose as are prescribed in this act in respect to lands of which he died seized, except as hereinafter provided.

§9992. Purchaser's Bond to Secure Payments Coming Due. §140. Such sale shall be made subject to all payments that may thereafter become due on such contract, and if there be any such payments thereafter to become due such sale shall not be confirmed by the court until the purchaser shall have executed a bond to the executor or administrator for his benefit and indemnity, and for the benefit and indemnity of the persons entitled to the interest of the deceased in lands so contracted for, in double the whole amount of the payments thereafter to become due on such contract, with such sureties as the court shall approve.

§9993. Conditions of Bond. §141. Such bond shall be conditioned that the purchaser will make all payments for such land as shall become due after the date of such sale, and will fully indemnify the executor or administrator and the person so entitled against all demands, costs and charges and expenses, by reason of any covenant or agreement contained in such contract; but if there be no payments thereafter to become due on such contract, no bond shall be required of the purchaser.

§9994. Assignment of Decedent's Contract. §142. Upon the confirmation of such sale, the executor or administrator shall execute to the purchaser an assignment of the contract, which assignment shall vest in the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, all the right, title and interest of the persons entitled to the interest of the deceased in the land sold at the time of the sale, and such purchaser shall have the same rights and remedies against the vendor of such lands as the deceased would have had if living.

§9995. Redemption of Mortgaged Estate. §143. If any person die having mortgaged any real or personal estate, and shall not have devised the same, or provided for any redemption thereof by will, the court, upon the application of any person interested, may order the executor or administrator to redeem the estate out of the assets, if it should appear to the satisfaction of the court that such redemption would be beneficial to the estate and not injurious to creditors.

On the death of either spouse if redemption is not expedient property may be sold to pay mortgage, Ryan v. Ferguson 3 W. 356.

§9996. Sale or Mortgage to Effect Redemption. §144. If it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that it will be to the interest of the estate of any deceased person to sell or mortgage other personal estate or to sell or mortgage other real estate of the decedent than that mortgaged by him to redeem the property so mortgaged, the court may order the sale or mortgaging of any personal estate, or the sale or mortgaging of any real estate of the decedent which it may deem expedient to be sold or mortgaged for such purpose, which sale or mortgaging shall be conducted in all respects as other sales or mortgages of like property ordered by the court.

§9997. Sale of, If Redemption Inexpedient. §145. If such redemption be not deemed expedient, the court shall order such property to be sold at public or private sale, which sale shall be with the same notice and conducted in the same manner as required in other cases of real estate or personal property provided for in this act, and shall be sold subject to such mortgage, and the executor or administrator shall thereupon execute a conveyance thereof to the purchaser, which conveyance shall be effectual to convey to the purchaser all the right, title, and interest which the deceased had in the property, and the purchase money, after paying the expenses of the sale, shall be applied to the residue in due course of administration.

§9998. Sales Directed by Will. §146. When property is directed by will to be sold, or authority is given in the will to sell property, the executor may sell any property of the the estate without the order of the court, and without any notice, and it shall not be necessary under such circumstances to make any application to the court with reference to such sales or have the same confirmed by the court.

SPECIAL ADMINISTRATORS.

X.—Special Administrators.

§9999. Appointment of Special Administrator. §81. When, by reason of an action concerning the proof of a will, or from any other cause, there shall be a delay in granting letters testamentary or of administration, the judge may, in his discretion, appoint a special administrator (other than one of the parties) to collect and preserve the effects of the deceased; and in case of an appeal from the decree appointing such special administrator, he shall, nevertheless, proceed in the execution of his trust until he shall be otherwise ordered by the appellate court.

Hartley v Lord 38 W. 432.

Ayer 17 W. 127.

§10000. Bond. §82. Every such administrator shall, before entering on the duties of his trust, give bond, with sufficient surety or sureties, in such sum as the judge shall order, payable to the State of Washington, with condition as required of an executor or in other cases of administration.

§10001. Powers and Duties. §83. Such special administrator shall collect all the goods, chattels, and debts of the deceased, and preserve the same for the executor or administrator who shall thereafter be appointed; and for that purpose may commence and maintain suits as an administrator, and may also sell such perishable and other goods as the court shall order sold, and make family allowances under the order of the court, and he shall be allowed such compensation for his services as the said court shall deem reasonable.

Ex parte orders allowing administrator established, yet heir may resist claim—costs and attorney fees, vacated—administrator's prohibition, In re Sullivan's Estate, liable for attorney's fees—heirship not established—36 W. 217.

§10003. Non-liability to Creditors. §85. Such special administrator shall not be liable to an action by any creditor of the deceased, and the time for limitation of all suits against the estate shall begin to run from the time of granting letters testamentary or of administration in the usual form, in like manner as if such special administration had not been granted.

SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE.

XXI.—Specific Performance of Decedent's Contract.

§10005. Order for Conveyance on Application of Executor. §188. If any person, who is bound by contract, in writing, to convey any real property, shall die before making the conveyance, the superior court of the county in which the estate is being administered, may upon application of the executor or administrator, without notice, make an order authorizing and directing the executor or administrator to convey such real property to the person entitled thereto.

§10006. Petition by Party Entitled to Conveyance—Notice to Executor.

§189. If the executor or administrator fail to make such application, then any person claiming to be entitled to such conveyance under such contract, may present a petition setting forth the facts upon which such claim is predicated, and the court, or the judge thereof, shall make an order appointing a time for hearing such petition, and shall also order notice thereof and of the time of the hearing to be personally served upon the executor or administrator, by delivery to him of a copy of the same, together with a copy of the petition. If personal service cannot be had upon the executor or administrator, such service shall be made as the court may direct.

§10007. Hearing. §190. At the time appointed for such hearing, or at such other time as the same may be adjourned to, upon proof of service of the notice as herein provided, the court shall proceed to a hearing and determine the matter.

§10008. Conveyance Under Order of Court. §191. A conveyance executed under the provisions of this act shall so refer to the order authorizing the conveyance that the same may be readily found, but need not recite the record in the case generally, and the conveyance made in pursuance of such order shall pass to the grantee all the estate, right, title and interest contracted to be conveyed by the deceased, as fully as if the contracting party himself were still living and executed the conveyance in pursuance of such contract.

Commissioners to convey realty, §8094. Deed should not be executed until appeal has expired, Sander-Boman Co. v. Yesler Estate 2 W. 429.

§10009. Filing Certified Copy of Order. §192. A certified copy of the order shall be recorded with the deed in the office of the auditor of the county where the lands are, and shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the proceedings and of the authority of the executor or administrator to make such conveyance.

§10010. Action in Case of Death of Person Entitled to Conveyance. §193. If the person to whom the conveyance was to be made shall die before the commencement of the proceedings according to the provisions of this act or before the completion of the conveyance, any person who would have been entitled to the conveyance under him, as heir, devisee, or otherwise, in case the conveyance had been made according to the terms of the contract, or the executor or administrator of such deceased person, for the benefit of persons entitled, may commence such proceedings, or prosecute the same if already commenced; and the conveyance shall be so made as to vest the estate in the persons who would have been entitled to it, or in the executor or administrator for their benefit.

§10011. Depositions of Witnesses. §194. The testimony of witnesses concerning the claim may be taken by deposition whenever the deposition of such witnesses might be taken to be used in the trial of a civil action. The notice of the time and place of taking such deposition, and the manner of such taking, shall be governed as is provided for in civil actions.

VALIDATION.

§10012. Validation of Prior Probate Proceedings. §222. All probate proceedings heretofore conducted in this state, including sales and mortgages by executors, administrators and guardians, and all final settlements, made or had in conformity with the provisions of this act, or in conformity with the provisions of any prior law applicable thereto, are hereby declared valid.

§10013. Repeal—Saving Clause. §223. Sections 1278 to 1340, both inclusive, sections 1372 to 1692, both inclusive, and sections 1694 and 1320-1 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, and section 1693 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington insofar as said section is meant to affect sales hereafter to be made under this act, and all other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed: Provided, however, In all estates now in process of probate, where notice to creditors has been or is being given under any prior law, creditors shall have the time in such notices specified within which to present claims.

III.—Venue.

§10014. Venue. §6. Wills shall be proved and letters testamentary or of administration shall be granted:

1. In the county of which deceased was a resident or had his place of abode at the time of his death.
2. In the county in which he may have died, or in which any part of his estate may be, he not being a resident of the state.
3. In the county in which any part of his estate may be, he having died out of the state, and not having been a resident thereof at the time of his death.

WILLS, CONTEST OF.

V.—Will Contests.

§10017. Time of Filing—Issues—Time Extended. §15. If any person interested in any will shall appear within six months immediately following the probate or rejection thereof, and by petition to the superior court having jurisdiction contest the validity of said will, or appear to have the will proven which has been rejected, he shall file a petition containing his objections and exceptions to said will, or to the rejection thereof. Issue shall be made up, tried and determined in said court respecting the competency of the deceased to make a last will and testament, or respecting the execution by a deceased of such last will and testament under restraint or undue influence or fraudulent representations, or for any other cause affecting the validity of such will. If no person shall appear within the time aforesaid, the probate or rejection of such will shall be binding and final as to all the world: Provided, however, Every infant, person absent from the United States or of unsound mind, in whom a right to contest any will heretofore probated or rejected exists by virtue of any prior law, shall have one year from and after this act goes into effect within which to initiate such contest: Provided further, That this act shall not have the effect of shortening the period given by any prior law to persons other than those mentioned in the last above proviso, within which to contest any will probated or rejected prior to the going into effect of this act.

A bond, covenant, or agreement made for a valuable consideration by a testator to convey any property, devised or bequeathed in any last will previously made, shall not be deemed a revocation of such previous devise or bequest, but such property shall pass by the devise or bequest, subject to the same remedies on such bond, covenant, or agreement, for specific performance or otherwise, against devisees or legatees, as might be had by law against the heirs of the testator or his next of kin, if the same had descended to him.

§10028. Charges or Encumbrances Not to Effect Revocation. §31. A charge or encumbrance upon any real or personal estate for the purpose of securing the payment of money, or the performance of any covenant or agreement, shall not be deemed a revocation of any will relating to the same estate, previously executed. The devises and legacies therein contained shall pass and take effect, subject to such charge or encumbrance.

§10029. Intestacy as to Children Not Named. §32. If any person make his last will and die leaving a child or children or descendants of such child or children not named or provided for in such will, although born after the making of such will or the death of the testator, every such testator, as to such child or children not named or provided for, shall be deemed to die intestate, and such child or children or their descendants shall be entitled to such proportion of the estate of the testator, real and personal, as if he had died intestate, and the same shall be assigned to them, and all the other heirs, devisees and legatees shall refund their proportional part.

Children may be disinherited, but purpose must be definitely shown, Boman v. Boman 47 Fed. Rep. 849; reversed (C. C. A.) 49 Fed. Rep. 329.

§10030. Advancements. §33. If such child or children or their descendants, shall have an equal proportion of the testator's estate bestowed on them in the testator's lifetime, by way of advancement, they shall take nothing by virtue of the provisions of the preceding section. Nothing shall be considered an advancement unless charged in writing by the decedent as an advancement, or acknowledged in writing as such by the child or other successor or heir.

§10031. Death of Devisee Before Testator. §34. When any estate shall be devised to any child, grandchild, or other relative of the testator, and such devisee shall die before the testator, having lineal descendants, such descendants shall take the estate, real and personal, as such devisee would have done in case he had survived the testator. A spouse is not a relative under the provisions of this section.

§10032. Revival of Prior Will by Revocation of Subsequent. §35. If, after making any will, the testator shall duly make and execute a second will, the destruction, cancellation, or revocation of such second will shall not revive the first will unless it appears by the terms of such revocation that it was his intention to revive and give effect to the first will, or unless he shall duly republish his first will.

§10033. Nuncupative Wills. §36. No nuncupative will shall be good when the estate bequeathed exceeds the value of two hundred dollars ($200.00) unless the same be proved by two witnesses who were present at the making thereof, and it be proven that the testator, at the time of pronouncing the same, did bid some person present to bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect, and such nuncupative will was made at the time of the last sickness. Nothing herein contained shall prevent any mariner at sea or soldier in the military service from disposing of his wages or other personal property by nuncupative will. No real estate shall be devised by a nuncupative will.

Realty cannot be conveyed by nuncupative will, Irwin v. Rogers 91 W. 284.

Written will invalid, spoken words are not nuncupative will, Brown v. State 87 W. 44.

Lawful heirs cannot be deprived of estate by nuncupative will unless all formalities of the statute are observed and clear proof is made—will not established in this case, O'Callaghan v. O'Brien 116 Fed. Rep. 934.

§10034. Proof of Nuncupative Will. §37. No proof shall be received of any nuncupative will unless it be offered within six months after speaking the testamentary words, nor unless the words or the substance thereof be first committed to writing, and in all cases a citation issued to the widow or next of kin of the deceased that they may contest the will if they think proper.

Petition in time right not defeated be Fed. Rep. 934.

§10035. Devises, Etc., to Subscribing Witnesses. §38. All beneficial devises, legacies, and gifts whatever, made or given in any will to a subscribing witness thereto, shall be void unless there are two other competent witnesses to the same; but a mere charge on the estate of the testator for the payment of debts shall not prevent his creditors from being competent witnesses to his will. If such witness, to whom any beneficial devise, legacy or gift may have been made or given, would have been entitled to any share in the testator's estate in case the will is not established, then so much of the estate as would have descended or would have been distributed to such witness shall be saved to him as will not exceed the value of the devise or bequest made to him in the will; and he may recover the same from the devisees or legatees named in the will in proportion to and out of the parts devised and bequeathed to him.

§10036. Devises of Land. §39. Every devise of land in any will shall be construed to convey all the estate of the devisor therein which he could lawfully devise, unless it shall clearly appear by the will that he intended to convey a less estate.

The intent to convey less estate must be clear, Reeves v. School District 24 W. 282.

§10037. Estates for Life. §40. If any person, by last will, devise any real estate to any person for the term of such person's life, such devise vests in the devisee an estate for life, and without the remainder is specially devised, it shall revert to the heirs at law of the testator.

Will amended to conform to facts—in extremis defined, In re Miller's Estate 47 W. 253.

§10038. After-acquired Estates. §41. Any estate, rights or interest in lands acquired by the testator after the making of his or her will shall pass thereby, and in like manner as if owned at the time of making the will, if such manifestly appear by the will to have been the intention of the testator.

§10039. Contribution Among Legatees and Heirs. §42. When any testator in his last will shall give any chattel or real estate to any person, and the same shall be taken in execution for the payment of the testator's debts, then all the other legatees, devisees and heirs shall refund their proportional part of such loss to such person from whom the bequest shall be taken.

Failure to require that realty be placed in inventory does not estop heirs, Showalter v. Spangle 93 W. 326.

§10040. Enforcement by Court. §43. When any devisees, legatees or heirs shall be required to refund any part of the estate received by them, for the purpose of making up the share, devise or legacy of any other devisee, legatee or heir, the superior court, upon the petition of the person entitled to contribution or distribution of such estate, may order the same to be made and enforce such order.

§10041. Codicils Included in "Will." §44. The term "will," as used in this chapter, shall be so construed as to include all codicils attached to any will.

§10042. Intent of Testator Followed by Courts. §45. All courts and others concerned in the execution of last wills shall have due regard to the direction of the will, and the true intent and meaning of the testator, in all matters brought before them.

§10043. Construction of Words Importing Number and Sex. §46. Words in this chapter contained, or in this act, which import the singular number only, may also be applied to the plural of persons and things, and words importing the masculine gender only may be extended to females also, when such construction shall be necessary.

WILLS, FOREIGN.

VII.—Foreign Wills.

§10044. Admission to Probate in This State. §22. Wills probated in any other state or territory of the United States, or in any foreign country or state, shall be admitted to probate in this state on the production of a copy of such will and of the original record of probate thereof, authenticated by the attestation of the clerk of the court in which such probation was made; or if there be no clerk, by the attestation of the judge thereof, and by the seal of such officers, if they have a seal.

Devisee pending administration cannot maintain ejectment, Dunn v. Peterson 4 W. 170.

§10045. Carried into Effect Under Domestic Laws. §23. All provisions of law relating to the carrying into effect of domestic wills after probate thereof shall, so far as applicable, apply to foreign wills admitted to probate in this state.

WILLS, LOST, ETC.

VI.—Lost or Destroyed Wills.

§10046. Proof of. §20. Whenever any will be lost or destroyed, the superior court shall have power to take proof of the execution and validity of such will and to establish the same, notice to all persons interested having been first given. Such proof shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses and filed with the clerk of court.

Necessary Facts to Establish Loss or Destruction—Record of Judgment. No will shall be allowed to be proved as a lost or destroyed will unless the same shall be proved to have been in existence at the time of the death of the testator, or be shown to have been fraudulently destroyed in the lifetime of the testator, nor unless its provisions shall be clearly and distinctly proved by at least two witnesses, and when any such will shall be so established, the provisions thereof shall be distinctly stated in the judgment establishing it, and such judgment shall be recorded as wills are required to be recorded. Executors of such will or administrators with the will annexed may be appointed by the court in the same manner as is

In re Needham's Estate, 70 W. 229. vocation—allegation of existence, In re Harris' Estate 10 W. 555.

§10047. Acting Administrators Restrained Pending Establishment. §21. If, before or during the pendency of an application to prove a lost or destroyed will, letters of administration shall have been granted on the estate of the testator, or letters testamentary of any previous will of the testator shall have been granted, the court shall have authority to restrain the administrators or executors so appointed, from any acts or proceedings which would be injurious to the legatees or devisees claiming under the lost or destroyed will.

WILLS, PROBATE OF.

IV.—Custody, Proof and Probate of Wills.

§10048. Delivery of Will by Custodian—Penalty. §9. Any person having the custody or control of any will shall, within thirty days after he shall have received knowledge of the death of the testator or testatrix, deliver said will to the superior court having jurisdiction, or to the person named in the will as executor or executrix; and any executor or executrix having in his custody or control any will shall within forty days after he received knowledge of the death of the testator or testatrix either present the same for probate to the court having jurisdiction, or present the same to such court with his written refusal to serve as such executor or executrix; any person who shall wilfully violate any of the provisions of this section with intent to injure or defraud any person shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and any person who shall without reasonable excuse violate any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to any person interested in the will for damages caused by such neglect.

Nature of action for failure to deliver will—limitation. Myers v. Exchange Nat. Bank 96 W. 244. Pond v. Faust 90 W. 117. Where a will has been filed the court may probate it without formal petition, In re Pierce's Est., 63 W. 437.

Prior to death no legal action can be taken respecting will — guardian cannot compel cancellation of will of insane ward. Formal petition for probate not necessary, In re Pierce's Est., 63 W. 437.

§10049. Application for Probate—Order of Court. §10. Applications for the probate of a will and for letters testamentary, or either, may be made to the judge of the court having jurisdiction and the court may immediately hear the proofs and either probate or reject such will as the testimony may justify. Upon such hearing the court shall make and cause to be entered a formal order, either establishing and probating such will, or refusing to establish and probate the same, and such order shall be conclusive as against all the world except in the event of a contest of such will as hereinafter provided. All testimony in support of the will shall be reduced to writing, signed by the witnesses, and certified by the judge of the court.

Will is admitted when judge signs order and limitation against contest begins to run, State ex rel. Wood v. Superior Court 76 W. 27. Montrose v. Byrne 24 W. 288. In proof of will there must be proof of sanity of testator, In re Baldwin's Estate 13 W. 666.

Will can only be proven, not construed. Cited 90 W. 117.

§10050. Commission to Take Testimony of Attesting Witnesses. §11. If any witness be prevented by sickness from attending at the time any will is produced for probate, or reside out of the state or more than thirty miles from the place where the will is to be proven, such court may issue a commission annexed to such will, and directed to any judge, justice of the peace, notary public, or other person, empowering him to take and certify the attestation of such witness.

§10051. Death or Insanity of Witness. §12. When one of the witnesses to any such will shall be examined and the other witness or witnesses are dead, insane, or their residence be unknown, then proof shall be taken of the handwriting of the testator and of the witness dead, insane, or whose residence is unknown, and all such other circumstances as would tend to prove such will.

Proof of Handwriting of Testator and Witnesses. If it should appear to the satisfaction of the court that all the subscribing witnesses to any such will are dead, insane, or their residence unknown, the court shall take and receive proof of the handwriting of the testator and subscribing witnesses to the will and such other facts and circumstances as would tend to prove such will.

One witness uncontradicted will prove last will. In re Harris Estate 10 W. 555.

§10052. Filing and Recording Wills. §13. All wills shall be recorded in the book kept for that purpose, within thirty days after probate, and the original wills shall be carefully filed with the clerk, but may be withdrawn on the order of the court.

Probate gives notice if not recorded, Horton v. Barto 57 W. 477.

§10053. Record as Evidence. §14. The record of any will made, probated and recorded as herein provided, and the exemplification of such record by the clerk in whose custody the same may be, shall be received as evidence, and shall be as effectual in all cases as the original would be if produced and proven.
